The House then went into Committee of Supply and the appropriations for immigration purposes were taken up. Objection was taken to the nature of a large part of the immigration coming to Canada and Sir Richard Cartwright suggested that some stringent steps should be taken to prevent the landing of paupers. Men of this class, he said, overflowed our large cities. In Toronto on last Christmas day 9000 free dinners had been distributed. He did not say that these 9000 were all paupers or all immigrants, but a large proportion of them were and he thought the immigration system was responsible for the fact that there were in any one city so many persons willing to accept eleemosynary doles from their fellow citizens.

Messrs. Denison, Cockburn, McNeill, Tyrwhitt and Mulock took exception to the impression being given that there were 9000 or anything like that number of persons in Toronto who could be designated as paupers in any sense of the term, and pointed out that the liberality of leading citizens had placed Christmas luxuries on the tables of very many people who were far from being in absolute want.

In connection with the criticism of the class of immigrants reaching Ontario, Dr. Sproule said the people of the west would prefer that the immigrants destined for those places should be landed at Montreal, or better still at Toronto, so that the best of them would not be diverted, as was now the case, on the way west from Quebec.

Mr. Rain of Wentworth advocated the adoption of the Castle Garden system of looking after immigrants so as to keep them out of the hands of sharks such as now fleeced them of their money.

Hon. Peter Mitchell took exception to the maintenance of an agent at Hamilton as he thought there was no use for one there.

Hon. John Carling said there were a large number of immigrants who came in by way of Suspension Bridge and over the Grand Trunk Railway who stopped at Hamilton until they found work. This was a very important point, and the agent there could not well be dispensed with.

Mr. McKay corroborated the statement that Hamilton was an important distributing point for immigrants, and thought that if Mr. Mitchell was to visit that city for a short time he would be very forcibly impressed with its importance.

After recess Messrs. Mulock and Somerville brought before the House the cases of Immigration Agents Smyth and Webster, whose accounts are now being investigated before the Public Accounts Committee. It was charged that they had rendered little or no real services for the monies paid to them but had been useful only for political work in by-elections.

Hon. John Carling warmly repudiated this charge, holding that Messrs. Webster and Smyth had rendered valuable public services for every dollar received. He condemned the course taken in bringing this matter before the House when it was still under investigation by the Committee, where he thought the gentlemen affected could make satisfactory explanations. As far as he and the Government were concerned they had acted fairly and squarely with Mr. Smyth and Mr. Webster, and he had no doubt these gentlemen had acted the same with the Government.

The immigration estimates being passed, those for Public Works were next discussed, and then those for ocean and river service.

The House adjourned at 1 a.m.

THE MASCULINE MEETING.

The Ladies Confined to the Galleries.

Earnest and Pungent addresses by Messrs. Crossley and Hunter—The Sweater and Drunkard Dealt With—Meetings for all Classes of Men.

The auditorium of the George street church was filled with men last night, the ladies looking down upon them from the galleries and choir platform. The addresses were pointed directly at the male portion of the congregation.

THE SWEARER CATCHES IT.

Mr. Hunter in beginning his address asked those who would be hit pretty hard to not get angry, for all that he and Mr. Crossley said was spoken in a kindly spirit with the hope of doing them good. He read the 5th chapter of James from the 12th verse; and in his comments first defined swearing, which he styled the dialect of hell. It was enough he said to stifle the air of heaven and make the stars grow dim. Swearers looked up in the face of God, the God who has given them everything they had, and deliberately damned Him. Mr. Hunter invoked God's mercy on all swearers, whose spewings of vile oaths from their dirty mouths were enough to make the devil vomit. No gentleman would swear, he said, and he would not like to trust a man that uttered oaths and curses. At the judgment day these oaths would swing back and strike them into the depths of hell. Some try to excuse themselves by saying it is a habit and it hurts no one, and they must swear when they get angry. But they should remember that God forbids, their conscience condemns it, it's ungentlemanly and disgraceful, it is a foolish and sinful habit, and pains and disgusts all who hear it. The Lord says, "Above all things, my brethren, swear not, neither by heaven, neither by the earth, neither by any other oath." Mr. Hunter further advised girls never to marry men who would drink or swear. On reading the passage, "And the prayer of faith shall save the sick," he said he had T and P marked before it—Tried and Proven. He had proven this he said in the case of his own little child. The passage, "Confess your sins one to another," Mr. Hunter read, "Confess other people's faults one to another." The ladies, he said, were experts at that—and some of the brethren, too. But the Bible does not say that; no, it says, confess your sins one to another. With reference to the passage, "The effectual fervent prayer of the righteous man availeth much," Mr. Hunter spoke sanguinely of the power of prayer, which, he said, was always answered. On the last verse:—"He that converteth the sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death." Mr. Hunter eloquently expatiated upon the grandeur of the work of saving souls, and said his only ambition was to use himself to win sinners to Christ. He wanted to die in the harness and be carried by God into the glory of his everlasting kingdom.

MESSAGES FOR ALL MEN.

Mr. Crossley took for his text:—"Earth, earth, hear the word of the Lord." This suggested man's mortality, and he would dwell upon certain words which the Lord spoke to men. For the moralist, he quoted Romans, iii, 20:—"Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight; for the law is the knowledge of God." Obedience to the law, Mr. Crossley pointed out, does not forgive transgression, but simply discovers those transgressions. He wanted the moralist to see that the gospel was necessary to have those transgressions blotted out. Then for those men who were absorbed in business he quoted:—"Seek ye first the kingdom of the Lord and his righteousness, and all things will be added unto you." Some people talk of Christianity as if it were an incumbrance or an impediment; it was rathera help and aid in business and profession, as well as in other paths of life. To those who were seeking to be Christians secretly, fearing to come out openly, he repeated a passage from the tenth chapter of Romans:—"For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation." Some men have fear they will bring discredit upon Christianity, but these, spurred by that fear, generally sought so earnestly as to avoid all possibility of such a thing. It is usually those who have no fear who disgrace their profession. Mr. Crossley urged them to openly confess the Lord, for the more open stand they took the more they helped the cause of God. Then those who were careless and unawakened about their souls were given this message:—"Awake, thou that sleepest, arise from the dead and Christ shall give thee light." Some were waiting for a great awakening; but the more careless men were, the more important it was that they should arouse themselves and not wait to have "some feeling." The delay might be fatal. If there was enough sense and spiritual discernment in such as these to warn them of their danger, they would at once arouse themselves. Others when they are awakened by the strivings of the spirit blame it upon their "nerves." This was simply a

STRATAGEM OF THE DEVIL

to keep them away from the Lord. Then there were those men who were trying to live a Christian life before they become Christians. They should also see what the grace of God would do for them. In John, i, 9, is this:—"If we confess our sins the Lord is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness." In accepting this message they should take in this thought of cleansing as well as pardon, and thus their faith would be able to apprehend God's wonderful power. He urged them not to harbor the thought that they might fail in their efforts to live a Christian life, for it was an insult to themselves, implying that they could not be true to their best friend, Jesus, and an insult to God, for it implied that He would not be able to keep them. God not only pardons sin, but cleanses all evil desires from the heart. To those who were tampering with strong drink, —Mr. Crossley said he would not speak to drunkards, for no man ever owned the corn that he was a drunkard until he is converted and sees his failing in a sober light—he pointed out the 31st verse of the 23rd chapter of Proverbs:—"Look thou not upon the wine when it is red, when it giveth his colour in the cup, when it moveth itself aright. At the last it biteth like a serpent and stingeth like an adder." Some wise (?) people says that the Bible recommends the use of wine. It does and it does not. It recommends the use of unfermented wine and condemns the fermented. The juice of the grape is wine, though some say that it is not, and this is the wine the Lord refers to. But He condemns the wine that is red and giveth its colour in the cup; for it biteth like an adder and stingeth like a serpent. The Bible says that the man who tampers with strong drink is a fool; says so most emphatically and unequivocally. Mr. Crossley dwelt at some length upon this question, pointing out the awful and degrading slavery of drink and its fatal consequences. Was a man not a consummate fool—and villian—who deliberately goes on this dangerous road? The influence of his example may ruin many an one, who, less stable than himself, is not able to withstand the temptation and becomes a confirmed drunkard. A man may at any time take one drop too much and commit some awful deed which he shall orpiate in eternity. Mr. Crossley, in conclusion, earnestly invited the men before him to come to God and prove His power of pardoning and cleansing all unrighteousness.

At Mr. Hunter's invitation a number of men stood up as an evidence of their intention to become followers of Christ. To show how few were saved in older years, Mr. Hunter asked those who had been converted after 50 years of age to stand up and only two responded. Those converted between 40 and 50, were about a dozen; between 30 and 40, twenty or more; between 20 and 30, still more; but the majority had been converted under 20, a great many of all of these at the present series of meetings.

NOTES.

Mr. Crossley, though suffering from a cold, sang two solos, "Meet Me There," and "Papa, Come this Way."

This afternoon a children's meeting is being held in the George street church; tomorrow afternoon a meeting will be held in the Charlotte street church, and on Friday afternoon in the Ashburnham Methodist church.

Among the special requests for prayer last night were those for the young man just committed to gaol and for two fallen women just discharged from prison, in whom some Christian ladies are taking an interest.

The Belleville Intelligencer says:—"We learn from the Rev. A. Browning, who has just returned from Peterborough, that Crossley and Hunter's meetings are attended by great numbers and that the converts are of a different class than those in Belleville. Comparatively few young men are among them, but many are heads of families and persons of age and long established habits. The evangelists stay in Peterborough until Thursday, the 11th April, and then open in Woodstock the following Sunday for a six weeks campaign, finishing up their spring work in the town of Exeter about the first week in June. They speak very kindly of Belleville as one of their best fields of labor."

CABLE NOTES.

Gen. Boulanger Mysteriously Disappears But is Expected to Turn Up Again.

PARIS, April 2.—The Chamber of Deputies by a vote of 306 to 226 has rejected the Senate's proposal to prosecute summarily all papers guilty of libelling Government officials. The Cocarde says that Gen. Boulanger, being warned yesterday that the Government was preparing for a coup, arranged so that he should not fall into the Government trap and left the city. The police are mystified. "The General," adds The Cocarde, "will appear when duty requires him. It is our impression that he has hidden himself temporarily, perhaps in Brussels."

Lord Randolph Declines to Run.

LONDON, April 2.—Lord Randolph Churchill has declined to become a candidate for the vacant Parliamentary seat in Birmingham.

A Disabled Sovereign.

THE HAGUE, April 2.—In Parliament today the Prime Minister read the report of the court physician on the condition of the King, which stated that His Majesty was suffering from chronic diabetes and nephritis and was unable to fulfil the duties of a sovereign. The Prime Minister announced that the Council of State, in view of the King's condition, asked Parliament to assent to the establishment of a regency. A decision on the subject will be given tomorrow.

Many Wrecks in the Pacific.

AUCKLAND, April 2.—The recent hurricane in the South Pacific Ocean swept over 1200 geographical miles, embracing in its track the Hervey and Society groups of islands. The American ship Red Cross, from New South Wales for San Francisco, was driven ashore at Raratonga and wrecked. The crew was saved. The American ship Ada Owen was wrecked at Ouara. Her crew was saved. Wreckage from the British ship Suakim, from New South Wales for San Francisco, was seen at Aitutaki. It is supposed that the crew perished.

A Crime Like Harvey's.

LONDON, April 2.—A revolting deed has been committed by a police inspector of Hamburg, named Weichert. At a recent trial certain disclosures were made in which it was shown that the inspector had resorted to extortion. Overcome by the disgrace and the knowledge that he would be severely punished for his crime, Weichert deliberately cut the throats of his wife and 9-year old son and then ended his own life in a similar manner.

The Losses at Colborne.

COLBORNE, April 2.—The losses by the fire this morning were: Wm. Cozall, general store, on building, $3000, insured in Liverpool, London and Globe for $2000; on stock $23,000, insured in Lancashire for $9000, Royal $9000, Western $4000, Imperial $1000. The adjoining building, owned by A. F. Peterson and occupied by Crandell Bros. as general merchants, was badly damaged. Peterson's loss is fully covered by insurance in the Glasgow and London. Crandell Bros.' stock was almost a total loss by water and smoke, but is fully covered by insurance in Queen's, Phœnix and Imperial. The Brunswick Hotel, owned by D. L. Simons and occupied by Hicks & Co., was slightly damaged.

TORONTO TOPICS.

City Postal Improvements—Parkdale Aldermen Take Their Seats.

TORONTO, April 2.—The new method of collecting and delivering letters in the suburbs of Toronto went into force yesterday. At Parkdale five carriers left that office at 9 a.m. sharp, with letters for their several beats, letters then reaching their destination an hour sooner than heretofore, besides there being an extra afternoon delivery. The same at Yorkville, and in the district of which the Spadina-avenue branch office is the centre. From all parts of the city three collections of letters were received at the general post office before 4 p.m., and were delivered all over the city. The fourth collection was distributed by the letter-carriers at 4.30 p.m. in the central section of the city, lying between Simcoe and Jarvis-streets, and the Bay and the north side of Queen-street. A letter written at 10 a.m. and posted at the corner of King and Yonge-streets was delivered in Parkdale before noon, and the answer reached the house in Colborne-street to which it was addressed at 4.45 p.m. Such a system of inter-communication will be an immense convenience to the people of Toronto. The postmaster will also be enabled now to put up street letter boxes wherever a reasonable request is made for them, and where they will be in the line of collection. An immense stride has been made towards attaining the rapid interchange of letters that characterizes the work done in the largest cities in Europe and the States, and the additional expense incurred is estimated at something less than $200 per annum, or is may perhaps work out to be less costly than the old system.

Lee West, the Louisiana boodler, held here on the charge of bringing stolen money into Canada, appeared in the Police Court yesterday morning. He pleaded not guilty to the charge, elected to be tried by a jury and was defended by Mr. Reaf. The Crown asked for a week's remand in order to bring witnesses from New Orleans, which was granted. The real secret of West's being in trouble is politics. For some seven or eight years he had been a confidential clerk in the grocery store of Feehney & Co., New Orleans, and is respectably connected in the South. He is an active Democratic politician, controls a number of Democratic votes, and at the late Presidential election he bet heavily on Cleveland. He got "into the soup" over the result and to pay his bets embezzled the money of the firm he worked for. He says that there will be plenty of Southern boodlers in Canada shortly, or just as the new administration reforms the Civil Service by weeding out Democratic office holders. The detective from New Orleans, now in the city, will remain here until West's fate is decided.

At the meeting of the City Council last night the Aldermen for St. Alban's Ward (Parkdale) took their seats for the first time.

The inland revenue collections last month were $97,635, an increase of $3192 over March, 1888. The customs returns for March were $412,679, an increase of $74,608 over the same month last year.

There is generally some little fun on 'Change, but yesterday "the crowd" was gulled nicely by Mr. George A. Chapman, who succeeded in getting in an original "April-fool" joke. During "call," Mr. Chapman handed the caller a sample bag, and offered to sell one car Manitoba wheat by sample. Amongst others, Mr. James Carruthers put in his hand, and bid a dollar. Others took out some handfuls to see the grade, and were chagrined to find the "grain" was nothing more than a mixture of wheat, oats, barley and cockleshot.

Free speech in Queen's Park was discussed in a lively way at the City Council last night. The Salvation Army, Bible Christians, Temperance Reformation Society, the Secular Society and the Agnes-street Methodists each sent a band of representatives, who threw themselves on the devoted aldermen to cause them to reverse the decision of the Executive Committee prohibiting Sunday discussion in the city parks. The objectionable clause was thrown out by a large majority.

James Douglas, a cheeky youngster, was given a year in the Central yesterday morning for breaking into Hay's liquor store and Symon's provision house, on Yonge-street.

The movement to organize for the purpose of testing the constitutionality of the Jesuits' Estates Act is gaining ground in the city. The Citizens' Committee, of which Dr. Caven is president, met again yesterday morning and reported that the progress of the agitation was most encouraging.

"Prison Labor" was the subject matter of discussion by the Ministerial Association at its regular fortnightly meeting yesterday afternoon. The Montreal Association sent a letter of thanks for the support given to the movement against the disallowance of the Jesuit Act. Mr. Ray, a gentleman from Scotland, who is about to commence work here with a view to securing a large membership for the Evangelical Alliance, was introduced.

Joseph Dennis, of Toronto, an employe of the Bell Telephone Company, fell from a pole at Uxbridge and sustained serious injuries, his spine being hurt.

ALLEGED ABDUCTION.

A Girl Carried Away by Two Young Men, One Said to be Her Brother.

HAMILTON, April 1.—On Saturday evening two young men drove to the village of Oakville and put up at the Queen's Hotel. They remained there over night and all Sunday morning. Sunday afternoon they went to the house of a Mrs. Swan, just outside the village, and demanded a young girl, Linda Munro, a former inmate of the Girls' Home in this city, but who was adopted by Mrs. Swan in June last. One of the young men said he was a brother of the girl and that he was going to take her away. It is alleged that, when Mrs. Swan refused to give the girl to them, they knocked her down and, getting the girl into the street, picked her up, put her in their covered buggy and drove off by way of the lake road towards Hamilton. The girl is 14 years old, and is said to have a comfortable home in Oakville. The police of this city were notified of the affair by telephone in the evening, some hours afterwards.

MEAFORD, April 2.—Joseph Hall, a young Englishman about 23 years of age employed by the Meaford Tanning and Manufacturing Company, committed suicide here last night. He first tried to take his life by taking a dose of paris green, but evidently took too large a dose and threw it off. He next went to the river, a short distance from where he was boarding, and jumped in. After dragging the river some time this morning the body was discovered. No cause is known for the rash act, as he was a sober, industrious young man. His remains were taken charge of by his employers, no relative he had in this country, and will be buried to-morrow.

A Sure Remedy for Neuralgia.

Neuralgia is one of the most common and painful afflictions [illegible] the climate. Life is rendered a mere misery through its agency, and as it affects the nerves, only the most powerful and penetrating remedies can reach it. Nerviline has created wonder in the minds of those who have uselessly tried other remedies, since its action seems magical. To all suffering from any kind of nerve pain, internal or external, we request a trial of Nerviline. Sold by druggists and all dealers in medicine, 10 and 25 cents a bottle. 6w14d

Ulcerated Stomach.

"For three years I was unable to work, suffering from ulcerated stomach. Medical aid having failed, I was told to try Burdock Blood Bitters, of which 7 bottles made a permanent cure. This was two years ago, and I feel that I have to thank B.B.B. for being alive and well to-day." Mrs. Rose Ann McCluskey, Marmora, Ont. 2w14d

A Frightened Mother.

"My little girl, 4 years old, frightened me one night by a croupy cough, but I gave her a dose of Hagyard's Yellow Oil, which relieved her at once, and she slept well all night. I have since used it in several cases of croup, frost bites, etc., and find it always reliable." Mrs. Eva Bradley, Virden, Man.

The Blood is the Life,

And on its purity largely depends the question of health. No one is free from danger, and nine-tenths of humanity actually do suffer from one form or other of impure blood. No one remedy has such a wide range of curative power as has Burdock Blood Bitters—that best of all blood purifiers and tonics.

The Loss of the Hair

Is a great misfortune and the sight of a bald head should be a warning to you to take the best possible care of your hair. A little of Dr. Dorenwend's "Hair Magic" used occasionally will prevent all chances of its falling out or turning gray, and will remove all traces of dandruff. Every druggist has it in stock. Ask for it. dw

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles.

SYMPTOMS—Moisture, intense itching and stinging, most at night, worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia. Lyman, Sons & Co., Montreal, Wholesale Agents. dw

The Safe Plan.

When suffering from a troublesome cold, a hacking cough, hoarseness, asthma, bronchitis, or other forms of throat or lung troubles, is to use Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam to loosen the phlegm and soothe and heal the inflamed mucous surfaces. It cures where others fail. 2w14d

Remanded till To-morrow

The young man Chas Foster, charged with forgery of a receipt of the Singer Sewing Machine Co., was brought back to town last night by Chief Reesal, and was this morning remanded till to-morrow at the request of the County Crown Attorney. The prisoner's counsel is Mr. R. M. Dennistoun. Bail was fixed at $200. After leaving town Foster shaved off his moustache, but the St. Thomas police easily recognized and arrested him. Foster it is said was on his way to Detroit to be married.

New Novels.

A BAD MAN'S SWEETHEART.—The EXAMINER has to thank the Sheppard Publishing Company for a copy of the above novel by Edmund E. Sheppard, a delightfully sprightly and entertaining writer. His novels, in their fidelity to nature, racy smoothness of diction and copiousness of incident, seize and hold the popular attention from start to finish. "A Bad Man's Sweetheart" 20 cents at the Peterborough Bookstore.

"SILKEN THREADS."—A novel by the author of "Mr. and Mrs. Morton," published by J. Theo. Robinson, Montreal, price 20 cents.

"MR. NAYDIAN'S FAMILY CIRCLE." by the author of "Luser Lostratae," price 25 cents, published by J. Theo. Robinson, Montreal. Mr. Robinson has the EXAMINER'S thanks for copies of the above novels, and he deserves the thanks of the public for supplying at cheap rates the best works of fiction. These books may be procured at the Peterborough Bookstore.

St. John's Church.

When we inform our readers that the Rev. J. C. Roper, late of Trinity University and now assistant Rector and curate-in-charge of St. Thomas' church Toronto, is to preach in St. John's to-night, they will doubtless accept it as sufficient guarantee that the clergy of St. John's do not intend to allow the popularity of their Lenten services to diminish. The good people of Peterborough have indeed already heard Mr. Roper in St. John's and many bear eloquent testimony to their appreciation of him as a preacher. It cannot fail to deepen his influence when we tell the story of Mr. Roper's self denial for his Master's work. Till last Christmas he enjoyed the comfortable and much envied position of professor of Divinity in Trinity University, where he was simply loved by the students. Indeed we may say that perhaps even the popular Provost has not done more for Trinity than Professor Roper. But the sad sight of a struggling parish going to rack and ruin in Toronto induced him to sacrifice his professorship and all his prospects at the college and become the pastor of an empty church. His attractive services and sympathetic preaching very soon filled the church and the difficulty now is where to put the congregation which he has gathered together. We are sure that the congregation of St. John's will appreciate Mr. Roper's kindness in making time, in the midst of a very busy life to pay Peterborough a visit. Mr. Roper will speak on "The reading of the Bible."

WARMING UP THE BOARD.

Regular Meeting of the Board of Education.

The Smead-Dowd System of Heating "Ventilated"—Increase of Salaries.

The regular meeting of the board was held on Tuesday night. Present:—Dr. Burnham (in the absence of Mr. Stevenson) in the chair, and Messrs. Dumble, O'Meara, Hill, English, Hamilton, Weir, Wrighton and Rutherford.

After routine a communication was read from Miss Ellsworth, asking an increase of salary.—Committee of Appointments.

SCHOOL ATTENDANCE.

The average attendance daily at the Collegiate Institute for March was 140. The public school attendance was as follows:

	On Roll.	Ave.
Central School	672	533
South Ward School	293	246
West Ward School	202	171

Mr. O'Meara presented the report of the Finance Committee, recommending the payment of the following accounts:—Menzies estate, $18.28; Sallsbury & Bro., $13.40; Review, $15.97; Gas Co., $6.75.—Adopted.

A RESIGNATION.

A communication was read from Mr. J. R. Stratton as follows:

To the Chairman and members of the Board of Education:

GENTLEMEN,—After a membership of many years of your Board a legislative change has made my connection, in the dual relation of newspaper publisher and member, incompatible with the strict technical construction of the law, and, though I am not conscious of having done anything contrary to the public interest, and, though I have reason to believe that I still retain the confidence of my constituents, I hereby tender my resignation as a member of your Board.

From the manner in which the Board dealt with my tenders for school supplies at a recent meeting, it seems that my intention to terminate my membership was anticipated, a decision to which I should have given effect at the last meeting if my absence from town had not made my attendance impossible. In conclusion, permit me to express my thanks for the courteous and kindly treatment I have received from my associates on the Board, with the assurance that my change in relations to the Board will not diminish my solicitude for the educational interests of the town, nor relax my efforts in their promotion.

J. R. STRATTON.

Received.

A petition was presented from pupils of the High School asking that the school hours from now to the 1st of November be from 8 o'clock in the morning till 1.30 p.m.—Referred to School Supervision Committee.

NEW SCHOOL BUILDINGS.

Mr. T. RUTHERFORD reported verbally respecting the new school buildings. The plans had been approved of for both the Fourth Ward building and the additions to the South Ward school, and the specifications were ready for tenders but the committee thought it best to wait till the special committee had made their report respecting the heating arrangements of the Lindsay Collegiate Institute building. The adoption of the Smead-Dowd heating system would entail no extra expense in the Fourth Ward building, but it would require the excavation of a chamber 12x14 under the present building in the South Ward.

THE SMEAD-DOWD SYSTEM OF HEATING.

Mr. DUMBLE presented the report of himself and Mr. English of their visit to the Lindsay Collegiate Institute. After giving particulars of the capacity and equipment of the Collegiate Institute and referring to the courteous reception extended to the committee by the Trustees, he said in reference to the heating apparatus and its results:—

"The entire building, halls and rooms were of uniform heat. The heating apparatus was the Smead-Dowd and appeared to be of the most satisfactory nature.

The principal and teachers were enthusiastic in its praise—alleging that the perfect ventilation and pure air gave teachers and scholars more vigour and ability for work than the impure air of the old system.

The closets below the building were the most striking feature of the system, for, although in use for some months, one could not judge of their proximity by the senses. The foul air from the entire building being gathered and passed through the exercise compartment, desiccated (dried) the contents and swept all odours up the chimney, the heat from the smoke making the draft sufficient in winter and a very small fire in summer put in the chimney effecting the same result.

The ante-rooms of the closets were used as cloak rooms.

The janitor says that in very cold weather he burned half a cord of wood a day, which, considering the result, was a very moderate expenditure for effectually heating such a building. There were no double windows on. It is intended to put them on, which the perfect system of ventilation will safely allow.

The entire cost of the building, heating apparatus and furnishing was about $28,000, with six teachers, with aggregate salaries of $5,700 annually. There were 215 pupils and the order was good. The situation of the grounds and the surroundings were ——:

REFERRED TO WITH COMMENDATION.

The ordinary fee of the institute was $10 per year.

Respecting public schools the report stated that there were 15 public school teachers with aggregate salaries of $5,500. The headmaster of the public school had no department to teach; his work was entirely supervisory.

The visit of the committee to Lindsay was so pleasant and interesting that it was a source of regret that more of the trustees had not been present.

In conclusion the report stated that school matters in Peterborough, both in the Institute and public schools, must at once receive more consideration from this board, as the need for improvement was urgent.

Mr. DUMBLE said the cost of the Smead-Dowd system was $1,500, and that was the final cost, because it was not liable to become out of order.

Mr. ENGLISH said the closet part of the system was the most attractive feature of the system. It resulted in an entire absence of foul and noxious smells arising from the old system.

Mr. T. RUTHERFORD was in favour of putting in the Smead-Dowd system. The difference in cost of putting it in beyond any other system was only a matter of $300 or $400. He was in favour of getting the best.

Mr. DUMBLE moved that the committee appointed to erect the Fourth Ward school and the South Ward school additions be authorized to adopt the Smead-Dowd system of heating, provided satisfactory arrangements can be made.—Carried.

INCREASE OF SALARIES.

The Board went into committee of the whole as a Committee on Appointments.

The Board resumed and Mr. Dumble reported the following decision in respect to teachers' salaries:—

The Committee on Appointments having considered the subject of salaries referred to them, beg to report that they have ascertained the salaries paid in the public schools of Lindsay, Port Hope and Cobourg, and, after comparing them, we found that the salaries paid at Peterborough were very much less than at any of these places.

We find that Port Hope has 18 teachers and pays to its public school teachers $6,688—(average $371.55).

Cobourg has 11 teachers and pays $3,925—(average $356.10).

Belleville has 23 teachers and pays $9,275—(average $403.26).

Lindsay, with 14 teachers, pays $5,500—(average $392.85).

Peterborough, with 20 teachers, pays $6,850—(average $342.50; average under increase, $361).

After carefully considering the matter, your committee recommend as follows:—That the salaries of the teachers be:

1st Grade	$400	each
2nd "	375	"
3rd "	350	"
4th "	325	"
5th "	As at present

That the principal of the South Ward be paid $650. The salaries, as above, to run from Jan. 1st, 1889.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

D. W. DUMBLE, Chairman.

Report adopted.

After a reference to a difficulty between the janitor and one of the High School teachers, the Board adjourned.

Headquarters for Canada.

A Nursery Agency in Peterborough—Sole Agency in the Dominion.

At No. 348 Water street are some new and nicely fitted offices. On the window is the legend: "Thos W. Bowman, Star Nurseryman." An EXAMINER reporter stepped inside to day and was greeted by a brisk, business-like man who courteously enquired if he could do anything for us. This was Mr. Charles L. Trotter, the gentleman in charge, who when informed of the identity of his visitor, smiled and expressed his willingness to talk with the scribe about himself and his business.

"In the first place," he said, "I am manager for Canada of the Rochester Star Nurseries, of which Thomas W. Bowman, well known in both Canada and the States, is proprietor. We have decided to establish a Canadian office, instead of filling orders directly from Rochester, as formerly, and I have pitched upon Peterborough as being the best adapted for the purpose. It is a growing town, centrally situated, quite to my liking. This is the headquarters for all Canada, and the only agency in the Dominion, and when I tell you I have had travelling agents as far east as Nova Scotia, and as far west as Brandon, Man., you will see that it is quite an important office. All Canadian orders are filled through us. We have come to stay, too, for the Rochester nursery stock is the best in the country, and is doing a steadily increasing business.

"What is your system of doing business?"

"Well, I have reliable canvassing agents in every county in Ontario and wherever else there is room for them. We deliver stock every spring, or in the fall if desired, though I observe that in this section of the country it is generally wanted in the spring. It will be to the advantage of farmers to deal with us, for if there are any complaints to be made we are right here to receive them, and can always be found if information is desired."

"How do you ship the stock?"

"The packing is superintended by Mr. Bowman, personally, who has had 28 years experience in the nursery business and has made it a careful study, and is well known all over Ontario. We keep only the best stock of course and our aim is to do a fair and square business. Our facilities for handling and shipping are unsurpassed, for the packing grounds are right at the nurseries in Rochester and a railway siding runs into them, so that stock can be shipped as soon as packed without delay."

"Good afternoon. I say, you might just state that we invite the patronage of the public and would like them to give us a trial. If we can't give them the best nursery stock they ever got at the lowest rates and guarantee satisfaction, nobody can. Remember the Rochester Star Nurseries."

"All right, good day."

Baptist Women's Missionary Circle.

The annual meeting of the Baptist Women's Missionary Circle was held in the basement of the Murray Street Church last evening. After the opening exercises, communications were read from the Associational Director, Miss Ewing, of Cobourg, and also from Miss Frith, the returned missionary, who may soon visit the town. The annual report of the past year's work was then presented by the assistant secretary, Miss Nicholls, which showed a membership of forty-two, and a record of ten monthly meetings. Miss G. McDonald, the treasurer for Foreign Missions, reported the raising of $56.08; Miss Grundy's report showed that for the work of Home Missions, in Ontario, $34.55 had been given, these reports making a total of $90.63 from the Circle for the year. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:—

PRESIDENTS—Mesdames Parker and Aldridge.

VICE-PRESIDENTS—Mrs. Hutchinson and Miss M. McDonald.

SECRETARY—Mrs. Kincaid.

ASSISTANT SECRETARY—Miss M. Nicholls.

TREASURERS—Foreign, Miss G. McDonald; Home, Miss Walton.

Assuming a Warlike Attitude.

Many other houses are becoming very indignant at the idea of W. J. Morrow controlling the grocery trade of the town and country, but never mind—be cautious. We will prove to all you grocers who are grappling for high prices, that the time has arrived when W. J. Morrow will enlighten the public; doing more of a cash business and a more extensive trade he is better prepared to sell goods away down. Then again, here are a lot of our best Toronto and Montreal houses clamoring for our trade, owing to our buying for cash, and hence the keen competition, thereby buying goods away below other houses. So a call will convince you that we are Peterborough's great grocery house—340 George street. dw

CLEVELAND'S SUPERIOR BAKING POWDER

THE PUREST AND BEST

Is made only of strictly pure grape cream of tartar, strictly pure bicarbonate of soda, and a small portion of flour as a preservative, nothing else whatever, and is warranted entirely free from alum, ammonia, phosphates, lime, and all the adulterants frequently found in baking powders. The character of materials used, their purity, and the nicety of their combination, render Cleveland's superior baking powder the most healthful and most economical in use, and it always affords wholesome, nutritious, and delicious food.

It is recommended for purity, healthfulness and efficiency by Government and State chemists, chemists of Boards of Health, and professors in institutions of learning throughout the country.

Sold only in cans, full weight.

Men, Beware of the Danger.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

Under Dunkin Act, Crooks Act and Scott Act adulterated liquors have been sold to an alarming extent. As yet there has been no action on the part of the people to bring these offenders to justice. Canadians, the time has come when we can ill afford to stand listlessly by and know that wholesale murder is being committed in our midst. When did we ever hear of the liquor found in the stomach of a man who died while drunk being sent to the government analyst to detect whether or not it contained poisons other than alcohol. We never hear of this kind of thing being done. I ask, should it not be done every time? Now this law is going to be enforced right here in this town, and I would advise all those men engaged in the liquor trade to be certain that your liquors are not adulterated. See the penalty attached to such a crime. Dr. Clarke, our Medical Health Officer, can post any one in these matters. If British law once gets its clutches on the devil that would dare sell blue stone, vitriol or any drug similar to his fellow, the Lord have mercy on his soul. You men in the business, if you are not certain sure your drinks are unadulterated, beware; close up your bars for perchance ere the Scott Act is carried in this town to-morrow at 5 o'clock a sample of your liquors may be before the government analyst. Ye men—so, no, you fiends—who have been guilty of this crime, remember this—every man, woman and child in this community, except yourselves, are, and will be from this time forth, energetic detectives, eager to bring you to justice and anxious to send you to your own place. Men of this town, don't refuse to vote for a law which prohibits the sale of poison to our brethren. We have to face Scott Act or 15½ mills on the dollar on our taxes. Our councilmen are voting for the Act. Help them to keep our taxes low. Avoid the red letters on your ballot; they mean danger. Vote straight for the Act.

JOHN CARLISLE.

Scott Act.

To the Editor of the Examiner:—

Let me call the attention of the electors to the outrage perpetrated on the Rev. M. Stillwell's family, of Sydenham. He was away from home, attending a meeting, and his family were alone, when the house was partly blown up by dynamite. He was threatened by the anti-Scott party, and there is no doubt under whose auspices the outrage was committed. Electors, come one and all and vote against a system that resorts to such practices.

Yours, etc.,

HONOUR.

THE ATTRACTION AT TURNBULL'S.

Whatever the weather has been outside, it was the springiest of Springtime in our Store on Wednesday and Thursday last, when all the new Millinery and Millinery belongings were opened out of their close filling boxes. For the benefit of those who could not get in on those days, we will keep the display up all the first week in April.

Among the leading changes noticeable in the Trimming this season is LACE ENDS and SCARFS and LONG VEILS drawn in with Baby Ribbon at the bottom. Flowers and Ribbons are the leading Trimmings. The old fashioned hop that used to climb on the pole at the back door, is now found falling over the Black Lace Hats. Having struck a cheap line of Flowers (German make) the Germans copy the French designs and give us the Goods much cheaper. We have a Bouquet for everybody. Bunches of Roses in all colors only 25 c. each. Our Stock of CHILDRENS' TRIMMED HATS is unusually attractive. Sailor Hats in endless variety. We have not room to give them a front show. We were disappointed at not being able to show with the Millinery, the new JET CAPES and SILK VISETTES and TRIMMED DOLMANS, but there is time enough yet, and we expect them in on the first freight train. A fine assortment of Cloths in the order department. All hands at work as busy as bees in the workroom up stairs.

The DRESS GOODS Department is as lively as ever. A new line of Vigoreaux Cloth in 8 shades, 44 inches wide, at 60 cents, came in this week; a glance at it will tell you it is serviceable. With them came a new line of German Dress Cloth—we have shown nothing similar before; it just what any lady would fancy for a genteel Dress. Will show another new make next week.

Miss MERCIER is always pleased to help you with her advice as to length of Dress Pattern, Style of Making and Trimming, whether you wish to have it made by her or not.

KID GLOVES fresh from the hands of the maker in Austria, at 75c. and $1.00 a pair. This line we had in stock before, but the quantity was small and we only had a pair for a lady here and there.

THE FRANCHISE ACT AMENDMENT PASSES ITS SECOND READING.

The Bill to Free Widows Gordon Lowry From His Marriage Tie Rejected in the House—Returns Brought Down.

OTTAWA, April 3.—The Franchise Act was before the House again to-day on motion for the second reading of a bill proposing some amendments in the direction of simplifying its working. As on all other occasions when it has been discussed the principle of the act was challenged by scores of speakers on the Opposition side, who advocated a return to the old system whereby the provincial lists were used in Dominion elections. Mr. Laurier moved an amendment of the bill.

The Premier at one time endeavored to check the discussion by pointing out that there would be abundant opportunity for a discussion of the principle of the bill on some other occasion before there is an appeal to the country.

Sir Richard Cartwright thereupon remarked that a dissolution might be nearer at hand than appeared to be expected by Sir John, though no doubt he and the Minister of Customs would have no little difficulty at the present time "in organizing their brethren of the Orange lodges as they were wont to do.

Hon. Peter Mitchell remarked that there was no danger of [illegible], for it would be found that the Parliament would have six sessions instead of the four, because he didn't think the ministry would run any risk this time that they didn't have to.

The discussion continued until recess. After recess the attention of the House was for an hour diverted from the Franchise Bill while an act for the relief of William Gordon Lowry was discussed and defeated.

Then the Opposition returned to the attack. The discussion was continued until midnight, when the House divided on Mr. Laurier's amendment, which was lost by 75 yeas to 105 nays. The bill was read a second time, and the House then went into committee upon it.

The Lowry divorce bill was one instituted by a farmer of Huntley Township, Carleton County, for separation from his wife for adultery said to have been committed within a few weeks of their marriage. They were married in 1887. It passed the Senate on a division of 23 to 25. Sir John Thompson opposed the second reading of the bill, because, amongst other reasons, there was no proof whatever except the testimony of the parties concerned who had made an admission of guilt. As both parties appeared to have an incentive in making the admission, the opinion had been formed that the case was not free from collusion between the parties.

After some discussion the House divided, and 79 voting for and 30 against the second reading it was refused.

A return presented to-day shows that the cost of erection and improvement of Dominion public buildings in the respective provinces since Confederation has been as follows:

Nova Scotia	$ 488,488
Prince Edward Island	232,947
New Brunswick	1,740,899
Quebec	3,729,295
Ontario	4,277,888
Manitoba	284,973
North-west Territories	1,046,439
British Columbia	626,765

The day's discussion being upon the Franchise Act, a return laid upon the table this afternoon proved very opportune. This showed the expenditure in connection with the franchise list prepared under the act to have been as follows up to Jan 1: Printing $176,340, revisors' salaries $93,767, clerks or bailiffs $79,498, other expenses $67,318, making the total $414,921, besides which there are unsettled claims amounting to $62,641, and $12,313 has been expended in connection with the second revision. Type and other material have been purchased for this revision.

THE FRUIT GROWERS.

A Large Deputation Urge a Government Grant for a Dominion Convention.

OTTAWA, April 3.—A government grant towards the holding of a Dominion fruit growers' convention was the object of a large deputation who waited this evening upon Hon. John Carling, Minister of Agriculture, and Hon. G. E. Foster, Minister of Finance. The deputation consisted of Prof. Panbellow of Montreal; Prof. Sanders, director of the Central Experimental Farm; Mr. W. H. Lynch, the well-known horticulturist of the Eastern Townships, and three members of Parliament representing all portions of the Dominion: Messrs. Fisher, Ferguson of Welland, Guillet, Borden, Baird, Mills of Annapolis, Jones of Digby, Boyle, McMillan, Hale, Robertson, Gordon, McNeill and Shanly.

It is proposed to hold the convention in Ottawa in January or February next, and to have in connection with the convention an exhibit of some of the more hardy variety of fruits which would keep through the winter and into the spring.

Dr. Borden, Mr. Mills of Annapolis, Mr. Fisher, Mr. Gordon and Dr. Ferguson of Welland supported the application. The last named held that by way of compensation if for no other reason the fruit-growers should get this, as they alone of all classes had not been protected under the general policy of protection. As representing a district interested to the extent of millions of dollars in fruit growing he pressed that this small measure of compensation should be granted.

Mr. McMillan read a letter he had received to-day from Mr. Alex. McD. Allan of Toronto, stating that a joint stock company was now being got up in that city for promoting the sale in Great Britain of fruit, butter and cheese from Canada. Mr. Matthews of the Board of Trade was among those interested in it.

Hon. G. E. Foster stated his appreciation of the objects of the association represented on this deputation. He thought that greater advantage would be derivable from provincial and county conventions than from a Dominion gathering. He did not think it fair to say that nothing had been done for the fruit industry by the Government, for the work now being done by the experimental farms was of the greatest importance to fruit growers. However, Mr. Carling and himself would report the views of the association to their colleagues. There was of course the difficulty that were a grant given to them it could not consistently be refused to kindred organizations.

Hon. John Carling considered it of importance to encourage the fruit-growing interests as much as possible. He realized the benefit derivable from the holding of a convention such as proposed. He referred to the assistance obtainable by fruit-growers through the various experimental farms, and declared that anything further that could be done by his department would be done most cheerfully.

A Message of Sympathy.

"RANDY" AND THE TORIES.

HIS DECISION A GREAT RELIEF TO THE GOVERNMENT.

Enfield a Disappointment to the Home Rulers—The Dominion Loses a Case in the Privy Council.

LONDON, April 3.—Lord Randolph Churchill's refusal to contest the seat made vacant at Birmingham by Bright's death will be an unwelcome surprise to his Birmingham friends, but it is a great relief to Lord Salisbury and his colleagues. Nothing has so startled them as the offer. Both parties held meetings last evening and both nominated candidates. The Gladstonian nominee is Pidgeon Beale, a respectable chancery barrister, who requires no further notice. The Tories, by a unanimous vote, invited Lord Randolph Churchill to redeem the pledge he gave in 1885 to again contest the central division of Birmingham. That was one of the many daring episodes in his singular career. He stood against Bright, who beat him by only 409 votes, and he won the hearts of his supporters, not without some help from Lady Randolph. Since that time he has been a minister, has resigned, has been criticised, has attacked the Government of which he was a member, has been anathematized by his former friends, has been read out of the party with bell-book and candle by his leading organ, and has been held up to the public and denounced in private as a politician who had forfeited the confidence of his party, who had ceased to be of importance, and who had no following anywhere in the country.

This unanimous invitation from Birmingham is the answer to all that. It appears after all that the views of the official mind are not shared by the great body of their followers, or even by the party managers as completely as the official mind would desire. In fact, they are not shared at all, and this it is which not only angers but startles Lord Salisbury and his colleagues. Had Lord Randolph accepted the nomination, his election was certain. His refusal says the ministry under an obligation which they may or may not acknowledge, and which may or may not soften the relations between them. At Birmingham, meanwhile, the Tory camp is in confusion.

Home Rulers Disappointed.

LONDON, April 3.—Enfield is not even a moral victory for the Home Rule Liberals. They hoped to cut down the Tory majority well below a thousand. They had themselves over 1500 behind, and for once frankly own their disappointment. The voting was very heavy, and the constituency will now be looked upon as definitely lost to Liberalism. Worse than that, there is a distinct reaction against the reaction in favor of Home Rule which Kensington was hailed as inspiring.

The Dominion Loses.

LONDON, April 3.—The Privy Council has reversed the decision of the Canadian court which declared that metals discovered on the coast of British Columbia belonged to Canada.

A STUPENDOUS FAILURE.

The Panama Canal a Monument of Impracticability—Reckless Extravagance.

CHICAGO, April 3.—James MacArthur, the senior member of the well-known firm of MacArthur Brothers of Chicago and St. Paul, probably the largest firm of railroad and bridge contractors in the Northwest, has written home his opinion of the Panama Canal, which he visited not long ago. He says: I was on the isthmus from Jan. 29 to Feb. 2, and gave most of my time to the canal. The Panama Canal is a stupendous failure! I have gone over the whole of it; the heavy work, the summit section of several miles, I travelled over on foot. Much of the work has already stopped, and it is reported that the whole of it will stop in a few days. I saw all of the machinery, and some part of every class of it at work. The canal is a monument to incompetency, both in its design and execution, so far as work has progressed on it, and it is scarcely begun.

The only work which has any business-like look is that done by the American contractors on the east end of the line. There is an immense amount of machinery, which was imported from France and Holland, much of which is rusting out, having never been used. It is of antiquated type, rude and costly in its operation. The quality of the labor is much better than I expected to see, viz.: negroes from Jamaica. Though not equal to Northern labor, they have a good amount of physical strength, and are docile and reasonably intelligent. There was no work in progress—that of the American contractors excepted—which was not costing from two to ten times what it need to have cost with proper machinery and management.

The whole scheme has been carried on in a most wasteful and extravagant manner. The original plan of an ocean level canal was almost a physical impossibility. If possible at all it would bankrupt even the Government of France to carry out such a scheme. It would cost more than did the Franco-German war—more than did our civil war. The original plan was to cut through the Isthmus, make a tide level canal without locks. This plan was changed to one with locks, raising the summit level 46 metres (over 150 feet) above tide.

The change was an improvement, only that there is no water to supply the summit level, except by pumping it up from the ocean. Now a canal without water is not useful—hardly ornamental—and to pump water 150 feet high to supply it would cost more than the revenues of the canal. Even on this changed plan, after expending more than three times the original estimate, the canal is not one-fifth completed. There are other and serious objections to it, and though better than the first plan it may still be called impracticable on account of the excessive cost of construction and maintenance.

MORRISON'S DARING.

How He Hinders the Authorities—The Police Baffled.

STONEWAY, Que., April 3.—There are no new developments, though there is a great anxiety for news, and the authorities are still baffled. When Morrison left here Monday morning he cut across towards his father's house, which is situated about nine miles from here, on the road to Marsden. When he had gone about three miles he met a man in a sleigh and told the latter that he was not going any further because he had learned that the police were waiting for him at some part of the road. He spent the night again in the immediate vicinity of this place. Judge Dugas and escort left on a trip to Gould, Scotstown and Marsden, where everything was quiet. They have not yet returned. The Indian with Carpenter is said to be a spy, who has his tent in the woods opposite the house of Morrison's father. Two men looking like hunters and supposed to be partners of the Indian passed through Springhill to Marsden yesterday morning.

Suicide of Gen. McConnell.

TOPEKA, April 3.—Gen. H. M. McConnell, a prominent attorney of Osage, Kan., who was concerned in a sensational shooting affair with James McManus, a wealthy contractor, two months ago, committed suicide at the Fifth-avenue Hotel this morning. McConnell was a general in the Army of the Potomac, and was a leading politician. The cause of the rash act is unknown.

It appears after all that the views of the official mind are not shared by the great body of their followers, or even by the party managers as completely as the official mind would desire. In fact, they are not shared at all, and this it is which not only angers but startles Lord Salisbury and his colleagues. Had Lord Randolph accepted the nomination, his election was certain. His refusal says the ministry under an obligation which they may or may not acknowledge, and which may or may not soften the relations between them. At Birmingham, meanwhile, the Tory camp is in confusion.

Home Rulers Disappointed.

LONDON, April 3.—Enfield is not even a moral victory for the Home Rule Liberals. They hoped to cut down the Tory majority well below a thousand. They had themselves over 1500 behind, and for once frankly own their disappointment. The voting was very heavy, and the constituency will now be looked upon as definitely lost to Liberalism. Worse than that, there is a distinct reaction against the reaction in favor of Home Rule which Kensington was hailed as inspiring.

The Dominion Loses.

LONDON, April 3.—The Privy Council has reversed the decision of the Canadian court which declared that metals discovered on the coast of British Columbia belonged to Canada.

A STUPENDOUS FAILURE.

The Panama Canal a Monument of Impracticability—Reckless Extravagance.

CHICAGO, April 3.—James MacArthur, the senior member of the well-known firm of MacArthur Brothers of Chicago and St. Paul, probably the largest firm of railroad and bridge contractors in the Northwest, has written home his opinion of the Panama Canal, which he visited not long ago. He says: I was on the isthmus from Jan. 29 to Feb. 2, and gave most of my time to the canal. The Panama Canal is a stupendous failure! I have gone over the whole of it; the heavy work, the summit section of several miles, I travelled over on foot. Much of the work has already stopped, and it is reported that the whole of it will stop in a few days. I saw all of the machinery, and some part of every class of it at work. The canal is a monument to incompetency, both in its design and execution, so far as work has progressed on it, and it is scarcely begun.

The only work which has any business-like look is that done by the American contractors on the east end of the line. There is an immense amount of machinery, which was imported from France and Holland, much of which is rusting out, having never been used. It is of antiquated type, rude and costly in its operation. The quality of the labor is much better than I expected to see, viz.: negroes from Jamaica. Though not equal to Northern labor, they have a good amount of physical strength, and are docile and reasonably intelligent. There was no work in progress—that of the American contractors excepted—which was not costing from two to ten times what it need to have cost with proper machinery and management.

The whole scheme has been carried on in a most wasteful and extravagant manner. The original plan of an ocean level canal was almost a physical impossibility. If possible at all it would bankrupt even the Government of France to carry out such a scheme. It would cost more than did the Franco-German war—more than did our civil war. The original plan was to cut through the Isthmus, make a tide level canal without locks. This plan was changed to one with locks, raising the summit level 46 metres (over 150 feet) above tide.

The change was an improvement, only that there is no water to supply the summit level, except by pumping it up from the ocean. Now a canal without water is not useful—hardly ornamental—and to pump water 150 feet high to supply it would cost more than the revenues of the canal. Even on this changed plan, after expending more than three times the original estimate, the canal is not one-fifth completed. There are other and serious objections to it, and though better than the first plan it may still be called impracticable on account of the excessive cost of construction and maintenance.

MORRISON'S DARING.

How He Hinders the Authorities—The Police Baffled.

STONEWAY, Que., April 3.—There are no new developments, though there is a great anxiety for news, and the authorities are still baffled. When Morrison left here Monday morning he cut across towards his father's house, which is situated about nine miles from here, on the road to Marsden. When he had gone about three miles he met a man in a sleigh and told the latter that he was not going any further because he had learned that the police were waiting for him at some part of the road. He spent the night again in the immediate vicinity of this place. Judge Dugas and escort left on a trip to Gould, Scotstown and Marsden, where everything was quiet. They have not yet returned. The Indian with Carpenter is said to be a spy, who has his tent in the woods opposite the house of Morrison's father. Two men looking like hunters and supposed to be partners of the Indian passed through Springhill to Marsden yesterday morning.

Suicide of Gen. McConnell.

TOPEKA, April 3.—Gen. H. M. McConnell, a prominent attorney of Osage, Kan., who was concerned in a sensational shooting affair with James McManus, a wealthy contractor, two months ago, committed suicide at the Fifth-avenue Hotel this morning. McConnell was a general in the Army of the Potomac, and was a leading politician. The cause of the rash act is unknown.

STEWART'S LITTLE GAME.

HOW HE WORKED THE WIDOWS OF THE AMBITIOUS CITY.

He Had Them on the Hot—Several Poor Women Cheated Out of Small Sums—The Swindler Proposes Matrimony to One.

HAMILTON, April 3.—Just how long Alexander Stewart has been working his little game in this city is not known, but it is not thought to be very long, and he is not known to have got much the better of many people. The police have, however, been notified that he has been at work, and has succeeded in cheating some widowed ladies, who could ill afford to lose much, out of small sums. As far as can be learned, Stewart came to this city a short time ago, procured a city directory and copied from it a list of widows. He then called upon Mrs. Neill, who lives on the southeast corner of Jackson and Locke-streets, and asked to be taken in as a boarder. He represented himself to be a rich man, and was accommodated with board and lodgings. He showed Mrs. Neill some rolls which he said contained $60 and which he wished to have kept safely. Mrs. Neill showed him a cupboard and said he could have a drawer. He wanted the key, but was not given it. However he put his precious rolls in the drawer, where they remained until a few days ago, when, Stewart having disappeared without paying his week's board or returning some small sums of money which he had borrowed, the rolls were opened and found to contain nothing but whiting.

Stewart also called upon Mrs. Butler, who resides at No. 20 Markland-street, and said he was looking for a housekeeper. Mrs. Butler, he said, just suited him and in a very few days he pretended to be completely infatuated and proposed matrimony. He said he owned a fine farm near Waterdown and that he was just building a house. He showed the plans of his alleged house and finally prevailed upon Mrs. Butler to agree to marry him, after she had consulted

THREE NOTABLE WOMEN.

The Examples of Naomi, Orpah and Ruth.

Mr. Crossley's Address on the Above Subject—Mr. Hunter Talks a Little Temperance—The Visit of the Evangelists Drawing to a Close—A Communion Service Also Congregation Last Night.

The congregation in the George Street Church last night was the smallest that has yet attended any of the evangelistic meetings. There were plenty of empty seats in the auditorium, and the choir was only about half its usual size. The extremely unpleasant weather and the impending Scott Act contest no doubt militated against a large attendance. But though the congregation was small, the addresses were as interesting and impressive as ever. Mr. Hunter said that to-night it would be announced when they would close in Peterborough. He said they had two engagements to fill before July 1st, when they would rest from their labors, allowing only about five weeks for each place, so they had to hurry through in Peterborough and go to Woodstock. Referring to the effects of their work, Mr. Hunter said theirs was no rope of sand, but he thanked God wherever they went they met with success. Brother Richardson, of Stratford, in the church the other day stated that of the 180 new members who had been added to his church after the Crossley and Hunter meetings, only 20 were missing.

TEMPERANCE TALK.

Before beginning his address proper Mr. Hunter talked a little on the temperance question, urging the men to pray for God's guidance on the morrow in the matter of deciding between the saloons and their homes. He pointed out to them which side God was on, and said that wherever he and Mr. Crossley went they noticed far more drunkenness in cities and towns under license law than in those where the Scott Act was in force. If any man did not intend to vote for the Act, Mr. Hunter asked him to remain at home. He asked every family to have the Lord's Prayer read in family prayer next morning. Mark my words, he said, if the Act is repealed you will regret it. He said prayers were asked for St. Thomas, where a struggle was also taking place, and the audience bowed their heads while Mr. Hunter offered up fervent prayer for the success of the right.

ABRAHAM'S EXAMPLE.

Mr. Hunter read a few verses of the 13th chapter of Genesis, describing the journeying of Abraham and his household. Abraham set up his altar at Bethel, but it pained him, Mr. Hunter said, to hear that there was in this town a family professing Christianity in which neither family prayer nor table grace were ever offered up. Referring to the riches of Abraham, he said wealth was often a burden, and He gave to his people all that they could rightly use. Some people were incapable of putting it to a right use, and these were deprived of wealth. God always gave a man as much as he was able to rightly use. Then Abraham and Lot separated, the latter having the choice of which way he would go. Mr. Hunter impressed upon young men the necessity of making a right choice in life, especially in the matter of deciding never to taste intoxicating liquors. Mr. Hunter condemned the habit of "treating," which he said was a foolish, expensive, dangerous and condemned custom.

Mr. Crossley introduced his song, "Don't go Near the Bar-room, Brother," with a few remarks anent the liquor traffic, which if it were an evil was an outrage on law and order and should not be licensed; if it were not an evil, it should not be restricted. He urged all his hearers to adopt the sentiment of the song as their motto in daily life.

Among the requests was one for special prayer for an aged man, once wealthy, but who through drink had become a broken-down pauper.

THREE REMARKABLE WOMEN.

The subject of Mr. Crossley's address was "Three Remarkable Women"—Naomi, Orpah and Ruth. Mr. Crossley detailed the circumstances of the widowing of these three women and the resolve of two of them to return to the land from whence they came, Orpah alone deciding to remain. She did so, and she is no more heard of in the Bible. Naomi asked Ruth to return with Orpah, but Ruth replied in the words of the text (Ruth, 1, 16, 17):

"Entreat me not to leave thee, or to return from following after thee; for whither thou goest I will go; and where thou lodgest I will lodge; and thy God shall be my God.

"Where thou diest will I die, and there will I be buried; the Lord do so to me and more also if aught but death part thee and me."

In Naomi was the example of consistent godliness, and Mr. Crossley urged the women before him to pattern off her, and the men also to live lives of consistent godliness, that they may rightly influence others. Naomi was a model mother-in-law, and Mr. Crossley took occasion to condemn those who spoke in disparaging terms of mothers-in-law. Unconverted ones, too, made the error of looking at unworthy Christians instead of at those whose example they should follow.

Orpah was an example of an excellent character who acted contrary to her best convictions and noblest impulses. In these she was resembled by many to-day; she was convinced, she possessed the desire and was affected, but she did not go according to her convictions. She even started, but returned. So, perhaps, many of those before him were in her position, and Mr. Crossley urged them not to follow her example, but like Ruth decide to go aright and seek salvation.

RUTH'S DECISION.

Ruth had an equally exemplary character, but acted according to her best convictions and noblest impulses. Mr. Crossley then dealt with a few characteristics of her decision. First it was an independent one, and so convinced singers should determine to make a stand independent of their surroundings or adverse circumstances.

It was a courageous decision; so it required courage to be a christian, but the reward was great. Then her decision was fixed. Mr. Crossley said that women particularly were fixed in their purpose, and he quoted as a compliment to womankind the lines:

"When she will she will, you may depend on't
And when she won't she won't, and there's an end on't.

He said he believed that on an average two men backslid to one woman, and he charged upon those women who were afraid if they come out for Christ they would not be able to keep it up, that if they did fail they would be inconsistent with themselves. They promised to love, cherish and obey their husbands; surely they could do as much for their Heavenly Bridegroom. The man he advised to get this fixed purpose in their minds to seek God and carry it out. Again Ruth's decision was a social one. She said "thy people shall be my people." Intending Christians need not fear they will have to give up going with their "set;" their influence would probably bring their companions with them and all would enjoy life far better. But in any case the society of Almighty people was the best on earth. It was both whole-hearted decision, was Ruth's, and the Christians should follow her example and yield the heart entirely to God. Those who are not Christians have their gods, which are the things they refuse to give up for God; but like Ruth they should say "thy God shall be my God." Her decision was a life-long one, and here again Christians were not a worthy example; let them make the covenant with God sacred and strong, a reputation for time and eternity. Finally Ruth's decision was prompt and prompt. Mr. Crossley in unmistakable terms implored his unconverted hearers to determine to seek the Lord at once. Ruth decided promptly and became the handmaiden of Jesus Christ; the unconverted, by deciding at once, might become heirs of God and joint-heirs with Christ. He put the question plainly, would they go back with Orpah, or forward to joy eternal with Ruth and Naomi?

At the after-meeting a number of persons went into the inquiry rooms, determined, so far as they were concerned, to have the question of their soul's salvation settled without further delay.

NOTES.

The usual "song sermon" will be given to-night.

This afternoon Rev. Mr. Hunter is giving a Bible reading in the Charlotte Street Church; to-morrow afternoon from 3 to 4 the meeting will be held in the Ashburnham Methodist Church.

THE GUELPH TRAGEDY.

Excitement Subsiding—Harvey's Condition Improved.

GUELPH, April 3.—The excitement aroused by the terrible triple tragedy is beginning to subside. The verdict of the coroner's jury this morning fixing the charge of wilful murder upon Harvey has caused some renewed interest in the crime.

Harvey is greatly improved and has partaken of considerable nourishment. His spiritual adviser visits him daily. It is said that the prisoner converses with him upon the topic of the murder. The contents of the house were sold this afternoon, Harvey having given Dr. Lett a power of attorney for that purpose. The money obtained by the sale will be used to pay Harvey's debts and the balance given to his son.

The Embezzlement Case.

GUELPH, April 3.—The embezzlement case against Wm. H. Harvey was called in the Police Court to-day on a remand from last week. Mr. Peterson, on behalf of the Crown, stated that he did not consider it either becoming or necessary, as the prisoner was in custody on a much more serious charge, to press this charge of embezzlement, but that it would be better to have a further remand granted so that the prisoner and his friends might, if they saw fit, avail themselves of Mr. Lyon's offer to permit an investigation of his books.

Mr. Guthrie, Q.C., who appeared for Mr. Lyon, said that Mr. Lyon, except for the purpose of securing public investigation into this charge, had no desire that it should go further under existing circumstances, but that the prisoner's friends had cast doubt on the allegation of errors in the books it would be desirable, and Mr. Lyon so wished, to have a public investigation. He consented to a remand for the purpose of affording the prisoner and his friends an opportunity of examining the books if they so desired.

Mr. Kenneth Macleon, who appeared for the prisoner, was anxious that an investigation of the books should take place and competent auditors appointed by each party. He said it was the prisoner's desire that this should be the case. The Magistrate said that he had only power to remand the case for eight days, but he could remand it again at the expiration of that time. The case was therefore remanded.

TORONTO TOPICS.

Mrs. Grue.' Failure—A Druggist's Death by Poison—Fatal Accident.

TORONTO, April 3.—Hess Brothers, manufacturers, have succumbed to the weight of circumstances and a meeting of creditors is called. The recent fire was a severe blow, and, coupled with other reverses which might otherwise have been tided over, has brought an unexpected tumble. The liabilities known amount to about $60,000.

The failure of Halley Brothers, wholesale tea and cheese, Yonge-street, is also announced, the liabilities amounting to something in the neighborhood of $15,000.

The Women's Enfranchisement Association held their first ward meeting in Cecil Hall. Dr. Emily Stowe presided. Mrs. J. A. Cassen gave an account of her visit to the House of Commons, and Mrs. Vanzey read a paper on the progress of woman suffrage in England.

At the Toronto Presbytery meeting yesterday morning a resolution strongly condemnatory of the Jesuits' Act allowance was unanimously carried.

Referring to the death of Hon. John Henry Pope, a private letter from Ottawa says: Sir John Macdonald was with his old colleague a few hours before his death. Mr. Pope made a great effort to say goodbye for the last time, and the two shook hands and parted. The deceased Minister was a millionaire and by his will has left the Premier a legacy of $100,000.

Charles F. Wilkes, a druggist, carrying on business at Beaverton, died under circumstances of a No. 43 Stewart-street Monday night. Mrs. Wilkes has occupied furnished rooms at the above address for some time while her husband attended to his business at Beaverton. He occasionally visited her, and arrived quite unexpectedly on Saturday night, not having informed Mrs. Wilkes beforehand that he purposed visiting Toronto. Wilkes has been married for many years, and has no children. He was 50 years of age. It is stated that the deceased was in the habit of taking a strong drug to overcome the effects of intoxicants. Coroner Duncan held an inquest yesterday and it was shown that the cause of Wilkes' death was an overdose of morphine, taken as an opiate.

An injunction was obtained yesterday restraining Chief of Police Grasett and Const. Lee West from paying over or recovering the money found in West's possession at the time of his arrest. West is the alleged New Orleans boodler, and $1400 was found on his person when arrested. The sum is therefore tied up until Friday.

When James Jeffery took boarding at a house on Rhyter-street he presented a recommendation from the Y.M.C.A. as a good Christian young man in search of work in a Christian family. This was a month ago, and on Saturday he was caught stealing. Yesterday morning Jeffery was sentenced serving sixty days in jail, and was committed to the Central Prison for 6 months.

Thomas R. Milne, veterinary surgeon, No. 2 Bloor-street east, was arrested Monday night on a very serious charge, it being alleged that he snatched a satchel from Miss Miss Simpson on Saturday night. A remand until to-day was made. Col. Denison examined Miss Simpson relative to bail. The latter stated that she passed the defendant's office about 9.30 o'clock on the night in question. He came out and addressing her asked her if he could not carry her parcel. She walked on, unheeding him. In front of the Ladies' College the prisoner threw the satchel from her hand. It contained three pairs of gloves and $1.25 in money. He positively identified the prisoner as the man who committed the robbery. He was liberated on bail.

The World this morning says: "His Lordship Bishop Walsh of London, The World is informed on undoubted authority, has been appointed to the Archdiocese of Toronto. The official announcement will be made in a few days."

Yesterday afternoon John Davies aged 12, of 81 Niagara-street, jumped off a train going west near the foot of Bathurst-street. He was struck by a train going in the opposite direction and had his left leg severed at the knee and the right leg above the ankle broken. He was taken to the Union Station, where Dr. Riordan dressed the wounds, after which the injured man was conveyed to the Hospital. He rallied and for a time was conscious but gradually sank, dying at 5.40 last evening. Deceased was a G. T. R. brakesman, but was not on duty at time of accident. He was married.

Chicago's Daily Murder.

CHICAGO, April 2.—Charles Hutchinson, aged 22, was murdered early this morning by his brother-in-law, Patrick Reynolds. Hutchinson and his mother lived in Reynolds' house. Hutchinson rose from bed and entering the room where his sister and her husband were sleeping, demanded that they close their window. Reynolds ordered Hutchinson out and Hutchinson struck Reynolds in the face. Reynolds seized the water pitcher and struck Hutchinson with it with so much force that the handle was detached. Hutchinson again rushed at Reynolds and the latter struck him with the jagged handle of the pitcher, one of the edges of which severed Hutchinson's jugular vein. He fell and as he was bleeding to death Reynolds and his wife went back to bed and fell asleep. Neighbors reported the matter to the police and the entire family was arrested. This evening Mrs. Reynolds made a confession.

Maloney Threatens Retaliation.

MONTREAL, April 2.—When Andy Maloney's case was again postponed this afternoon Maloney complained of the delay and said he had been ready from the moment of his arrest to meet the charge. He openly declared in court that the goods were his and he meant to have them sooner or later. When the other man done he would have actions against the parties who had caused his arrest.

The U. S. Senate Committee on Canada.

A WINNIPEG ELOPEMENT.

Widow Anderson's Charge Against a Young Scotchman—A Drop in Flour.

WINNIPEG, April 3.—There is trouble in All Saints' Church (Episcopal) over Ritualistic practices of the pastor and several of the congregation threaten to secede.

A Sure Remedy for Neuralgia.

Neuralgia is one of the most common and painful affections incidental to the climate. Life to thousands is made miserable through its agency, and as it affects the nerves, only the most powerful and penetrating remedies can reach it. Nerviline has created wonder in the minds of those who have anxiously tried other remedies, since its action seems magical. To all suffering from any kind of nerve pain, internal or external, we request a trial of Nerviline. Sold by druggists and all dealers in medicine, 10 and 25 cents a bottle. 6w14d

Ulcerated Stomach.

"For three years I was unable to work, suffering from ulcerated stomach. Medical aid having failed, I was told to try Burdock Blood Bitters, of which 7 bottles made a permanent cure. This was two years ago, and I feel that I have to thank B.B.B. for being alive and well to-day." Mrs. Rose Ann McCloskey, Marmora, Ont. 2w14d

A Frightened Mother.

"My little girl, 4 years old, frightened me one night by a croupy cough. But I gave her a dose of Hagyard's Yellow Oil, which relieved her at once, and she slept well all night. I have since used it in several cases of croup, frost bites, etc., and find it always reliable." Mrs. Eva Bradley, Virden, Man.

The Blood is the Life,

And on its purity largely depends the general health. No one is free from danger, and nine-tenths of humanity actually do suffer from one form or other of impure blood. No one remedy has such a wide range of curative power as has Burdock Blood Bitters—that best of all blood purifiers and tonics.

The Loss of the Hair

Is a great misfortune and the sight of a bald head should be a warning to you to take the best possible care of your hair. A little of Dr. Dorenwend's "Hair Magic" used occasionally will prevent all chances of its falling out or turning gray, and will remove all traces of dandruff. Every druggist has it in stock. Ask for it. dw

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles.

SYMPTOMS—Moisture, intense itching and stinging, most at night, worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia. Lyman, Sons & Co., Montreal, Wholesale Agents. dw

The Safe Plan.

When suffering from a troublesome cold, a hacking cough, hoarseness, asthma, bronchitis, or other forms of throat or lung troubles, is to use Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam to loosen the phlegm and soothe and heal the inflamed mucous surfaces. It cures where others fail. 2w14d

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

An alarm of fire was caused last night about seven o'clock by a blaze that was started in the shafting of Meldrum & Davidson flour mill by the friction of a belt. The Cricket Grounds.

Peterborough cricketers complain of the inefficiency of their grounds, but an outside view is entirely different. Speaking of the dilatory state of affairs in Montreal in connection with cricket, Sporting Life, April 1st, says:—"There is the material in Montreal for a grand team, and if we take all Canada, there are to be found, in places like Hamilton, Guelph, Peterborough, and Toronto, men to compose a team which could stand against any team. Why is it, then, that Montreal does not make some effort? No grounds? Peterborough has a population of only ten thousand, and yet their club possesses a model ground of its own and another one for lacrosse, and as a consequence turns out some of the best cricketers in Canada. Why should not a big city like Montreal get grounds? Where there is a will there is a way.

St. John's Church.

Rev. Mr. Roger on "The Reading of the Bible."

There was again a large congregation in St. John's Church on the occasion of the Wednesday evening service. After Evening Prayer an address was given by Rev. J. S. Roger, of St. Thomas Church, Toronto, on the subject of "Reading the Bible." The reverend speaker said he had a large subject but it was one on which there could be a large degree of agreement. It was important to distinguish between the Bible as a mere book and its nature as a revelation of the will of God. This revelation came from God. It was a supernatural message influencing human knowledge for man's eternal good. It came from Heaven—from God, Himself; it was not the product of man's wisdom. The proof that the authenticity of the Bible was in the Bible itself was not a safe one, because the most varying interpretation had been made of its contents. Nor was the noble feeling that the Bible was the work of God an adequate and sufficient test of its divine authority. The belief that the Bible itself contained convincing proofs of the genuineness of its authority had not led to unity of belief, interpretation and practice amongst Christians. The dicta of St. Peter's chair, on the other hand, the other extreme, were unsatisfactory. The decree—the final pronouncement on the subject—had gone forth that the Latin Vulgate was the correct version, but that infallible proof was fallible, for within a year that dictum had been retracted. The most satisfactory proof was in the church universal, which, recognizing Holy Scripture as mentioned in the sixth of the Articles of Religion as "containing all things necessary to salvation," had made successful efforts to collect authentic copies of the sacred writings. We had a three-fold witness, the awakened conscience, the Holy Spirit bearing witness to our spirits and to the truth of the Bible. The Bible had been collected long

AFTER CHRIST'S CHURCH WAS FOUNDED.

Historically the church was before the Bible. Christ's authority settled the genuineness of the Old Testament Scriptures. The authority of the New Testament was that every book bore the apostolic seal. There was the most indispetible proof that all the books were written by apostolic hands, or as the record of apostolic doctrine. The church had no unwritten tradition over-riding the written word. The several books were carefully preserved by the churches and collected at the end of the second century as we have them now. We had the pure record in our present Bibles—no one fundamental doctrine had been changed. Reference was made to the misuse of the word "gospel" in restricting it to its literal meaning. The full New Testament meaning was a record of the historical acts and facts of Christ. It was pointed out that the church of England took the record of Christ's acts and gave expression to them in various forms throughout the whole Christian year and each day emphasized some important fact. She also took the historical gospel and expressed it at every morning service in the shape of a creed and in the Te Deum in the form of a psalm of praise. In the Litany the gospel was placed in the form of a prayer. The practical question was the devout use of the Bible. There were difficult passages in the Bible but there were others where those seeking spiritual comfort would find messages of peace. There was a three-fold meaning in the Bible, historical, doctrinal and mystical, answering to the human body, mind and spirit. To read the Bible properly and profitably there must be a definite and regular time for reading it every day. We should, in the busiest season, snatch a quarter of an hour for studying the Bible on our knees. The reading of the Bible by course was not a wise way. It was recommended to read first the four gospels and then the Psalms. It would be well to sometimes read a whole epistle at a sitting to get its full meaning; at other times a particular passage would be sufficient. The speaker closed his excellent address with a few words of exhortation and admonition.

News Nuggets.

—The Chemong Lake line will be open for traffic about the 1st of June. The railway company intend building a station and wharf at the northern terminus.

—A valuable team of horses owned by the Dickson Lumbering Co. was drowned on Saturday by breaking through the ice on Kushog Lake, and another team in Gold Lake on Monday last.—Echo.

—It has been reported in Kinmount, a correspondent writes, that the G. T. R. is going to extend its line from Haliburton to Mattawa, and that the C. P. R. is talking of running a line through from Peterborough to Orillia, passing through that village.

—The handsome 21 year old daughter of Mr. Chas. Saroud, of Fenelon, committed suicide by hanging last Friday. She went to the barn and, taking a trace chain, looped it about her neck; then fastening the free end around the pole of a reaping machine, which extended over one of the bays, she jumped from the breast beam and so caused her death. No cause is assigned.

Harvey.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

CONCERT.—A concert was held in School No. 8, Harvey, on the 14th of March. As the weather was exceedingly favorable a large crowd was present to witness the acting of several persons already known to fame. Mr. James Hicks, ex-Reeve of Harvey, occupied the chair. After a short speech by the chairman, a programme of considerable length was carried out. In so short an account as this it would be needless to state the programme in full. Suffice it to say that there were two dialogues and three recitations by school children, six dialogues by older ones and between these music was excellently supplied by the choir of the local Presbyterian church. A duet by Miss Chase and Mr. Fourneau, a song, viz., "Don't go Near the Bar-room, Brother," by Miss Renwick, Miss Chase and Mr. Fourneau, and a solo by Mr. John Chase, were especially noticeable. Three readings were also given, a tableau scene and "God Save the Queen" brought it to a close—if we except the part acted on the road afterwards. The general opinion of outsiders is that talent for such things is not wanting there.

Keene.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

The Sabbath school lessons for the quarter ending March were reviewed on Sunday last in the Presbyterian church by the Rev. F. Andrews, in his usual able manner.

The I.O.G.T., of Keene, is progressing favorable.

Mr. Keene, second son of Geo. Keene, Keene, has left these parts and is going to try his luck in far off lands. We wish him success in his venture.

The river is now clear from ice. Boating will soon be the pastime of the country gentlemen.

Springville.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

FALL WHEAT is looking fairly well, and if the present dark weather continues it will be a great benefit to the farmers, as there is a large area sown.

FARM SOLD.—Mr. William Ferguson has sold his farm, known as the Chas. Brealy homestead, to Mr. J. Williamson, of Manvers.

SPRINGVILLE CHURCH.—By request Rev. Mr. Beamish preached a temperance sermon in the support of the Scott Act, which was well appreciated by the congregation.

PECULIAR FORGERY CASE.

A Young Man Gets His Sweetheart to Forge a Name

And Then Leaves Town—Efforts of the Friends of the Accused to Shield Him—How a Witness was Brought Around to Confess the Whole Truth—An Interesting Trial.

There are now four prisoners in gaol awaiting trial on a charge of forgery or uttering a forged instrument. They are William Ross, Irvine Rorabeck, "Vic." Milburn and Chas. Foster, the last named being committed this forenoon by P. M. Dumbie on a charge of "uttering." The trial was one of peculiar interest, and before it closed took quite a sensational turn that tickled the couple of hundred spectators mightily.

Chas. Foster, it will be remembered was brought back from St. Thomas Tuesday night, where he had been arrested while on his way to Detroit. He was charged with forging the name of Mrs. Arthur Armstrong, of Millbrook, to a bill-of-sale or rather lease of a Singer sewing machine, for which Foster was agent, his alleged object in doing so being to collect the commission thereon. Mr. R. E. Wood, C.C.A., conducted the prosecution and Mr. R. M. Dennistoun defended the prisoner. Mr. J. O'Meara watched the interests of the Singer Sewing Machine Co.

It would appear from the evidence that it was a family affair all through. The Mrs. Armstrong whose name was forged is a sister of Foster, and naturally the woman's husband endeavored to shield his brother-in-law. The way he fenced the Crown Attorney's questions was amazing. Mrs. Armstrong being ill was unable to appear, and Arthur Armstrong in his evidence could not say whether that was his wife's signature on the lease or not. It might be—he wouldn't say it was or it was not—it looked like her writing but really thought it was not. He and his wife never corresponded before they were married so he could not positively identify the signature. He, however, knew that his wife got no sewing machine this winter. There was no other Mrs. Arthur Armstrong in the vicinity he knew of. When asked if he had not told Chief Roszel yesterday that he could positively identify the signatures, he said he told no one such a thing, for he could not.

The next witness, Elizabeth Mix, of Ashburnham, succeeded in creating quite an excitement. She swore that she saw the paper signed at the house of Mr. Arthur Armstrong in Millbrook last February by Mrs. Armstrong. Witness had just called on Mrs. Armstrong, and while there the prisoner (Foster) came in with the paper and Mrs. Armstrong signed it. She was ill, and just able to sit up. There was another woman in the house whom the witness did not know.

Mr. WOOD—There's something wrong here. Mrs. Armstrong says she didn't sign the paper.

WITNESS—Yes, she signed it.

Mr. WOOD—Did you see her sign it?

WITNESS—Why, of course; do you think I am telling lies?

Mr. WOOD—No; but I thought perhaps you might be mistaken about it.

WITNESS—No, I'm not. Continuing, she said all she knew was that Mrs. Armstrong signed a paper that looked like the lease produced in court. This witness was then allowed to go, but being afterwards recalled, some spicy developments were made.

Meanwhile several other witnesses were examined, and the lawyers in the case had several little "tiffs," objecting and arguing over the evidence at every opportunity.

WM. RUSSELL, another agent of the Singer Company, told of his efforts to fix the charge upon the prisoner and have him arrested. When he first heard of prisoner's flight he telephoned Mr. Hore, the manager, in Lindsay, and received instructions to have Foster arrested. Then he went to Millbrook to see Mrs. Armstrong, and was told by her that she never signed any paper of the kind. He produced in court a genuine sample signature of Mrs. Armstrong's, which he did not think resembled the one on the lease. She further told witness she had got no machine nor had she seen her brother since last June.

Mr. DENNISTOUN, in cross-examining, sought to show that the witness had been actuated by motives of ill-feeling in following up Foster, and that the company were merely prosecuting in order to have their commission ($6) and the amount of his board bill ($18), for which they were responsible, refunded; but the witness denied the allegations, and said if the truth was told the prisoner was guilty of forging several other leases. It was true the company asked to have Foster released while under arrest at St. Thomas, for the amount involved was so small they did not think it worth while prosecuting for. The prisoner, before leaving town, witness said, brought the lease into the office and told him it was for a machine he sold Mrs. Arthur Armstrong, his sister. When he went down to see about it he found it was not so.

MISS SARAH ANDERSON, book-keeper in the company's offices, testified that Foster brought the lease to the office; said his sister had bought the machine, and paying the first instalment of $3, received $6 cash, part of the commission. The sale was reported in February.

Frank Coon, also an agent of the company here, said the morning Foster left town he got an anonymous post card telling him he would get the machine, a hand one, at McComb's glove shop. He accordingly went and got it. He could not identify the writing on the post card. Mr. Jas. McComb said the prisoner left the machine there about a week before that, asking him to keep it till he called for it.

Mr. HORE, manager of the agency here, said he was in Lindsay when informed by telephone that Foster had forged several leases and skipped out. He then gave instructions to have him stopped. He admitted that the company was willing to have the prisoner released at St. Thomas, before they knew the charge was true, but it could not be legally done. Now he believed the prisoner had done the deed intentionally.

CHIEF ROSZEL testified that on the way back from St. Thomas with the prisoner, the latter had made some involuntary confessions. Prisoner stated that he had not committed the forgery, nor did Mrs. Armstrong sign the paper, but another woman signed it. He said he intended to make Mrs. Armstrong a present of the machine unknown to her. Yesterday morning the prisoner farther told the Chief that he could prove by a witness that he did not sign the paper, but when asked if the witness could prove that Mrs. Armstrong did sign it, he said not. Prisoner on the way down from St. Thomas said he had posted a card at a small station on his way westward Monday morning, telling them where to find the machine.

At this point Mr. Wood changed the charge to "uttering a forged instrument," and asked for another enlargement to secure the attendance of Mrs. Armstrong, but Mr. Dennistoun objected. The Magistrate admitted that there was something very peculiar about the whole affair.

Finally the former witness, Elizabeth Mix, was recalled and cross-examined by Mr. Wood.

He asked her to tell all about the signing of the paper. The witness then said she called at Mrs. Armstrong's house and there were two women here. She could not tell which was Mrs. Armstrong, for she did not know either of them. She had never seen them before, but declined to say why she called. Foster came in and one of the women signed the paper he gave her. She couldn't say it was Mrs. Armstrong or not signed, but it was not the one who was sick.

This young man Foster is engaged to your sister, is he not?

I don't know.

And he got her into trouble didn't he?

I don't know anything about it.

Didn't you get a telegram from Foster at your home in Ashburnham "telling Jemima not to come, that he was coming back?"

Yes, my husband got it.

What is your sister's name?

Jemima Mabbett.

Now don't you know that Foster got her into trouble?

No, I don't, Mr. Wood.

Now, I am told it was your sister signed the paper. Is that so?

Witness, after hesitating and looking around—Yes it was.

What's that? Your sister signed the paper.

Yes, my sister. I may as well tell the truth now as that you won't be coming at me again.

Where was this?

At my house in Ashburnham.

Was this man Foster there?

Yes he was.

Witness on being pressed told the whole story. Foster and her sister were together at her house one day, and while in a room upstairs she heard Foster ask her sister to sign it. She came down and saw her sister writing on the paper.

What made you say before it was Mrs. Armstrong signed it?

Well, it was the way you asked me. You didn't ask the questions right and I got so puzzled. That was why I said it.

Mr. WOOD—Well, we've got the truth at last. You might as well have told us that at first.

WITNESS—You are to blame. You didn't ask the questions properly.

Mr. DENNISTOUN then questioned the witness and asked her if this little story she had told was not her own idea; if she had not made up the yarn herself.

Witness replied that no one put it into her head, but (with a baleful look at the Crown Attorney)—It was Mr. Wood's fault, not asking me those questions in a right way.

This closed the case, and after Mr. Dennistoun had delivered his argument in behalf of the prisoner, the magistrate committed Foster to trial, saying he thought it a very clear case of forgery, though he had an impression at first that perhaps some woman in Mrs. Armstrong's house had signed it with the consent of Mrs. Armstrong. But from the turn the evidence had taken he could not but believe this was a deliberate, cool bit of forgery, and he would therefore commit the prisoner for trial.

THE EIFFEL TOWER.

An Ascent With M. Clemenceau—The Exposition Buildings.

LONDON, April 3.—The Eiffel tower in Paris, 1178 feet high, has been completed. I was up to the 1000 feet mark last week. I ascended with M. Clemenceau, Admiral Maxse and Miss Maxse, a girl of 16, who was the first lady to reach that altitude. At 1000 feet the winding stairs stopped. I crawled across the plank over the abyss on my hands and knees. On rising to my feet I stumbled out, but fortunately regained my balance and did not fall off the exposed platform, but the moment was somewhat ghastly.

Then M. Clemenceau and I began the ascent of the ladders, about thirty feet high. The wind was blowing hard, and there was a slight shower of hail. It was bitterly cold. The ladders shook under the ascent. I persuaded M. Clemenceau to desist. His hands were so cold he might have slipped, and the consequences to the Republic would have been calamitous for description. We came down the ladder and felt much more comfortable when we were once more on the staircase.

The ascent by elevators will be accomplished in five minutes, while to walk up the spiral staircase requires forty minutes. With an electric light on the summit it is expected that a person can read a newspaper seven miles off. The light will be visible for forty miles. There is a restaurant on the first landing, at the height of the towers of Notre Dame. Messrs. Spiers & Pond were the English contractors. The tower is very graceful, and is visible from all parts of Paris. The wind whistles in the iron girders as it whistles in the rigging of a ship.

The exposition is still in great unreadiness. Great cases from the United States are lying ready for unpacking, but no exhibits are in sight. After France, England will be the chief exhibitor. The buildings are of unprecedented solidity and extent. The Champ de Mars is connected with the Invalide Esplanade by an extensive annex. The hall of machines is a magnificent expanse of glass.

Removed South of King John.

ROME, April 3.—A rumor is current that King John of Abyssinia is dead. It is said his death was due to wounds received in a battle with the forces led by the Dervish Mottems.

A Professional Bond Hunt—A $20,000 Libel Suit on Trial.

TORONTO, April 4.—George Fielding, professional boarding-house hunt, thief and religious fakir, was in the Police Court yesterday charged with a series of larcenies committed in different city boarding-houses. A small army of boarding-house marms told how he had defrauded them and stole articles from their houses. Wherever Fielding went he was always accompanied by a female accomplice, whom he passed off as his wife. When the Magistrate hears some further charges against him he will sentence him to a good term in prison, it is expected.

Miss Violet Simpson was again positive in the Police Court yesterday that it was Veterinary Surgeon T. A. Milne who snatched her satchel in Bloor-street Saturday night last. The girl was so positive that the Magistrate said he would send the case to a jury. Mr. W. G. Murdoch who appeared for the accused said that while the young lady was evidently sincere in her evidence, yet Mr. Milne could give a satisfactory account of his whereabouts at 8.30 on Saturday night, the hour of the alleged robbery. Robert Milne, a farmer of Pickering, put up a $600 bond for his brother's appearance.

The trial of Farquhar Brothers' $60,000 libel suit against John Ross Robertson, proprietor of The Telegram, was begun yesterday. The alleged libel consisted in the publication of an article containing the words "Patriotism is the Last Refuge of City Contractors," supposed to be a reference to Dr. Johnson's famous mot, "Patriotism is the Last Refuge of a Scoundrel," and other articles, and in writing to the City Engineer a letter designed to prevent the plaintiffs from obtaining a contract for the laying of the asphalt pavement in Bay-street for which they had tendered. The case is creating considerable interest.

John Lee West was liberated from custody yesterday morning, he having agreed to the restitution of $2400 of the money found on him the day he was arrested to Charles Feahney, the New Orleans merchant, from whom it was stolen. Mr. Badgerow stated that as the witnesses from New Orleans were not willing to come here to prosecute West, and it would be impossible to proceed against him in the absence of these witnesses, therefore he would withdraw the charge. West was thereupon discharged.

A Professional Mother.

"My little girl, 4 years old, frightened me one night by a croupy cough, but I gave her a dose of Hagyard's Yellow Oil, which relieved her at once, and she slept well all night. I have since used it in several cases of croup, frost bites, etc., and find it always reliable." Mrs. Eva Bradley, Virden, Man.

The Blood is the Life,

And on its purity largely depends the question of health. No one is free from danger, and nine-tenths of humanity actually do suffer from one form or other of impure blood. No one remedy has such a wide range of curative power as has Burdock Blood Bitters—that best of all blood purifiers and tonics.

The Loss of the Hair

Is a great misfortune and the sight of a bald head should be a warning to you to take the best possible care of your hair. A little of Dr. Dorenwend's "Hair Magic" used occasionally will prevent all chances of its falling out or turning gray, and will remove all traces of dandruff. Every druggist has it in stock. Ask for it. dw

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles.

SYMPTOMS—Moisture, intense itching and stinging, most at night, worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia. Lyman, Sons & Co., Montreal, Wholesale Agents. dw

The Safe Plan.

When suffering from a troublesome cold, a hacking cough, hoarseness, asthma, bronchitis, or other forms of throat or lung troubles, is to use Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam to loosen the phlegm and soothe and heal the inflamed mucous surfaces. It cures where others fail. 2w14d

SIR JOHN'S BEST FRIEND.

THE PREMIER'S EULOGY OF HIS LATE COLLEAGUE.

Mr. Laurier and Mr. Hall Also Pay Tributes to Mr. Pope—Bills Passed in the House Yesterday.

OTTAWA, April 4.—After routine and before the business set for the day was taken up, Sir John Macdonald asked the permission of the House to make a reference to the career of his late colleague, Hon. John Henry Pope. The Premier said:

After the kind notices that have been given by the press without distinction as to politics, I do not feel warranted in occupying the time of the House but for a few moments. The circumstances between Mr. Pope and myself commenced so long ago as 1846, forty years ago. I first met him at an assemblage of the British American League, which met at Kingston in consequence of the unhappy disturbances at the time. He came as a young representative from the Eastern Townships to represent the British inhabitants of that part of the country. Looking back to the result of that meeting, which was called with the loyal intention of calming public excitement which had been raised, from that time our friendship and acquaintance has been continued without break. Perhaps no two men in the world were more allied to each other in sentiment and feeling.

He came to Parliament with the reputation of being a man likely to be a valuable representative of the people, and those expectations were not disappointed. He was a man, perhaps the most influential that ever came from the Eastern Townships. He was a leader in that part of the country. He was looked up to as a man having the great faculty of governing and controlling men. Before he became a member of the Government he was a very valuable member of Parliament. His practical common sense, his kindliness of heart and demeanor, his great sense of humor gave him a position in the House which was almost unexampled for a man who had struggled against those disadvantages to which I have alluded.

I early learned to know his value and I was only too glad when I was able to persuade him, as I believe in the public interest, to give up his private life and take office and assist in the task of administering the affairs of the country. He was not disappointed with the result and none of his colleagues were disappointed. No one could fully know the value of Mr. Pope who did not sit with him in this Council. His great administrative ability, his freedom from all illiberality, his disinterestedness in his own affairs and his desire to do what was best for the country were so obvious to all his colleagues that he received to him a large degree of influence which was deserved.

His powers of administration were shown in the Department of Agriculture. Himself a practical farmer on a large scale, he brought an intimate acquaintance with the subject to the administration of his department. The same intimate acquaintance with the subject with which he had to deal was displayed by him in the Department of Railways and Canals. Engineers who were connected with the department were surprised at his intimate knowledge in every connection with railways. All his colleagues reverenced him greatly, prized his ability and deeply regret his loss. He was not only respected and esteemed but loved. It was my melancholy privilege to be present at the banquet given to Mr. Pope by those people whom he represented so long, and to see in the countenances of those who were present their realization that they were listening to him for the last time.

The country has lost a great man. The Government has lost a minister who's place they will be unable to supply and as for myself I have lost the best friend I have in the world.

Hon. Wilfrid Laurier also pronounced a feeling eulogy on the deceased minister. He thought it was only due to say that the people who knew Mr. Pope little knew what a powerful mind his was. Without having had educational advantages he possessed great practical resources always at his command, and in all questions of importance he was capable of finding a solution always the best. He was endowed with a quality of perseverance which made him carry to the end anything which he undertook. There never was another man in the Eastern Townships who had such a hold on the people as Mr. Pope had. In Compton all creeds and races were his friends, all looked up to him, and would sorrow for his death.

Mr. Hall said he was sure that the sentiments expressed by the Premier and leader of the Opposition were those of all the people of the Eastern Townships, and as one of the representatives of that district he could not let the occasion pass without joining in the tribute to the memory of the deceased.

The House then went into committee on the Franchise Bill and continued in committee until 6 o'clock. The Minister of Justice explained that it would be necessary for him to examine some of the amendments to the act and the committee reported progress.

Hon. Mr. Tupper moved the second reading of his bill to amend the revised statutes respecting the safety of ships. This bill was introduced at the last session and withdrawn. It was subsequently submitted to ship owners and shippers, who approved of its provisions. The object of the bill is to make clear and strengthen the act now on the statute book and to make it similar to the English act. The bill defines unseaworthiness so as to make convictions possible, and provides for the safety of vessels carrying grain cargoes and makes provision in regard to the evasion of the deck load law. At present it is possible for a vessel to load at Montreal, taking a deck load after the time allowed by law, taking out clearing papers for the United States and sail across the Atlantic. The bill adopts the English clause relating to contracts of service by making the owner responsible for the seaworthiness of the ship and provides that all necessary means shall be taken to render the ship seaworthy.

After recess the House again went into committee on the Franchise Bill and after an hour's discussion the committee rose and reported progress.

The House then went into committee on the bill amending the act respecting the safety of ships. The bill was read a third time and passed. So also were the bills respecting the harbor of Belleville, the Western Counties Railway and the Steamboat Inspection Act.

The House adjourned at 12.45.

The Manitoba Loans.

OTTAWA, April 4.—Hon. John Carling has given notice of this resolution: "That it is expedient to provide that the amount due on certain loans amounting in the aggregate to $96,400, made to Manitoba immigrants on the security of members of their community resident in Ontario, should be computed as though the interest stipulated had been 4 per cent. compound interest, and that payment in full may be adopted on the basis of such computation."

Hardie Must Go Back.

HALIFAX, April 4.—Judge Ritchie delivered judgment to-day ordering the extradition of Henry Hardie, the New York forger, and remanded the prisoner for 15 days in order that the papers may be sent to Ottawa for signature. It is reported that Hardie's counsel will appeal to the Supreme Court of Canada.

SEVENTEEN CONSTITUENCIES "VOTED WET" YESTERDAY.

The Scott Acters Fail to Get There in Every Instance—Full Returns of the Poll—Comparison With Previous Votes.

TORONTO, April 5.—Fifteen counties and two cities voted yesterday on the repeal of the Canada Temperance Act. The elections were all in Ontario with the exception of one—Colchester in Nova Scotia.

The result was a clean sweep for repeal. Every constituency gave majorities against the act, ranging from 125 in Brant to 1700 in Kent. In Colchester the figures are not yet reported, but the majority for repeal is large.

The table below shows the majorities for repeal in the elections yesterday together with the majorities by which the act was originally adopted in the various places and the date of the last election:

Counties.	Maj. for Repeal.	Maj. Adopt. ed by.	Last Election.
Brant	125	602	Dec. 84
Carleton	125	693	Jan. 85
Colchester, N.S.	—	1234	May 81
Frontenac	300	510	May 85
Kent	1700	2363	Jan. 85
Lanark	500	606	Jan. 85
Lennox & Add	546	26	Jan. 85
Lincoln	500	570	June 85
North. & Dur	600	2487	Feb. 88
Ontario	600	1351	July 85
Peterboro	439	411	Sept. 85
Victoria	800	1015	July 85
Wellington	1000	1430	April 85
Cities.
Guelph	462	196	Jan. 85
St. Thomas	571	11	March 85

Every place in Wellington gave a majority against the act.

In Lennox and Addington only two places gave majorities against repeal.

The friends of the act failed to carry a single ward in Guelph.

The greatest change was in Kent. On Jan. 15, 1885, the act was carried by 2363 majority and yesterday it was buried by 1700 majority.

"Kronk" is likely to be a drug in the market.

Gloucester is the only place in Carleton reporting a majority against repeal.

Last year fourteen counties voted on the act. Westmoreland, N.B., and Richmond, Que., gave majorities for the act. All the Ontario counties, ten in number, voted "wet."

Ontario Hotel-Keepers Jubilant.

WOODSTOCK, April 4.—The interest here over the result of the Scott Act contests in the various counties to-day has been intense. It was felt that the effect, whichever way it went, would control the action of the parties in this county. This has been considered the safest county for the Scott Act in the province, and the vote has been put off till the last. The hotel-keepers are jubilant, and it is almost certain that it will be allowed to go by default.

SUPPLEMENTARY ESTIMATES.

A Little Over Two Millions Asked—The Total for 1888-89 $37,625,325.

OTTAWA, April 4.—The supplementary estimates of expenditure for the current fiscal year ending June 30, 1889 were submitted this afternoon. A great part of the amounts now asked to be voted have already been spent under Governor-General's warrants. A few of the more interesting items are:

THE MOST FAVORED NATION.

Senator Wark Introduces His Anti-Unrestricted Reciprocity Resolution.

OTTAWA, April 4.—The attention of the Senate was to-day devoted to this resolution proposed by Hon. Mr. Wark:

"Resolved as the opinion of this House that in view of the fostering care extended by the Mother Country to her colonies from their infancy, as well as for the favorable terms on which their products have always been admitted in her markets, it would be unjust to the United Kingdom to levy higher duties on goods imported from thence than on goods of the same character imported from any foreign country."

Speaking in support of his own motion Senator Wark expressed regret that the movement to prevent the closer union of the colonies had been spoken of in very disrespectful terms in some quarters on this side the Atlantic. He was opposed to the Unrestricted Reciprocity movement, and on this score was sorry to have to differ from his political friends, because he thought it would give a death blow to the attempts to more closely unite the colonies and the Mother Country.

Senator Power followed and the debate was adjourned.

A Fatal Fence Dispute.

COVINGTON, Tenn., April 4.—In a quarrel over the building of a fence between their properties, D. S. Billings yesterday shot and killed his neighbor, ex-Tax Collector A. J. Yarbero. The latter had threatened Billings with a knife and an axe. Billings is a school teacher.

The Yorktown Ordered to Sail.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., April 4.—Secretary Tracy has ordered the new cruiser Yorktown to be made ready for sailing on April 20. All that remains to be done is, it is said, to place the stores on board. It is thought she will be sent to New York during the "centennial of Washington" inauguration.

A Determined Suicide.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., April 4.—R. K. Lord, captain of the steamer W. R. McKeen, rowed to the middle of Lake Maxinkuckie to-day, anchored his boat, tied a heavy piece of iron to his leg, slashed himself with a razor and jumped overboard in 35 feet of water. The body was recovered.

A FOE OF THE REPUBLIC.

PREMIER TIRARD DEMANDS BOULANGER'S PROSECUTION.

The Chamber of Deputies Divide on the Question—The Government Sustained—The Calliope Safe.

PARIS, April 4.—The Chamber of Deputies agreed to the immediate assembling of the Bureaux for the purpose of electing a committee on the prosecution of Boulanger. A committee was appointed and subsequently presented its report to the Chamber. The committee advised the House to authorize the prosecution of Boulanger.

The Chamber voted urgency for the discussion of the accusations against Boulanger and the debate proceeded.

Paul de Cassagnac pronounced the charges against Boulanger a tissue of absurdity and of falsehood. He declared that the real arbiter between Boulanger and the Government was universal suffrage.

Premier Tirard called upon the Chamber to authorize the prosecution of Boulanger. He said: "We desire to prosecute a man who is seeking to overthrow the Republic. It is our duty to defend the institutions of our country against the intrigues of factions and to take every means to safeguard France from the horrors of civil war. I am convinced that the people will justify the action of the Government."

After speeches by the members a vote was taken on the question of sanctioning the prosecution of Boulanger, the Chamber decided 358 to 220 in favor of prosecution.

MM. Laguerre, Laisant and Lalanne have gone to Brussels to consult with Boulanger. M. Laguerre, before his departure, said he and his associates would return Saturday to face judgment.

Boulanger's Flight From France.

PARIS, April 4.—The National Committee of the Boulangist party announces that Boulanger departed from France by the advice of the committee. Four members of the committee opposed the step. M. Thiebaud, the principal election organizer of the party, and Deputy Michelin have seceded from the committee as a protest against Boulanger's action in leaving the country. It is reported that M. Susini, M. Laur, and other Boulangist Deputies have adopted a similar course. M. Thiebaud also retired from the editorship of Cocarde, the Boulangist paper. He says he is disgusted with the secrecy maintained by Boulanger, which tends to mislead the latter's friends, and M. Michelin contends that Boulanger should have remained and faced even martyrdom. The Bonapartists approve the General's course, while the Royalists stigmatize his flight as an act of cowardice.

Senator Naquet, Deputies Laisant and Lagnerre wrote to Boulanger about the middle of March advising him to flee. The General strongly objected to this course as he knew that he would be accused of cowardice if he left the country. Finally M. Naquet and his two deputies threatened to secede from the party unless he took their advice, and it was this threat that caused his departure.

Prosecuted by the Police.

BRUSSELS, April 4.—MM. Lagnerre, Laisant, Laberries, Naquet, Millevoye and Pascomarin have arrived here. An attempt of students to hold an anti-Boulangist demonstration on their arrival was frustrated by the police.

An Awful Threat.

BRUSSELS, April 4.—Boulanger says if he is expelled from Belgium he will go to England.

Sir Charles Russell's Defence.

LONDON, April 4.—Sir Charles Russell continued his speech in behalf of the Parnellites before the Parnell Commission today. He explained the constitution and objects of the League formed by Mr. Davitt, of which Mr. Parnell was president, and said that of the persons composing the Executive of the League only five were connected with secret organizations. The League's appeals, he declared, were based upon the necessities of the farmers and were entirely constitutional. They were intended to guide the farmers in their distress. He pointed out that Mr. Parnell and his followers had been vilified and misrepresented like Messrs. Bright and Cobden in the early days of their reform movement. Prominent members of the League were in favor of boycotting, which up to a certain point they considered justifiable right. He held that Parnell was not liable, criminally nor otherwise, unless he was a party to murder and outrage as a part of the agreed objects of the League.

The Naval Proposals.

LONDON, April 4.—In the House of Commons this afternoon on the report stage of the naval proposals, a motion by Mr. Childers against the financial method of the scheme was rejected by a vote of 168 to 126. Mr. Gladstone supported the motion.

Salisbury's Candidate Rejected.

LONDON, April 4.—The House of Lords by a vote of 98 to 77 to-day elected the Earl of Morley (Lib.) chairman of committees, rejecting the Marquis of Salisbury's candidate, Lord Balfour of Burleigh.

The Calliope Safe.

SYDNEY, N.S.W., April 4.—The British man-of-war Calliope, which escaped destruction in Apia Bay during the cyclone there March 16 and 18 by putting to sea, has arrived here and she reports leaving Samoa March 21 and that the United States man-of-war Nipsic had been floated off the beach, the natives lending material assistance.

Before the hurricane burst every precaution had been taken by the commander of the Calliope to render the vessel secure. Five anchors had been dropped, but when the storm was at its height four of the anchor chains snapped and the vessel began to drift. The captain then determined to leave the reefs and if possible reach the open sea. This he eventually succeeded in doing, making his way out at the rate of half a knot an hour. The heavy seas broke over the vessel, doing much damage, but not a life was lost. Thousands of people flocked to the waterside to see the Calliope and all united in praising the pluckiness of her captain.

Stanley and Emin Heard From in February.

BRUSSELS, April 4.—Advices received here from Stanley Falls state that Arabs who have arrived there report that Henry M. Stanley and Emin Pasha were heard from in February. They were then marching toward Zanzibar with several thousand men, women and children. They also had 6000 tusks of ivory.

The Arabs who brought news of Stanley and Emin arrived at Stanley Falls in February. They claimed to have seen Stanley several months before that time.

THE RESULT.

The result of the voting yesterday upon the petitions for the repeal of the Scott Act in fifteen counties and two cities, was to the general public, a surprise. In every contest the Act suffered defeat and very decided defeat in the majority of cases. It was generally felt in this county that the Scott Act had lost somewhat in popular favor, but it is probable that very few were prepared for the decisive change in sentiment expressed by a repeal majority of over four hundred as compared with a majority of nearly four hundred (391) in favor of the Act in 1888. The returns, so far as received, indicate a marked falling off in Scott Act sentiment in every quarter. It must be said to the credit of the Repeal party that they were their triumph very moderately and made no public demonstration of delight over their success. The contest on both sides, was, as to the polling day, carried on very briskly, but at the same time without friction or unpleasantness, except such as that incident to the terribly muddy condition of the streets and roads. The Scott Act party held council in their rooms over the result, and showed no symptoms of dismay but struck out a new programme of action, a more detailed reference to which is to be found elsewhere in this impression. The causes which led to the effects of yesterday, admit of much speculation. That the causes were not local, is shown by the fact that in fourteen counties, stretching with very unimportant intervals from one end of Ontario to the other, a common expression of public sentiment hostile to the Act was given; and Colchester in New Brunswick took the same groove. Now that the Act is repealed, its place is supplied by a license law much improved over that replaced by the Canada Temperance Act in 1886. Now that public sentiment has pronounced so generally and unmistakeably in favor of the Crooks Act, one fact will tend to assist in its strict enforcement. With public respect for the Ontario License Act, and with its stringent provisions, it is probably the best legal enactment extant for minimizing the evils of the liquor traffic.

Women's Missionary Circle.

Secretary's Report.

The following is the tenth annual report of the Women's Missionary Circle of the Baptist Church here:—

In presenting the tenth annual report of our Women's Missionary Circle, we would gratefully acknowledge the hand of God leading and guiding us to the present time.

During the past year we have, humanly speaking, labored under disadvantages, owing to the unavoidable absence of some of the officers, and the illness of others, with whom our sisters sincerely sympathise in their affliction. There has been one removal.

We have also been reminded that this earth is not our home; one of our members has been called to hear the Master's "Well done."

Two new members have been added, therefore, our number remains the same, forty-two. Ten meetings have been held, made interesting by gleaming missionary news from the Link, the Baptist Magazine and the Herald.

An open meeting of the Mission Circle and Band was held in May, at which a musical and literary entertainment was given, members of the Circle and Band taking part. $7.06 was realised by the sale of flowers and the refreshments. The Circle devoted their share to Home Missions.

In June the annual meeting of the Peterborough and Belleville Association was held here, which was attended by representatives from most of the Circles in the Association. It was encouraging to meet with so many co-workers in the Lord's vineyard. Mrs. Barker delivered a good address which gave us courage to go on in the Master's work.

Two delegates were sent to Toronto from our Circle in October to attend the annual meeting of the Society. Full and lengthy reports were given by these ladies on their return, showing the financial state of the Society, also the work that is being done by our missionaries, both at home and in the foreign field, and the great need of money and men to carry on this work.

In December a union meeting of the Circle and Band was held in the afternoon. At that meeting, Mlle. La Forte gave an interesting address on La Grande Ligne, showing the origin and growth of the work of missions in the sister province of Quebec.

During the past year the attendance at our monthly meetings will compare most favorably with that of preceding years. We trust in the year on which we are just entering, our sisters will show greater interest by being present at our meetings.

Poor People's Chances.

Some years ago a city missionary was crossing one of the parks in London on the Sabbath day, and said to a lad, "What are you doing here, breaking the Lord's day? You ought to be at church and worshipping God instead of breaking the Sabbath in this way." The poor lad in his rags looked up and said: "Oh, sir, it's very easy for you to talk that way, but God knows that we poor chaps ain't got no chance."

The sentiment seems to be growing that in the United States the time has arrived when "the poor chaps don't have no chance."

There is some truth in it. The poor are not shut out from making a livelihood, but the gulf between riches and poverty continually grows more difficult to cross. As the country becomes densely populated keen business competition decreases the chances for accumulating wealth by ordinary business methods.

But the same conditions vastly improve the chances for great success to those who can strike out in new paths, can furnish something to the world that others cannot.

True merit, in commodity or ability, will win easily if the masses can be induced to recognize it.

What a marvelous success has attended the thorough introduction to the world of the merit of that wonderful remedy for kidney disease—Warner's Safe Cure. Hon. H. H. Warner first came to know of its curative power by being restored to health from what the doctors pronounced a fatal kidney trouble. He concluded the world ought to know of it and in the ten years since he began its manufacture he has spent millions of dollars in advertising the Safe Cure.

But mark! he never would have secured a four fold return of the vast sums thus expended if the real merit of the remedy had not been fully proven to the millions of people reached by his advertisements.

Ten years of increasing success of Warner's Safe Cure is due, first, to intelligent and pleasing advertising, by which the people were made acquainted with the remedy. Second, to the true worth of the remedy, proved by actual experience, showing it to be the only specific for kidney disease, and all diseases growing out of the kidney de-

The trial of the Farquhar Brothers' $80,000 libel suit against John Ross Robertson of The Telegram was continued all day yesterday. The evidence for the defence was not all in when the court rose. The defendant himself when in the box said he thought the only good pavements in the city were 200 feet in Toronto-street and the asphalt in Bay-street.

MOVED THE MILL TO CANADA.

A Michigan Firm's Scheme to Avoid Payment of a Mortgage.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., April 4.—Deputy-Sheriff Jones of Detour arrived here last night and stated that Meiles Brothers of that place, who are largely engaged in lumbering in this vicinity, have packed up their goods to leave for Canada. Hurd and Hovenstein of Buffalo held a mortgage of $45,000 on the mill of the firm and it was due in a few days. Monday about 3 o'clock the tug Dowling loading two vessels from Saginaw landed at Detour presumably for a cargo of lumber, but at night a hundred men concealed in the boats came ashore and began removing all the machinery of the mill and movable property on board. At noon to-day all was loaded except the boiler and the workmen began tearing down the mill. The sheriff received notice to stop the operations at any cost but no authority was sent. The telephone and telegraph wires are cut in three places and there is no communication with Detour. All will be loaded by midnight and the tug and vessels will be on their way to Spanish River, Canada, where the firm has lately purchased a site.

The Gas Combine.

St. Louis, April 4.—It is announced that 20,000 of the 25,000 shares of the Laclede Gas Company have been purchased by a syndicate composed of the Vanderbilts, August Belmont and Mr. Laird, the London banker. It is also stated that this syndicate will obtain a controlling interest in the gas trust here and combine all the properties under one organization, with a capital of $12,000,000. It is said the price paid for the Laclede company stock is $140 per share.

That painful complaint can be quickly cured by the right remedy. Miss Mary Jane Cowid, of Stoney Creek, Ont., says: "I was troubled with lumbago, and could not get relief until I used Hagyard's Yellow Oil, one bottle of which cured me entirely." 2w14d

25 REASONS FOR DRINKING ROYAL DANDELION COFFEE

Some drink because they are hungry.
And some because they're dry,
Some drink to keep them in good health,
And some that they may thrive.

Some drink because they are too hot,
And some because they're too cold,
Some drink to strengthen them when young,
And some when they are old.

Some drink to keep them wide awake,
And some that they may sleep,
Some drink because they merry are,
And some because they weep.

Some drink when they do money gain,
And some because of loss;
Some drink when they are pleased,
And some when they are cross.

Some drink when they are hard at work,
And some when they do play;
Some think it right to drink at night,
While others drink by day.

Some drink for sake of company,
While others drink on the sly;
And many drink but never think,
About the reason why.

Some say they drink for pleasure,
And some they drink for pain,
Some say 'tis good, some very bad,
But never once refrain.

Yet all must own the proverb true:
"When iron's hot to strike it"—
I've just found out the reason why—
All drink because they like it!

A Professional Bond Beat—A $20,000 Libel Suit on Trial.

TORONTO, April 4.—George Fielding, professional boarding-house beat, third and reluctant lobby, was in the Police Court yesterday charged with a series of larcenies committed in different city boarding-houses. A small army of boarding-house marms told how he had defrauded them and stole articles from their houses. Wherever Fielding went he was always accompanied by a female acquaintance, whom he passed off as his wife. When the Magistrate hears some further charges against him he will sentence him to a good term in prison, it is expected.

Miss Lizzie Simpson was again positive in the Police Court yesterday that it was Veterinary Surgeon T. A. Milne who snatched her satchel in Bloor-street Saturday night last. The girl was so positive that the Magistrate said he would send the case to a jury. Mr. W. G. Murdoch who appeared for the accused said that while the young lady was evidently sincere in her evidence, yet Mr. Milne could give a satisfactory account of his whereabouts at 8.30 on Saturday night, the hour of the alleged robbery. Robert Milne, a farmer of Pickering, put up a $600 bond for his brother's appearance.

The trial of Farquhar Brothers' $20,000 libel suit against John Ross Robertson, proprietor of The Telegram, was begun yesterday. The alleged libel consisted in the publication of an article containing the words "Patriotism is the Last Refuge of City Contractors," supposed to be a reference to Dr. Johnson's famous mot, "Patriotism is the Last Refuge of a Scoundrel," and other articles, and in writing to the City Engineer a letter designed to prevent the plaintiffs from obtaining a contract for the laying of the asphalt pavement in Bay-street for which they had tendered. The case is creating considerable interest.

John Lee West was liberated from custody yesterday morning, he having agreed to the restitution of $1400 of the money found on him the day he was arrested to Charles Feakney, the New Orleans merchant, from whom it was stolen. Mr. Badgerow stated that as the witnesses from New Orleans were not willing to come here to prosecute West, and it would be impossible to proceed against him in the absence of these witnesses, therefore he would withdraw the charge. West was thereupon discharged.

The Oddfellows' Committee, elected to watch the interests of local Protestantism, have sent out invitations to the members of Parliament who voted for the disallowance of the Jesuits' Estates Bill, to speak at the public meeting to be held here on April 22.

At the hospital Thomas Barone, a laborer working at the Don improvements, had a crushed hand amputated.

While turning the corner of Yonge and Queen-streets William Carrie, express driver, was thrown from his seat on the pavement. Several bones were broken.

The failure of Hess Bros. will involve several creditors here. The first of these to go is that of E. Wilde of Queen-street west, who assigned yesterday.

Sir Charles Tupper arrived in the city yesterday from Kingston and will testify in the Onderdonk-C.P.R. arbitration to-morrow.

Rev. Elmore Harris, for seven years pastor of the Bloor-street Baptist church, has resigned.

The death is announced this morning of John Oulett, the well-known sporting man and road-house keeper of Eglinton.

The closing exercises of Knox College were held yesterday afternoon. The degree of D.D. was conferred on Rev. Mr. McMullen of Knox Church, Woodstock, and Rev. D. H. Fletcher of Hamilton.

Mr. Drury, Minister of Agriculture, was seen yesterday morning as he was leaving town and asked if he had heard anything definite yet as to the result of the experiments in England, which were instituted in order to see if Canadian two-rowed barley would be a suitable grain for the English market. It was a woefully mid smile that came over that gentleman's face when he replied: "Yes, I regret to say I had a cablegram to-day which says the experiment has proven that our barley will not do. So far I have not had any particulars but expect to get a letter with the official report by first mail."

Rev. John J. Dobbin, a young married Presbyterian minister, recently in charge of the mission at Caledon East, was arrested in Toronto yesterday on a charge of indecent assault on young boys, the complainants being members of his own congregation. He was taken to Brampton by Constable Hurst of that town by last evening's train.

The arbitration between the Canadian Pacific Railway Company and the Dominion was resumed this morning at 11 o'clock in the Chancery Court rooms, Osgoode Hall. The amount in dispute is variously estimated to be between four and five million dollars and judging from the number of witnesses the costs must have already been enormous. The railway company's claim briefly is that the Government guaranteed the portion of the road through British Columbia constructed by them to be up to a certain standard which was not carried out by the Government engineers and Mr. Onderdonk, the principal contractor. The C. P. R. are now claiming for large amounts spent on the road, accidents and other damages since receiving it from the Government. The day's sitting was taken up with the examination of Sir Charles Tupper, whose visit to Canada is for the purpose of giving evidence in the case, a commission to examine him in London having been refused by the courts. The High Commissioner was Minister of Railways at the time the work done by the Government on the line of the C. P. R. was being completed, and as such carried on the negotiations with the C.P.R. syndicate.

Mr. Lincoln Accepts.

WASHINGTON, April 4.—Robert T. Lincoln called upon the President and Secretary Blaine to-day and formally accepted the English mission. He will sail for England about May 15.

The St. George Sufferers.

ST. GEORGE, April 3.—Only five of the persons injured in the bridge disaster are still under treatment. All the others have gone to their homes. Mr. Thomas Doutney, the evangelist whose injuries were very serious, left for his home yesterday.

Was the Bridge Defective?

OTTAWA, April 3.—Mr. Mulock is about to inquire of the Government whether their attention has been drawn to an article in The Engineer criticising unfavorably certain work in the St. George bridge, where the recent disaster might be accounted for; also whether any steps are being taken to see whether or not other railway bridges are similarly defective.

The Loss of the Hair

Is a great misfortune and the sight of a bald head should be a warning to you to take the best possible care of your hair. A little of Dr. Dorenwend's "Hair Magic" used occasionally will prevent all chances of its falling out or turning gray, and will remove all traces of dandruff. Every druggist has it in stock. Ask for it. dw

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles.

SYMPTOMS—Moisture, intense itching and stinging, most at night, worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulcerates, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia. The Safe Plan.

When suffering from a troublesome cold, a hacking cough, hoarseness, asthma, bronchitis, or other forms of throat or lung troubles, is to use Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam to loosen the phlegm and soothe and heal the inflamed mucous surfaces. It cures where others fail. 2w14d

A Sure Remedy for Neuralgia.

Neuralgia is one of the most common and painful affections incidental to the climate. Life to thousands is made miserable through its agency, rendering it almost impossible to [illegible] In the majority of cases this terrible disease is caused by [illegible] in the system, or those who have recently tried other remedies, down the system racking paroxysms. By administering from sixty kinds of nerve tonics, blood purifiers or external, we succeed in a total of Neuralgia. Sold by druggists and all dealers in medicine, 10 and 25 cents a bottle. 6w14d

Unexpected Sympathy.

"For three years I was unable to work, suffering from disordered stomach. Medical aid having failed, I was told to try Burdock Blood Bitters, of which 7 bottles made a permanent cure. This was [illegible] years ago, and I find that I have not since had B.B.B. for being alive and well to-day." Mrs. Rose Ann McCluskey, Marmora, Ont. 2w14d

A Frightened Mother.

"My little girl, 4 years old, frightened me one night by a croupy cough, but I gave her a dose of Hagyard's Yellow Oil, which relieved her at once, and she slept well all night. I have since used it in several cases of croup, frost bites, etc., and find it always reliable." Mrs. Eva Bradley, Virden, Man.

The Blood is the Life.

And on its purity largely depends the general health. No one is free from danger, and nine-tenths of humanity actually do suffer from one form or other of impure blood. No one remedy has such a wide range of curative power as has Burdock Blood Bitters—that best of all blood purifiers and tonics.

Mr. W. E. Brown, Grand Secretary of the Grand Council of Ontario, Royal Arcanum, is in town to-day arranging matters relating to the meeting of the Grand Council, which holds its annual session in Peterborough on the second Wednesday in May.

The Galway Lead Mining Company are getting made a number of bugles from the gold extracted in the manufacture of their celebrated B 4 Any brand of pure white lead, which they intend distributing among the painters who use their goods. Capable and Experienced.

The following paragraph is taken from the Orillia Packet: "The Packet has been requested by a lady reader to state that Mrs. W. A. Staunton, who has lately removed with her husband to Peterborough is a capable and experienced nurse and will be much missed in that capacity by many here."

The Canoe Club.

Members of the Otonabee Canoe Club are reminded that the annual meeting takes place at the club room, Cox Block, to-night. It is imperative that there be a large attendance, as besides the election of officers the important business that usually crops up at an annual meeting must be attended to. Let every member resolve to be on hand.

The Talk of the Town.

The people are wondering why Elliott & Tierney are giving 18 lbs. bright sugar for $1, and selling teas and other goods so much cheaper than any house in Peterborough. Call at the Palace Grocery and examine the goods, which will convince you. The "Palace" is the place to get best values. Great stock-taking sale now going on.

"Don't Trash me no More," but go and get me a 5 pound package of that fine tea for $1 at M. R. Kidd's.

Just the Place.

When preparing for the usual changes in house furnishing incidental to the spring house cleaning season, don't forget the furniture shop of D. Belleghem, 188 and 190 Hunter street, Peterborough. Remember Belleghem's Furniture Shop when you want anything in the line of furniture or repairs. dw

A New Organist.

The Port Hope Times says:—It is a matter of congratulation that we have in our midst musical talent of rare attainments, which are often the means of bringing outside plaudits upon the possessors. Miss Spooner, of this town, is the fortunate person in this case, for she has received the appointment of organist and leader of the English church choir in Ashburnham, a suburb of Peterborough. Miss Spooner will remove to Ashburnham temporarily. We congratulate the young lady on her success, and feel confident she will prove a valuable addition to the church to which she goes as organist.

THE SCOTT ACT REPEALED.

Public Opinion Strongly Pronounces Against it.

A Small Vote Polled in Peterborough County. Yet a Large Majority Against the Act—Quiet and Effectual Work of the Repealers—The result Silently Accepted on Both Sides. Repeal all along the Line from the Sea to Sarnia—The Act Repealed in 15 Counties and Cities. —Average Majority 600.

The long expected contest culminated in the final struggle yesterday, and the result is a serious defeat for the Scott Act. This result was achieved very quietly on all sides. The Scott Act party seemed to be the most active, but an undercurrent of energetic work permeated the ranks of the repealers. As was to be expected, the vote polled was very small, perhaps not half of the names, on the defective Dominion voters' list used, having been recorded.

The day passed quietly in town, the hotel bars as a rule were closed and their proprietors actively engaged in the promotion of their interests. As the returns began to come in the public interest in the result became aroused, and from early in the evening till late in the night the pavement and street in front of the windows of the Peterborough Bookstore, where the returns from both county and country were displayed as fast as they came in, were thronged with the public thirsty for statistics of the result. This was the only adequate means in the town last night for giving the public information in regard to

THE RESULTS OF THE VOTING.

When the returns from the town came in and showed a majority of 140 against the Act as compared with a majority of 24 in 1886, the hopes of the most sanguine friends of the Act became weak and this depression became increased when it appeared that Ashburnham increased its majority of 9 against the Act to 45. A somewhat similar ratio of increase of the anti Scott Act vote marked the rural returns. Up to this writing the figures available for comparison show some emphatic flop overs. Take Otonabee. That township in 1886 gave a majority of 145 for the Act and yesterday this was wiped out and converted into a minority of 6. In Ennismore the Scott Act majority of 33 was converted into a repeal majority of 115. The total vote polled in this township was 120, of which those favoring the Act can be counted on the fingers of one hand, viz. 5. Asphodel's '86 majority of 46 for the Act was converted into a hostile majority of 51. In 1886 North Monaghan gave 17 for the Act and yesterday a repeal majority of 6. Incomplete returns from other townships show a decline of the popularity of the Act, and it is not probable that the figures to hand, showing a majority of 400 against the Act, will be decreased to any material extent; on the other hand, if the same ratio of change of public sentiment, should be shown by the full figures as obtained in the places heard from, this majority will be increased.

The victorious party took the result very quietly and with a few exceptions the hotels were the most quiet parts of the town in the evening, and the streets were very peaceable.

The Antis' committee rooms were in the Cavanagh block, but when the result become sufficiently known to admit of no doubt, they dispersed quietly.

"DEFEATED BUT NOT CONQUERED"

was the watchword of the temperance party. The big majority against the Act in this county and the unanimous repeal vote throughout the province were not anticipated. It was thought on both sides that the voting would be quite close, but as the returns came in it was soon apparent that the Act was lost. The Scott Act party's headquarters were in the W.C.T.U. rooms. It was believed that when the majority in town was kept down to 133 the townships would carry the balance the other way, but when Otonabee and others went against the Act and Ennismore returned such an overwhelming majority in favor of repeal, the temperance party threw up the sponge. But they took their defeat with good grace. About eight o'clock speech-making was begun, and the sentiment of one of the speakers, "defeated, but not conquered," was loudly applauded. Mr. J. J. Hartley moved a vote of thanks to Dr. Fife, chairman of the Scott Act Association, for his efforts in behalf of the temperance cause. This motion was seconded by Mr. H. Rossiter, and spoken to by Messrs. Yelland, and Clegg, and, of course, unanimously carried. Dr. Fife made a suitable reply. Then the meeting resolved itself into a committee to discuss ways and means, Mr. J. J. Hartley taking the chair. There were a number of speakers, all urging the necessity of adopting some forcible plan of action, if the temperance cause was to win. It was pointed out that the elections in Peterborough were usually won on such small majorities that a few earnest temperance men banded together could wield the balance of power and so practically rule the elections. All of the speakers declared their intention to make temperance their politics in future, and have no dealings with either of the present parties unless temperance was a plank in their platform. The parliamentary as well as municipal representatives, were denounced for their anti-temperance principles and faithlessness to pledges made at election times. The speakers were of opinion that both political parties were incorrigible, and that the only remedy was to organize a new party entirely, in which principles of temperance and righteousness would be the planks. Amongst those who made addresses were Messrs. J. W. Flavelle, W. J. Mason, M. Bone, Robt. Weir, Wm. Camming, F. Wesley and the previous speakers. The consensus of opinion was strongly in favor of establishing a branch of the new Third Party here, and on motion of Mr. P. H. Green, seconded by Mr. Lindsay, a committee was appointed to procure copies of the constitution of the Third Party and call a meeting of the friends of temperance at an early date to organize. The committee was composed of Messrs. J. J. Hartley, chairman; F. Brownscombe, secretary; W. J. Mason, Wm. Yelland, H. Rossiter, M. Bone, R. Weir, A. Tebb, Wm. Cummin, G. J. Early, P. H. Green, A. Clegg and A. Paterson. The meeting then adjourned.

Is it an Elopement?

Sudden and Simultaneous Disappearance of a Married Church Organist and a Lady Member of His Choir.

For the most of this week a social sensation has been gathering intensely and it has reached such a stage that the EXAMINER detailed a reporter to investigate the matter. The rumour is to the effect that A. E. Carter, organist of St. Andrew's church, had eloped with Miss Addie Graham, of Ashburnham. The facts as learned are that Mr. Carter was seen to board the morning train west on the C.P.R. on Monday, having in his company his little daughter. On the Saturday previous he stated to some parties that he was going to Toronto, but his wife has not seen or heard of him since. He not only has left her without informing her of his whereabouts, but left her without money and also left several bills yet to be settled. Miss Graham, who was a member of St. Andrew's choir, and as a consequence has been in Carter's house, also taking music lessons from him, disappeared at the same time and has not since been heard of. Rumor has been connecting the two parties as constituting a pair of elopers, which can only be disproved or confirmed by a knowledge of their respective whereabouts. The officials of St. Andrew's church are at a loss to account for their organist disappearance and have been investigating the matter. If he is not on hand at choir practice to-night there will be but one conclusion to come to.

MRS. GRAHAM'S STORY.

This afternoon an EXAMINER reporter called upon Mrs. Carter at her residence, 595 George street, to verify the rumor, but no answer was made to the peal of the door bell. A neighbour informed the reporter that Mrs. Carter had gone down town during the forenoon and had not returned.

Then the reporter wended his way across to Ashburnham, and had a talk with Mrs. Graham, mother of the missing girl, who is almost heart-broken over the strange conduct of her nineteen - year - old daughter. She said that last Monday morning the girl left home at the usual hour to go to work in town, and has not been seen since. "I think," the mother said, "there has been some plot, and some harm has befallen her, for she was such a good girl she wouldn't go off like they say she has. She may have gone down to Port Hope, for she has been talking lately of paying her friends there a visit; but then she went away with just her ordinary clothes on, and I don't know what to think. I hear so many stories, but I don't believe any of them. She could not have gone away on the train they say Carter did for she did not leave home till after the train had gone. She was such a good girl, too, that I can't believe it.

"Mr. Carter came over here two or three times, and they say he goes home with the young girls in the choir, but I don't know. I am in great anxiety about my daughter, but I can't think it of her what they say, for she was such a good girl, converted at Schiverea's meetings a few years ago, and she has belonged to the church ever since."

The reporter then came away. An effort is being made to trace the missing girl, and for the benefit of all parties it is hoped the mystery will be soon cleared up.

Ashburnham Brevities.

The latest is an elopement, of which further details will be given. Mum is the word at present.

Inspector Craig has the ground laid out for the new well to be sunk on the corner of Elizabeth and Mark streets.

Personal.

Mr. D. Belleghem has been appointed issuer of marriage licenses for Peterborough in the place of Mr. E. E. Henderson.

Doctor W. J. Delaney, who has recently graduated from McGill College, Montreal, was in town yesterday. He left for Toronto to-day to take part in the examination of the Ontario Medical Council.

"IT IS a fact that many of the best proprietary medicines of the day," said the late Dr. J. G. Holland in Scribner's Magazine, "are more successful than many physicians, and most of them were first discovered or used in actual medical practice. When, however, any shrewd person, knowing their virtue and foreseeing their popularity, secures and advertises them, in the opinion of the bigoted, all virtue went out of them." Failure of eyesight, fickle appetite, headache, extreme wakefulness, frequent desire to urinate, especially at night, gradual failure of strength and dropsical swelling,—these are symptoms of kidney disease. If you neglect the symptoms, you will eventually have Bright's Disease. Warner's Safe Cure is the only specific which has ever been discovered for this disease. The late Dr. Dio Lewis, over his own signature said:—"I I found myself the victim of a serious kidney trouble, I would use Warner's Safe Cure."

FOR NETTLE RASH, Summer Heat and general toilet purposes, use Low's Sulphur Soap. dw

"Sweet Home."

"There is no place like home," runs the old song, and we know how true it is.

The impressions made in the home are lasting. A mother's words never pass from the mind. A father's counsel remains fresh as long as life lasts. The last benediction of parental love and solicitude—with what tenacity it clings to the memory when almost all else has gone.

How important, therefore, that the home be maintained intact as long as possible—a haven of loving counsel, of peace and joy to the growing children. How and when death invades, when the fire goes out on the hearthstone and the family is scattered. What the children lose by the death of a parent only those realize who have grown up without that love and advice which a parent alone can bestow.

There are tens of thousands of parents to-day in agony of mind through fear of death from kidney disease, who do not know they are doctoring only symptoms—such as wakefulness, nervousness, a splendid feeling one day and an all-gone one another, dropsy, weak heart action, pneumonia, neuralgia, fickle appetite, etc., while the real trouble is poisoned blood caused by diseased kidneys. Unless purified with Warner's Safe Cure they will just as surely die, as though poisoned with arsenic.

Doctors publicly admit that they cannot cure advanced kidney disease; they are too bigoted to use Warner's Safe Cure because it is an advertised remedy; consequently, unless you use your own good judgment, secure and use Warner's Safe Cure, a specific which has proved itself in tens of thousands of cases to be all it is represented, your home, through your death, will be broken up and your loved ones deprived of that which money cannot purchase or friends supply.

Assuming a Warlike Attitude.

Many other houses are becoming very indignant at the idea of W. J. Morrow controlling the grocery trade of the town and country, but never mind—be cautious. We will prove to all you grocers who are grappling for high prices, that the time has arrived when W. J. Morrow will enlighten the public; doing more of a cash business and a more extensive trade he is better prepared to sell goods away down. Then again, here are a lot of our best Toronto and Montreal houses clamoring for our trade, owing to our buying for cash, and hence the keen competition, thereby buying goods away below other houses. So a call will convince you that we are Peterborough's great grocery house—340 George street. dw

THE ATTRACTION AT TURNBULL'S.

Whatever the weather has been outside, it was the springiest of Springtime in our Store on Wednesday and Thursday last, when all the new Millinery and Millinery belongings were opened out of their close filling boxes. For the benefit of those who could not get in on those days, we will keep the display up all the first week in April.

Among the leading changes noticeable in the Trimming this season is LACE ENDS and SCARFS and LONG VEILS drawn in with Baby Ribbon at the bottom. Flowers and Ribbons are the leading Trimmings. The old fashioned hop that used to climb on the pole at the back door, is now found falling over the Black Lace Hats. Having struck a cheap line of Flowers (German make) the Germans copy the French designs and give us the Goods much cheaper. We have a Bouquet for everybody. Bunches of Roses in all colors only 25 c. each. Our Stock of CHILDRENS' TRIMMED HATS is unusually attractive. Sailor Hats in endless variety. We have not room to give them a front show. We were disappointed at not being able to show with the Millinery, the new JET CAPES and SILK VISETTES and TRIMMED DOLMANS, but there is time enough yet, and we expect them in on the first freight train. A fine assortment of Cloths in the order department. All hands at work as busy as bees in the workroom up stairs.

The DRESS GOODS Department is as lively as ever. A new line of Vigoreaux Cloth in 8 shades, 44 inches wide, at 60 cents, came in this week; a glance at it will tell you it is serviceable. With them came a new line of German Dress Cloth—we have shown nothing similar before; is just what any lady would fancy for a genteel Dress. Will show another new make next week.

Miss Meighan is always pleased to help you with her advice as to length of Dress Pattern, Style of Making and Trimming, whether you wish to have it made by her or not.

KID GLOVES fresh from the hands of the maker in Austria, at 75c. and $1.00 a pair. This line we had in stock before, but the quantity was small and we only had a pair for a lady here and there.

TALKING ABOUT THE LOAN

MR. FOSTER AND SIR RICHARD DISCUSS ITS TERMS.

Sir John Macdonald Announces That the Government Has Made a New Arrangement With the C. P. R.

OTTAWA, April 5.—In the House this afternoon Hon. G. E. Foster, Minister of Finance, made the explanation promised Sir Richard Cartwright respecting the recent loan. The criticism made by Sir Richard had, he said, together with the paragraph in the prospectus, been carefully considered by himself and the officers of his department, and they had found no cause for alarm. The loans preceding this had sinking funds attached, and to offset these loans $2,000,000 per year had to be set apart and invested. The Government were precluded from buying the stock of companies because of the risk attached, and municipal debentures and Government stocks have often too to be refused. The conditions of consols were such that the Government could not buy them. For a long period therefore we had invested in our own stocks. The prospectuses of other loans called for the purchase of stocks held above par and last year we bought out of the sinking fund our 4 per cent. stock held as high as 114. The prospectus of the 1888 loan only carried out the conditions of previous years, though perhaps the pledge was a little more explicit, but by this clause we were not obliged to buy stock which was unreasonably appreciated.

It was indisputably an advantage to buy from our own stock because there was no income tax to be paid upon it, as there was upon other stock held in England. Of the stock issued for the 1883 loan the Government had been buying since July 1 last, and far from having found it to be unduly appreciated they had bought at a lower price than was received for it. The purchase price has ranged from 94 5-16 in August to 98 in December.

As to the exhaustion of the loan before its nominal termination that possibility applied to most other of our stocks as well. In his opinion there was no ground for alarm or for possible condemnation. He did not think this could possibly prove an unremunerative loan, but believed that it could still be claimed to be the best yet made.

Sir Richard Cartwright in reply held that the engagement entered into by the prospectus was unlimited and stipulated a sinking fund of 10 per cent. per annum. As to the argument that the stock had accidentally been bought back at a low price, it was a well-known fact that after a large loan such as this was placed there was always a large quantity of it lying loose upon the markets for the first six or eighteen months, and it would not be until the stock came into the hands of permanent investors, who realized the position in which the Government had placed themselves, that the effect of the arrangement would be felt.

He proposed at the earliest opportunity after to-day to put upon record his opinion as to the risk we have run in connection with the loan and the probable consequences.

The bill to amend the Fisheries Act was read a second time and considered in committee on motion of Hon. C. H. Tupper. The bill prohibits the use of seines for catching salmon in certain streams which the fish ascend in large numbers on their way to the spawning grounds. Objection was taken by Mr. Kirk, Mr. Ellis and others that this legislation was in the interest of the rich man—the fly fisherman—and against the interest of the man who fished for a living. This kind of legislation, said Mr. Ellis, is what makes socialism throughout the country, and he proposed to divide the House upon the bill on the third reading.

The Senate amendments to the bill respecting rules of court in relation to criminal matters were concurred in.

The House then went into committee of supply, taking up the railway appropriations. With respect to the Intercolonial Railway it was held by some members on both sides that it would be in the interests of that road to be managed from Moncton instead of from Ottawa.

The Canadian Pacific Railway Bill, several times resisted on the order paper and as often put off to a more convenient season, came before the House this evening at the opening of the hour allotted for private bills. After 1½ hours' talk Mr. Laurier called time and the bill had to stand over. The first objections it was raised by Mr. Edgar, who claimed that it lessened the security of the Government for its guarantee of the interest on the $15,000,000 loan. Sir John Macdonald answered him with the statement that the Government had ample security in the lands and earnings, and then the House went into committee.

Mr. Kirkpatrick, the promoter of the bill, offered an amendment, which passed without opposition, to the effect that the bonds might be issued on the authority of two-thirds of the votes of the shareholders, not on the bill as on the authority of the votes of two-thirds of the shareholders.

Hon. A. G. Jones then spoke in reference to the amendment of which he had given notice making it a condition of passing the bill that a sufficient amount of the bonds to be issued under its authority should be set apart for the construction of a line between Harvey and Salisbury, which he claimed had been promised by the Government, and the building of which the people of Nova Scotia had believed to be already a condition between the Government and the Canadian Pacific Company. This missing link, it may be explained, is designed for the benefit of Halifax and by the building of 120 miles of road that city will be made 14 miles closer to the eastern provinces. Mr. Jones announced that he would press his amendment unless there was a promise that the road would be built either by the company or the Government.

Sir John replied quietly that the Government had come to an arrangement with the Canadian Pacific Railway as a result of which the Government would see that the road from Harvey to Salisbury would be completed.

Mr. Jones: "When?"

Sir John Macdonald: "Oh, just as early as convenient! To-morrow perhaps." Mr. Jones looking dubious, Sir John added that it would be "at an early day."

The Bill was about to be adopted by the committee, Mr. Jones being seemingly satisfied to withdraw his objection, but during the little bit of chaff the Opposition had picked up their ears a bit and now Mr. Laurier rose to ask what the new arrangement with the Canadian Pacific Railway meant.

Sir John replied briefly that the Government was coming down with the whole arrangement this session and he had no doubt but that it would prove acceptable.

Mr. Mills next took up the enquiry, and in what Sir John subsequently styled a lecture on constitutional law spoke at length on the impropriety of proceeding further with the bill before the House knew what arrangement this was that had been come to and which would impose further burdens upon the country for enterprises not in the slightest degree of any use.

Sir John made another plea for the bill, pointing out that the arrangement mentioned had no connection with the bill. It was at this time that Mr. Laurier called attention to the fact that the time for private bills had lapsed. "We must stand upon our rights," he said, and the bill therefore stood over.

Now the corridors are prolific of speculation as to what the new arrangement is, and another long Canadian Pacific Railway discussion looms up.

The House next went into committee of supply in consideration of the estimates for the Intercolonial, the Cape Breton and the Oxford and New Glasgow Railways.

The bridge over the Narrows at Cape Breton, for which the contract was recently awarded to Messrs. Reid & Isbester, was the subject of inquiry by Mr. Lister, who asked if the contract had been given to the lowest tenderer. Sir John replied that for good reasons it had not. The contract price was $614,000. Mr. Lister said he had had a letter from Messrs Nealon & Mannah, responsible contractors, who had tendered at a lower figure, and complained that they were passed over without reason. Sir John said the papers would be submitted.

Mr. McMullen gave notice of a series of inquiries respecting the contract for the bread supply for "C" School, Toronto, awarded last fall.

Mr. Charlton inquired whether it is the intention of the ministry during the present session to introduce a bill to incorporate the Orange order.

On the vote for the geological survey Hon. Mr. Dewdney detailed the destinations of officers for the coming season. A new branch of work, he said, will be undertaken by Mr. McConnell, who will prospect in the oil fields of the Peace River territory, and Mr. Tyrell will carry on similar work in the mountains of Manitoba.

The House adjourned at 1.30 till Monday.

MR. POPE'S WILL.

The Estate Valued at $300,000—No Legacy Bequeathed to Sir John.

OTTAWA, April 5.—The late John Henry Pope left an estate of $400,000, about half in cash. The investments are largely in stock of the Paton Manufacturing Company of Sherbrooke and of the Eastern Townships Bank. He bequeathed $4000 to the endowment fund of St. Peter's Church, Cookshire; $3000 to the High School at Cookshire and $2000 to the Hospital at Sherbrooke. Several old residents are remembered in the will. The bulk of the property goes to his widow, his son, Mr. Rufus Pope and his daughter, Mrs. N. B. Ives.

The report that Sir John Macdonald had been left a legacy was not correct.

Hon. Mr. Pope's wealth has been much over-estimated and it has decreased rather than increased of late years, he having it is said lost $200,000 since 1878.

CAPITAL GOSSIP.

A Big Bridge Delegation From Quebec—The Commons Bills.

OTTAWA, April 5.—Hon. Oliver Mowat, who is here attending the Supreme Court, had an interview with Sir John Thompson to-day on matters affecting the northern boundary.

A large delegation, numbering about seventy persons, arrived here to-day from Quebec to interview the Government with a view of getting a subsidy to bridge the St. Lawrence about five miles above Quebec. The Quebec Government have already devoted a sum for preparing plans and surveys, and have promised to give assistance towards the construction of the bridge if the Dominion Government would consent to do the same. It is understood that the undertaking will cost about $6,000,000. The delegation met the Government this afternoon in the Railway Committee room of the House of Commons. They asked that the Government grant a guarantee of 4 per cent. on $3,000,000 bonds for 25 years or a bonus of $2,000,000 for the construction of the bridge. Sir John Macdonald said that it was not likely the Government could afford the desired aid at present, but that it would be matter for favorable consideration in the future.

The Government intend taking hold of Clark Wallace's Combines Bill. Sir John Thompson has given notice that on Monday he will move for the removal of the bill from Public Orders to Government notice. In this case the bill will likely undergo considerable amendments.

A meeting of the Friends on Farmers' Committee was held to day, when a committee was appointed to prepare a report, with the assistance of the Minister of Justice, and suggest such legislation as will meet the case.

Mr. Lepine, M.P. for Montreal East, has asked the Government on behalf of the Montreal Knights of Labor to send labor representatives to the Paris Exhibition to study the relations between labor and capital in France and Germany.

A proclamation is issued prohibiting the use of snares of any kind for the purpose of catching or killing fish.

May 9 is proclaimed as the date for taking a vote in the County of Middlesex on the repeal of the Canada Temperance Act.

Notice is given that the eighth annual meeting of the Canadian Pacific Railway shareholders will be held at Montreal on May 8, and that the meeting will be made special for the purpose of taking such steps as will make available any legislation of the present session of Parliament respecting the issue of consolidated debenture stock.

THE GRAND TRUNK.

Annual Report—Satisfactory Prospects for the Current Year.

LONDON, April 5.—The Grand Trunk report was issued to-night. The directors report that the most satisfactory result of the past half year's working was due to the causes described by Sir Henry Tyler at the general meeting last October. They especially point to the fact that the average fare per passenger and rate per ton were lower in 1888 than ever before in the history of the company, except 1885. Many of these causes have now ceased, wholly or partially, to operate, and the company's receipts are showing each week a satisfactory increase, with fair prospect of improvement in the results as regards a profit for the current year.

VACCINATION'S VALUE.

The Imperial Government to Appoint a Commission of Inquiry.

LONDON, April 5.—In the House of Commons to-day Mr. Picton (Lib.) moved the appointment of a commission to inquire into vaccination. He contended that vaccination was an uncertain preventive of smallpox, while it spread other diseases.

C. T. Ritchie, President of the Local Government Board, announced that the Government assented to the appointment of the commission, believing that an inquiry would dispel the doubts as to the value of vaccination.

A Warrant Out For the General.

PARIS, April 5.—A warrant has been issued for Gen. Boulanger's arrest.

Boulanger's Trial to Begin Monday.

PARIS, April 5.—The Senate will begin the trial of Gen. Boulanger on Monday. During the trial no session of the Chamber of Deputies will be held. Count Dillon and M. Rochefort have persuaded Gen. Boulanger to withhold his proposed manifesto. The Boulangist electoral campaign has been suspended for the present.

The Opportunists and Radical press urged the vote in the Chamber of Deputies authorizing the prosecution of Boulanger by the Government as a death-blow to Boulangism.

Count Dillon and Henri Rochefort will be prosecuted by the Government for their connection with the Boulangist movement.

Sir Frederick Hesse, Or Rest at All.

LITTLE HOPE OF CAPTURING OUTLAW MORRISON.

The Hamilton Mystery—Two Dunnville Men Arrested on a Charge of Murder—Immigrants Pouring Into Winnipeg.

MONTREAL, April 5.—This dispatch dated to-day was received from High Constable Bissonette by his son: "We have been on a journey of 20 miles in pursuit of Morrison. It is impossible to say when we will capture him and when we will return. We are all in perfect health."

Detective Carpenter, who looks considerably worn from his trip after Morrison, seems to have little hope of the outlaw's capture. "If we could locate him," he said, "there are plenty of good and courageous men there now to arrest him, but he cannot be located." Carpenter started for Magantic to-day to continue his search after Morrison.

Detective Arcand, who returned from Sherbrooke to-day, says that the populace of the district is quite a little awed by the expedition and dare not move openly in favor of the outlaw. The general opinion however seems to be that Morrison will not be arrested. His knowledge of the locality is far superior to that of his would-be captors, and everybody is willing if not directly to aid him at least to mislead the authorities to allow the outlaw to escape, if he should be in danger of arrest.

HAMILTON'S MYSTERY.

No Trace of Miss Mackelcan—Died from His Injuries—The Jersey Suit.

HAMILTON, April 5.—Jeremiah Murphy, who fell from the roof of Hendrie's stables on Monday, breaking his leg and injuring his head, died at 4.30 this morning. He leaves a widow and one child.

Although five days have elapsed since the disappearance of Miss Louisa Mackelcan no trace of the missing lady has been discovered. Some circumstances point to foul play and that theory is gaining ground. A large searching party comprising many prominent citizens has been organized and will make a systematic and thorough attempt to-morrow to probe the mystery.

The sale of the Oaklands Jersey herd realized $9596. Twenty of the most valuable animals were reserved for sale in New York.

CHARGED WITH MURDER.

Two Dunnville Men Arrested for Last November's Mysterious Murder.

DUNNVILLE, April 5.—Government Detective Murray of Toronto yesterday afternoon arrested Joe Cleaner of Dunnville. He secured his prisoner about 10 miles from Essex Centre, where he was working in a saw mill, and landed him in Cayuga jail last night. Mr. Murray came here this morning and this afternoon arrested Sam Smith and has taken him to Cayuga. The prisoners are charged with the murder of an unknown man here last November. It is charged that they first robbed the body and then threw it in the canal, where it was found on Nov. 9.

The arrest has caused great excitement here. Detective Murray deserves great credit if he has secured the right parties; all hope of finding the murderer had long since been abandoned.

THE TIDE OF IMMIGRATION.

Setting in Towards Manitoba—The Deteriorated Assassination Hoax.

WINNIPEG, April 5.—Over 1000 immigrants arrived to-day.

Mounted Policeman Masterton of Calgary died suddenly yesterday of heart disease.

A Board of Trade has been organized at Rat Portage.

Edward Stamp of Morden has been fined $25 for pointing a revolver at the sheriff.

The reported attempt to assassinate Wilson of Deloraine turns out to be merely an April fool hoax.

TORONTO TOPICS.

Hangman Armstrong Fined for Drunkenness—Provincial Appointments.

TORONTO, April 6.—When William Armstrong, the man who hanged Robert Neil, was charged with drunkenness in the Police Court yesterday, he said he was not "full" when arrested Wednesday but was suffering from apoplexy, to which he was subject. Col. Denison thought he might be a sufferer from apoplexy, but at the particular time of his arrest he was no doubt filled with whisky. The hangman was therefore fined $1 and costs. He paid his fine and then lodged a complaint with the Chief of Police against the officer who arrested him.

In the Farquhar-Robertson libel suit yesterday the entire day was spent in expert evidence.

Rev. J. J. Dobbin, the Brampton minister who rests under a terrible accusation, returned to Toronto yesterday and engaged N. G. Bigelow to undertake his defence in the trial before the Magistrate's court, which opens at Brampton this morning. He denies the allegations made, and affirms his belief that they are the outcome of a conspiracy among his enemies.

The Board of Directors of the Industrial Exhibition Association met yesterday, appointed chairmen of committees and decided to continue the special attractions this year regardless of expense.

Another detachment of 100 boys from the Fagan Boys' Homes, London, Eng., have arrived in Toronto, and will at once be despatched to different parts of the country to positions already secured for nearly the whole number.

A Bundle of Blunders.

Rev. Mr. Crossley Points out Blunders Made by Christians. These not Christians and Those Tending to be Christians—Another Large Meeting.

Rev. Mr. Crossley, himself suffering from a severe cold, had not the help of Mr. Hunter at last night's meeting, and both he and the large congregation missed his pointed sayings and earnest pleadings very much. Mr. Crossley stated that he had got a telegram from St. Thomas, saying, "All well," and that Mr. Hunter expected to arrive in town Saturday night. Mr. Crossley also said that Mrs. Hunter's illness was not very serious.

After Mr. Crossley had sung that beautiful hymn, "The Life I Live," to the accompaniment of Prof. Parker on the organ, Rev. Mr. Pearson read the requests of prayer, which were numerous as usual.

SOME BLUNDERS.

Rev. Mr. Crossley, spoke on the subject of Blunders, and chose for his text a verse of the tenth chapter of Hebrews.

"He is faithful in promises."

Mr. Crossley said there were 23,500 promises in the Bible, from Genesis to Revelations, and he defied anyone to prove that God had ever broken one single promise. In this connection he said many Christians made blunders, some for instance by cavilling about God's word. Mr. Crossley pointed out that God's word was never violated. A second blunder was in confounding temptation to doubt with doubting. For instance some are tempted to doubt they are saved, but they should not let the temptation to doubt drive them away from, but rather ring them nearer to God. Others again blunder by giving up their faith, because they have certain evil proclivities which they cannot overcome. They should not let these weaknesses affect their faith, for if the will was earnest and the attitude towards God a right one, their faith need not suffer. Pray to God, Mr. Crossley said, to remove these sinful tendencies. Another blunder was in a Christian comparing himself with other people. These should remember that different people had different feelings, as they had different temperaments, and because one Christian did not have the exuberance of spirit and outward demonstrations of others, he should not be discouraged, but repose his trust in God. A fifth blunder Christians made was in examining their feelings instead of their faith. A great many are guided by their feelings, and their faith is liable to be diminished; just as a person reading the almanac advertisements sees all the symptoms of every disease in himself, so Christians in examining their feelings may imagine they have no faith at all. Other Christians confound doubts of themselves with doubts of the Lord.

OTHER BLUNDERS.

Then Mr. Crossley mentioned a number of other blunders that those who were seeking for salvation made. First, they blundered in doubting Jesus' power to keep them; but if they would only start out with confidence, the grace of the Lord would go with them and save them completely. Then they do not see the great sin of unbelief, the sin against love, the sin of ungratitude, the parent of almost every other sin. Still another blunder was in putting off the hour of salvation; but their's was a heinous sin in presuming in God's mercy that He would save them "in some more convenient season," and thus putting off the espousal of God's cause. Then Mr. Crossley mentioned three mistakes seekers made, first in starting and not going through. Theirs was a dangerous course, and he urged them to carry out their determination to seek God and know that they were the saved of the Lord. Again the seeker blundered in trying to "feel" that they are saved before they yield entirely to the Lord. As soon as the unsaved one consciously gives himself up to the Lord he receives the full measure of feeling. The last blunder the unsaved one makes in seeking the Lord is in setting up a standard of feeling which they expect to reach when saved. They must understand that no two persons have the same incidental feelings, but if they have the one essential feeling that was all that was necessary. The Lord's process in saving different ones all depended on the character of the one saved. What each one needed to do as individuals was to decide to seek the Lord and then yield to Him. Many people are waiting for a terrific crushing of the heart or some great commotion instead of yielding to the gradual saving power of Jesus which sometimes comes slowly—but always surely, for "whosoever cometh to Me I will in no wise cast out."

NOTES.

The ministers present last night were Rev. Messrs. Torrance, Pearson, Shorey, Parker and Wilson.

A most enjoyable meeting was that held in the Ashburnham church yesterday afternoon.

There were no special services announced for Sunday morning.

Rev. Mr. Pearson last night explained his absence from town on Thursday when the Scott Act vote was taken. He would very much have liked to have been here, but had to keep a very important engagement. Though defeated, he still believed that this was the brightest day in the cause of temperance.

It is rumored that a purse of money will be tendered the evangelists before they leave as a public testimonial.

The Belleville Ontario is informed that Messrs. Crossley and Hunter will hold a meeting in Belleville next Saturday afternoon. The evangelists have mapped out a programme for the balance of this year and 1890, but in 1891 they promise to pay the Bay City a long visit.

The Port Hope Guide says:—Hunter and Crossley will be in Port Hope on Wednesday, 10th April, and will hold a meeting in the Methodist Church at 10 o'clock on that day. No doubt a large number will be present to greet them.

Eight Deaths From Poisoning.

Our readers are doubtless all familiar with the Robinson poisoning cases, which have recently come to light in Somerville, Mass., a suburb of Boston.

It seems that eight deaths have occurred from arsenical poisoning, seven in one family, and within five years. It is doubtful if the murderers would have been brought to justice had not an examination in which the victims were insured begun an investigation as to why so many persons had suddenly died in one family.

But the sensation from a medical point of view connected with the case, took place in Boston at a recent meeting of the Massachusetts Medico-Legal Society, when it was stated by Dr. Mott that there was general ignorance of the symptoms of arsenical poisoning and because of such ignorance the Robinson poisoning cases had gone on without arousing the suspicion of medical men. The Robinson cases were all treated by regular physicians, with correct diplomas, men supposed to know what they were doctoring for, and to know the effect of drugs on certain diseases. Yet in the five death from arsenical poisoning of which we speak, certificates of death were given for pneumonia, typhoid fever, meningitis, bowel disease, and Bright's Disease.

Is it any wonder that patients are losing faith in their doctors?

In the very same manner thousands of patients are being treated this day for pneumonia, heart trouble, dropsy, incipient consumption, etc., when these are but symptoms of advanced kidney disease, which is but another name for Bright's disease. The doctors do not strike at the root of the disease—the kidneys, and if they did nine times out of ten they would fail—as they are powerless in curing they cannot cure Bright's disease of the kidneys. Rather than use Warner's Safe Cure, a well known specific for this and all other forms of kidney disease, they would let their patients die, and then give a death certificate that death was caused by pericarditis, apoplexy, phthisis or cardiac disease.

Is this not the honest truth? Do you not know in your own personal history very many instances where physicians doctored the wrong disease, and caused untold suffering, and, many times, death?

HELD BY A HOWLING MOB.

Brutal Factional Fight Between Cleveland and Hill Factions at Cohoes.

ALBANY, April 5.—Cohoes has been in the hands of a Democratic mob all day, and tonight the condition of affairs is unchanged with drunken brawlers and excited adherents of the two Democratic factions still excitedly discussing the situation. The Democratic primaries to nominate supervisors, aldermen and a city ticket were held to-day. On the one side was the Cleveland following directed by D. Cady Herrick from Albany with Postmaster Larkin and ex-County Clerk Larkin in immediate command. On the other side was the Hill following directed by Edward Murphy, jr., from Troy with Mayor Garside in immediate command. The rioting was confined to three of the wards. In the other two the Larkin regulars had things their own way, and nominated their men by majorities of 6 and 7. In the other three wards violence was the rule. The Larkin men had the inspectors, the Garside men had the police.

Some time ago one of the police commissioners was "induced" to turn the force over to the control of the mayor, who turned out the old force and formed an entirely new one. The police were present at the polls in force. Civilians sworn in as specials were left in control of the station house. In one of the wards after the regulars had admitted the watcher of the other side to the polling place one of the police endeavored to force his way in. He was warned to desist, but persisted, and with a sledge hammer battered down the door. He was struck on the head with a lead pipe. A hole was cut through his cheek and staggering back covered with blood he fell outside the poll. Then the riot began, pistols, knives and clubs were used. The ballot box was smashed and both sides claimed the victory. No one was fatally injured except, possibly, the policeman.

While this was transpiring, in another ward a policeman endeavored to make his way into the polling place through a saloon next door. He was choked by the proprietor until black in the face, thrown over the bar and kicked into the street. In another ward a policeman battered a man over the head, inflicting injuries which are reported fatal.

Small fights were of constant occurrence. A dozen men are reported seriously if not fatally disabled. The factional feeling runs so high and the disturbance is so great that it is almost impossible to secure full and reliable news.

After the regular primaries were broken up they were continued in the midst of groups of the opposing factions. Two Democratic city tickets and two Democratic candidates in each ward will be the result. The condition of the policeman who was struck with the lead pipe, cannot be definitely ascertained.

Psoriasis 8 years—Head, arms, and breast a solid scab—Back covered with sores—Best doctors and medicines fail—Cured by Cuticura Remedies at a cost of $3.75

I have used the CUTICURA REMEDIES with best results. I used 2 bottles of the CUTICURA RESOLVENT, three boxes of CUTICURA, and one cake of CUTICURA SOAP, and am cured of a terrible skin and scalp disease known as psoriasis. I had it for 8 years. It would be better and worse at times. Sometimes my head would be a solid scab and was at the time I began the use of the CUTICURA REMEDIES. My arms were covered with scabs from my elbows to shoulders, my breast was almost one solid scab and my back covered with sores varying in size from a penny to a dollar. I had doctored with all the best doctors with no relief, and used many different medicines without effect. My case was hereditary, and I began to think incurable, but it began to heal from the first application of CUTICURA. ARCHER RUSSELL, Dealer, Ohio

DEVASTATED BY FLAME.

Dakota and Minnesota Swept by Prairie Fires—Many Lives Lost.

MINNEAPOLIS, April 4.—During the last two days South Dakota and Minnesota have been swept by a series of windstorms, which have caused thousands of dollars damage to property and several lives have been lost. The storm started Monday night and swept over a large area south of the Northern Pacific road in Dakota, and extending into the southern tier of counties in this State. The greatest damage has not been caused by the wind alone, but in many places fires fanned into fury by the storms have wiped out of existence several small villages and hundreds of farmers' houses. The towns almost completely destroyed are Velin, Olivet, Pukwanna, Lesterville and Mount Vernon and three or four other villages were badly damaged. At Velin every house in the place except three was demolished and 100 people are without homes. Lesterville was flattened to the ground and twenty families are without a roof.

A terrible gale of wind struck Mount Vernon, and fire started from a small house that was blown over early Tuesday night. No human power could stop the flames, and in an hour the business portion of the place was one great raging fire, nearly 200 families are homeless and the loss will foot up $200,000. It is reported that several persons lost their lives in the fire, but no confirmation has yet been received. Four large elevators and the Milwaukee depot were destroyed. Near Blunt one man lost nearly 500 head of sheep which were caught in a prairie fire. Several head of horses were saved by swimming the river.

In many places the crops were covered by the loose mud and dust, and will have to be re-planted. Travel was suspended on some lines as great was the force of the wind. The clouds of dust prevented the engineers seeing the track. A report from Gerry says the sun was almost totally obscured, and the superstitious thought the end of the world had come. Farm houses and barns were swept away and horses and cattle were burnt to death by scores. Near Milbank 50 head of live stock are reported lost and the fire has swept over twenty miles of the country, causing much loss.

The storm has abated somewhat, but the wind is yet high enough to keep the fires burning fiercely and further heavy losses are almost certain. The damage in Minnesota is much less than in Dakota. A despatch from Yankton, Dakota, says the records of the Signal Office show that during the prevalence of the fires in this region the humidity was but 7 per cent., a condition of dryness never before observed. The loss in South Dakota will foot up $2,000,000 at a low calculation.

A County Seat Destroyed.

ABERDEEN, Dak., April 4.—Leola, the county seat of McPherson County, was destroyed by a prairie fire during Tuesday's whirlwind. Sixty dwellings and business houses were burned, entailing a loss of $150,000. The only buildings remaining are the Court House, two stores and six dwellings. C. W. Old and Thomas Wardell were terribly burned and cannot live. The surrounding country is nearly devastated. Hundreds of farm houses are in ashes and the bones of burned animals are lying about.

Twenty Houses Burned.

MILLER, Dak., April 4.—Prairie fires last night destroyed about 40 houses, many barns, a large number of horses and cattle, and left about 40 families destitute in the southern part of this county. A terrible gale added to the terrors of the situation. The loss is estimated at $50,000.

A Mysterious Arrest.

DENVER, April 4.—On the receipt of telegraphic instructions from Superintendent Hubbard of the Chicago police to-day Barney McKinney and A. Larkins, two well-known horsemen, were arrested. The arrest is something of a mystery, it being alleged the prisoners are wanted in Illinois for stealing a string of racehorses from Kentucky. The horses arrived here yesterday and were in possesion of McKinney and Larkins. The animals are reported to be worth between $30,000 and $35,000. The prisoners refuse to talk.

Winnipeg Wire Whispers.

WINNIPEG, April 4.—Captain Graham has retired from the Dominion Immigration Department and is succeeded by Mr. Bennett of Brandon.

Within 48 hours 32 cars of cotton goods have passed here for China.

The Grand Trunk's Interstate Case.

WASHINGTON, April 4.—The Interstate Commerce Commission to-day began the hearing of the case of the Grand Trunk Company of Canada upon a charge contained in an order of the commission issued March 26 of violating the Interstate Commerce Law by granting rebates on traffic taken from points in the United States to points in Canada and by charging less than the published rates on such shipments. Otto Kirchner appeared as counsel for the Grand Trunk Company. He stated plainly that it was not within the jurisdiction of Congress to regulate commerce with another country. He said the question was one of the greatest importance and requested to be allowed ten days within which to file a printed brief. This was granted.

The Musicians Released.

NEW YORK, April 4.—There was not sufficient evidence forthcoming to warrant the return to Antwarp of the 400 musicians who were landed yesterday at Castle Garden and they were permitted to leave the Garden to-day.

South Perth Conservative Convention.

ST. MARY'S, April 4.—The Conservatives of the South Riding of Perth met in convention at Fullerton Corner to-day. A large number of delegates were present from all parts of the riding. H. Fred Sharpe of St. Mary's was chosen as the party's candidate for the House of Commons and W. R. Davis of Mitchell for the Local Legislature. The election of officers resulted as follows: W. R. Davis, Mitchell, president; T. Key, Usborne, vice-president; T. D. Stanley, St. Mary's, secretary; R. Switzer, Blanshard, treasurer.

The Guelph Murderer.

OTTAWA, April 4.—Harvey's condition is the same as heretofore reported. He takes nourishment, and converses with those who are permitted to see him. There was a rumor afloat that he had made a confession, but this statement is altogether groundless. Beyond his spiritual adviser, and one or two others, no one has been permitted to see him, and they, it is understood, never approached the question of the murder, but talked to him purely on religious and business matters.

I have since used it in several cases of croup, frost bites, etc., and find it always reliable." Mrs. Eva Bradley, Virden, Man.

The Blood is the Life.

And on its purity largely depends the general health. No one is free from danger, and nine-tenths of humanity actually do suffer from one form or other of impure blood. No one remedy has such a wide range of curative power as has Burdock Blood Bitters—that best of all blood purifiers and tonics.

The Loss of the Hair

Is a great misfortune and the sight of a bald head should be a warning to you to take the best possible care of your hair. A little of Dr. Dorenwend's "Hair Magic" used occasionally will prevent all chances of its falling out or turning gray, and will remove all traces of dandruff. Every druggist has it in stock. Ask for it. dw

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles.

SYMPTOMS—Moisture, intense itching and stinging, most at night, worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia. Lyman, Sons & Co., Montreal, Wholesale Agents. dw

The Safe Plan.

When suffering from a troublesome cold, a hacking cough, hoarseness, asthma, bronchitis, or other forms of throat or lung troubles, is to use Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam to loosen the phlegm and soothe and heal the inflamed mucous surfaces. It cures where others fail. 2w14d

The "Dominion Illustrated."

This excellent illustrated weekly continues to maintain the high artistic and literary standard, and so uniform is its excellence that it is hardly safe to indulge in comparisons. Gambling all Night.

About four o'clock this morning Constable Craig, of Ashburnham, was roused from his bed by a young man who wanted the officer to arrest a fellow who had assaulted him. The complainant exhibited a pair of blackened eyes as a proof of the bad usage he had received. Constable Craig investigated the matter and found that the row had occurred at one of the hotels where a group of men had been gambling all night long, and when the constable arrived on the scene after four o'clock the game of cards was still in progress. The parties to the fracas have been summoned and a police court case will result.

The Water Plants.

The first regular meeting of the committee appointed to arrange for the grand union Farmers' Institute picnic of the five counties at Jubilee Point on the 5th of June, was held at the Morgan House to-day. There were present: Messrs. P. Birdsall and C. O'Reilly, East Peterborough; D. Kennedy and Wm. Collins, West Peterborough; W. J. Westington, West Northumberland; T. B. Carlow, East Northumberland; and E. A. Powers, East Durham. Mr. Birdsall was appointed chairman and Mr. Wm. Collins secretary. The committee decided to have bills and posters printed and the secretary was instructed to invite Hon. John Carling, Dominion Minister of Agriculture; Hon. C. A. Drury, Provincial Minister of Agriculture Prof. Saunders and Fletcher, of the Dominion Experimental Farm; Prof. Mills, Roberts and Shaw, of the O.A.C., Guelph, and Mr. N. Awry, M.P.P., President of the Central Farmers' Institute, to be present at the pic-nic and deliver addresses. The pic-nic promises to be a mammoth affair. Mr. H. Calcutt will arrange boat and railway rates at the most reasonable rates.

The Scott Act Repeat Vote.

The returns of the voting on Thursday are still incomplete. Returning Officer Singleton says he expects to be able to make an official statement on Monday. Unofficial figures give a majority of 149 against the Act in Dummer and 24 against in Otonabee, while Dummer is credited with 82 for Act and Burleigh (official figures), 11 in favour of the Act. The present apparent majority is about 500, which full returns may probably slightly reduce.

Concerts in Cornwall.

The Otonabee Canoe Club held its annual meeting last night. There was a good representative attendance, Commodore John Miller presiding. The following officers were elected:—

COMMODORE—Jno. Miller.
VICE COMMODORE—W. H. Hall.
SECRETARY—A. E. Dixon.
ASSIST.-SECRETARY—Jno. Tucker
TREASURER—C. H. Allison.
COMMITTEE—Messrs. W. A. Moore, A. Clegg, H. W. Stock and F. H. Dobbin.

The affairs of the past year were wound up and the prospects for the coming season discussed. This is the third season of the club's existence, and it promises to be the most successful of any. The officers are an energetic and enthusiastic lot of canoeists, and it is confidently expected that the name, fame and "totem" (little Canadensis, rampant), of the Otonabee Canoe Club will henceforth be spread throughout the entire universe—and Ashburnham. This afternoon the officers will proceed en masse to the club house and prepare for the commencement of active operations.

A Traveller's Complaint.

This forenoon a gentleman who resides three miles from Hastings called at the EXAMINER office to enter a vigorous protest against the management of the Grand Junction line on Saturdays. He says the accommodation provided is altogether inadequate for the requirements of the large crowds which at the end of every week visit Peterborough to do their marketing and purchase supplies. Notwithstanding that the traffic is doubled and quadrupled on Saturdays no extra accommodation is provided, the consequence being that members of men and women have to stand up in the aisles and on the platforms outside during the run to town. The crush begins at Hastings, and for the comfort and safety of the public and for the benefit of the road as well as in the interests of the town, an extra coach should be attached on Saturdays at that village. The Grand Junction line is suffering in popularity, and consequently in patronage, on this account, many persons preferring to drive to Norwood and take the C. P. R., and for the benefit of all parties the necessary accommodation should be provided. It is to be hoped the railway authorities will take the matter into their consideration and remedy the defect.

"White Caps" in Peterborough.

Peterborough rejoices in a new society, of a similar class to the secret avengers who are spreading their brotherhood all over the country under the name of "White Caps." The organization sent out its first official notice to-day, a citizen of Peterborough, who shall be nameless inasmuch as he is not considered worthy of being called a man by that honorable body the Whitecaps, receiving the following document, nicely done in type-writer printing:—

Peterborough, April 4th, 1889.

B—— M——,

You have been for some time past under the eyes of our members, and this is to warn you once and for all, if there is not a change in your behavior soon, and that change for the better, you may as well pass in your checks at once. You will do well to notice the following points and govern yourself accordingly. We have seen your poor wife slaving, by taking in washing and other things too many to say anything about, to keep you, you lazy good for nothing, in beer and newspapers, while you sit around the house.

You must either get to work or ——.

We will give you no second advice, but three days only to get to work, and then "Beware" if there is not a change.

Signed "THE WHITECAPS."
Head Office.

The document was ornamented at the bottom by a suggestive pen sketch of a boiling tar-pot and a rooster rampant which crows:—"Cock-a-doodle-doo! Take me for it." The significance of the cock's exclamation is rather obscure; but if the recipient of the letter accepts the warning and mends his ways we presume the White Caps will be satisfied.

Ashburnham Brevities.

Revolutionary! The school shed is having a new scalp. The boys will offer up their sincere thanks, especially on wet days. The cellar of the school is also being cleaned out.

The sidewalks are having their usual spring run-over, and decayed parts replaced by new timber.

Men are at work scraping Elizabeth street. The earth will be removed and used in levelling Brown street. The act of removing this surface matter is a wise one, removing the cause of noxious gases and minimizing the dust in dry weather.

A number of parties are already at the tree-planting. The Manitoba maple seems to be getting very popular, as its growth is rapid and stands less chance of dying out.

Mr. Carter's Disappearance.

Curiously a Scout that He has Left Town for Good—His Toronto Record.

Still there is no news of the absent Prof. Carter, organist of St. Andrew's Church, and his poor little wife is almost broken-hearted. She is receiving the cordial sympathy of her friends and acquaintances, members of the church in particular, but her position is certainly a sad one. Her grief is the greater that her little girl was taken from her, leaving her entirely alone.

Whether the affair was an elopement or not remains yet uncertain, no more having been heard of either of the parties.

The following despatch from Toronto gives particulars of Prof. Carter's previous record:

Carter's Record in Toronto.

TORONTO, April 6.—Alfred E. Carter came to this city about 1883. He was organist at the Church of the Redeemer for about two years, when he accepted a similar position in St. James' Cathedral, in which church he was married to the daughter of a man named Playter, who kept a restaurant in Church-street. Carter said he was a widower previous to this marriage. By his second marriage he had two children, one of whom died of diphtheria, and over the loss of whom he showed considerable grief. He held the position of organist at St. James' for two years, during which time he performed his duties in a very satisfactory manner, being an efficient player and attentive to his charge. He was never considered to be immoral, but was always hard up and frequently in debt. He always seemed very kind to his family. His last place of residence in town was No. 11 Hayden-street.

Police Court.

SATURDAY, April 6.

Wm. Slade, of Westwood, came into town from the shanties on March 28th last, and no doubt feeling the need of a little excitement after the dull life of a winter in camp, promptly proceeded to get drunk. He had plenty of excitement, too. He took the afternoon train for Birdsall's, from which station to his home is but a short distance; but the train was not run to suit him, a couple of necessary delays "riling" his impatience to such an extent that he became boisterous and overbearing in his conduct, threatening dire things and swearing terrifically. Finally at Conductor Stanton's suggestion, he got off at Keene, and, as the train moved away, in a passion he threw a fiddle, which he carried in a bag under his arm, through one of the coach windows. Such conduct could not be allowed to pass unnoticed, and for the past few days Detective Spence has been working up a case against Slade. It was tried in court this morning, Conductor Stanton and the express and mail clerks being witnesses, and the defendant fined $10 and costs and $1 indemnity to the railway company—in all $17.75. A pretty expensive bit of excitement that.

SUNDAY SELLING.

John Cheere, the 'taly-man who keeps a little shop on Aylmer street and was fined only a week ago for selling on Sunday, was again to-day convicted of a breach of the by-law against Sunday selling. The Magistrate read the charge, which was for selling goods on Sunday, March 30th. "No, dat a mis-take," replied John; "me never sell last Sunday." All the same the offence was proven by some half dozen youngsters ranging in age from nine to fourteen years, who were ranged on a bench in court as witnesses. Some bought candies, some liquorice, some figs, etc., while one lad, the biggest in the party, said he got a 10c. plug of tobacco. The other boys had evidently been using their Sunday school collection money, as their purchases ranged from two to five cents' worth of goods. The Italian said the boys came and kicked on the door and promised not to tell if he sold them anything. His faith in their word is costing him a nice sum, for the fine, $10 and costs, amounted in all to $14.80. The Magistrate also notified the law breaker that if he didn't keep his shop closed on Sunday the next time he came up he would be sent to gaol.

Over the Cataract.

When the brave Stanley and his tireless followers were pushing their way into Central Africa, they came one day to a bank of a mighty river. Footsore and weary they quickly launch their boats, and find rest and change in floating upon the smooth surface of the stream.

Soon, however, the watchful eye of the great explorer sees unmistakeable signs of the near presence of a cataract. The current grows swift, tiny bubbles float by. The signal is given to land, and the party seeks safety on the low, shelving bank.

One daring spirit, however, pushes his little canoe into the middle of the stream and goes resolutely forward, with the seeming intention of finding whether the river is navigable.

In vain his comrades shout and gesticulate, rushing wildly along the river bank in pursuit. Not until the loud thunder of falling water breaks upon his ear does he attempt to turn.

Alas, it is too late.

The oars are wrenched from his hands, the boat is tossed wildly about, a mere atom in the seething waters, and in a brief moment, which seems an age to the lookers on, it is dashed to pieces against a huge bowlder on the very brink of a frightful precipice.

In vain our comrades are kindly warning us of our danger. Our columns have often portrayed the fearful scourge that surrounds us. Often we hear the expression "Is this fearful scourge more prevalent than in olden times?"

We say "No."

The recent discoveries of the microscope has developed the real cause of so many terrible fatalities and brought out the fact that many of the symptoms which are called diseases are but symptoms of kidney disorder.

People do not die because of the kidneys ulcerating and destroying their spinal column, but because the poisonous waste matter is not extracted from the blood as it passes through the kidneys, the only blood purifying organs, but remains, forcing its way through the system, attacking the weakest organ.

The doctors call this a disease, when in reality it is but a symptom.

Understanding this, the reason why Warner's Safe Cure cures so many common diseases is plain. It removes the cause of disease by putting the kidneys in a healthy condition; enables them to perform their functions and remove the poisonous acids from the blood; purifies the blood and prevents the poisonous matter coursing through the system and attacking the weaker organs and producing a malady which the unsuspecting victim fears is, and the heartless practitioner pronounces, a disease, because of his inability to remove the cause.

Personal.

Rev. Mr. Pearson was in Toronto Thursday attending the session of the Transfer Committee, meeting in the Metropolitan church in that city. This committee is composed of the Presidents of the Conferences of the Methodist church of Canada and the two General Superintendents, and transfers or refuses to transfer ministers from one Conference to another.

T. GRAINGER STEWART, M. D., F. R. S. E., Ordinary Physician to H. M. the Queen in Scotland, Professor of Practice of Physic in the University of Edinburgh, writes: "Acute bronchitis is common, especially in the advanced stages of Bright's disease, and tends to pass into the chronic state. Phthisis (consumption) in its various forms, is found occasionally associated with these renal (kidney) affections. It usually proves fatal while the renal malady is yet in its early stage." It thus becomes evident that consumption and bronchitis are intimately associated with kidney disease and Warner's Safe Cure should be taken early in the disease to prevent the damaging influence the kidney malady exerts upon the respiratory organs.

Assuming a Warlike Attitude.

Many other houses are becoming very indignant at the idea of W. J. Morrow controlling the grocery trade of the town and country, but never mind—be cautious. We will prove to all you grocers who are grappling for high prices, that the time has arrived when W. J. Morrow will enlighten the public; doing more of a cash business and a more extensive trade he is better prepared to sell goods away down. Then again, here are a lot of our best Toronto and Montreal houses clamoring for our trade, owing to our buying for cash, and hence the keen competition, thereby buying goods away below other houses. So a call will convince you that we are Peterborough's great grocery house—340 George street. dw

WE DELIGHT in making our customers happy by giving the best groceries at lowest prices at M. R. Kidd's.

COLD IN HEAD THE CONSUMPTION

STAGES

There is positive danger to health and life in neglecting a case of Cold in the Head or Catarrh, and at this season with its changeable weather, unusual moisture and sudden changes from heat to cold, there is peculiar liability to cold in the head. A neglected case of Cold in the Head rapidly develops into Catarrh, and neglected Catarrh just as certainly develops into Consumption and leads to premature death. Medical testimony proves conclusively that a large percentage of all the deaths occurring from Consumption have their origin in a neglected cold, which by gradual stages, developed into Catarrh, and then into Consumption, the dread disease with which medical science is as yet unable to cope successfully. If you are suffering from Cold in the Head or any of the numerous symptoms of Catarrh, such as foul breath, dull and severe headaches, dropping from the head into the throat, hawking and spitting, offensive discharges from the nostrils, a stoppage of smell, or taste becoming dull, hearing dull, eyes watering, feeling of debility, husky voice, a wheezing or creaking sound in your chest when breathing, or a feeling of dizziness particularly when stooping, a feeling of tiredness and indisposition to exertion, a feeling of nausea in the morning when attempting to dislodge accumulations in the throat, Do not neglect them. These are but a few of the many symptoms of Catarrh, and if you experience any, BE WARNED IN TIME. Do not permit them to run under the mistaken impression that the disease will eventually wear away. It will not, but on the contrary will wear you away as it has thousands before. Procure at once a bottle of NASAL BALM, the only certain and speedy cure ever offered the public for Cold in the Head and Catarrh. This is no idle assertion, but an unquestioned fact, which is verified by the thousands of testimonials in our possession telling of marvellous cures. These testimonials we have received from all parts of the Dominion and we append a few, selected at random, as fair samples of the whole:

Mr. Alex. Burns, of Sudbury, Ont., says: Gents I may state that I have been afflicted with catarrh for 7 or 8 year, and it was attended by subsequent symptoms, such as foul nasal discharges dropping into the throat, hawking and spitting, partial deafness ringing in the ears, and sickening pain in the head directly over either eye. I have used powders and douches, but all to no effect, the only result arising from the use of such was temporary relief, followed by the usual symptoms in a more aggravated form. The results arising from the use of Nasal Balm are sweet breath, sweetness of the dropping into the throat consequently less hawking and spitting, a decrease of hearing and not once since I began its use have I had pain in the head—in fact it is my opinion that a careful and persistent use of the "Balm" will effect a cure in the worst case of catarrh.

Mr. John H. Adams, merchant, Brentford, Ont., says: I have used NASAL BALM for catarrh, and found it to be a CERTAIN CURE.

W. A. Doyle, Beulah, Man., writes:—As a family medicine to check Catarrhal affections, or cold in the head, NASAL BALM HAS NO EQUAL. We prize it highly.

Henrietta Blackwell, Parker, Ont., says:—Your NASAL BALM is the BEST REMEDY I have yet used for catarrh. I can breathe more freely than before and my breath has regained its sweetness. I consider NASAL BALM a boon to the suffering.

W. Chas. Hanley, Postmaster, Spry Bay, N. S., says:—I submit the following to the public that any who may be afflicted may be benefitted by the same remedy. Two bottles of your NASAL BALM has RESTORED to PERFECT HEALTH a four year old child of ours, suffering from Catarrh.

Alpha H. Dales, Torbert, Ont., writes:—Your NASAL BALM has made a new man of me. I have never used a remedy so satisfactory.

Miss Maggie M. Martin, Tweed, Ont., says through a friend in Canada I became acquainted with your NASAL BALM. I have suffered for years with Catarrh and it is the first remedy from which I have experienced relief, and I feel certain that it will cure me.

Miss Minnie McNairn, Mills Road, Ont., says:—Your bottle of NASAL BALM did me much good. The pain in my head disappeared before I had used the bottle, and I find myself receiving the greatest benefit. I am certain NASAL BALM will cure any case of Catarrh if its use is preserved in.

James H. McLeod, Mink River Road, N.S., says:—I have tried other remedies for Catarrh, but received little or no good from them. Your NASAL BALM is certainly the BEST REMEDY I have ever tried, and all you claim for it. The fact that it is so pleasant and convenient to use adds greatly to its value, but its chief worth lies in being a CERTAIN CURE for that unpleasant disease—Catarrh.

Mr. Schlessig, Toronto, says:—For a number of years my wife has been badly troubled with Catarrh. Dr. ——— have promised to cure her, but after using his remedy for six months she became worse and wouldn't use it more. And I found that I had tried every medical treatment that did no good. My wife then began to use your NASAL BALM and has improved wonderfully, and she is better and stronger than for 3 years. Your remedy is the best in the market and you can use this as testimony.

Emilie Pelletier, Granville, says:—I can sincerely find words to tell you how highly I prize NASAL BALM. Its effects in my case have been wonderful.

A CAUTION:—Beware of imitations. If your dealer has not NASAL BALM in stock do not let him persuade you to take any other remedy which he may say is just as good, but send direct to the undersigned and it will be sent you post paid on receipt of price—50 cents and $1 a bottle. dw POLFORD & CO., Brockville, Ont.

THE ATTRACTION AT TURNBULL'S.

Whatever the weather has been outside, it was the springiest of Springtime in our Store on Wednesday and Thursday last, when all the new Millinery and Millinery belongings were opened out of their close fitting boxes. For the benefit of those who could not get in on those days, we will keep the display up all the first week in April.

Among the leading changes noticeable in the Trimming this season is LACE ENDS and SCARFS and LONG VEILS drawn in with Baby Ribbon at the bottom. Flowers and Ribbons are the leading Trimmings. The old fashioned hop that used to climb on the pole at the back door, is now found falling over the Black Lace Hats. Having struck a cheap line of Flowers (German make) the Germans copy the French designs and give us the Goods much cheaper. We have a Bouquet for everybody. Bunches of Roses in all colors only 35 c. each. Our Stock of CHILDRENS' TRIMMED HATS is unusually attractive. Sailor Hats in endless variety. We have not room to give them a front show. We were disappointed at not being able to show with the Millinery, the new JET CAPES and SILK VISETTES and TRIMMED DOLMANS, but there is time enough yet, and we expect them in on the first freight train. A fine assortment of Cloths in the order department. All hands at work as busy as bees in the workroom up stairs.

The DRESS GOODS Department is as lively as ever. A new line of Vigoreaux Cloth in 8 shades, 44 inches wide, at 60 cents, came in this week; a glance at it will tell you it is serviceable. With them came a new line of German Dress Cloth—we have shown nothing similar before; is just what any lady would fancy for a genteel Dress. Will show another new make next week.

Miss Mercier is always pleased to help you with her advice as to length of Dress Pattern, Style of Making and Trimming, whether you wish to have it made by her or not.

KID GLOVES fresh from the hands of the maker in Austria, at 75c. and $1.00 a pair. This line we had in stock before, but the quantity was small and we only had a pair for a lady here and there.

CORSETS.—Spring brings changes and this one has brought one of the nicest makes of Corsets we have ever had. Large sizes for stout ladies always in Stock.

"As Others See Us."
"Oh that some power the gift would gie us,
To see ourselves as others see us."
Thus sighed old Scotia's Bard in vain,
For what he could not then attain.
But had he lived in this fair town
He had no cause to sigh or frown,
For if he walked on Hunter street,
An eager throng he'd surely meet,
With faces bright as summer light,
All coming from one fifty-eight.
Where photos always are in view,
Which are to life very true,
That each one who has seen them there,
Doe to his comrades all declare,
"SPROULE is the very man to gie us,
The power to see as others see us."

SAVANNAH IN ASHES.
FIFTY BUILDINGS BURNT IN THE GEORGIA CITY.

The Loss Mounts Up to a Million and a Half —A Blaze That Was Handled by Water— Other Big Fires.

SAVANNAH, Ga., April 6.—Fire broke out at 6.55 to-night in D. H. Horan's dry goods store in one of the finest business blocks in the city. The building was entirely destroyed, loss $150,000. The Odd Fellows' Hall went next, loss $120,000. Twelve or fifteen brick dwellings were also consumed, loss $75,000. The Independent Presbyterian Church, erected at a cost of $200,000, ten or fifteen wooden dwellings, the brick arsenal of the Savannah Guards Battalion and other buildings were also consumed. The total loss will probably reach $1,500,000, insurance much less.

Hundreds of Houses Burned.
LONDON, April 7.—A despatch from India says that hundreds of houses have been destroyed by fire at Sarsa. The loss is placed at £200,000.

Water Handled This Blaze.
NORFOLK, Va., April 7.—The cyclone, which began at 10 o'clock last night and continued until 5 this morning, heaped up a tide 12 inches above the record, and the flood, sloshing time on John A. Savage's wharf, handled a fire which destroyed the entire block, the old Cotton Exchange building, 3000 bales of cotton and other property. The loss by fire is $300,000 and by water nearly as much more.
In Portsmouth, fire destroyed the lime and lumber yard of Trogie & Hall. The United States ship Pensacola sank in dry dock where she was being repaired for ice. The Simpson dry dock was flooded and the damage may reach $40,000.

A $300,000 Loss at Pittsburg.
PITTSBURG, Pa., April 7.—The extensive axe, shovel and saw factories of Hubbard & Co. were burned this morning. The loss will be $500,000, nearly covered by insurance.

Other Fires.
ATLANTA, Ga., April 6.—The Whitlock House at Marrietta was burned this afternoon. The guests escaped unhurt. Loss, $40,000; insurance, $18,000. Adjacent residences were also burned, causing additional loss of $10,000.
MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 6.—A fire at Clarksdale, Miss., early this morning destroyed the principal business portion of the town.

IN THE ARCTIC CIRCLE.

Some Account of Lord Lonsdale's Wanderings in the Far North.

PHILADELPHIA, April 6.—The Enquirer publishes details of Lord Lonsdale's travels given in a letter to Mr. Wolf, the Moravian missionary at Nushagak, near Fort Alexandria, on Bristol's bay, Alaska, in latitude 59° north. Lonsdale arrived at the mission December 15 last, after a journey of 4000 miles overland from Bank's Land, in latitude 75° north. This was the greatest distance north that he reached. He remained at the mission until January 14. His outfit consisted of eight sleds and seventy dogs in charge of Esquimaux drivers and some Indian servants.
The Earl was quite exhausted from fatigue and hunger. The country he traveled was rough, with very little game. The snow was terribly drifted and the sledding so bad that most of the journey was made on foot, the dogs barely managing to draw the sleds. The cold was intense. Dec. 1 the thermometer registered 105 degrees below the freezing point. Frequently stops were made for a week in favorable localities in order to hunt hares and reindeer for food. Terrible blizzards swept across the country continually and the utmost precautions were necessary to keep the party from being scattered and frozen to death. Eleven dogs died and many of the remaining 70 were in a bad condition.
Lonsdale estimates that he traveled 16,000 miles from Winnipeg in a little more than a year. In the Hudson Bay region, where the snow and ice were smooth, the dogs frequently carried them over 200 miles a day. Cold, hunger, scurvy and other misfortunes beset them constantly, but Lonsdale's courage kept up all the time and he was in excellent spirits. He had aimed to reach the North Pole. He left the mission at Nushagak on Jan. 14, and with his dog train crossed the peninsula to Katmai on the North Pacific. From here he crossed to Kodiac. On Kodiac island, where there is a whaling station, he sent word that he would sail for England at once, but no word has been received of his arrival at any American port, and it is possible he has turned back to get new experiences. To Mr. Wolf he expressed entire confidence in his ability to reach the North Pole, but said that open water north of Banks' Land prevented his further progress.

Thinks he Can Reach the Pole.
CHICAGO, April 6.—Alphonse Ledue, the half-breed who accompanied Lord Lonsdale part of the way to the Arctic, arrived in Chicago to-day from Manitoba. Ledue says that with funds and material he can reach the North Pole. His idea is to go overland by sled. He thinks that with 300 men a line of communication, for supplies north and news south, could be maintained without great difficulty. Headquarters would be on the Peninsula of Boothia, twelve days by courier from the nearest telegraph to Winnipeg. Ledue will attempt to interest a number of newspapers to get them to back him. It is possible that government aid will be asked. Ledue goes from here to New York within a day or two.

Making Ready for the Samoan Sufferers.
SAN FRANCISCO, April 6.—Preparations are being made at the naval hospital at Mare Island for the reception of the sick and injured of the officers and crews of the wrecked Trenton and Vandalia. All are supposed to be on route to San Francisco and are expected to arrive shortly. Many of the men have some time to serve and will form a portion of the crews of the Charleston, Adams and Iroquois. A large force of men is engaged in this work, working at extra hours. The exact time the ships will be ready for sea cannot be told, but it will not be many weeks. The stores for each are being prepared and officers are being detailed so there will be no delay. At present over 500 men are employed at the yard and the number is being daily increased. The receiving ship Independence, an old line-of-battle ship here, has ample room for all who come from Samoa. It is understood 200 of the Vandalia's and the Trenton's crews will come by an Australian steamer.

Died in Exile.
HARRISVILLE, Mich., April 6.—Mrs. Annie Gardner, aged 32, was found dead in bed at this place yesterday morning. Five years ago she was a happy wife and the mother of two bright boys. She then lived with her husband in Toronto. An estrangement occurred and one night the husband took the two boys and came to Michigan. The distracted wife and mother followed and after a weary search located him near Green Bush, a small village six miles south of Harrisville. Mrs. Gardner came to Harrisville, but her husband learned of her arrival and as soon fled to Saginaw, where the two boys afterward died. The mother followed her husband to Saginaw, only to learn of the death of her two boys and that the father had buried them in an obscure spot. After a long search she found their grave and had the remains exhumed and buried in the cemetery.

Removal Part of the Cattle Quarantine.
DES MOINES, Ia., April 6.—Gov. Larrabee has issued proclamation reciting the fact that the state veterinary surgeon has informed the executive department that the causes which led to a cattle quarantine against certain states have been removed, and revoking all such orders and proclamations, except so far as they pertain to Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Delaware and Maryland.

This Boodler is Probably in Toronto.
ELMIRA, April 7.—George Ward, the ex-assistant postmaster, who skipped last week with $1,500, all the available cash in the office, is probably in Toronto, as just before his departure on the Erie train he enquired if it made close connection with a train for the Queen City.

A DYNAMITE PLOT.
ATTEMPT TO BLOW UP A BOYCOTTED NEW YORK BREWERY.

How the Conspiracy Came to Light—Hints here of a K. of L. Executive Committee Indicted and Under Arrest.

NEW YORK, April 7.—An explosion, presumably of a dynamite bomb, Feb. 6, in the area of David Stevenson's brewery in Tenth-avenue made a terrific noise, tore away a large piece of wall and shattered numerous windows in the vicinity. It is alleged the explosion was the work of labor union men and four of them are now in custody. They are A. Fitzgerald, formerly walking delegate of the Ale and Porter Brewery Employes' Protective Association; John O'Connell, President of Local Assembly No. 3280 K. of L.; Patrick F. Close and Thomas Reardon, members of the Executive Committee of the Local Assembly.
Fitzgerald has made a confession which implicates the three other men. Stevenson had discharged all union men and refused to re-employ any but those who severed their connection with the union. The prisoners constituted the Executive Committee at the time. According to Fitzgerald's story this committee tried to invent some scheme whereby Stevenson would be made to re-employ the union and discharge such workingmen.
The first plan approved of by the committee was to send union men to the brewery to apply for work and state that they were not attached to the union. The men who might thus secure employment were to place grease in the beer and ale vats and destroy the brew. Several applicants thus advised went to the brewery but were refused employment.
Subsequently the Executive Committee determined to appropriate $250 to continue the fight against Stevenson. The union ratified this action. The Executive Committee, made furious by the failure of their first scheme, conceived the plan to blow up the brewery. Reardon and Close were delegated to use a person, whose name is withheld, for instructions as to the destructive element to be used and the method in which it should be operated. The explosive, it was planned, should be cast off in the engine room. The opportunity to reach that room was not afforded the conspirators and they became involved in a quarrel among themselves which delayed the use of the explosive.
In carrying out the boycott against the brewery Fitzgerald was charged with insensitivity and was threatened with suspension from the position of walking delegate, which yielded him $27.50 per week. He finally was ordered to be suspended but resigned. The explosion followed. Detectives learned recently that O'Connell, who had been succeeded by Reardon as president of the union, stated at a meeting that it was one thing to blow up a brewery and another to prove it.
Inspector Byrnes took Fitzgerald before the grand jury on Friday, where he repeated his confession. Upon the evidence presented the jury indicted O'Connell, Reardon and Close for felony and they were arrested.

SENTENCED TO HANG.

An Indiana Murderer Fails to Convince a Jury That He is Insane.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., April 6.—This afternoon Mr. Benson was convicted of the murder of Jacob Mottweiler, near New Albany, Ind., and sentenced to hang. Benson was Mottweiler's farm hand. Mottweiler had no neighbors within a mile, and only his wife and a servant girl were on the farm with him and Benson. A quarrel arose about the girl, and one Sunday last Summer Benson shot Mottweiler dead and then tried to kill Mrs. Mottweiler with an axe. She was left apparently dead, but finally recovered. The girl fled and reported the tragedy. Benson made no attempt to escape. When taken he at first denied his guilt but then confessed. His attorney tried to show insanity, and on the stand Benson denied ever having made a confession and made other singular statements. The jury was only out half an hour. An appeal will be taken. The case was tried at Jeffersonville on change of venue from New Albany and the execution will take place there.

RISEN FROM THE GRAVE.

Strange Story Told by a Long Missing Maine Editor.

EASTPORT, Me., April 6.—H. F. Walder, proprietor of The Eastport Messenger, disappeared last November. His hat and a small boat, in which he had gone to Lubec, were found a short time afterward, the latter bottom up, and he was given up by his wife and friends as lost. Within three days his wife has received a letter from him at Pawtucket, R.I. He says the last thing he remembers is standing on the beach at Lubec. After that his mind was a blank until he found himself in the woods near Pawtucket, ragged and poor. At the time of his disappearance he was worn out by overwork and sickness in his family. These cares, with the loss of sleep, probably unsettled his mind.

Russell's Defence of the Land League.
LONDON, April 6.—Sir Charles Russell continued his argument before the Parnell Commission on Wednesday and Thursday, and then asked for an adjournment till Tuesday next, which the Court granted. He has devoted much time to an historical narrative of the condition of things in Ireland, which, in his view, made agitation and illegal organizations, and even some degree of crime, inevitable. His defence of the Land League is probably the best and most elaborate that has yet been addressed to the public. The League diminished, he urges, instead of increasing crime, and deserves, therefore, blessing, rather than cursing. He defended boycotting on the same ground. Without boycotting, if you believe Sir Charles, other crime, or what he calls "serious crime," would have been more frequent. His speech has been a masterly performance, obviously impressive to the Court and impressive even to the general public, which seldom reads forensic discourses, but has read summaries of this and the more exciting episodes. Of these there have been many, including a fresh attack on the unhappy Attorney-General, for making sundry grave charges in opening the case which he did not afterward attempt to support by evidence. The story that one passage moved Mr. Parnell to tears requires confirmation. It is difficult to imagine Mr. Parnell in tears.

Represents the English Tin Syndicate.
NEW YORK, April 6.—Prof. M. C. Vincent of the Royal Geographical Society of London, arrived on the Adriatic to-day. He comes here in the interests of the great English tin syndicate that has recently raised millions of dollars to control the tin production of the world. He will proceed immediately to Dakota, where the tin mines in which the syndicate are interested are located.

Many Kinds of Weather in Washington.
WASHINGTON, April 6.—A heavy snow, wind and rain storm has prevailed here since early this morning. The rain, which began falling some time before daylight, at about 9 o'clock changed to snow and from that hour until after dark to-night the air was dense with great flakes driven before a strong north wind, but the weather being mild is melted as it fell. Several times during the day heavy peals of thunder were heard and stray sparks of lightning frequently darted across the switchboards in the telegraph offices. The telephone and fire alarm wires throughout the city are more or less demoralized, and telegraphic communication with the south and west is wholly cut off.

BUFFALO, April 6.—Collector of Customs Cutler at Suspension Bridge, has recommended the United States District Attorney to prosecute the Michigan Central, Grand Trunk and Wabash Shore roads for violation of the alien labor contract law in employing laborers who live in Canada. The railroads cited will contest the matter, claiming that conductors who live in Canada and run in the United States would also come under the law, but have never been molested. The move in the matter is being made at Detroit.

JUST A FIGHTING CHANCE.
THE GLADSTONIANS MAY POSSIBLY WIN IN BIRMINGHAM.

An Alleged Revolt Among the Rank and File of the Liberal-Unionists—General Cable News.

LONDON, April 7.—It is possible at things stand that the Gladstonians may win the vacant seat in Birmingham. Very eager is not yet appeased, and the Tories think they have been tricked by Mr. Chamberlain and ill-treated by their own Government. They may, or may not, punish up some kind of an understanding with the Liberal-Unionists, but they do not seem likely to enter upon the contest with any heart. "The rank and file have," says one of their leaders, "broken into revolt. They will not vote; they will not work. Disgust and resentment have taken possession of their souls, and unless some new basis of agreement is found, nothing but a miracle can avert a Gladstonian triumph." This, however, the Gladstonians do not themselves expect. Mr. Balfour went down to Birmingham last night and made a speech to the Tories. Under the influence of Mr. Balfour's eloquence they passed a resolution not to nominate a candidate against Mr. Albert Bright. Whether they will support him heartily is not yet clear.
Lord Randolph Churchill, whose conduct has earned him applause from all sides, has gone with Lady Randolph to the Leicester races, joining a large party at Gopsall, as guests of Earl and Countess Howe, to meet the Prince of Wales. Such are the associations of English public life. His speeches, too, have appeared this week in two octavo volumes, edited and embossed by Mr. Jennings, formerly of New York, now M.P. for Stockport. They will be read for their readableness, for their value as contributions to current political history, and above all for the evidence they supply that the Tory party of to-day seven its creed as the Tory Ministry does its existence to Lord Randolph more than to any other single leader of influence.

The Mania for Investment Trust Co's.
LONDON, April 7.—The Stock Exchange during the week was animated, values in every department improving. Buying was largely promoted by the formation of investment trust companies, the public zeal for which is rapidly reaching a mania. The total number of trusts formed in 1888 was fifteen with a capital of £9,500,000. Already this year nineteen have been floated with a capital of £26,075,000 and more are announced although it is known that existing trusts find difficulty in obtaining sound investments. During the week American railroad securities were steadily bought, speculative buying being active in spite of small encouragement from Wall street.

Boulanger and the Prince.
BRUSSELS, April 7.—The Independence Belge maintains in spite of denials that General Boulanger visited Prince Victor Napoleon both yesterday and to-day.

Boulanger's Speech Read in His Absence.
PARIS, April 6.—The Revisional Committee gave a grand banquet this evening, at which 1000 guests were present. General Boulanger was to have presided. In his absence Senator Naquet read a speech which had been prepared by Boulanger for the occasion. In it the General promised that on attaining power he would proclaim a general amnesty and would abrogate the exile laws, which, he said, a corrupt government did not need. He denounced what he termed the miserable motives that had actuated the Government with respect to the rescinding of the decree of exile against the Duc d'Aumale. This action of the Government would have met with his approval if it had been dictated by a generous sentiment. He declared that he pitied M. Antoine, who was merely the tool of the Opportunists. Regarding Alsace-Lorraine he said it appeared to be a criminal offence to discuss questions relating to that province.

GOADED TO DESPERATION.

Evicted Iowa Settlers Adopt the Tactics of Irish Moonlighters.

FORT DODGE, Ia., April 6.—Every day adds to the seriousness of the strained situation of the Des Moines River land settlers. Numerous parties connected with the prosecution of settlers have received threatening notices and letters to-day warning them to desist. The recent action of the land owners in forcing evictions and threatening to call out the State militia to enforce writs of ejectment has transferred stolid determination to desperate daring. The settlers announce their readiness to die in defence of their homes, but say they will sell their lives as dearly as possible. In view of impending trouble evictions have been abandoned for the present.

5 MISS MACKELCAN FOUND.

Five Days Without Food—A Bed in the Snow—The Oshlands Sale.

HAMILTON, April 7.—Miss Louisa Mackelcan, who had been missing since Monday, was found by Mr. Leonard Foster yesterday afternoon in Reid's brick yards. She had slept in the warm ashes during three nights, and the other nights, according to her own statement, she slept in the snow. She had gone without any food, and Dr. Mackelcan says that had a physically strong person gone through similar privation and exposure it would likely have killed him, but her temporary mental affliction kept her up. She said she knew her people were looking for her.
The highest bid for the Oshlands farm was $17,000 and as this did not reach the reserve the property was withdrawn and put up in lots. The residence and 37 acres went to T. B. Townsend of Aldershot for $9000. The outbuildings and 40 acres were sold to H. T. Bunbury for $4000. The remainder of the lots were not sold.

MANITOBA MATTERS.

A Political Rumor—Gabriel Dumont Goes to Saskatchewan.

WINNIPEG, April 7.—The latest political rumor is that Colebrugh of St. Andrew's will succeed Joyes in the local cabinet and be opposed by Robert Bullock.
A difference has arisen between the Northern Pacific and Manitoba Railway and the Hudson Bay Company respecting terminal grounds in Winnipeg, the latter declining to carry out the alleged agreement on the ground that the price is too low. The matter will be taken to the courts.
Gabriel Dumont has gone to Saskatchewan. Very few knew of his presence in Winnipeg.
During March 6015 immigrants arrived here, the largest number on record.
The oldest son of Webb, the wife murderer lately hanged at Brandon, is wandering about with no one to care for him and is said to be losing his reason.

FIGHTING IN BORNEO.

Twenty Natives Killed, While But One Englishman Was Slain.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., April 6.—China mail of March 6, which arrived from Hong Kong to-day by steamer City of Sydney, has the following concerning the fight between the British North Borneo Company and a band of rebel chiefs. On the 11th the forces of the British North Borneo Company captured Gaisela Fort after three and a half hours of hard fighting, taking nine guns. The rebel loss was twenty killed, while the British forces lost one killed and five wounded. Reports come from this colony has been prohibited for six months on account of the fighting.

The Rochester Car Men's Strike.
ROCHESTER, April 6.—Late this afternoon Sheriff Hodgson, in response to an appeal from the Street Railway Company for protection, issued a proclamation calling on the citizens to assist in maintaining order. No cars were sent out this evening and it has been decided not to attempt to run any cars to-morrow. This afternoon at 5 o'clock a collision occurred at the corner of Hudson-street and North-avenue, some one having tampered with a switch. As up car and a down car approached the switch simultaneously and the up car jumped the track, coming into collision with the down car. Nicholas Lavar of New York, a passenger, saw the danger and arose to stop the car. As he reached the door the crash came and Mr. Lavar was thrown violently through a pane of glass. He was badly cut and bruised. The cars were in charge of new drivers. No further trouble is reported to-night.

THE EIGHT CROWNS OF LIFE

Reasons Why We Should All be Christians.

Mr. Crossley Speaks to the Unsaved and Christians together—Another Mammoth Audience—The Eight Crowns, Sentimental and Encouraging.

The George street church was crowded to overflowing Sunday night, and hundreds were again turned away. Mr. Hunter was still absent, but it is expected will arrive from St. Thomas for to-night's service. Mr. Crossley's opening song was "Abide with Me." He read as a lesson the 126th Psalm, celebrating the return of the Israelites from captivity. The Israelites were "like them in a dream." They could scarcely realize that they were really free. So many newly found Christians know they are saved but it all seems to be just like a dream, too good to be true. They should, however, realize that it was no dream, but accept the liberation of their souls as a fact and rejoice accordingly. "And then were our mouths filled with laughter," read the passage. Mr. Crossley indulged in a little pleasant bantering against the idea of some people that religion was a solemn thing and demanded lugubrious looks and constant gravity. Like the Israelites, Christians should be full of laughter, for that was what the Lord intended Christianity to do for them. Then the Israelites were so accustomed to their slavery that they had no ambition to be free; and just so were all those not Christians, who are offered freedom from their slavery of sin, yet they evince no desire to be liberated. The last verse, "He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him," Mr. Crossley commended to his Christian hearers for their guidance, urging them to go forth and be active in God's work, sow the gospel seed intelligently and with rejoicing, that they may bring in many sheaves to the Master's vineyard.

Mr. Crossley sang "No Night in Heaven," after which the special requests for prayer were read by Rev. Mr. Pearson.

THE CROWNS OF LIFE.

Mr. Crossley said that before beginning his address he would urge the unsaved not to delay their conversion any longer, and asked them to promise that if they were convinced that it would be to their highest interest to seek the Lord, they would act honestly with their convictions and decide to do it at once. His subject was "The Crowns Life." It seemed to him that the Lord offered all sorts of means whereby people might be saved, and none more plainly than the reference to the crowns to be won in the race of life. There were eight different crowns, he said, and everyone emblematical of one particular thing. And he wanted his hearers to see that it was to their interest to enter this race of life and win the crowns offered by God. The first was that of Lovingkindness, as mentioned in Psa., ciii, 4. This crown was emblematical of God's goodness to us and was an incentive to a display of the same loving kindness to our fellowmen. If people would only think of the goodness of God they could not but yield themselves to Him. In accepting this crown they would become princes and princesses—children of the King. He urged the unsaved to come and feel the crown of adoption on their brows. But for those who were perhaps not so quick at understanding, Mr. Crossley spoke of the Crown of Gold, mentioned in Revelations iv, 4, which was emblematical of perseverance. Some were afraid to start for the Lord because they fear they will not be able to hold out, but they must be without ambition, or perhaps they don't see the prize for the difficulties in the road. He urged them to persevere and gain the crown, which would be a guarantee that they would reach heaven. A third crown was that of Glory, (1 Peter, v, 4,) which was emblematical of the honor of being near God on high. We were all in the battle of life, he said, and the crown of glory invited us to be faithful. The fourth crown was Rejoicing (1 Thessalonians, ii, 19) which was emblematical of our

DEGREE OF HAPPINESS

in heaven, and should encourage Christians to greater endeavor on this earth; for the degree of happiness there was in proportion to the work done for God on this earth. Each soul led to Christ would be a star in that crown. Some people, Mr. Crossley said, give the evangelists credit for converting so many souls, and ask why is it necessary that two strangers should come here to do the work of the ministers? But they do no such thing; the evangelists come simply to help gather in the sheaves, the result of the labors of faithful teachers and parents. Mr. Crossley said that nearly all those converted were persons who were drawn to Jesus by former prayers and teachings. He urged Christians to labor for the Master and not be content with just getting inside the gates, for if that was their sole ambition they would never get inside. And if they did get a crown in heaven from lack of effort on their part they might not get the bright one intended for them. He put the question to his hearers, how many of them had won souls for Christ? Some of them had been dead failures in this line, and Mr. Crossley urged them to consecrate themselves to God and their's might be the crown of Rejoicing in heaven. No one meditating on these crowns but would be convinced that it was to their highest interests to become Christians. But for those who had not the desire, Mr. Crossley mentioned the crown of Life (Rev., ii, 10), emblematical of the life beyond, and encouraging Christians to endure the trials and troubles of this life in order to gain this crown. Be thou faithful, if even death is before you, Mr. Crossley said, and your's will be the crown of Life. But he did not want people to get the idea that this Christian life had particularly severe trials; the Christian's life was no harder to bear than any other, but was merely afflicted with the troubles in every form. The next crown, the Incorruptible, was referred to in I Cor., ix, 25. This was emblematical of the sacrifices which Christians make, and many people had an idea that the Christian had to exercise greater self-denial than the unsaved. Not so: for the Christian denies himself the gratification of the lower passions in order to enjoy the higher spiritual delights, while the unconverted man denies himself these in order to secure the former valueless things. And everyone, Mr. Crossley pointed out, who honorably contends for this crown is sure to get it. The next crown was that of Righteousness (II Tim., iv, 8), which indicated that the Lord would proclaim all the saved as righteous and was an incentive for everyone to be faithful and endeavor to deserve the name of righteous and gain the crown. Yet there were those with so little spiritual perception that they did not know what such a thing meant. He hoped their distorted natures would be brought to see the glory of these crowns and allure them to becoming Christians. But if all these were not sufficient, there was still another, the crown of thorns (John xix, 5), emblem of cruelty and mockery, and the incentive to love to everyone. Mr. Crossley pointed out the shame and suffering which Jesus endured for mankind, yet there were persons who, seeing their duty to love Him, did not continue long enough upon it to bring them to a sense of their duty. He urged his hearers to think of Jesus and his crucifixion and they could not help yielding their love and devotion to Him.

INCIDENTAL TO HUMAN LIFE

After prayer, Mr. Crossley in conclusion said that sinners were more generally kept from starting on the race for the crown of life because of the fear that they would not be able to continue to the end, and to prove to them the ability of the Lord to keep, he asked those who had been saved and kept by the Lord 40, 30, 20, 10 and 5 years to rise up. A large number responded, and then the request was made for those who sought to win a crown to stand, and quite a number rose to their feet.

NOTES.

Rev. Mr. Crossley will discuss the subject of card-playing to-night. Many will be pleased to hear his views. There will evidently be no tirade made, but the subject logically discussed.

The Jesuit Question.

Discussed by the Transfer Committee of the Methodist Church. A Strong Statement Made, Assented to and Signed.

After the general business of the Transfer Committee of the Methodist Church has been completed at the meeting held in the Metropolitan church Friday, a special meeting was held for the discussion of the Jesuit question. After an expression of opinion by a number of those present, the following statement was unanimously agreed to and signed:—

We the general superintendents of the Methodist Church of the Dominion and the presidents of the Annual Conferences assembled, without assuming to speak for any other man's conscience or intelligence than our own, and with only the desire to obtain righteous ends by rightful means, deem it our bounden duty to protest against the aggressions of the hierarchy of the Roman Catholic Church, as we believe, to the serious prejudice of our civil and religious liberty; more especially in the recent Acts for the incorporation and endowment of the Jesuits, a society which has been suppressed in Great Britain, and again and again disqualified by Imperial statutes to hold property within the British realm, and has also been expelled from nearly all Christian and civilized lands because of its influence in the subversion of government and the corruption of morals, and notably from the Republic of France as late as 1879 and 1880, and which society for similar and other causes was abolished by the Pope himself. We further protest against the recognition of the authority of the Pope in any civil affairs of a British province, as we believe to be the case in this Act respecting the settlement of the Jesuits' estates.

And, further, against the appropriation of public funds to ecclesiastical and sectarian uses as a discrimination betwixt religious bodies, and subversive of the principle of the separation of the Church and State as recognized in the British North American Act.

And, further, we desire to declare that our aid and influence shall be given to all efforts to test the constitutionality of these Acts before the proper tribunals; and we cannot but express our deep regret that the House of Commons, in its recent vote upon this subject, should have manifested so little regard to the petitions asking for disallowance, and to the strong expressions of feeling from influential bodies in various parts of the Dominion.

In putting forth thus moderately our convictions on these important matter, we disclaim any and every intention to interfere with the full rights of our Roman Catholic fellow citizens in civil and religious matters. We appeal to the history of Methodism as to our advocacy and guardianship of equal privileges to all. We desire earnestly the peace and prosperity of our commonwealth, and we must cast upon the aggressors the responsibility for disasters which we gravely apprehend, ever confident that Protestantism, in the fear of God, will stand for the liberty of the subject, the honor of the Crown, and full freedom of worship, according to the dictates of conscience under the sense of personal responsibility and in the exercise of individual right.

To the resolution were appended the following names:—A. Carman, General Superintendent; Jno. H. Williams, General Superintendent; E. A. Stafford, President Toronto Conference; J. Graham, President London Conference; Wm. John Maxwell, President Niagara Conference; Geo. Richardson, President Bay of Quinte Conference; J. A. Sparling, President Montreal Conference; Thomas Argue, President Manitoba Conference; J. S. Coffin, President Nova Scotia Conference; Charles H. Paisley, President New Brunswick Conference.

Suit for Heavy Damages Against a York County Farmer.

TORONTO, April 8.—One of the most sensational cases which will be heard at the present sittings of the Civil Assize Court is the action of Robinson v Duncan. Some of the facts were gleaned from a few of the parties to-day by a reporter, but the startling disclosures which will be revealed on either side have been hushed up by the different counsel, who desire to obtain their full effect in court.

The plaintiff, Henry Joseph Robinson, is a Toronto blacksmith, and the plaintiff Sarah Robinson, is his wife. William Duncan, the defendant, is a farmer who lives somewhere in the county of York. Sarah Robinson claims that on the night of Oct. 11, 1888, at her residence, No. 84 Portland-street, the defendant indecently assaulted and abused her. She and her husband sue for $2000 damages with costs.

William Duncan alleges that the first time he ever saw Mrs. Robinson was on Sept. 1 last, when he called at her house to see his brother, who was dying of consumption, and who passed away that same day. The deceased and his wife had rented rooms from the Robinsons. Duncan went home after the funeral, and called again on Sept. 8 to see his sister-in-law, but Mrs. Robinson said she had moved. Feeling unwell at the time, he asked for a drink of water, and she insisted on giving tea. While he stood there two children came in, and then he went away and alleges that he never saw Mrs. Robinson again. He claims the whole story is a fabrication, and that he was not at Robinson's house since the date mentioned. He declares that on Oct. 11 he was at Rowntree's mills, above Thistleton, with a grist, and did not get home until after dark.

George Rowntree, of Rowntree's mills, it is said will prove that Duncan was at his mill on that day. The case is exciting much interest in West York, where the defendant is widely known as a man who has always borne a good character and a high standing in the community.

WILL FIGHT ANOTHER DAY.

Abandonment of the Projected Raid on Kentucky's Illicit Distillers.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 8.—The raid of federal deputy marshals and revenue agents against the illicit distillers near Hindman, Ky., who recently ambushed and killed Deputy Marshall Russell Wiseman has for the present been abandoned. Deputy Agent Brown and Commissioner Friend, who had charge of the expedition, found when they assembled their men at Prestonburg that only about twenty men would volunteer for the attack. A part of these even were deputy marshals who had just come in from a hard ride and were in poor condition for a fight. The moonshiners were reported strongly entrenched in their fastnesses, nine miles from Hindman, and to the number of thirty-five men, well armed with Winchester rifles and revolvers. They were said to have sworn to stand together to death to resist arrest, for they regard arrest as only a sure road to execution in revenge for Wiseman's murder. With such odds against them Brown and Friend, in spite of the protests of the federal deputy marshals, determined it would be unwise to attempt to capture the outlaws. The mountaineers are under the leadership of Sam Adams, Randall Adams, Sam and Isaac Sloan and George Madden, whose brother, Argh Madden, was slain in the fight with Wiseman and his posse.

TO BURN THE BRIDGES.

Robertson Scheme Said to Have Been Decided on by Oklahoma Boomers.

WINFIELD, KAN., April 6.—A reliable man just come from Oklahoma says he got on to the fact that the boomers, hundreds of whom are now hid in the brush on the many streams in that country, have combined on a plan to burn all the bridges on the Santa Fe on the night of April 21 or sooner, so that no trains can get into Oklahoma on the 22nd. He says the boomers swear they are going to have the claims they have staked out at whatever cost. People bound for Oklahoma are arriving here daily from all over the union, and excitement runs high. Thirty-five waggons arrived from Medo and Comanche Counties to-day and camped just west of the town to await the proper time to move to Oklahoma.

ST. CATHARINES, April 8.—Mr. J. C. Rykert, M.P. for Lincoln, who voted with the Government against Col. O'Brien's motion and was censured last week by L.O.L. No. 273 of St. Catharines Beaches of the action in the matter, explained his course to his Liberal-Conservative constituents in a long speech delivered in Albert Hall in this city on Saturday night. Editor Mc-Clelland of The Star also spoke, taking Mr. Rykert to task for his speech in the Commons. A resolution of confidence was carried.

Boundary and Thief, but Not Kidnaper.

NEWARK, N. J., April 6.—J. S. Grier, special agent of the Governor of Colorado to take the prisoner, Herbert E. Coddington, back to Trinidad, in that state, on three indictments, for burning the hotel of Jas. Fyle, robbing a boarder of $800 and running away with Fyle's daughter, was looking for Gov. Green to-day to get his requisition signed. The only charge Coddington denies is that of kidnaping the girl. She claims to have been 16 years old when she left home.

Sad Fate of an Aged Lady.

LOUISVILLE, April 6.—Mrs. Bridget Courtney was burned to death here to-day. She was 76 years old and lived with her son. She arose early this morning as it was cold, and going to the fire got too near and her clothing caught.

The Licenses Will Expire Dec. 31.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—The Department of State has been informed by the United States Consul at Ottawa that the licenses to fishing vessels will continue to be issued this year by the Canadian Government on the same terms as last year. Collectors of Customs have been supplied with the same forms as last year, but the licenses will be granted to expire on Dec. 31.

A Sure Remedy for Neuralgia.

Neuralgia is one of the most common and painful affections incidental to the climate of life to thousands is made miserable through its agency, and as it affects the nerves, only the most powerful and penetrating remedies can reach it. Everything has been resorted to by the victims of this agony, and most have tried other remedies, since its action is nearly magical. Suffering from any kind of nerve pain, internal or external, we say use at once a bottle of Hagyard's Yellow Oil. Sold by druggists and all dealers in medicine, 10 and 25 cents a bottle. 2w14d

Unnecessary Sickness.

"For three years I was unable to work, suffering from dyspepsia, flooding and kidney trouble. I was tired of my burdensome life, when I was told to try Burdock Blood Bitters, of which 7 bottles made a permanent cure. This was two years ago, and I feel well. I owe my life to B.B.B." writes Mrs. Ann McCloskey, Mermora, Ont. 2w14d

A Frightened Mother.

"My little girl, 3 years old, frightened me one night by a croupy cough, but I gave her a dose of Hagyard's Yellow Oil, which relieved her at once, and she slept well all night. I have since used it in several cases of croup, frost bites, etc., and find it always reliable." Mrs. Eva Bradley, Virden, Man.

The Blood is the Life,

And on its purity largely depends the general health. No one is free from danger, and nine-tenths of humanity actually do suffer from one form or other of impure blood. No one remedy has such a wide range of curative power as has Burdock Blood Bitters—that best of all blood purifiers and tonics.

The Loss of the Hair

Is a great misfortune and the sight of a bald head should be a warning to you to take the best possible care of your hair. A little of Dr. Dorenwend's "Hair Magic" used occasionally will prevent all chances of its falling out or turning gray, and will remove all traces of dandruff. Every druggist has it in stock. Ask for it. dw

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles.

SYMPTOMS—Moisture, intense itching and stinging, most at night, worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulcerations, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia. Lyman, Sons & Co., Montreal, Wholesale Agents. dw

The Safe Plan.

When suffering from a troublesome cold, a hacking cough, hoarseness, asthma, bronchitis, or other forms of throat or lung troubles, is to use Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam to loosen the phlegm and soothe and heal the inflamed mucous surfaces. It cures where others fail. 2w14d

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

TO THE DEAF.—A person cured of deafness and noises in the head of 23 years' standing by a simple remedy, will send a description of it FREE to any person who applies to NICHOLSON, 177 McDougal street, New York

As a Tonic and relief to sufferers from Neuralgia, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite and General Debility, Dyer's Quinine and Iron Wine is highly recommended. W. A. Dyer & Co., Montreal. 6d75

Numerous Vacancies.

A citizen who strolled about the town Sunday made the statement to the EXAMINER that there are 300 vacant houses at present in Peterborough. One landlord alone has 40 unoccupied houses. If the statement is correct, it is a matter of surprise the number of new buildings that are being put up in every direction.

An Inhuman Deed.

Information has been received from Elizabethville, a village a short distance from Port Hope, that intense excitement prevails in that district over the discovery of a man who has been guilty of repeated outrages upon a little girl seven years of age. Mr. Dover prevented the horse from running away.

The new college rooms will be conveniently laid out and elegantly finished.

Died in Winnipeg.

The Winnipeg despatches of last week contained the announcement of the deaths of two prominent citizens, former residents of Peterborough who had made their home in the North West metropolis. On March 31st the following paragraph appeared :—

"Tom Brown, the well known proprietor of the Queen's Hotel, died this morning of congestion of the lungs."

Mr. Brown was a nephew of the late Dr. Brown, and served an apprenticeship in A. W. Keam's drug store. He left Peterborough in the year 1866, when about 17 years of age, and went to Hamilton and afterwards to San Francisco, finally settling in Winnipeg after the boom and starting an hotel. Tom made friends wherever he went and he will be well remembered by many old residents of Peterborough.

Again on April 4th this item was published :—

"An old resident named John Mitchell dropped dead from apoplexy at his residence this evening. He formerly resided in Peterborough, Ont."

Mr. Mitchell was a contractor and left Peterborough about six years ago for Winnipeg. Mrs. Edward Green, town, is a sister of the deceased and Mr. Alfred Johnston a nephew. Wm. Toole, ex-Mayor of Peterborough and now of Winnipeg, was his brother-in-law, and Mrs. Johnson, wife of the late Chief of Police of Peterborough, now residing in San Francisco, was also a sister.

What is Required.

To the Editor of the Examiner :—

SIR,—I am a farmer and subscriber of your valuable paper, and hope you will find room for the following letter, as it is about time we should know where to buy the best of everything.

I have been for several years purchasing trees from nurserymen through their salesmen, with varied success, but as a general rule, not one of their agents could give me any information or answer any question I wished particularly to know, until I had a visit from Mr. A. W. Strachan, representing the Rochester Star Nurseries. From him I have had several very important illustrations given, that by acting up to cannot fail to succeed. His thorough acquaintance with the different varieties suitable for the various soils, as well as the best kinds of fruit to grow for private use, or for profit is to us, without doubt, a greater advantage than when formerly we had to purchase from the old "fogy" played out tree peddler and humbug. With such a gentleman amongst us, and the well known standing of the proprietor, Thos. W. Bowman, who gives us what we order we should be grateful. I can state that his motto, "Square Dealing," is always carried out by him to his customers. I know many others who have also had dealings with him. Before closing I would recommend my brother farmers and intending purchasers to see Mr. Strachan before giving their orders for next fall, '89, or spring, '90

I am, sir,
Your obedient servant,
A FARMER AND SUBSCRIBER.

An Early Arrest.

An Orillia Gaol-Breaker Arrested in Peterborough—He Nearly Escapes.

About five o'clock Sunday morning Chief Rossel and Constables Stewart and McGinty went to a house on the corner of King and Louis streets and arrested one J. H. Freeman, alias Brault, keeper of a boarding-house. The prisoner is wanted on a double charge, a warrant for commitment and for gaol-breaking.

Last September Freeman kept an hotel at Orillia, but had no license to sell liquor, and was arrested for a breach of the Crooks Act. He was placed in the lock-up, but managed to escape, and with his wife decamped to Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., where they ran a boarding-house. At the time Chief Rossel received a telegram to arrest Freeman, but the latter did not come this way. However, about a month ago, thanking, no doubt, that the affair had blown over, Freeman and his wife (or Brault, as they were known here) returned to Peterborough and started a boarding-house at the corner of King and Louis streets. Chief Rossel, not knowing the man, of course knew nothing of his presence, and but for a letter he received last week Freeman might have still been

A FREE MAN INDEED.

The Chief got a letter from a telegraph operator named McKenna at St. Thomas, asking him to look up a Mrs. Brault, who he claimed had several cases of goods belonging to him. It seems McKenna and Mrs. Brault met in Sault Ste. Marie and agreed to start a new hotel at Orillia, and a quantity of McKenna's property was shipped in the woman's husband's name in order to save the trouble of making out new shipping bills. That was the last McKenna saw of his goods, and his letter to the Chief was an outcome of the affair. On Friday Chief Rossel interviewed Mrs. Brault and learned that she had the goods, but claimed that McKenna owed her their value in board. In the conversation Mrs. Brault (or Freeman) told the chief that her husband was away from home but would soon be back, and succeeded in unwittingly "giving away" the information that the man was the same who had run away from Orillia and dare not return there. This was a bit of news for which the Chief was very thankful, but saying nothing he left the place and made his plans to effect the ARREST OF FREEMAN.

Five o'clock Sunday morning, with a posse of police, he proceeded to the house and placing the officers so as to prevent escape he demanded entrance. After a long delay he was admitted, but Freeman was not to be found. He had secreted himself in a cupboard in the kitchen, dressed only in a guernsey, trousers and slippers, and when he thought the way was clear bolted out the back-door and tried to enter a neighbor's house. But P. C. McGinty was there, and hearing the noise gave the alarm and followed, arresting Freeman just in the niche of time to prevent his escape.

The prisoner was lodged in the station and an officer will arrive from Orillia to-morrow morning to take him back. This morning Freeman was complaining of sickness and Doctors King and Bell were called in. They pronounced his malady nothing more than a bilious and nervous attack, which will not prevent his removal to Orillia. Freeman is a man about 35 years of age, and went by both names of Brault and Freeman in Peterborough.

A Revolting Crime.

A Fenelon Falls Clergyman in Gaol. Charged with Unmentionable Crimes.

(Special to the Examiner.)

LINDSAY, April 8.—Rev. J. G. Dean, Presbyterian minister, of Fenelon Falls, is in gaol here charged with an offence which cannot be stated, but which is technically termed "indecent assault." There are said to be fifteen or more boys concerned, mostly at Fenelon Falls, and a few at Cambray and Minden. The prisoner is to appear before Judge Dean this afternoon.

The preliminary examination of the prisoner at Fenelon Falls, before he was committed for trial, was of the most direct nature and totally unfit for publication. Messrs. Jas. Dickson and Robert McFarlane were the Justices of the Peace before whom the examination took place. Rev. Mr. Dean took a fainting fit in church at the conclusion of the services in his church on March 24th, caused by the knowledge that he was suspected of misconduct and that proceedings against him were likely to be taken. The affair is causing a great sensation.

Church Chimes.

Rev. Canon Dumoulin, of St. James' Cathedral, Toronto, will give the address at the next Wednesday evening service in St. John's Church.

Yesterday was Passion Sunday. In St. Peter's Cathedral the music had special reference to the occasion.

Miss Lundy presided at the organ in St. Andrew's Church on Sunday.

Rev. Mr. Crossley preached in the Charlotte street church Sunday morning.

Sunday afternoon a meeting was held in the George street church, which was conducted by Mr. Richard Winch. It was a most enjoyable service.

Thursday night the collections will be a special thank offering to the evangelists.

Personal.

Mr. Alf. Thomas has gone to Toronto to accept a situation.

The many friends of Mr Thos. Dolan will learn with pleasure that he is able to be around again.

Mr. J. A. McClellan, of the Bank of Ontario, has been removed to the Whitby branch. "Mac." made many warm friends while in Peterborough and will be missed particularly by the ladies. His successor here is Mr. Dartnell, of Whitby.

WARNER'S Safe Cure cures both malaria and kidney disease by taking out of the blood the poisonous malarial germs, and by putting the kidneys in a healthy condition.

Clerical Cathedral Changes.

Rev. Rector McEvay Transferred to the Diocese of Hamilton.

The parishioners of St. Peter's Cathedral, as well as the general public, will learn with regret that the translation of His Lordship Bishop Dowling to the See of Hamilton also involves the removal of Rev. Father McEvay, rector of St. Peter's and chancellor of the diocese. He will accompany Bishop Dowling as his secretary. Consequent upon the reverend gentleman's removal, Rev. Father Radkins, who has been Bishop Dowling's secretary here and curate of St. Peter's, will be rector of the cathedral and chancellor of the diocese of Peterborough, a succession which has received the approval of His Lordship O'Connor, and which Bishop Dowling thinks there is good reason to believe will be a permanent arrangement. Rev. Father Radkin's many friends in his native town will congratulate him on this important recognition of his clerical ability and accordotal zeal. Rev. Father Coty will remain for the present—until a student priest, Rev. George Whibbs, of Douro, who is at present in Montreal shall have been ordained. Rev. Father Dubie also remains.

Rev. Father McEvay's severance of his relations with his people here will be the subject of deep regret on the part of the latter. He has manifested a deep and personal interest in the promotion of both the spiritual improvement and material advancement of the parish. Besides he has made himself generally popular, outside his flock. His geniality and other good qualities have won him a degree of respect and esteem which will make general regret at the news of his departure from town at the beginning of May. His Lordship Bishop Dowling, combats the amiable resentment, excited by Rev. Father McEvay's removal by the argument that the fact of his having brought Rev. Father McEvay to Peterborough, constitutes a proprietary interest in the popular priest, which justifies the continuance in another place of their personal and official relations.

Ashburnham Brevities.

St. Luke's C.E.T.S. hold their regular monthly meeting to-night.

The Rev. G. Warren preached in Lakefield Sunday, and the Rev. J. H. McCallum, of Toronto, preached in St. Luke's.

The Rev. G. Warren will take charge of the Lakefield mission after June the first.

Chief Constable Craig is on the war path after law-breakers and disturbers of the public peace, and those who get under his hand may well cry, "Lord, deliver us."

Great sympathy is felt for Mrs. J. Graham in her great trouble over the elopement of her daughter, Annie, with Carter. Mrs. Graham is in a state of complete prostration. On Sunday night, at a late hour, the Rev. A. C. Wilson was called in by her friends, as they thought she was about to succumb.

The two extreme ends of the village, the north and south, were the chief objects of admiration by strollers on Sunday. At the north there is the phenomenal growth which is going on in the building trade, and in the south the boat-building of Mr. H. Calcutt. The "Pearl" has just received her last coat of paint, and looks, indeed, very gay. Mr. R. M. Roy photographed her on Saturday with Commodores Calcutt and Miller on board.

The cars lying on the track at the elevator over Sunday, were for the first time left uncoupled, so that persons could easily cross without having a long walk round. It is to be hoped that this will always be done in future.

COUNCIL MEETING.—The council met at the town hall on March 23rd, members all present. Minutes of previous meeting read and confirmed. The following accounts were ordered to be paid :—W. R. Kelly, $2.00 for use of hall, Bridgenorth ; Hester Carey, $5 as charity ; John Boyd, $1.50 as charity ; John Young, for removing Michael Howren to the House of Providence, Toronto, $14 ; John Flood, $12 for drawing gravel on the 8th con. line ; William Spencer, $6 for statute labor charged to him, the same being performed by him ; Cornelius Howren, $3 for statute labor charged to him in the same way ; the Reeve and Council, $10.00 for one day's service in council. Bylaw No. 220, appointing pound-keepers, fence-viewers and overseers of highways, received the usual number of readings and passed. The council then adjourned.

Can a Poet be Made?

It is frequently asked, can a poet be made
By mans art or by eloquent teaching?
Can he buy it with pelf, or obtain it himself
By his deep longing wish or beseeching?
He may just as well try to drain the sea dry,
Or to hang his hat on the moon's horn;
His experience will show it—he can't make a poet—
Reasons prove that a poet must be born.

Halls of wisdom or knowledge, the high school or college,
Fail to kindle the poetic notion;
If the spark is not there man can never repair
And far less start the Muse into motion.
Would the man be real case if his ears he would strain,
Trying to hear London's merry bells chiming?

He is equal unwise, and will fail if he tries
A non-poetic head to start rhyming.
You may just as well look for a pin in a brook,
Or on trees that in Eden were planted.
As the Muse to awake or a poet to make
If the gift at his birth was not granted.
You would call a man smart if aloft he did start
And there place all the stars in his bonnet;

He is smarter and rare, if no talents are there,
That with ease can spin out a good sonnet.
Every one has their gift, and they naturally drift
In the course which their giver intended;
Whether poetry or prose, nurse it up as it flows—
Very seldom both talents are blended.

It is true, for I know it, the true germ of a poet
At his birth by his Maker is planted;
It lives and it grows, it rises and flows—
Its grand faculty ready when wanted.
It is given for use surely not for abuse,
While some would be better without it.
Rude immoral their strain, language scurrilous and vain,
They may think it is right, but I doubt it.

I have said it before, and I say it once more,
Earthly powers cannot make a real poet
They are God-kindled fires, but of men He requires
Prepar'ed through their lives to enjoy it.
Learning fosters the muse—giving language and views,
Like the dew drop on flowers in the morn,
But its genius and worth is instilled there at birth,
So the gift with the man must be born.

WILLIAM TELFORD, Smith.

Division Court Act Amendments.

During the session of the Legislature just closed many important amendments have been made. The principal are as follows :—

1. The county council must provide necessary books for clerks whose annual emoluments are less than $500.

2. The bailiff is to have a lien for his costs upon goods seized by him when settled between the parties, or assigned for benefit of creditors. In case of dispute, amount to be settled by the judgment.

3. In case of a vacancy in a clerkship, the County Attorney to be clerk until a successor be appointed.

4. Authority is given in all cases where a suit is brought in the wrong division to the judge to order a transfer. Formerly this could only be done in case of "mistake or inadvertence."

5. A sheriff upon taking possession under the Creditor's Relief Act, of goods in the bailiff is to pay to the latter his costs and disbursements.

6. Personal service is not required in actions for $15 and under, increasing the limit for $8.

7. A defendant, firm or corporation out of the Province, but having an office or agent, can now be sued, and service effected upon such agent.

8. The judge's powers to add a third party are extended to primary debtors and garnishees.

9. Commissioners to take evidence in proper cases, are to issue from the division court and not the county court as heretofore.

10. The method of selecting and summoning jurors is entirely changed. Henceforth they will be selected from the voters' lists, and not from the collector's roll as heretofore.

11. The $25 exemption for wages, is not to extend to the case of an unmarried person having no family depending upon him for support.

12. After a transcript to another court has issued, no proceedings in the original court shall be taken with leave from the judge.

Assuming a Warlike Attitude.

Many other houses are becoming very indignant at the idea of W. J. Morrow controlling the grocery trade of the town and country, but never mind—be cautious. We will prove to all you grocers who are grappling for high prices, that the time has arrived when W. J. Morrow will enlighten the public; doing more of a cash business and a more extensive trade he is better prepared to sell goods away down. Then again, here are a lot of our best Toronto and Montreal houses clamoring for our trade, owing to our buying for cash, and hence the keen competition, thereby buying goods away below other houses. So a call will convince you that we are Peterborough's great grocery house—340 George street. dw

CLEVELAND'S SUPERIOR BAKING POWDER

THE PUREST AND BEST

Is made only of strictly pure grape cream of tartar, strictly pure bicarbonate of soda, and a small portion of flour as a preservative, nothing else whatever, and is warranted entirely free from alum, ammonia, phosphates, lime, and all the adulterants frequently found in baking powders. The character of materials used, their purity, and the nicety of their combination, render Cleveland's superior baking powder the most healthful and most economical in use, and it always affords wholesome, nutritious, and delicious food.

It is recommended for purity, healthfulness and efficiency by Government and State chemists, chemists of Boards of Health, and professors in institutions of learning throughout the country.

THE ATTRACTION AT TURNBULL'S.

Whatever the weather has been outside, in the springiest of Springtime in our store on Wednesday and Thursday last, when all the new Millinery and Millinery trimmings were opened out of their close packing boxes. For the benefit of those who could not get in on those days, we will keep a display up all the first week in April. Among the leading changes noticeable in the Trimming this season is LACE ENDS and SCARFS and LONG VEILS drawn in with Baby Ribbon at the bottom. Flowers and Ribbons are the leading Trimmings. The old fashioned hop that used to climb on a pole at the back door, is now found falling over the Black Lace Hats. Having such a cheap line of Flowers (Germans like) the Germans copy the French dodge and give us the Goods much cheaper. We have a Bouquet for everybody. Bunches of Roses in all colors only 25 c. each. Our stock of CHILDRENS' TRIMMED HATS is unusually attractive. Sailor Hats in endless variety. We have not room to give them a front show. We were disappointed not being able to show with the Millinery, the new JET CAPES and SILK VISETTES and TRIMMED DOLMANS, but there is time enough yet, and we expect them in on the first freight train. A fine assortment of clothes in the order department. All hands at work as busy as bees in the workroom up stairs.

The DRESS GOODS Department is as busy as ever. A new line of Vigoreaux cloth in 8 shades, 44 inches wide, at 60 cents, also in this week; a glance at it will tell how it is serviceable. With them came a new line of German Dress Cloth—we have not seen nothing similar before; is just what any lady would fancy for a genteel Dress. Will show another new make next week.

Miss MERCER is always pleased to help you with her advice as to length of Dress Skirts, Style of Making and Trimming, whether you wish to have it made by her or not.

KID GLOVES fresh from the hands of the maker in Austria, at 75c. and $1.00 a pair. This line we had in stock before, but the quantity was small and we only had a pair for a lady here and there.

"As Others See Us."

"Oh that some power the gift would gie us,
To see ourselves as others see us."
Thus sighed old Scotia's Bard in vain,
For what he could not there attain.
But had he lived in this fair town
He had no cause to sigh or frown,
For if he walked on Hunter street,
An eager throng he'd surely meet,
With faces bright as summer light,
All seeing from one-fifty-eight.
Where photos always are in view,
Which are to life so very true,
That each one who has been there,
Does to his comrades all declare,
"SPROULE is the very man can gie us,
The power to see as others see us."

PRIVATE MEMBERS' DAY.

MANY MEASURES DISPOSED OF BY THE HOUSE.

The C.P.R.'s Bill Passed—The Anti-Combines Bill Referred to the Banking Committee—Questions Answered.

OTTAWA, April 8.—If there is to be a long Canadian Pacific Railway debate in the House this session it will not be over the company's bill for the consolidation of its debentures which has been hanging fire so long, as the measure went through very quietly to-night without objection. The Government's new arrangement with the company will probably be brought down to-morrow. A large number of questions were answered by ministers at the afternoon sitting.

Mr. Shanly inquired: Has the Government received any petitions from the shareholders of the Grand Trunk Railway Company? If so, has any action been taken thereon?

Sir John Macdonald replied that a petition from Grand Trunk shareholders had been received, protesting against the grant of subsidies to any railways duplicating or competing with existing lines. The usual course would be taken on the petition, but it would be considered when any railway claims came before the Government in the future.

Mr. Mulock asked whether the attention of the Government had been drawn to the article in The [illegible] stating that structural defects in the St. George bridge whereby the recent disaster might be accounted for, and whether any steps are being taken so as to other railway bridges to see whether they are also structurally defective.

Sir John Macdonald answered that the Government's attention had not been called to the article except by the above inquiry, but that steps would be taken to ascertain whether other bridges were structurally defective.

Mr. Charlton asked whether it is the intention of the Government during the present session to introduce a bill to incorporate the Orange Order.

Sir John Macdonald replied: "This would be a private bill, and it is not the intention of the Government to introduce such a bill, and my honorable friend will therefore be deprived of the opportunity of voting against the bill, which he did twice before." [Laughter.]

Mr. Charlton: "I might not do so again."

In answer to Mr. McMullen, Sir Adolphe Caron said tenders had been asked last fall for the brand supply of "O" School of Infantry, Toronto. Four tenders were received and the contract was awarded to Wm. Carlyle at 2.23 cents per lb., this being the lowest tender.

In answer to Mr. Watson, Hon. Edgar Dewdney said the Government had received a report upon the claims of the half-breeds for the value of their furs alleged to have been wrongfully appropriated at Battleford.

Mr. Watson: "Will it be laid before the House?"

Mr. Dewdney: "Yes, if asked for."

Mr. Laurier: "It cannot be asked for this session."

Sir John Macdonald: "That is not our fault."

General Laurie moved for the correspondence in reference to the importation of fish in bond for the purpose of subsequent exportation. He complained that the Government of Nova Scotia suffered injustice by reason of fish from St. Pierre Island and the French coast of Newfoundland being brought in free, ostensibly for exportation, but surreptitiously put into consumption in Canada, inferior fish being exported in their stead. He thought it unfair also that dealers were allowed to break bulk and, by carting and otherwise, improve the fish before exportation. Several members on both sides took part in the discussion, which was adjourned when the House rose at 6 o'clock.

After recess in committee of the whole the House resumed consideration of the Canadian Pacific Railway Resolutions Consolidation Bill. Hon. Mr. Laurier inquired about the arrangement with the Canadian Pacific Railway respecting the Harvey and Salisbury link of the Short Line Railway, about which Sir John had spoken the other evening.

Sir John said that when he had mentioned that agreement it had not passed the Council. Since then it had become a minute of the Council, but one or two matters had been forwarded the evening for His Excellency's signature. He hoped to be able to lay it before the House to-morrow.

Hon. Mr. Laurier said that as the Canadian Pacific Railway bill was a private one and intended only to improve the efficiency of the service he would not oppose its passage pending the production of the agreements spoken of. He hoped it would not be found to be a violation of the pledges made by the Government a few years ago.

Sir John Macdonald said he thought it would be found that it was no violation of any pledges.

The Canadian Pacific Railway Bill was then adopted in committee and read a third time and passed.

The Boswell, Wand and Middleton diverse bills were read a second time on a division and referred to committee.

Sir John Macdonald made the promised explanations respecting the Manufacturers' Insurance Company and the connection of Sir Alexander Campbell with the vice-presidency. When the company was organized in Toronto Sir Alexander Campbell was in England. He had left Mr. Fred Barwick to look after his affairs and when it was desired that he should [illegible] Mr. Barwick spoke to him stating the facts and asking him to subscribe for the stock necessary to qualify him. Sir Alexander answered by cable:

"Letter received. Answer, yes. Subscribe same amount of stock as Macdonald."

He also wrote a letter stating that he was very glad to accept the position of first vice-president under Sir John Macdonald, president, and would subscribe for the same amount of stock as Sir John had. Mr. Barwick having power of attorney to do so subscribed for the stock and paid the call demanded, and Sir Alexander was duly named first vice-president, but upon his return from England Sir Alexander Campbell changed his mind for reasons which need not be alluded to now and determined that he would not take up the stock or assume the office. As there were numerous applicants for the vacancy he was not further pressed.

When he found that his name was still being used in the newspapers, Sir Alexander had caused his solicitor to write to The World the letter which had caused the matter to be brought before Parliament.

Mr. Cook's bill to amend the Railway Act so as, amongst other things, to compel railway companies to provide proper loading facilities wherever they land passengers was objected to by Sir John Thompson because it would interfere seriously with excursion traffic and was otherwise against the public interest. He moved the three months' hoist, which motion carried.

Mr. Boyle's bill to prevent the practices of fraudulent tree peddlers and commission men in the sale of nursery stock and which makes it compulsory for all persons selling foreign grown stock in Canada to give bonds to secure purchasers against loss by fraud, was read a second time, and on motion of Sir John Thompson, referred to a select committee.

Mr. Boyle spoke at length in support of his bill, and pointed out that many States in the Union had passed similar measures. The State of Minnesota, for instance, only permitted the unrestricted sale of stock grown in that state.

Mr. Brown of Hamilton warmly supported the bill, as while many of those likely to purchase stock were quite well able to protect themselves there ought to be something done to protect the minority who were not so strong minded.

Mr. Patterson's bill to admit United States vessels to touring and coasting as well as wrecking privileges in Canada was withdrawn by that gentleman on the representation of the adjourned debate on its second reading being called.

Mr. Cook's bill to provide for the examination and licensing of all persons employed as stationary engineers and all persons having charge of steam boilers or other devices under pressure was objected to by Hon. C. H. Tupper as defective in construction and impracticable in principle, and he accordingly moved the three months' hoist, which was carried.

Mr. Charles Wallace moved the second reading of his bill for the prevention of combinations formed in restraint of trade. He made an able speech in support, pointing out the injustice arising from the combines system as shown by the investigation by the committee last year. He took occasion to refer to the contention that the tariff created the combines and pointed out that some of the most oppressive combines were in lines on which there was no tariff protection, coal for instance. One of the most powerful combines was that of the wholesale grocers who were not producers but handlers.

Mr. Guillet followed in support of the bill, and summed up his estimate of the opponents in the couplet:

"If vagues over fish the hatter draw
With good opinion of the law."

Mr. Adam Brown suggested that the bill should be referred to the Banking and Commerce Committee. Hon. David Mills thought this would be the best course to pursue when the bill got its second reading. The bill having been read a second time, Mr. Brown moved in amendment its reference to the Banking and Commerce Committee, when manufacturers and others interested might be heard.

Mr. Wallace characterized this as an attempt to bury the bill, as the subject had been very thoroughly discussed by the committee.

Mr. Fisher said that this bill was not a creation of the committee, but an evolution of Mr. Wallace's own brain. He thought the bill should certainly be considered in one of the select standing committees. Mr. Cockburn, who seconded Mr. Brown's motion, strongly objected to the statement that its object was to bury the bill, which was very important in view of its effect upon commerce and should be carefully considered in committee.

Mr. Sproule said if it went to committee there would not be time to report it so as to get it through the House this session. It could be considered in committee of the House.

Sir John said the bill could certainly not be passed to-night, so it would have to stand over until next Monday.

Mr. Sproule said he understood there was a notice on the paper to make the bill a Government order.

Sir John: "Yes, but before that motion was reached the promoter took to-night an earlier opportunity of getting the bill before the House. If you take it out of the Government's hands you must manage it after your own fashion."

Mr. Wallace asked if the Government would promise that the bill would be put through after it came back from the committee. Sir John said they could not promise that, but they would promise that it should have every opportunity to be put through did the House so desire.

The bill was then referred to the Banking and Commerce Committee and the House adjourned at 1 o'clock.

Synod of Hamilton and London.

BRANTFORD, April 8.—The Presbyterian Synod of Hamilton and London met here last evening in Zion church and was opened by a sermon from the Rev Dr. James of Walkerton. The attendance of ministers and elders was large and the congregation represented all the denominations in the city. Dr. James preached from Revelations v. 14, "The Exaltation of Jesus Christ Hailed as a Cause of Rejoicing by the Heavenly Host." After the sermon the synod was constituted and the roll called by Dr. Cochrane, the clerk. The Moderator then asked for nominations for his successor. On motion of Mess. Thomson, of Zorra, seconded by Dr. Proudfoot, Rev. George Cuthbertson of Wyoming was unanimously elected. On taking the chair he returned thanks in a characteristic speech.

The clerk read the list of nominations for the committees on commission of elders, on licenses of students, on presbytery records and for preparing the business for the synod, which were adopted. The moderator was requested to nominate at an early sederunt to-morrow a committee to present names, to compose the standing committee of the year. Dr. Cochrane read an invitation from the directors of the Young Ladies College for to-morrow evening at 7 p.m., which was accepted. Arrangements were also made to hear a fraternal deputation from the Methodist clergymen of the city, and to hear Mr. J. K. Macdonald of Toronto on Wednesday at 11 a.m. on behalf of the aged and infirm ministers' funds.

Notice of motion was given by Mr. Caswell of Oneida for a committee to prepare a deliverance on the Jesuit question.

Georgetown Whitecaps.

MILTON, April 8.—John Hume, alleged to be one of Georgetown's White Caps, was tried before Magistrates Barber, Reston and Malcomb at Georgetown on Saturday on three charges. The first charge was that of writing a letter threatening to kill the second, one of sending by post an obscene picture, and the third criminal libel. The investigation took place with closed doors, the public being excluded. The prisoner was committed for trial on all three charges and will be up before the county judge to-morrow. J. O. Motherson, County Crown Attorney, prosecuted and G. S. Goodwillie appeared for the prisoner. William Joseph Parsons, alias Ted Dundas, of Georgetown, was tried to-day before Judge Miller on a charge of pointing a pistol. The Crown failed to make out a case against the prisoner, but for attempting to escape from a constable after his arrest, and to which charge prisoner pleaded guilty, he was sentenced to nine months' imprisonment.

Coal Yards Reduced.

BETHLEHEM, Pa., April 8.—Freight agents of several railroads met to-day and reduced the rate on anthracite coal from the Wyoming region and the Lehigh region to Philadelphia and New York 5 to 20 cents per ton. The rate from the Lehigh region to Buffalo was reduced 25 cents and corresponding reductions were made to Lake Ontario ports and New York State points. To Chicago the rate is reduced 50 cents. The reduction goes into effect April 15.

The Bequest Holds.

PHILADELPHIA, April 8.—The hard fought legal contest instituted by the heirs of the late Dr. Scott Stewart to break his legacy of about $200,000 for establishing a hospital of the Methodist Episcopal Church was brought to a close to-day by a decision of the Supreme Court in favor of the trustees of the hospital.

MONTREAL, April 8.—On March 6 last a man named Andre Meinville speculated a young 10-year-old girl, and was only stopped in his infamous purpose by the arrival of the girl's brother, who had been arrested. In the Court of Queen's Bench he was sentenced to eighteen months' imprisonment in jail and fifteen lashes. The lashes were administered this morning at 7 o'clock. The warder of the "cat" was a tall, powerful Irishman, and the second stroke brought a scream and appeals for mercy from the scoundrel's lips; but they were of no avail.

Curious Case of Suspended Animation—"White Bess" Leaves for Calgary—A Verdict of Wilful Murder.

TORONTO, April 8.—At the regular weekly concert of the Temperance Reformation Society in Temperance Hall on Saturday, a performer with a cherry ripe complexion stepped upon the platform to entertain the audience. A colored man named Reuben Wilson, sitting up in the gallery, shouted, "Redhead! Fire!" In a loud voice. A large part of the assemblage immediately arose and a panic seemed inevitable. A few cool heads, however, pacified the throng and danger was averted. Wilson, when remonstrated with, became pugnacious and was ejected. Yesterday he was fined $20 and costs for his fun.

It was in vain that James Copeland protested that he was entirely innocent of the accusation that he stole a cash box from John Clarke, Queen street west, and, having been caught at a similar game before, was convicted and sent to the Central for a year.

A curious case of suspended animation is reported from the north end of the city, on McMurrich street. A little girl, the child of a laborer, was sick unto death, and to all appearances passed peacefully away. The remains were carefully dressed for burial, and flowers were sent in by friends. In the still small hours the mother thought she heard a faint cry from her little one, and woke her husband. To satisfy his wife's eagerness he agreed to go downstairs and visit the death chamber. To his own amazement he observed the little one's arm move, and having summoned assistance, the delighted couple later on had their child restored, but very weak.

The Methodist Ministerial Association at its meeting yesterday morning appointed committees to arrange for the billeting of visitors to the coming conference.

Advance Agent Crocker of a theatrical company was nearly suffocated by gas in the Hub Hotel on Friday night. Yesterday morning he was able to move about.

Ernest Carson, who is charged with stealing from his father, who resides in this city was arrested at Niagara Falls. A detective left yesterday to bringhim back.

P. F. Pratt, cashier of the First National Bank, Anoka, Minn., who is missing with $100,000, was reported to have arrived in Toronto, but inquiry yesterday failed to unearth him.

J. Lee West, the New Orleans boodler who was arrested here a few days ago with $1400 of stolen money on his person, is now on his way to Calgary, N.W.T. After being liberated and giving up the money he was around town for a few days and spoke of remaining in Toronto. But "Whitehorn," as he grew to be called because of arrest over the wearing of a false beard, grew tired of living here and left by the 11 o'clock C.P.R. train last Saturday night for Calgary, which is much farther north than Mexico, where he originally intended to go. He took passage in a second-class car and drew down the blinds over his seat.

A reporter yesterday saw Walter Playter, shoemaker, of 169 Bay-street, who is the brother of Mrs. Carter, whose husband, Alfred E. Carter, late organist of St. Andrew's church, Peterboro, eloped with the sweet young choir singer Annie Graham last Friday. Mr. Playter went up to Peterboro on Saturday and returned yesterday morning. He stated that there is no truth in any of the aforesaid rumors of Carter and the young woman and he and others who are interested have no idea as to where the flying pair are located.

At 4 p.m. yesterday Coroner Johnson impannelled a jury in the City Morgue to hold an inquest into the death of the three-weeks-old infant found on the lake shore of the Island within a few yards of the Lake side Home. The medical evidence went to show that the child had certainly been born alive, but decomposition had worked so rapidly that it was impossible to arrive at the direct cause of death. A verdict of wilful murder against a person or persons unknown was returned.

Mr. Stubbs made his $1000 deposit at Osgoode Hall yesterday in the Cardwell election case.

TRADE AN TRAFFIC.

Leading Features of the Grain and Produce Markets at Home and Abroad.

TORONTO, April 8.—St. Lawrence market was quiet yesterday. Little was offered and the demand was slight. Receipts of hay and straw were small and prices steady, hay selling at $17 and $18 and straw at $10. Hay is likely to take a big drop soon. The large quantity coming up from Quebec is keeping prices down. One day last week there were nearly 100 cars for sale along the Esplanade, and within a couple of weeks it is probable that hay will sell down to $12.

The sales of grain on the street were: 100 bushels of wheat at $1.07 for fall, $1.08 and $1.09 for red, $1.09 to $1.14 for spring and 67c. for goose; 100 bushels of barley for 51c. and 100 bushels of peas at 70c.

Dressed hogs are quoted at $7 per 100 lbs., geese 9c. per lb., turkeys 14c., ducks 70c. per pair, chickens 55c., butter 20c. for rolls and 20c. for tubs, lard 12c., eggs 12c., potatoes 30c. per bag, apples $1.25 per bbl.

Aberdeen Cattle Company.

LONDON, April 9.—The Aberdeen Canadian Cattle Company show a loss of £230 on last year's operations, due to the loss of a Danish shipment, also to the loss of 130 cattle on the seventh Canadian cargo during a heavy storm last November. The directors, however, do not regard the results as discouraging, having supplied farmers with nearly 2000 head of healthy and profitable steer cattle.

The Talk of the Town.

The people are wondering why Elliott & Tierney are giving 18 lbs. bright sugar for $1, and selling teas and other goods so much cheaper than any house in Peterborough. Call at the Palace Grocery and examine the goods, which will convince you. The "Palace" is the place to get best values. Great stock-taking sale now going on.

Eczema, Itchy, Scaly Skin Tortures.

The simple application of "Swayne's Ointment," without any internal medicine, will cure any case of Tetter, Salt Rheum, Ringworm, Piles, Itch, Sores, Pimples, Eczema, all Scaly Itching Skin Eruptions, no matter how obstinate or long standing. It is potent, effective, and costs but a trifle. Lyman, Sons & Co., Montreal, Wholesale Agents. dw

The Safe Plan.

When suffering from a troublesome cold, a hacking cough, hoarseness, asthma, bronchitis, or other forms of throat or lung troubles, is to use Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam to loosen the phlegm and soothe and heal the inflamed mucous surfaces. It cures where others fail. 2w14d

Father Had Quinsy.

"We find Burdock Blood Bitters excellent for weakness, and equally so for headache. Father also suffered severely from quinsy, which B.B.B., by its tonic and purifying properties, completely cured." 2w14d

A Cure for Lumbago.

That painful complaint can be quickly cured by the right remedy. Miss Mary Jane Could, of Stoney Creek, Ont., says: "I was troubled with lumbago, and could not get relief until I used Hagyard's Yellow Oil, one bottle of which cured me entirely." 2w14d

DYSPEPSIA, that great source of misery to so many people, can be effectually cured by the use of Dyer's Quinine and Iron Wine—it is carefully prepared, easily assimilated, and can be taken by the weakest invalids. 6d62

AS A PICK-ME UP after excessive exertion or exposure, Milburn's Beef Iron and Wine is grateful and comforting. dw

AN INACTIVE or Torpid Liver must be aroused and all bad bile removed. Burdock Pills are best for old or young. dw

25 REASONS

FOR DRINKING

ROYAL DANDELION COFFEE

Some drink because they are hungry,
And some because they're dry,
Some drink to keep them in good health,
And some that they may thrive.

Some drink because they are too hot,
And some because they're too cold,
Some drink to strengthen them when young,
And some when they are old.

Some drink to keep them wide awake,
And some that they may sleep,
Some drink because they merry are,
And some because they weep.

Some drink when they do money gain,
And some because of loss;
Some drink when they are pleased,
And some when they are cross.

Some drink when they are hard at work,
And some when they do play;
Some think it right to drink at night,
While others drink by day.

Some drink for sake of company,
While others drink on the sly;
And many drink but never think,
About the reason why.

Some say they drink for pleasure,
And some they drink for pain,
Some say 'tis good, some very bad,
But never once refrain.

Yet all must own the proverb true:
"When iron's hot to strike it"—
I've just found out the reason why—
All drink because they like it!

During the past month our Store has been undergoing extensive alterations, and now with pardonable pride, we have much pleasure in announcing that our Store is one of the Finest in Canada. Our aim has been to clothe a man or boy from head to foot, and we have been adding department after department until we have reached the goal of our ambition. Our last Great Department, namely, HATS and CAPS, is now open, and we are showing the Latest Styles from London, New York and Paris. We will not enlarge on the prices these Goods will be sold at, suffice to say,—they will simply astonish our patrons. Remember our Great HAT and CAP DEPARTMENT is now open.

A WORD ABOUT OUR CLOTHING DEPARTMENT, THIS SPRING:

Never in the history of the trade has such an Array of Fine Clothing been placed before a buying public. Our Stock this Spring embraces all the LATEST DESIGNS and PATTERNS, and as they were made under our own special supervision, the workmanship is of a SUPERIOR quality. Notwithstanding all this our prices will be found LOWER than ever. When we came to you as the Revolutionizers of the Clothing Trade, we promised you then that we would benefit the public, and now after a long trial have we kept our word? If so, let that be our best guarantee to the public, that we deal honestly and squarely with them in the future. We are not so egotistical as to believe that we please every one, (our Divine Master when on earth did not please everyone) still to those who we did not please, as well as those we did please, we sincerely return thanks for past patronage. As we are not infallible we are prone to make mistakes and our judgment like any human being's may err in buying. Still we try to avoid errors, as much as possible, and therefore it is our proud boast when anyone has a grievance we never refused to make it right when brought to our notice. This spring we are going to REDOUBLE OUR ENERGIES, and by keeping GOOD GOODS, NICE GOODS, SQUARE DEALING, and EXTREMELY LOW PRICES, we hope to merit a Continuance of your Generous Patronage.

I. THE OTTAWA MYSTERY.

How Mr. Grant's Name Came to Be Mixed Up With the Recent Robbery.

OTTAWA, April 8.—The force of the old adage against judging by appearances has just had another demonstration in this city, by the return of Mr. John C. Grant, after a couple of weeks' absence, to investigate concerning the origin of certain statements which have been circulated connecting him with the recent robbery at the Police Clerk's office. He had been in Chicago on private business, but receiving from Ottawa a copy of a newspaper containing the story, he came returned to give it the most unqualified denial.

A reporter called upon Mr. Grant to-day and conversed with him about the circumstances. It seems that the police in endeavoring to solve the mystery, which quite baffled their ingenuity, had deemed it their duty to inquire into the movements not only of the members of the force but of all citizens who had had any possible means of intimacy with the workings of the office. Mr. Grant, who had had a good deal of professional business to transact in the office, was one of these. Of course the inquiries were conducted as quietly as possible, and it is not surprising therefore that, as Mr. Grant says, he knew nothing about them. A few days later he left for Chicago to transact some business, the nature of which happened to be private, and he left no word of his destination, simply stating that he was called away for a few days. Then the police inquiries got talked about and a local paper published with great wealth of detail the story of a young man supposed to be implicated in the robbery and who had fled upon hearing that the police were making about him.

To-day Mr. Grant called at police headquarters to enquire what they wanted with him. His movements were explained, and as the Police Commissioners are still holding regular sessions inquiring into the robbery it was agreed that Mr. Grant should attend for their satisfaction on Monday morning.

THE JESUITS V. THE MAIL.

A Banner Current at Montreal That the Case is to be Settled.

MONTREAL, April 8.—There was a rumor circulated at the Court House this morning that a settlement was imminent in the cause celebre of the Jesuits v. The Mail. "The cause is returnable on April 25," said Mr. Lamothe, one of counsel of the Order, "and then The Mail will have ten days in which to file their plea. I have no instructions from the Order other than these to proceed. All cases for libel can be settled by an apology and payment of costs."

FIRE LOSSES.

Disastrous Blaze at Orono—The Tannery Conflagration at Kingston.

ORONO, April 8.—The losses by the fire here are as follows: L. W. Underwood on stock, $2000, insured for $2000 in the Ætna, $1200 in the Gore Mutual; F. E. Andrus on stock, $200, insured in the Phœnix for $1000; N. F. Mallory, stock, $2000, insured in the Royal for $1,000; W. W. Trull on building, $3000, insured in the Royal for $2000.

The Kingston Tannery Blaze.

KINGSTON, April 8.—Carrington's loss by the burning of his tannery will amount to $20,000 over and above his insurance of $10,000 in the Millers and Manufacturers' Insurance Company. About 20 men are thrown out of employment.

A Paradise for the Guess Club.

SARASSAOTA, N.Y., April 6.—This section is one of the greatest onion producing fields in the world, if not the greatest, many farmers raising nothing else. The yield last year was enormous and the onion raisers were delighted, because the bulbs had always met with a ready sale at remunerative prices. But the production was too large for the market and now the farmers weep. Thousands of bushels have been sold at one cent per bushel. One large producer recently consigned a car load of 600 bushels to New York and received in return a check for $1.05. The enormous stock on hand cannot be disposed of for enough to pay transportation charges. Despite this discouraging state of affairs the onion growers do not intend to reduce their acreage the coming season.

The Dakota Windstorm.

ELKTON, Dak., April 6.—The most terrific windstorm known to this country began on Monday and continued until yesterday. Tuesday afternoon a perfect hurricane began, causing sand to blow from ploughed fields and drifting in places one and 1½ feet deep. About 20 miles northeast of here on Tuesday the barn of Henry Kurth with three horses, wagons, etc., was consumed by a fire caused by burning straw setting fire to a timothy meadow, across which the flames flew at the speed of a running horse. In attempting to save his horses Kurth was fatally burned, dying after thirty hours of horrible suffering.

Stabbing Affray at Windsor.

WINDSOR, April 7.—About 5 o'clock last night Robert Mackie, formerly a bartender in the Imperial Hotel, got into a quarrel with Joseph Le Boeuf at the Cosmopolitan Hotel and stabbed him several times. A doctor was called and examined the wounds, but thought that they would not result fatally. Mackie has crossed the river.

Killed on the Track.

WINDSOR, April 7.—A Grand Trunk special, west-bound, struck Chas. Pelltier, who was walking on the track near Stony Point, yesterday, killing him instantly and cutting the body in a terrible manner. Pelltier did not hear the train coming. He is a farmer living near Stony Point, and the body was removed to that place.

Hunting Down a Scoundrel.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., April 6.—A posse of 300 men under Sheriff Dejarnet was organized in Rutherford County to-day to search for George Dunaway, the man who some weeks ago killed his uncle and ravished his niece in the Lascassas neighborhood in that county. The belief is that Dunaway is in hiding near the scene of his crime.

Not For Sale.

CHESTER, April 6.—The Gazette, commenting on the report that Count Herbert Bismarck had made an offer on the part of Germany to cede Demeraland to England, says that the German Government does not desire to dispose of that territory.

Proposed Weaving School.

NEW YORK, April 6.—Representatives of the silk, woollen and cotton trades met here to-day and discussed the establishment of a weaving school. Silk manufacturers complain that foreign weavers who now form their entire staff will eventually pass on to teach the trade here. A committee will be appointed to make plans for the establishment of a school.

This Cashier Was a Thief.

AUGUSTA, Maine, April 7.—F. F. Pratt, cashier of the First National Bank, is missing with $200,000 of the bank's money and $50,000 obtained on his personal note endorsed by an aged widow who trusted him to manage her affairs. The bank will be placed in the hands of a receiver.

A Big Storm in the South.

NEW YORK, April 7.—Despatches from all parts of Virginia and the Carolinas report that the worst storm of the season commenced on Saturday. It began with thunder, lightning and hail, snow fell heavily and was driven by a terrific gale. Wires are down in Unsurpassed Remedy.

"For three years I was unable to work, suffering from disordered stomach. Medical aid having failed, I was told to try Burdock Blood Bitters, of which 7 bottles made a permanent cure. This was two years ago, and I feel that I have to thank B.B.B. for being alive and well to-day." Mrs. Rose Ann McCloskey, Marmora, Ont. 2w14d

A Frightened Mother.

"My little girl, 4 years old, frightened me one night by a croupy cough, but I gave her a dose of Hagyard's Yellow Oil, which relieved her at once, and she slept well all night. I have since used it in several cases of croup, frost bites, etc., and find it always reliable." Mrs. Eva Bradley, Virden, Man.

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles.

SYMPTOMS—Moisture, intense itching and stinging, most at night, worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia. Lyman, Sons & Co., Montreal, Wholesale Agents. dw

The Blood is the Life,

And on its purity largely depends the general health. No one is free from danger, and nine-tenths of humanity actually do suffer from one form or other of impure blood. No one remedy has such a wide range of curative power as has Burdock Blood Bitters—that best of all blood purifiers and tonics.

The Loss of the Hair

Is a great misfortune and the sight of a bald head should be a warning to you to take the best possible care of your hair. A little of Dr. Dorenwend's "Hair Magic" used occasionally will prevent all chances of its falling out or turning gray, and will remove all traces of dandruff. Every druggist has it in stock. Ask for it. dw

DR. DORENWEND'S

GREAT HAIR MAGIC.

The equal of this great preparation is yet to be found. It is an unfailing Restorer for gray hair—it stops all falling out of the hair—it removes all dandruff, and keeps the scalp clean. All druggists everywhere have it for sale. Ask for it. Do not let the druggist tell you he has something just as good—many have dead stock of other hair tonics on hand and try to shove them off in this way. See that each bottle bears seal and signature

The Cause of the Scott Act Defeat.

There are various opinions as to the defeat of the Scott Act, some giving this reason, others that; but one of the principal points is this. There has been such a sensation caused, in fact over the whole county that all plans have been frustrated, instead of voters going to the polls to record their votes they rushed headlong to secure the tremendous bargains w. j. morrow has been offering in groceries, knowing well that they can buy goods cheaper from him than from any other house in the line.

CARD PLAYING CONDEMNED

Mr. Crossley Enumerates His Objections to the Game.

Ten Reasons Why Card Playing is Wrong—A Number of Ministers Commended Blade—It is Gambling no Matter How Played—A Logical and Conclusive Address.

Card playing is generally considered to be a rather innocent sort of amusement, and the announcement that the evangelists were to deal with it last night and point out wherein it was wrong, created a deal of conjecture and eagerness to hear what they had to say on the subject. The church was crowded again to its fullest capacity. Mr. Hunter being yet absent, the meeting was conducted by Mr. Crossley alone. After singing "Christ is All," and by special request repeating "Mother's Prayer," the requests for prayer were read by Rev. P. C. Parker.

CARD PLAYING.

Then Mr. Crossley began his address on "Card Playing." He said he had been asked to discuss this important question, and he intended to do so in a kindly spirit and as clearly as he could. His text was in John, xix, 24 :—

"They parted my raiment among them, and for my vesture they did cast lots."

Here was the crucifixion of Jesus in progress, and the soldiers indulged in a game of chance and cast lots for His raiment. So it was that some Christians were asking the question, "must I give up this or that," and indulging in a game of chance with Jesus. Their crime was the greater in so far as Jesus was of more importance than his raiment. Mr. Crossley pointed out three mistakes commonly made in connection with card playing. First, people include chess, checkers, croquet and bicycle-riding in the same category with cards. The comparison was a wrong one, for while chess and checkers were purely games of skill, and croquet and bicycle-riding purely games of dexterity, card playing was solely a game of chance. Then another mistake was in contrasting ordinary card playing with the game of nations. Some good Methodist, Mr. Crossley said, had nations in their houses and thought it all right; he would say to them that people were laughing at them. For himself, if there was any preference, he would be in favour of the old "deck." Again, these not Christians make a mistake in considering that they are because, though as Christians they could not indulge, yet, not being Christians, they have that privilege. Mr. Crossley pointed out that if cards were wrong for the Christian they were harmful for the unsaved; the obligation to do no evil was as binding on the sinner as the Christian.

PRIVILEGED TO PLAY CARDS,

Next Mr. Crossley mentioned his objections to card-playing. His first reason why it was wrong was because it gave one a false idea of life, leaving the impression upon the player that success in life, as in a game of cards depended not on merit, but on luck or chance. A second reason was that cards had a bad name. None of these other games mentioned were badly thought of, and it was not good to associate with people or things of bad repute. Thirdly, it was a questionable game. The question was never asked, is there harm in checkers or chess; but that was the first question always asked about cards. It was better in this case to abstain from every appearance of evil. Fourth, card-playing led many astray. Many excellent parents have cards in their houses for the avowed purpose of keeping their boys at home nights; but the danger was that they would stay in only until they could beat their parents, and then they would leave home to find some one more expert to try conclusions with. Then there was but a step further to gambling. A small sum of money is put up, "just to make it interesting," and in short order the young men become CONFIRMED GAMBLERS.

Mr. Crossley said he knew a number of cases where young men, taught to play at home, went out into the world and became professional gamblers. The late Henry Ward Beecher's own son was one of these. Talmage he quoted as saying that he would as lief go to a graveyard and play a game of skulls as to sit down to cards. It just came to this, if there was no evil in the game it would not ruin so many persons. Fifth, it destroyed one's influence for good and increased the influence for evil. A Christian who played cards could have no influence for good, for no one would have confidence in his Christianity. Sixth, it was a thing that could not be prayed about very well. Was there anyone who would ask God's blessing, as they did before meals, to make the game a delight socially and spiritually? If anyone was so blinded by sin as to do so, there would be one to found to say amen or to pray afterwards. Seventh, the love of Christ expels if not the desire at least the thirst for card playing. This was seen in all the churches, where the most consecrated men and women were those who never played cards. An eighth reason, the most important of all, upon which Mr. Crossley said he would stake his reputation as a man of logical mind, was that cards could not be played without gambling. What was gambling? It was simply a desire to win without earning—whether it be for money or only the game. Checkers or chess were games which had to be won on their merits, while in a game of cards the player depended almost ENTIRELY ON LUCK.

A game of cards was never earned, therefore per se card playing is wrong. It was as much gambling to play cards to win the game as to win money. Gamblers play with cards because the transition from card playing as an amusement to card playing for money is natural and legitimate. There is just the least step between them. Ninth, it was a wrong practice because it led so many to bookbinding, whereas none of the other games mentioned were responsible for one bookbinder. Tenth, card playing kept many away from Christ, and therefore anything that interfered between Jesus and man was wrong. So many say "I will be a Christian, but I don't see anything wrong in cards." Why then, if they see no wrong in cards, don't they become Christians? Because they know in their hearts that it is wrong, argue as they may. And so the game stood between them and Jesus, or if it is not cards it is some other little thing of questionable character that keeps them from Salvation. They say, we have given up this and that—but they must do more and give up themselves to Christ before they can be saved. Some of his hearers, Mr. Crossley said, might be very near the kingdom, and he urged them to grasp the life-lines flung out to them by Jesus and be drawn from the breakers of sin on to the shore of Salvation.

NOTES.

On the platform last night were Messrs. R. J. and F. Winch, and Rev. Messrs. Burns, of Millbrook, and Hough, of Smith.

This (Tuesday) and Thursday afternoons the meetings will be held in the Baptist Church. This afternoon the questions discussed were: Is it proper for women to speak and pray in public; that is, in the church and at meetings? and "fasting," as spoken of in the Bible.

The regular song-sermon will be given to-night.

The average collection at the evangelistic meetings is about $30. The smallest one yet has been $17.

The other night four boys settled themselves down to a game of cards behind the partition at the head of the gallery stairs in the George Street Church. They were discovered and promptly ejected.

Wednesday night Mr. Crossley will sing for the last time "The Handwriting on the Wall."

An occupant of a back seat last night could not help observing the unrestrained manner in which the audience conducted itself previous to the opening of the services. The men seemed as full and free at a church social, and suppressed laughter could be heard on all sides. One would have thought the occasion was a holiday gathering rather than an evangelistic meeting. Of course it is tiresome waiting, and young people are not to be blamed too severely for trying to "fill in time," but the extent to which the chattering and laughter are carried on, particularly at the back of the church, certainly does seem rather indecorous for a place of worship.

Rev. Mr. Hunter returned from Woodstock at noon to-day.

The evangelists go to Port Hope to-morrow to hold a meeting in one of the churches beginning at one o'clock in the afternoon.

Mr. Aldridge Appointed Assessor.

Mr. G. McGrath, His Associate, Owing to Illness, Resigns—His Resignation Accepted—Mr. Aldridge Appointed Sole Assessor.

A special meeting of the council was held on Monday evening. There were present: Mayor Stevenson, in the chair, and Messrs. Cahill, Davidson, Winch, Kelly, Hall, E. H. D., Hall, A., Dawson, Baptie, Langford, Kendry and Hartley.

The Mayor said he had called the meeting in reference to the assessorship. Owing to the illness of Mr. McGrath, his son had taken up his work having been advised that, that course would be proper. But the Town Solicitor had advised that a new assessor be appointed.

Mr. McGrath's resignation suggesting that his son Mr. T. B. McGrath be appointed in his stead was read. On motion of Mr. Cahill seconded by Mr. Winch the resignation was accepted.

A motion for the first reading of the by-law to appoint a new assessor, was made.

Mr. E. D. H. Hall said the simplest way was to appoint Mr. Aldridge to complete the assessment, Mr. McGrath to be paid pro rata for his past services, and he accordingly moved in amendment, seconded by Mr. Hartley,—That Mr. Aldridge be empowered and authorized to complete the assessment roll for 1889 as sole assessor this year.

Several members thought that one man, no matter how upright, should not be intrusted with so important a matter, and they took exception to the wisdom of Mr. Hall's motion; others approved of the proposition. After considerable informal discussion the motion was carried.

The matter of Mrs. Cox's taxes was referred to the Court of Revision.

A resolution by Mr. Dawson, seconded by Mr. Hartley,—That Mr. English be authorized to ring the town bell at 5 o'clock for the benefit of those workmen working under the nine-hour system, was referred to the Fire, Water and Light Committee.

A Clergyman's Disgrace.

Rev. Mr. Dean Sentenced to Three Months in Gaol.

Lindsay, April 9.—Rev. J. G. Dean, lay reader and curate at Fenelon Falls, was brought before County Judge Dean Monday afternoon on a charge technically called "indecent assault." County Attorney Devlin prosecuted. In four of the cases the boys, who were all little fellows, hardly in their teens, admitted they were consenting parties, and of course the charge had to be abandoned. In the fifth case the boy was not a consenting party and the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months' imprisonment. The evidence in court revealed a sad state of demoralization. There are, it is stated, several other cases also. A good deal of the evidence is totally unfit for publication. Dean is a man of thirty or thirty-five, and a preacher of fair ability. He was married about two years ago.

A Dog Case.

A very little thing can sometimes create a lot of trouble. A case was adjourned at the police court this afternoon till to-morrow, in which a small black-and tan dog was the cause of the trouble. Mr. Enos Dunsford said the pup to a woman, to whom Mrs. Dunsford had previously refused it, for $5. Mrs. Dunsford claimed that the dog was hers, and swore out a search warrant. Chief Reesel executed it this forenoon and found the pup at the C. P. R. hotel, where the woman was stopping. He took it with him and locked it up in a cell. The dispute is over the question of ownership. The woman who bought the dog will be subpoenaed.

HOME RULE FOR SCOTLAND

THE LORD ADVOCATE'S LOCAL GOVERNMENT BILL.

The London Times Gold to be Returned—Stanley's Letter to the Geographical Society—General Cable News.

London, April 9.—In the House of Commons to-night the Lord Advocate introduced a bill providing for local government in Scotland. The bill creates county councils, the members of which are to be elected by the householders. Boroughs with populations less than 7000 will be merged into counties. The others will be self-governed. The powers of the councils extend to private bill legislation. The right of legislating on private bills has hitherto been vested in Parliament. The measure is therefore a step in the direction of Home Rule. The functions of the councils are otherwise similar to those of the English councils.

The Thunderer's Peril.

New York, April 8.—The Post's London special says there is some question whether The Times will be able to survive the consequences of the Parnell case. Not one of The Times' counsel has yet received a penny in fees; only the expenses of witnesses have been paid. The explanation is that The Times entered upon the commission business confident of an ultimate grant from the Government, but the collapse of the letters alters the circumstances, and a grave is one of the question. The Times therefore has to face an unexpected expenditure of £50,000 of law expenses, plus another £50,000 for libels, Mr. Walter is a very rich man, and he may come to the rescue of his fellow proprietors, but the position of The Times is threatened.

Another Letter from Stanley.

London, April 8.—Henry M. Stanley's letter to the Royal Geographical Society was read at the meeting of that body this evening. The letter consists mainly of a repetition of what has already been published. He describes at length the various devices by which the natives endeavored to prevent the advance of the expedition. One of these was to dig shallow pits across the path of the column and fill them with showers, which were deftly covered with leaves. The showers pierced the feet of Stanley's men, inflicting wounds that in many cases developed into gangrenous sores. The men who were lamed in this manner were seldom of further service.

Mr Stanley calls the natives "cunning rogues" and says that for the purpose of extortion they always pretended that the country was suffering from a famine. The 'friendlies', he says, withheld information, but the natives who were captured by the expedition imparted all they knew. Mr. Stanley believes that the lake he discovered in 1876 belongs to the Congo.

Paris, April 8.—Boulanger has telegraphed from Brussels that the report that the Belgian authorities requested him to leave Belgium is untrue.

St. Petersburg, April 8.—The Ameer of Bokhara is about to send his son to Russia to be educated. The State Bank of Russia will open a branch in Bokhara.

King Alexander of Servia will visit the Czar in August at Charkoff.

The Luxemburg Regency.

Luxemburg, April 8.—The message of the Duke of Nassau accepting the regency of the Duchy of Luxemburg was read in the Chamber of Deputies to-day. The Chamber unanimously resolved to assent to the regency.

Milan Touring in Palestine.

Constantinople, April 8.—Ex-King Milan of Servia has started on a six weeks' tour in Palestine.

Complained of Their Quarters.

London, April 8.—The emigrants on the Red Star line steamer Noordland, which collided off Beachy Head yesterday with the schooner Carrie Dingle, and which put into Southampton for repairs, were forbidden to land. Sixteen Englishmen, however, fought their way to the shore and complained of the bad quarters provided for the passengers on the steamer.

Mr. Chas. Legros now has a telephone in his tonsorial parlors for the convenience of ladies who require hairdressing done at their homes. His George street parlors are the handsomest and tastiest in town, and are fitted with hot and cold water baths. His stock of cigars, pipes and tobacco comprise the best and biggest variety. Smoke Gladstone, 5 for 25c. at Legros'. Cheap smokers should use Legros' Best, 2 for 5c.; very fine imported cigars, 3 and 4 for 25c. He is selling all best Havana cigarettes that cost 15c. per packet, at 10c. El Padre, 4 for 25c.; Creme de la Creme, 4 and 5 for 25c.

The Lungs, Liver, Kidneys, Bowels, &c., act as so many waste gates for the escape of effete matter and gases from the body. The use of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery helps them to discharge their duty. Mr. W. H. Lester, H. M. Customs, Toronto, writes: "I have personally tested the health-giving properties of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, and can testify as to its great value."

"As Others See Us."

"Oh that some power the gift would gie us,
To see ourselves as others see us."
Thus sighed old Scotia's Bard in vain,
For what he could not then attain.
But had he lived in this fair town
He had no cause to sigh or frown,
For if he walked on Hunter street,
An enemy there he'd surely meet,
With faces bright as summer light,
All coming from one-fifty-eight.
Where photos always are in view,
Which are to life so very true,
That each one who has seen them there,
Does to his comrades all declare,
"SPROULE is the very man can give us,
The power to see as others see us."

THE POSTAL CHANGES.

THE HOUSE IN COMMITTEE ADOPTS THE RESOLUTIONS.

A Number of Measures Advanced a Stage—No More Unless This Session for Private Members.

OTTAWA, April 9.—The House sat late to-night and in the two sittings managed to get through a good deal of business. The proceedings, however, were mainly of a routine nature, and aside from the passage of Mr. Haggart's postal resolution possessed little of general public interest.

The bill from the Senate respecting the collection of certain tolls and dues was read a third time and passed.

The bill amending the Fisheries Act so as to prohibit the catching of salmon by seining in certain streams up which the fish pass to spawn was read a third time and passed on motion of Hon. C. H. Tupper. A six months' hoist moved by Mr. Ellis was negatived on a division, 73 to 100.

The Senate amendments to the bills to amend the Winding-up Act, the Civil Service Act and the Supreme and Exchequer Court Act were concurred in.

The House then went into committee on the Franchise bill.

After recess the House resumed in committee consideration of the Franchise Act Bill, which was as hereto reported. The bill will be reprinted as amended in committee before coming up for third reading.

The Senate bill respecting interest on judgment debts and fixing it at 5 per cent was read a second time.

Hon. John Haggart's resolution respecting the rates of postage on letters was considered in committee of the whole. The changes contemplated have already been explained. Respecting the increase in the rate on drop letters to 2 cents per ounce in all cities and towns where there is a delivery system, the Postmaster-General explained that the law was three cents, similar to that of Great Britain and the United States. The proposition to remove from the free list newspapers published at intervals of more than a week has been abandoned, and all published at intervals of not more than a month will be allowed to go free as in the past. Printers' manuscripts and proofs, lithographs and many of that class will be charged for in the future 1 cent for two ounces in place of four ounces as at present.

The proposition to raise the rate on drop letters from 1 to 2 cents was vigorously opposed by many members. Mr. McKay of Hamilton strongly protested that it would not only be unpopular with the public but would decrease the revenue, as the merchants would have the bulk of their circulars, etc., delivered by messengers in place of paying the 2-cent postage. He read a resolution passed by the Hamilton Board of Trade condemning the proposed change. The resolution was at length adopted in committee and a bill founded upon it introduced.

The House then went again into committee on the bill amending the Customs Act. The bill having been adopted by the committee the House adjourned at 1.05 o'clock.

CAPITAL NOTES.

An Association Formed at Ottawa to Promote Dairying in Canada.

OTTAWA, April 9.—The Frauds on Farmers Committee had their final meeting to-day and adopted the report to be submitted to the House. After the committee had thus closed its labors and before adjourning Col. Aemyot moved, seconded by Mr. Monerieff, that the thanks of the members of this committee be tendered to their chairman, Mr. Adam Brown, for his courteous conduct throughout the whole of the committee's investigations and that they particularly desire to record their appreciation of the services Mr. Brown had rendered to the farming community of this country by his untiring efforts to bring to light all the different classes of imposition and fraud practised by cunning agents and salesmen throughout this country.

As an outcome of an agitation which has been in progress for a long time, a deputation of members from the district served by the Rideau Canal waited upon the Government to-day to ask the deepening of the canal to seven feet throughout, and that a survey with this end in view be immediately commenced. Sir John Macdonald promised to refer this matter to the superintendent for a preliminary report.

Sir John Macdonald has given notice of a motion that Government measures shall have precedence on every Monday during the remainder of the session after questions put by members. This will leave no day at all for the private members.

Mr. Vanasse had a question on the paper as to whether the Government is aware that several officers and men of the 9th Battalion are at the present moment in the woods round Lake Megantic with their arms and other stores belonging to the battalion and whether they have received permission from the military authorities to proceed on this expedition.

Mr. Vanasse inquires also whether the Government are aware that certain cheese dealers in the United States are in the habit of marking on cheese exported by them to England via Montreal, "Canadian Product," etc., to the detriment of the real Canadian article in the English market and do the Government propose to adopt means to put an end to this fraud?

Acting in the capacity of Ottawa district representatives, Messrs. Alonzo Wright, W. G. Perley and W. E. Edwards this evening entertained at dinner in the Commons restaurant the members of the Press Gallery and those members of Parliament who are or have been connected with the newspaper business. About sixty persons enjoyed the hospitality of the King of the Gatineau and the two lumber kings associated with him.

Hon. Peter Mitchell has added one to the list of nominees for the vacant cabinet portfolio. He says the rumor has reached him in the corridors frequently in the past few days that the coming man is Alonzo Wright of the Gatineau, and Mr. Mitchell says there is apt to be a good deal of truth in the rumor. The King has never been looked upon as an aspirant for office, his inclinations being pastoral. Like Mr. Pope, he is an English-speaking representative of a Quebec constituency.

DAIRYMEN IN COUNCIL.

An Association Formed at Ottawa to Promote Dairying in Canada.

OTTAWA, April 9.—About fifty dairymen from all parts of the Dominion and many members of Parliament met in one of the Commons' committee rooms this morning for the purpose of forming a dairymen's association. Mr. W. S. Foster of Knowlton was voted to the chair, and after some discussion it was resolved that an association be formed to promote the general interests of dairying in Canada.

Wyoming's Governor Inaugurated.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., April 9.—Francis E. Warren was inaugurated Governor of Wyoming to-day with military and civic honors. The Governor's address took strong grounds for early admission of Wyoming into the Union. His speech was enthusiastically received.

Wiseman's Failure Predicted.

MUNICH, April 9.—Gerhard Rohlfs, the African traveler, in a published letter expresses doubt as to whether Captain Wiseman with his present forces will succeed in his African mission and appeals to anti-slavery associations to subscribe to a fund for the enrollment of 5000 volunteers for service in Africa.

An Editor Banqueted.

COLBORNE, April 9.—Mr. T. J. Jewell, editor of the Northumberland Enterprise, who is about leaving for the editorial chair of The Stayner Sun, was entertained last evening to a supper at the Brunswick House. A large number of the leading men of the town and surrounding country were present. Reeve W. D. Payne was chairman and there were also present Dr. Willoughby, M.L.A., Dr. Mallory, ex-M.L.A., Rev. Mr. Dowling, Dr. H. H. Hawley, F. M. Field, M. H. Peterson, G. A. Fowler and D. L. Simmons. Speeches were made by the chairman, Dr. Willoughby, Dr. Mallory, Rev. Mr. Dowling and others. Mr. Jewell gracefully thanked them for the honor done him and the gathering broke up with God Save the Queen.

... IN TORONTO BAY.

ARTICLE FOUND THROWN ON A MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE.

Seymour Porter Drowned but Whether by Accident or Design is not Known—Other Toronto Topics.

TORONTO, April 10.—Toronto Bay gave up another of its victims yesterday in the body of Seymour Porter who disappeared last New Year's night, but how he met his death is a mystery and will probably remain one. Deceased was head bookkeeper for the hardware firm of Rice Lewis & Son with whom he had been connected for 23 years, was widely known in business and financial circles. He was a prominent Mason, about 45 years of age and very popular among his acquaintances. The body was discovered at 6.30 yesterday morning by George Sexsmith, who was going to work on the new steam yacht being built for Mr. George Gooderham at the mouth of the Don. It was brought ashore by means of a pole and tied to the wharf until the police had been notified and came with a patrol wagon in which the corpse was removed to the Morgue. By papers found on the body it was identified as that of Mr. Porter; there were also found $1.25 in silver, an open-faced ladies' gold watch, stopped at 6.05, a bunch of keys and a knife. An inquest was held yesterday afternoon. There was no evidence of foul play and the jury returned a verdict of found drowned. The funeral takes place this afternoon with full Masonic honors. Deceased had about $6000 insurance on his life.

At least a thousand ladies belonging to all parts of the Dominion assembled in the St. James' Square Presbyterian Church yesterday morning to take part in the thirteenth annual meeting of the Presbyterian Woman's Foreign Missionary Society. After devotional services, Mrs. Kellogg gave an address of welcome to the delegates, which was suitably replied to by Mrs. Rodgers, of Deseronto. The morning was taken up with reading the reports of the various committees. The Treasurer's statement was a most satisfactory one, showing that in all about $29,000 has been collected this year. The numerical strength of the society is 14,355.

There are 200 writing in the primary and 100 in the final medical examinations here and 50 and 40 respectively at Kingston. Here there are 5 ladies writing their primary and 3 their final and the same number at Kingston. The results will be announced May 24.

The $877,567 waterworks bylaw was voted upon in the city yesterday and was carried by 527 majority. The new ward of St. Alban's was the only division that gave a majority against the bylaw, that majority being but 2. Like all other money bylaws that are presented in Toronto little interest was taken in it, only 1259 votes being cast.

W. H. Pearson, jr., superintendent of the Consumers' Gas Company, was united in marriage at St. Philip's Church last night with Annie, the eldest daughter of Mr. James Smith of Chestnut Lodge. Rev. Dr. J. F. Sweeney officiated.

Joseph Wright, an English workman 57 years old, living at 36 Robillard-street, was going home alongside the Canadian Pacific track and crossed the metals just as a train came along and was felled by the engine. The train was stopped and medical aid got without delay, when it was found that the unfortunate man's right leg had been severed from the body and his lower jaw broken. The doctors report him sinking gradually this afternoon.

Found Dead.

WINDSOR, April 10.—P. Johnson, a colored man about 60 years old whose family reside in Windsor, was found dead in a shanty in Sandwich East, about six miles back of Windsor. The decomposed state of the remains showed death had taken place several days ago. The body was brought to Windsor and an inquest will be held.

All the gang have been arrested.

The Situation in Panama.

WASHINGTON, April 9.—Mr. Adamson, United States Consul-General at Panama, reports that the troubles feared on account of stoppage of work on the canal have not occurred. He states that great railroads are to be built in Chili and that American capitalists are projecting extensive railroad enterprises in Jamaica. He says the Panama Canal Company are ordering work to be done at several points, probably for the purpose of preventing questions arising from total abandonment of the project.

WHO WILL SUCCEED HIM.

MR. W. H. SMITH TO BE ELEVATED TO THE PEERAGE.

The Scottish Home Rule Resolution Defeated—Sixteen Seconds in the French Chamber of Deputies.

LONDON, April 9.—The St. James Gazette announces that William Henry Smith, First Lord of the Treasury, is about to be raised to the peerage and that he will accordingly resign the Government leadership in the House of Commons and take his seat in the House of Lords. The Gazette instances that of the possible candidates for the leadership in succession to Mr. Smith, namely, Lord Randolph Churchill, Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, Mr. Goschen and Mr. Balfour, the last named is the best choice, and it declares that the Conservatives will not tolerate any leader other than Mr. Balfour.

Dion Must Pay the Alimony.

LONDON, April 9.—Agnes Bouscinault, divorced wife of Dion Bouscinault, applied to the Divorce Court to-day for an order to enforce payment of the alimony of £400 a year awarded her in 1868. She asked that payment be made from the proceeds of her former husband's British copyrights.

Mr. Bouscinault, in answer, averred that all proceeds from these copyrights were assigned in 1886 to a Mr. Cadoran of New York for the benefit of Bouscinault's present wife. The presiding judge expressed doubt as to Cadoran's existence, and said that in any case the assignment was fraudulent and void. He ordered that all such copyright moneys in possession of the court be paid to the plaintiff.

Disorderly Scenes in the French Chamber.

PARIS, April 9.—The Chamber of Deputies to-day discussed the bill prescribing the mode of procedure to be followed by the Senate when sitting as a court for the trial of Boulanger. De la Fosse denounced the measure as a mockery of justice and an insult to the public conscience. He declared that the Senate being a political body could not act impartially. This caused a great uproar, members exchanged abusive epithets and the scene was one of wild disorder. De la Fosse continuing said that law and decency required that Boulanger be tried at the seniate. These remarks caused a renewal of the uproar. The members of the Left did not reply but moved to apply closure. The motion was carried, 293 to 243. A motion to begin discussion of the bill by clauses was carried, 321 to 222.

The Chamber rejected all amendments suggested by members of the Right. A proposal by M. Ribote, that a majority of seven-twelfths of the Senate be necessary to make valid any sentence pronounced upon Boulanger, was also rejected. The bill was adopted by a vote of 315 to 208.

The General Must Not Agitate.

THE EVANGELISTS AND THEIR WORK.

To-morrow evening Rev. Messrs. Crossley and Hunter will have completed their sixth week of evangelical endeavor in Peterborough, and a brief reference to the results that have followed their labours may not be out of place. A secular paper is not generally conceded the province of dealing with religious matters, but when a religious movement creates a moral upheaval, which affects the entire community, it certainly is not out of place for a secular journal to deal with it. Messrs. Crossley and Hunter came to Peterborough with a great record and their labours in town for the past three fortnights has not, by any means, weakened their claims to the title of successful evangelists. While there is room for wide differences of opinion upon the subject of religious methods after all results are the best tests of effective work. Whatever criticisms may have been or may be directed against the methods of the evangelists, sensationalism, in its generally accepted sense, is not a prominent factor in them. The means employed to bring their audiences to a realization of their sinfulness, and to impress upon them the necessity of a Saviour and of a better mode of life, are reasoning as with rational beings, plain, pointed direct and fearless presentation of the truth aided by argumentative appeal, fervent exhortation and inspiring music. The effect of this combination of influences, aided by the awful cooperation of the divine element, is remarkable. From the very beginning of the meetings sinners began to turn from the error of their ways, and the process has been repeated in steadily progressive numerical proportions during the entire currency of the services. A record has been kept of the number of persons who have declared a determination to lead a new life, and that record shows a grand total of 900. These represent all ages and all classes of individuals, a very fair proportion being heads of families. Among those who give evidence of a change of heart are some, whose lives of marked avoidance of Christian practice, makes their new departure of more than passing interest. The number above mentioned doubtless includes many whose course in the Christian race will be short. Indeed, little else could be expected. It has been thus from the days of the great Preacher, Himself. The seed of life will at times fall on stony soil or amongst thorns, and, though at first showing great promise, it soon shows the lack of depth of soil. But there are scores and scores, whose lives are changed by a great and radical transformation, who will be abiding examples of righteous living. And not only have sinners been reclaimed, but believers, belonging to all the churches which co-operated with the evangelists, have been quickened—have had their hearts warmed, their faith strengthened. Only the great day of account will disclose the greatness of the work accomplished through the instrumentality of Messrs. Crossley and Hunter during their six weeks visit to the town. The seals to their ministry, which gladden their and all Christian hearts, attest the fact that a more than human influence, co-operates with spirit of devotion, their services arouse. All agree that they have done, with the divine blessing, a great work in Peterborough, and we may expect their works to follow them in the next sphere of action they enter, which is Woodstock. Their visit to Peterborough is a memorable one and, from hundreds of consecrated and newly-regenerate hearts here, fervent prayers, for God's blessings on their future labours, will strengthen their hands, as a knowledge of these prayers will cheer their hearts.

WHERE HAS THE SURPLUS GONE?

The Montreal Herald thus introduces the above query:—

"In his budget speech delivered just one month ago, Finance Minister Foster estimated the expenditure for the current year at $36,870,391. In the estimates laid before the House at that time he asked for a vote of $35,421,440, exclusive of amount to be voted from capital, but intimated that there would probably be some supplementary estimates. But allowing for this contingency he confidently expected to have surplus at the end of the year of $1,900,000. Friday the supplementary estimates were brought down, amounting to $2,097,167—of which $1,678,127 were chargeable to income. This latter sum added to the original estimate foots up as follows:—

Original Estimate	$35,421,440
	$37,099,567

That is, Minister Foster, in his Budget Speech, estimated an expenditure for the current year of $36,870,391, and he has asked Parliament to vote money to cover an expenditure of $37,099,567, or $729,167 in excess of his estimate. To all intents and purposes the Finance Minister has wiped out his estimated surplus of $1,900,000, and it is barely possible additional supplementary estimates may yet be brought down. Mr. Foster must not be surprised if people want to know where he is going to find that surplus. The estimates of Tory Finance Ministers have invariably proved unreliable and wide of the mark—they are merely approximate, only "out" a million or so. It might very much as if the present Finance Minister's estimates would have to be classed in the same category."

A Story of Absorbing Interest.

A great deal of merriment and a few tears in the new novel, "A Regal Wreck," by William Gillette author of the plays "Held by the Enemy," The Private Secretary." A story of absorbing interest told with a simple directness and sincerity that touches the heart, and a humor that overtakes every tear with a smile. The characters are admirably drawn strikingly real. Indescribly entertaining. Price 50 cents at the Peterborough Bookstore J. R. STRATTON.

FIRES OF A DAY.

Two Houses at Brantford, One Supposed to be Incendiary.

BRANTFORD, April 9.—At 4 o'clock this afternoon a fire broke out in a stable in Darling street owned by Mrs. Orr and rented by A. G. Malcolm. The stable was close to other buildings, but firemen prevented the fire from spreading. There were two cows burnt. The fire is supposed to have originated from a spark from a blacksmith shop which was close adjoining.

At 9.15 p.m. an unoccupied house in Chatham-street, owned by Mr. Hunt, was destroyed by fire. The fire is said to be incendiary.

A Farmer's Loss.

RIPLEY, April 9.—John Jones, lot 8, concession 16, Huron, had his two barns burned last night, together with a quantity of hay, three head of cattle, five pigs and a lot of farm machinery, &c. Total loss $2500, insured in the London Mutual and Western Insurance Companies for $900 on building and $1100 on contents. The fire originated through the handle of a lantern becoming detached, allowing the lantern to drop, after which it exploded.

Incendiary Fire at Collingwood.

COLLINGWOOD, April 9.—The old Catholic church situated at the west end of the town was totally destroyed by fire at 5 o'clock this afternoon. The building had not been occupied for some months, and the fact that the fire started in the roof is taken as proof of incendiarism. Fully insured.

Fire-bugs at Woodstock.

WOODSTOCK, April 9.—The other evening an audacious attempt was made to fire the Elgin House. Some inflammable material saturated with coal oil was placed in the sitting-room and fired. It was discovered before any harm was done. This is the third attempt to fire the Elgin House in the past two months.

A $600,000 Fire at Boston.

BOSTON, April 9.—The freight houses of the Boston and Lowell division of the Boston and Maine Railroad were burned this evening together with a quantity of merchandise, freight cars, grain and flour. Loss $500,000.

Savannah Again Visited by Flames.

SAVANNAH, Ga., April 9.—The Savannah cotton mill was burned this afternoon. The total loss is $100,000, insurance $40,000. A row of tenement houses on the opposite side of the street caught fire and eight houses were burned. The loss on the tenements and to the occupants will approximate $3000.

A $90,000 Blaze in Louisville.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 9.—The Louisville Bridge and Iron Company's machine shops were burned at midnight. Loss $90,000.

Synod of Hamilton and London.

BRANTFORD, April 10.—At yesterday morning's sederunt of the synod of Hamilton and London leave was granted to the Presbyteries of Hamilton, Paris and Bruce respectively to take certain students on trial for license. A committee was appointed to bring in at an early sederunt a report on the Jesuits' Estates Act. A communication was read from the principal of the Ontario Institute for the Blind extending a hearty invitation to the Synod to visit the Institute.

The remainder of the time was taken with a discussion of the difficulties anent the retiring allowance to Rev. Thos. McPherson from Knox Church, Stratford. Yesterday afternoon the reports on temperance and separate schools were presented and considered. A deputation of ministers from the Methodist Church were also received.

The Trains Met on a Curve.

LOS ANGELES, April 10.—The west bound overland passenger train on the Atlantic and Pacific Railroad collided Sunday with the east bound train near Peach Springs, Arizona. The trains met on a sharp curve on a high embankment. The engines were demolished and thrown down a bank into a stream with three or four cars. One engineer jumped on the wrong side and fell down a rocky steep 80 feet. He was fearfully injured. The rest of the train men and the passengers were badly shaken up. A laborer stealing a ride was crushed to death.

The Cause of the Scott Act Defeat.

There are various opinions as to the defeat of the Scott Act, some giving this reason, others that; but one of the principal points is this. There has been such a sensation caused, in fact over the whole county that all plans have been frustrated, instead of voters going to the polls to record their votes they rushed headlong to secure the tremendous bargains w. j. morrow has been offering in groceries, knowing well that they can buy goods cheaper from him than from any other house in the line.

The Talk of the Town.

The people are wondering why Elliott & Tierney are giving 18 lbs. bright sugar for $1, and selling teas and other goods so much cheaper than any house in Peterborough. Call at the Palace Grocery and examine the goods, which will convince you. The "Palace" is the place to get best values. Great stock-taking sale now going on.

Pruritis 5 years—Head, crumpled breast a solid scab—Back covered with sores Best doctors and medicines fail—Cured by Cuticura Remedies at a cost of $3.75

I have used the Cuticura Remedies with best results. I used 3 bottles of the CUTICURA RESOLVENT, three boxes of CUTICURA, and one cake of CUTICURA SOAP, and am cured of a terrible skin and scalp disease known as pruritis. I had it for 5 years. It would be better and worse at times. Sometimes my head would be a solid scab and was at the time I began the use of the CUTICURA REMEDIES. My arms were covered with scabs from my elbows to shoulders, my breast was almost one solid scab and my back covered with sore a varying in size from a penny to a dollar. I had doctored with all the best doctors with no relief, and used many different medicines without effect. My case was hereditary, and I began to think incurable, but it began to heal from the first application of CUTICURA. ARCHER RUSSELL, Dunbar, Ohio

Skin Disease 6 Years Cured.

I am thankful to say that I have used the CUTICURA REMEDIES for about eight months with great success and consider myself entirely cured of salt rheum, from which I have suffered for six years. Montreal's Council Decide to Let the Police Continue the Search.

GOULD, via Scottstown, Que., April 8.—Twenty-four policemen from Quebec arrived yesterday in Gould provided with Martini-Henry and Snider rifles. On Friday last a friend of Morrison agreed to find him and make an appeal to him to give up. The friend was provided with letters from all the leading men and magistrates in the country. Magistrate Dugas suspended operations until he had heard the result. Should he fail to give himself up twenty-four warrants are lying ready and twenty-four of his friends will be in Sherbrooke jail. His friends will be arrested wholesale and the police will be scattered in every direction until they find and take the fugitive.

The Montreal Policemen.

MONTREAL, April 8.—Three telegrams which Mayor Cuvelier received from Attorney-General Taschereau were laid before the City Council to-day:

"I am anxious to know if you will leave your policemen a few days more at Magantic. It is very important. Please answer and oblige."

"The Government of the Province of Quebec have information from Judge Dugas to the effect that the Montreal city police now in the County of Compton are absolutely required to effect the arrest of Morrison, which we expect will be soon accomplished, and I trust that your council will not recall those men but will allow them to complete the public duty to the assistance of which they have so far very effectively contributed."

The council decided to let the police stop over for another fortnight.

THE ELECTION WAS ILLEGAL.

A Surprise for Chicago Politicians—The Republicans May Hold Over.

CHICAGO, April 8.—The politicians of this city were astonished to-day by the announcement of a discovery that the recent election in this city was illegal. This state of affairs grew out of a decision rendered by the Supreme Court of the state. This decision was that the town of Brinton Park and other portions of the township of Cicero had been by a vote of the people on Nov. 17, 1887, legally annexed to the Townships of South and West Chicago. Previous to the annexation South and West Chicago were entirely included within the limits of the City of Chicago. While the decision of the court annexed the new territory to the townships it did not operate to make it a part of the city, the power of extending limits of which rests with the City Council. The general law of the state provides that whenever all or a township lies within the limits of a city the city election shall be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in April, and that wherever the township is not all within the city limits the election shall be held on the third Tuesday in April. Under the Supreme Court's decision the City of Chicago does not entirely cover the townships of South and West Chicago and therefore the election instead of being held on the first Tuesday in April, as it was, should have been held on the third Tuesday.

The matter of law requires that 20 days' notice of an election shall be given, and as the time is too short between this date and the third Tuesday in April for legal notice, it seems questionable whether the mistake can be rectified by a new election on that day.

It is claimed that if the present Republican administration is willing to invoke the law it can hold over and prevent the newly elected Democrats from taking their seats. It is said that Mayor Roche has consulted the corporation counsel regarding the matter, but it cannot be learned that any decision has been reached.

RALEIGH, N.C., April 6.—Almost the entire town of Smithfield was burned yesterday. Loss is estimated at over $100,000. Much of the property was insured.

Vacant Houses.

The types made the EXAMINER state on Monday that there are three hundred vacant houses in town. This count included a vast number of new houses erected last fall, only partially finished, and, of course, not occupied, and, therefore, technically vacant houses, but not such in the sense of being at present habitable. Many of those that are vacant are such as are not suitable for occupation and have been vacated by parties who occupy better residences. Several contractors state that they have more contracts on hand for new dwellings than at any other previous season.

Annual Masonic Excursion.

At the last meeting of Peterborough Lodge No. 155, A.F. & A.M., preparations were commenced for the annual Masonic excursion to Toronto. The committee, which were appointed on behalf of this Lodge, will act in conjunction with other Masonic bodies in town and throughout the Ontario district, with the view of, as usual, making the excursion enlist the united action of the whole of the fraternity along the route. No date has yet been fixed, but it will be early in June, and as soon as the committees come together, which will be in a day or two, the public will be kept informed of the full particulars. This annual Masonic excursion, which has become noteworthy for its uninterrupted success every year and for the pleasant and respectable character of its patrons, will, without doubt, be watched for by the public with eagerness, being, as it always does to be, the first cheap excursion to Toronto every summer.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

FROM GUILT TO GLORY!

The Christian's Privileges on the Way to Glory.

Rev. Mr. Hunter Rests Again at His Post—He Speaks of the Flame's Excesses—Mr. Crossley Points Out Sweet Comfort for the Christian.

Only two nights more! Mr. Hunter told the congregation last night that they were to have just three days' grace, for he and Mr. Crossley were going to leave on Friday, and he exhorted all the unsaved to make up their minds to seek the Lord before these meetings closed. He read, as a lesson, part of the 14th chapter of Luke, containing the parable of the wedding feast. Mr. Hunter enlarged upon the passage, inviting guests to the feast. He liked the word "come." It was like an old friend running all through the Bible, a word of magic power, urging all sinners to come to Jesus. "But they all with one accord began to make excuses." So people to-day offer all sorts of excuses for not accepting God's invitation, but they were all worthless, and could be bundled up in one great parcel, labelled "lies," and sent down to hell. The excuses offered by those invited to the wedding feast belied themselves. The idea of a man wanting to go and look up the title deeds of a piece of land after he has bought it; or to prove a yoke of oxen after they were paid for. But the man, who said he had married a wife and could not, therefore, come, was to be pitied. There were too many women to-day who stood in the way of their husbands, Mr. Hunter said, and he took occasion to rebuke those women who run around for style—"high fliers," he called them—instead of helping their husbands as they should. Some wives even accept their husbands with cards and wine; their's would be a terrible reckoning on the judgment day. "And yet there was room" at the marriage feast. Yes, Mr. Hunter said, there was room in the church, room in God's love and room in heaven. If you ever get into heaven, there will be an unoccupied room there for you.

One excuse offered by infidels is that they don't believe the Bible—it is all a pack of riddles to them. They should take the Bible as they would eat fish—leave out the bones or hard things they could not understand, for they would not perhaps be very interesting after all. There was sufficient in the Bible that they could understand for their salvation. These infidels talk about the Bible as if they understood it; but if they were asked to point out the simplest passage they could not do so. Mr. Hunter offered to give $5 or $10 to an unconverted man if he was not converted after honestly reading every morning for a month one chapter of the gospel of John, and on his knees earnestly praying to God to give him light. In conclusion Mr. Hunter urged his unsaved friends not to try to put off the hour of their salvation with excuses, but determine to seek Jesus at once.

FROM GUILT TO GLORY.

Mr. Crossley sang "My Ain Countree," before beginning his address on the subject "From Guilt to Glory," the text for which is found in Isaiah xxxv, 10:—

"And the ransomed of the Lord shall return and come to Zion with songs, and everlasting joy upon their heads; they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away."

Outside of Christian influence, Mr. Crossley said, there was no such thing as music, and he hoped everyone in the congregation would adopt the sentiment of the passage and let their songs abound. There were two classes of persons in the world, those who were in guilt and those who were justified of their guilt. Of the latter class some have departed from the Lord but have come back to Him and been justified, while others have never wilfully departed from God but have grown in the fear of the Lord. Then there were those who are still unsaved and in guilt, and how were they to get out of it? A way was found in Isa., xiv, 22:—"Look unto me and be ye saved." Too many of us look at our tears, our prayers, our fears and feelings, at joining the church, at confirmation or baptism, and to different sources where there is no salvation instead of looking to Jesus. What was meant by "looking to me?" It was to simply think of God and all other things would follow; think of His love and what He has done for you, and you will be saved. Mr. Crossley sang "Look and Live."

Those who have obeyed this injunction have gone on the way from guilt to glory, and on this way Christians had the privilege of communion with God. It was one thing to pray but quite another to say prayer. However, saying prayers was but a common courtesy, and if those who were so far gone in sin that they had not spoken to their Heavenly Father for years would only say their prayers on their knees they would soon begin to pray in earnest. Then on the way to glory the Christian had the privilege of working with God—not for Him, for that would appear too servile, but with Him as His child. Some faint-hearted Christians might say in disparagement of themselves, "what can I do?" They should ask rather, "what will God have me do?" Often the weakest vessels were used to accomplish the greatest ends; and the simplest words they may speak may save a soul which will be a bright star in their crown. Mr. Crossley urged Christians to work in their individual "net;" to labor not only for the masses, but the classes, that they might get many of their particular friends to adopt the motto of his next song, "This Year for Jesus."

Then on the way to glory the Christian was privileged to have

A HOPE OF HEAVEN,

Hebrews, vi., 19; "Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and stedfast." Some Christians are afraid they will never reach heaven, while those not Christians say they hope to reach there. What did they found their hopes on? Paul says in Ephesians:—"Ye are without God and without hope in the world." The Christian, on the other hand, had everything to warrant this hope, for they were children of God, and as such where should they go but to heaven, where it is the Father's pleasure they should be. Mr. Crossley sang, "Until I Awake in Thy Likeness," which introduced his next point, the transition from earth to heaven. Christians on the way to glory have a peaceful and triumphant death. (Psa., xxxvii, 37). And Mr. Crossley enlarged upon the beauties of the Christian's death, and the groundless fear which some people entertain of the pains and pangs of death. But all such ideas were unscriptural and heathenish. Death to the Christians was simply falling asleep in Jesus and a triumphant entry into heaven. There was not a dismal representation of death in the whole Bible. Some Christians look for grace to die by instead of for grace to live by. Then on the way to glory the Christian will have a royal welcome into the heavenly kingdom. (Peter, i, 11.) A convoy of angels will carry him through the pearly gates and all his friends and acquaintances who have gone before will be there to greet him. Mr. Crossley quoted a passage, the exegesis of which was that those we befriended on earth would remember it above and be amongst those who welcomed us home. Jesus, the angels, and friends and loved ones would all be there. Mr. Crossley said if it happened that he should go home to Jesus before Mr. Hunter, he wanted to be among the first to welcome Mr. Hunter as he entered the gates; or if Mr. Hunter reached heaven before him, he expected he would be there to greet him on the golden stairs. Mr. Crossley closed with an affecting portrayal of the joyous entry of a Christian into Christ's kingdom, the choir singing, "I have a Father in the Promised Land."

Mr. Hunter brought the meeting to a close by a touching appeal to the unconverted and a pathetic reference to the death of Mr. Webb, of St. Thomas. He also spoke of his drive through the beautiful "city of the dead" in Peterborough, which he considered equal to the Greenwood cemetery in Detroit. Quite a number stood up in all indications this they intended seeking the Lord, amongst them one man who had not been in a church for years till that afternoon in the Baptist church, since which time Mr. Hunter said he had been praying for him.

NOTES.

To-morrow night is the last of the evangelists' meetings. A special thank offering will be taken up for their benefit. They are holding a meeting in Port Hope to-day and probably three meetings will be held here to-morrow. Full announcement of these will be made to-night.

Tall hats and broad hats are as much a nuisance in church as elsewhere and they shut out the view of many a person. The other night one young lady resolved to surmount the difficulty and for that purpose took all the books from the rack and piled them up on the seat for her elevation.

Mr. J. S. Parker presided at the organ last night.

Rev. Prof. Wallace, of Cobourg, attended last night's meeting.

Morally but not Legally Guilty.

A Man Charged with Seducing His Adopted Daughter—The Prisoner Discharged.

In the police court this morning the trial of a seduction case was conducted with closed doors. Chief Rossel charged Geo. Herrington, a watchmaker having a little shop on Hunter street, with the seduction of his adopted daughter Edith. The affair coming to the Chief's ears last night he promptly investigated the matter, with the result that last night about midnight both Herrington and his daughter were arrested and lodged in the police station. It seems that the family was breaking up, Herrington intending to go to Bobcaygeon and take the girl with him, but she did not wish to go, and some friends took up the matter on her behalf. The prisoner elected to be tried summarily by Mr. Dumble. County Crown Attorney Wood prosecuted and Mr. E. H. D. Hall defended the prisoner.

Edith Craig was adopted by Geo. Herrington and his wife two years ago last November, her mother marrying one Alexander Sharp after her first husband's death and now living back at Jack's Lake, where the girl, stayed until brought to town. Edith is a nice-looking little girl, just turned 14 years of age, and told a straightforward story. The Herrington family lived on Stewart street, and last September Mrs. Herrington went to Mrs. Hall's to nurse Mrs. Gilbert. She was thus engaged several weeks. The prisoner during this time slept at the shop, but feeling lonesome, Mrs. Herrington told the girl to go down and keep her "papa" company. She did so, and for several nights stopped with Herrington at the shop. It was there the crimes were committed. The evidence is, of course, not fit to publish.

In charge of this kind a conviction depends upon the previous chaste character of the victim, but in this case the girl confessed to previous misdemeanors which annulled the prosecution and the charge fell through. Mrs. Armstrong and Mrs. Payton were minor witnesses in the case.

In discharging the prisoner, Magistrate Dumble censured him severely for his unnatural conduct towards such a young girl, his adopted daughter at that, and said that, though he was escaping the law, he hoped he would not escape the punishment of his conscience. He said that if the charge had been laid as rape there was sufficient evidence to warrant a conviction.

Before the parties to the case left the court it was arranged that the girl should be kept away from Herrington in future, for some time at least. There was an affecting scene between Mrs. Herrington and her adopted daughter, the former promising to look after her better. Mr. Dumble gave some advice to all the parties concerned, which, it is probable, will have a good effect upon their conduct in future.

The Eminent French Chemist Gone at a Ripe Old Age—Brief Biography.

PARIS, April 9.—Michel Eugene Chevreul, the distinguished chemist, is dead in his 103rd year.

[Michel Eugene Chevreul was born at Angers, Aug. 31, 1786. After completing his studies in the central school of Angers he studied chemistry under Vauquelin in Paris, and subsequently took charge of the latter's laboratory. In 1810 he became preparator of the chemical course in the natural history museum, and in 1813 professor in the Lycee Charlemagne. In 1824 he was appointed director of the dye works and professor of special chemistry at the Gobelins, where he distinguished himself by important researches on colors. In 1826 he received a prize of 12,000 f. for his work Recherches chimiques sur les corps gras d'origine animale, which is yet of high value, having given rise to the manufacture of stearine candles and to the use of oleic acid in the preparation of wool for cloth. Another work of M. Chevreul's introduced the practice of charring the interior of water casks. He published numerous works which have been translated into various European languages. M. Chevreul continued his lectures on chemistry until very recently, and the 100th anniversary of his birth was celebrated three years ago with great enthusiasm, at which time the aged scientist was in full enjoyment of all his faculties.]

A young civil engineer, while engaged in surveying a railway in South Carolina, is surprised by the breaking out of the civil war. Instead of flying to the North, he is held by his attachment to a Southern lady, and undergoes numberless indignities and much cruel treatment. In the end woman's wit prevails, and he escapes. The book is well written and gives an inside view of the Confederacy from a new standpoint.

COLD IN HEAD CATARRH THE 4 STAGES CONSUMPTION DEATH

There is positive danger to health and life in neglecting a case of Cold in the Head or Catarrh, and at this season with its changeable weather, unusual moisture and sudden changes from heat to cold, there is peculiar liability, to cold in the head. A neglected case of Cold in the Head rapidly develops into Catarrh, and neglected Catarrh just as certainly develops into Consumption and leads to premature death. Medical testimony proves conclusively that a large percentage of all the deaths occurring from Consumption had their origin in a neglected cold, which by gradual stages, developed into Catarrh, and then into Consumption, that dread disease with which medical science is as yet unable to cope successfully. If you are suffering from Cold in the Head or any of the numerous symptoms of Catarrh, such as bad breath, dull oppressive headaches, droppings from the head into the throat, hawking and spitting, copious discharges from the nostrils, a losing sense of smell, or taste becoming dull hacking cough, or a general feeling of debility, husky voice, a wheezing or creaking sound in your chest when breathing, a feeling of dizziness particularly when stooping, a feeling of tiredness and indisposition to exertion, a feeling of nausea in the morning when attempting to dislodge accumulations in the throat, Do not neglect them. These are but a few of the many symptoms of Catarrh, and if you experience any, BE WARNED IN TIME. Do not permit them to run under the mistaken impression that the disease will eventually wear away. It will not, but on the contrary will wear you away as it has thousands before. Procure at once a bottle of NASAL BALM, the only certain and speedy cure ever offered the public for Cold in the Head and Catarrh. This is no idle assertion, but an unquestioned fact, which is verified by the thousands of testimonials in our possession telling of marvellous cures. These testimonials we have received from all parts of the Dominion and we append a few, selected at random, as fair samples of the whole:

Mr. Alex. Burns, of Sudbury, Ont., says: Gents I may state that I have been afflicted with catarrh for 7 or 8 years, and it was attended by consequent symptoms, such as foul breath, constant dropping into the throat, hawking and spitting, partial deafness, ringing in the ears, and agonizing pain in the head directly over either eye. I have used powders and douches, but all to no effect, the only result arising from the use of such was temporary relief, followed by the usual symptoms in a more aggravated form. The results arising from the use of Nasal Balm are sweet breath, stoppage of the dropping into the throat (consequently less hawking and spitting), coarseness of hearing and not once since I began its use have I had pain in the head—in fact it is my opinion that a careful and persistent use of the "Balm" will effect a cure in the worst case of catarrh.

Mr. John H. Adams, merchant, Brantford, Ont., says: I have used NASAL BALM for catarrh, and found it to be a CERTAIN CURE.

W. A. Doyle, Beulah, Man., writes:—As a family medicine to check Catarrhal affections, or cold in the head, NASAL BALM HAS NO EQUAL. We prize it highly.

Henrietta Blackwell, Parker, Ont., says:—Your NASAL BALM is the BEST REMEDY I have yet used for catarrh. I can breathe more freely than before and my breath has regained its sweetness. I consider NASAL BALM a boon to the suffering.

W. Chas. Hanley, Postmaster, Spry Bay, N. S., says:—I submit the following to the public that any who may be afflicted may be benefitted by the same remedy. Two bottles of your NASAL BALM has RESTORED to PERFECT HEALTH a four year old child of ours, suffering from Catarrh.

Alpha H. Dales, Tarbert, Ont., writes:—Your NASAL BALM has made a new man of me. I have never used such a remedy or one half so satisfactory.

Miss Margie M. Martin, Tecumseh, Pa., says:—Through a friend in Canada, I became acquainted with your NASAL BALM. I have suffered for years with Catarrh and it is the first remedy from which I have experienced relief, and I feel certain that it will cure me.

Miss Minn'e McNairn, Mille Roches, Ont., says:—Your bottle of NASAL BALM did me much good. The pain in my head disappeared before I had used the bottle, and I find myself receiving the greatest benefit. I am certain NASAL BALM will cure any case of Catarrh if its use is preserved in.

James H. McLeod, Mink River Road, N.S., says:—I have tried other remedies for Catarrh, but received little or no good from them. Your NASAL BALM is certainly the BEST REMEDY I have ever tried, and all you claim for it. The fact that it is pleasant and convenient to use adds greatly to its value, but its chief worth lies in being a CERTAIN CURE for that unpleasant disease—Catarrh.

Mr. Schlemig, Toronto, says:—For a number of years my wife has been badly troubled with Catarrh. Dr. ——— here promised to cure her, but after using his remedy for six months she became worse and weaker than before, and I found that I had spent $60 for medical treatment that did no good. My wife then began to use your NASAL BALM and has improved wonderfully, and she is better and stronger than for years. Your remedy is the best in the market and you can use this as testimony.

Emile Pelletier, Greenville, says:—I can scarcely find words to tell you how highly I prize NASAL BALM. Its effects on my case have been wonderful.

A CAUTION.—Beware of imitations. If your dealer has not NASAL BALM in stock do not let him persuade you to take any other remedy which he may say is just as good, but send direct to the undersigned and it will be sent you post paid on receipt of price—50 cents and $1 a bottle. dw FULFORD & CO., Brockville, Ont.

"As Others See Us."

"Oh that some power the gift would gie us,
To see ourselves as others see us,
Thus sighed old Scotia's Bard in vein,
For what he could not then attain.
But had he lived in this fair town
He had no cause to sigh or frown,
For if he walked on Hunter street,
An eager throng he'd surely meet,
With faces bright as summer light,
All coming from one fifty-eight,
Where photos always are in view,
Which are to life so very true,
That each one who has seen them there,
Does to his comrades all declare,
"SPROULE is the very man can gie us,
The power to see as others see us."

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

THE LOAN OF LAST YEAR CRITICISED AND DEFENDED.

Many Members Take Part in the Debate—A Condemnatory Amendment Lost by a Strict Party Vote.

OTTAWA, April 11.—In the House of Commons yesterday the main feature of the proceedings was the discussion of the three per cent. loan. Before that matter came up several questions were asked and answered.

Some questions of more than usual interest were asked by members this afternoon.

Mr. Mulock inquired whether it was the intention of the Government to take any steps towards meeting the demands of the millers for an increase in the duty on flour. Hon. G. E. Foster said the question was one which could not be answered at present. He referred the same answer to a question by Mr. Wilson of Elgin respecting the duty on pork.

Mr. McMullen asked if it was the intention of the Government to pay the sum insured by the Government of Canada in the case of the St. Catharines Milling Company v. The Queen; also whether the company had made any demand for indemnity for the failure of the Federal Government to maintain them in possession. Hon. G. E. Foster said it was not the intention of the Government to pay any costs except as ordered by the courts. The company had made no demand for indemnity.

Upon motion to go into committee of supply Sir Richard Cartwright challenged the course of the Government upon the loan of 1888, his speech being summed up in this amendment which he offered:

That it appears from the public accounts and from statements made in this House by the Minister of Finance and from the prospectus of the loan, that the Government of Canada placed a loan of £4,000,000 sterling on the London market in the month of June, 1888.

2. That the said loan bears interest at the rate of 3 per cent. per annum and is made payable at the end of 30 years.

3. That the said loan was sold at an average price of 98.1.

4. That while the said loan had no new special sinking fund attached thereto, it is provided in the prospectus issued in connection therewith by Messrs. Baring and Glyn, the financial agents of the Government of Canada, that with a view of rendering the sinking funds of the various loans more effective than heretofore the Canadian Government intends to apply the sums annually required for the reduction of the national debt in the purchase of the stock now offered. The amount at present annually applied to the reduction of the national debt is £200,000 sterling, and as the sinking fund is accumulating the amount yearly increases.

5. That the effect of the said clause is that the Canadian Government will be obliged, in order to comply with the obligation thereto entered into on their behalf, to repurchase the entire loan of $4,000,000 sterling above mentioned in ten or more annual instalments averaging $800,000 each.

6. That the said loan will be thereby, so far as the Dominion of Canada is concerned, converted from a loan having, nominally, 30 years to run into a loan having a little more than five years to run.

7. That all former unguaranteed loans having sinking funds attached contain a provision inserted in the bond or agreement, and printed on a bond, setting forth that the Government of Canada shall not be obliged to purchase said stocks on account of investments for the sinking fund if said stocks should rise above par.

8. That neither the prospectus nor the bond issued in connection with the said 3 per cent. loan of £4,000,000 contain any such provision.

9. That the natural tendency of the existence of the obligation to apply a sinking fund of this magnitude to the purchase of a loan of £4,000,000 will be to raise the price of the said stock abnormally and may result in the loss of a large sum to this country.

10. That in any case the cost of the commissions, brokerage and other charges incurred in negotiating the said loan spread over a period of about five years, will add greatly to the rate of interest payable on the same loan.

11. That even if the said loan can be repurchased at an average of par it will involve the payment of a rate in excess of the price obtained for the said loan which will make the annual charge for the said loan, till the same be repurchased, equal to a rate of interest of about 5 per cent per annum and will at best make the transaction unduly expensive to this country.

12. That the said transaction is improvident and evidences negligence on the part of those charged with the interests of Canada in this matter.

Hon. G. E. Foster in reply said this loan had been floated by the same financial agents who had floated loans for Canada for a great number of years past and who had been extolled by Sir Richard Cartwright as men of ability and honor who would not give advice against the interest of Canada. He thought the agents were entitled to the same character now.

The statement in the prospectus upon which this question had been raised was merely a declaration of the intention of the Government, and simply carried out what had been the practice of the Government from the time of Confederation. The bond of the loan, which was advertised upon the very same pages of the prospectus, stipulated that the principal and interest should be chargeable to the consolidated fund, but there was no mention of or provision for a sinking fund in the bond. If the loan were exhausted in ten years, though nominally to run for fifty, and the bonds were thereby appreciated to par or above, the country would not have suffered because another 3 per cent. loan having to be put upon the market we would not have to again offer it below par.

He did not think that the financial history of Sir Richard Cartwright was such as to enable him with good grace to criticise the management of his successors in the office of Finance Minister in placing loans upon the market, for no such heavy discounts had been paid on any loans, before or since, as on the loans floated by Sir Richard. After attempting for many years past, as far as he was able, to depreciate the credit of this country, that gentleman now engaged in an attempt to lead the hounds of speculation to fatten themselves if they possibly can upon the credit of Canada. But the Government would be found well able to protect themselves from loss by the operations of speculators.

Mr. Paterson of Brant and Hon. L. H. Davies followed, criticising the loan on the line of Sir Richard's speech.

After recess the debate was resumed by Mr. Weldon of St. John and Mr. Waldie, who spoke in condemnation of the provisions of the loan.

Sir John Thompson gave it as his opinion that the Government were under no obligation to purchase the stock if the price were unduly inflated. He pointed out that the adoption of Sir Richard's resolution would put the Government at the mercy of stock speculators.

Hon. W. Laurier and Messrs. Mulock, Peter White and Colter followed.

The House divided on Sir Richard Cartwright's amendment, which was lost, 74 to 117. The vote was a strictly party one.

The House then went into supply.

The vote for Indian affairs and also the miscellaneous items in the main estimates were passed and the House adjourned at 1.40 a.m.

The English Beer Syndicate.

MONTREAL, April 11.—Mr. Charles Landy who is representing a syndicate of wealthy English capitalists is at present in the city and has interviewed the large brewers here with the object of investing English capital in Canadian breweries. The plan is to buy out two-thirds of the stock and let the proprietor retain the remaining third and run the business in his own name as formerly. This syndicate has been in operation a little over a year and has bought a number of very large breweries in different parts of the States. The object is not to corner beer and raise the price on it, but simply to get a good paying investment for the vast amount of unused capital that a number of English gentlemen are burdened with. The profits accruing from these investments in the States are said to be most satisfactory as the addition of so much capital has increased the business. Nothing definite has been arrived at here.

Father Paradis' Appeal Successful.

MONTREAL, April 11.—L'Etendard says that according to information from most reliable sources in Rome it is in a position to state that Father Paradis' appeal to the Holy See has been heard and has had the very satisfactory result of having him reinstated in his rights to celebrate mass.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

PREMIER MERCIER TALKS.

HIS OPINION OF THE ANTI-JESUIT AGITATION.

He Thinks the Result Will be to Strengthen the National Party and the Institutions of the Catholic Church.

MONTREAL, April 11.—Premier Mercier spent all yesterday at the Government offices receiving deputations, etc. He found time to grant an interview to a reporter and gave his opinion on some of the topics which are just now interesting the public mind.

"Have you anything to say concerning the resolution adopted by the Ministerial Association charging you with discourtesy to that body in connection with the house question?" Mr. Mercier was asked.

"I feel very much hurt about this resolution," replied the Premier, "because it has been passed by a very respectable body, but I am sure it is not merited. I never acted discourteously towards the association, and I am satisfied that in connection with the labors under the Government has done all its duty.

"The reproaches made on this subject against the Government are of the same nature as those made by similar associations in connection with the Jesuit bill. Although very strong, very energetic and very numerous protestations were made against the Jesuit Act they were rejected in a quiet unanimous way by the House of Commons. I am very sorry to have to add that I believe these protestations, either on the license or on the Jesuit question, are not made to serve public interests but party interests, and that they are directed against the National party, which the gentlemen making these protestations have always opposed, not on its merits but by prejudice and ill-feeling towards me personally and politically."

"What do you believe will be the political result of the anti-Jesuit agitation?"

"To strengthen the National party and our religious institutions. The Jesuits especially have gained very much by this agitation. They were ignored and now they are known; they were accused and they have been so well defended that they are now respected even by those who were their enemies before. Although I am sorry at this agitation I cannot fail to rejoice as the result for many reasons, the main one being that which I have already stated.

"Another reason is that it shows that after all religious fanaticism has no place in this country and will not be tolerated even in the House of Commons, where a large majority are Protestants.

"A third reason is that it is proved that we have no possible reason for Liberals and Conservatives when it is necessary and that in Ottawa they are disposed to follow on certain occasions the good example we have given [illegible] aside our regrettable division and unite for the success of a great cause.

"The last reason which I wish to mention is that the vote of the House of Commons is the most emphatic sanction that could be given to my policy, which is now acknowledged not only by my political friends but also by my political opponents as a wise, honest and just one, and I consider the result as a great victory for my Government and party."

Several other topics were touched upon, and Mr. Mercier in turn denied that any Cabinet changes were impending or that the Legislature would be dissolved just yet.

NO NEW LICENSES.

The Edict of the Hamilton Board—Preparing for Bishop Dowling's Reception.

HAMILTON, April 10.—A meeting of the Board of License Commissioners of this city was held this morning to consider the applications for licenses. There are seven applicants for new licenses, but the chairman emphatically stated that the board had decided to grant no new licenses. A number, it is thought, will be cut off.

A large meeting of Roman Catholic citizens was held last evening to make arrangements for the reception of Bishop Dowling, who will arrive on May 2 to be installed as bishop of this diocese. Committees were appointed to decorate an address, etc., and a hearty welcome will be given the new bishop.

The 13th Battalion Band will accompany St. Bernard Commandery, Knights Templar, of Chicago to the Triennial Conclave in Washington next October.

The wholesale grocery houses of Messrs. John Stuart, Son & Co. (limited) and Messrs. Alexander Harvey & Co. of this city have been amalgamated, and after April 15 the joint business will be carried on under the firm name of Stuart, Harvey & Co.

A. J. Seguin, traveler for the Perry Lawrence Co. of Montreal, and Miss Ada A. Webber, daughter of the late Enos Webber of this city were married last evening, Rev. W. J. Maxwell officiating.

Morrison's Whereabouts.

SHERBROOKE, Que., April 10.—The Magantic expedition is believed here to have completely failed. One thing is sure. That is, it will benefit the hotelkeepers to have the police around all summer and it will improve the health of the men of the police force. There are two stories regarding Donald's whereabouts, one that he has retired to a den or cave amply provisioned for months to come. This is supposed to be situated somewhere in the wild mountain region of almost unbroken forest at the head of Lake Magantic. The other is that having evaded the police he has left the district altogether. It is probable that he has gone to the United States.

Drought in the Michigan Woods.

DETROIT, April 11.—Light snows and no heavy rains during the past winter have resulted in the most remarkable drought this spring that the lumber woods of Upper Michigan have ever experienced and over one billion logs banked and ready to be floated to mills below are hung up because there is not enough water in the streams to float them. Heavy and continued rains alone will rescue this winter's cut and thus keep the mills running the season through.

The Maloney Jewelry Case.

MONTREAL, April 10.—The case of Andy Maloney, charged with stealing $14,000 worth of jewelry, the property of Messrs. Ellis & Co., Toronto, was continued to-day. A carter testified that Von Reinbolts came out of Maloney's gambling place in Craig-street and said he had lost $5000. He said he must make that up at once. The man was then driven to his lodgings in Mansfield-street, when two heavy trunks were brought back to Maloney's place. The case was then adjourned.

Belleville Briefs.

BELLEVILLE, April 11.—The average attendance at the public schools during March was 1066.

A public subscription has been started to pay off the debt of $2180 on the hospital and home buildings.

Mr. Charles Phillips has left here for British Columbia where he will engage in missionary work among the Indians.

The saw log drive has reached Tweed.

The Hotmere' Trial.

BARRIE, April 10.—The trial of the Hotmere for the murder of Philip Morrison was begun at 9.30 this morning. The evidence against the prisoners was much the same as that given at the coroner's inquest. Counsel for the defence moved for the discharge of David Hotmer on the ground that there was no evidence to go to the jury against him. His Lordship concurred and directed a verdict of not guilty.

Bums to Britain.

MONTREAL, April 11.—No less than six cases for not providing have been inscribed in the Police Court the last two days. Nearly all the complaints are from middle aged women and their invariable story is that their husbands drink up what money they can earn and let them and their children starve, so far as they are concerned.

This Boodler is Safe in Windsor.

WINDSOR, April 11.—John G. Thompson, the missing postal clerk of Columbus, O., who left [illegible] suddenly Monday night when he learned the authorities knew of his whereabouts, is now at the British American Hotel, Windsor. Thompson is safe from the United States authorities so long as he stays in Canada. The penalty for his alleged crime is from one to ten years in the penitentiary.

The bill was rejected by a vote of 230 to 166. Mr. Parnell had issued a special "whip" for the division.

THURSDAY, APRIL 11, 1889.

Minutes of the Presbytery of Peterborough.

At Port Hope, and within the hall of the First Presbyterian Church there, the 19th day of March, 1889, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, the which day and place the Presbytery of Peterborough, met and was duly constituted by Mr. Bell, Moderator, pro tempore.

There were present besides the Moderator, Messrs. Cleland, Bennett, Cameron, Terrence, Jamieson, Carmichael, Thompson, Mitchell, McKay, Hay, McEwen, McLeod, Hyde, Macwilliam, Gilchrist, Lord, ministers, and Messrs. W. E. Johnstone, John Stewart, John Clark, Rev. A. McNaughten, Robt. Tulley, Charles Horsburgh, Thomas Wilson, G. M. Roger and James Clarke, elders.

The minutes of the last ordinary meeting were held as read, and were sustained.

The minutes of the adjourned meetings in Peterborough and in Cartwright, were read and sustained.

A docket was read to which it was agreed to adhere as the order of business.

Dr. Jamieson was chosen Moderator for the next six months and took the chair.

There was presented a unanimous call from the congregation of Cobourg, in favor of the Rev. G. E. Freeman of Deer Park, Toronto. Mr. Cleland was heard as to the steps taken when Moderating in the call. His conduct in the matter was approved, and the call was sustained as a regular Gospel call. At this point the Clerk read a telegram from Mr. Freeman to the effect that he had decided to remain in his present charge. The call was therefore set aside and the Moderator of Session was authorized to proceed with a new call, so soon as the people are prepared for the step.

The Presbytery then entered upon the consideration of the business left over from the adjourned meeting in Cartwright.

The resignation of Mr. McKay, lying on the table since last regular meeting, was taken up and considered.

There was read a petition from the congregation of Ballydaff, very largely signed, praying the Presbytery not to accept of the resignation. Messrs Clarke and Brown were heard in support of the petition. There were no representatives present from the congregation of Cartwright. Mr. McKay stated that he still adhered to his resignation. On motion duly made, the resignation was accepted of, to take effect after the last Sabbath of March.

The Rev. W. C. Windell was appointed to preach in the congregations of Cartwright and Ballydaff, on the first Sabbath of April, and to declare the pulpit vacant.

Mr. Bennett was appointed Moderator of Session during the vacancy.

The Presbytery adjourned to meet in the Mill St. Church at 7.30 o'clock, and the sederunt was closed with the benediction.

Same day at 7 30 o'clock, the Presbytery met in the Mill St. Church, according to adjournment, and was constituted by Mr. Carmichael, Moderator, pro tempore, who occupied the chair in the absence of Dr. Jamieson.

Mr. Hay presented the motion of which he had given notice at a previous meeting. The motion was adopted, and is as follows: "That in order to secure the more efficient presentation of the missions and schemes of the church, to the members of all congregations within the bounds, the ministers of this Presbytery be hereby instructed to bring the missions and schemes of the church before their respective congregations, quarterly, during the year, and report the same to the court."

Mr. Bennett read a report of his visit to the mission fields of Minden and Haliburton. The report was to the effect that all the stations were exceedingly desirous to have an ordained missionary to labor among them. The report recommended the transfer of the station of Kinmount to the charge of the Presbytery of Lindsay, and the union of the other four stations of Minden, Haliburton, Brown's Station and Robertson Settlement, as one Mission field under the charge of an ordained missionary.

The report was received and in accordance with its recommendation, Presbytery agreed to transfer the station at Kinmount to the care of the Presbytery of Lindsay, and to unite the remaining stations as one mission field.

The committee on Augmentation and Home Missions gave in their report through the Convener, McClelland. It was reported that all the augmented congregations had been visited. The following grants were authorized on their behalf:

Bobcaygeon and Dunsford	$ 75
Hastings	50
Warsaw and Dummer	200
Springville and Bethany	200
Garden Hill and Knoxville	250

The following grants were also authorized on behalf of the several mission fields:

Minden and Haliburton	$6 00 per Sabbath
Harvey	3 00 " "
Havelock and Stony Lake	3 00 " "
Chandos and Burleigh	3 00 " "

Reports of the Committees on Session Records and on the Remit of the Book of Forms were delayed until next meeting.

Mr. McEwen gave in the report of the Committee appointed to consider the Remit on the Marriage Question. The report was received and in accordance with its recommendation the Remit was approved of simpliciter.

The supply of the congregation of Cartwright and Ballydaff was left in the hands of the Presbytery's Home Mission Committee until next ordinary meeting of Presbytery.

The report on Statistics was read by Mr. Bennett. The report was received. Mr. Gilchrist and Elder were appointed a committee to confer with the congregation of Bethesda, at as early a date as possible, anent the payment of a small arrears due their pastor.

The Committee appointed to co-operate with the Whitby Presbytery, in seeking to bring about a union of the 1st and 2nd Cartwright Congregations, gave in their report. The interim report was received and the Committee continued until the work is completed.

Mr. McEwen read the report on Sabbath Schools and Sabbath School Institutes. The report was received and its recommendations adopted. These are the following:

1. That congregations be urged to undertake the necessary and current expenses of the schools, in part or wholly, and thereby foster in the coming generation a missionary spirit and present a definite aim in systematic giving.

2. That it be an instruction to the Assembly's Committees on Home and Foreign Missions, French Evangelization, and Temperance, to prepare, or cause to be prepared, an exercise suitable for a Sabbath school service, embracing the important facts and figures, or incidents of their report, and to be put into the hands of the publishing houses interested in our church work, to be printed in circular form, for sale by the hundred, and thereby enable all schools more effectively to carry out the Assembly's recommendation, No. six, viz.: "That pastors and teachers be asked to give systematic instruction on the schemes of the church."

3. That it be an instruction to the Assembly's Sabbath School Committee to consider the propriety of recommending all pastors in charge of rural congregations, and where the Sabbath school is closed during the winter, that the usual helps in the study of the International Course of Lessons be continued in every home and the duty of home work in that line be pressed and as an encouragement and end to be laboured for, that the pastor, at least once a quarter, make the usual public service a time of review along that line.

The Convener was thanked for his diligence, and the report was ordered to be forwarded to the Convener of the Synod's Committee on Sabbath Schools.

On motion of Mr. McEwen, seconded by Mr. Torrance, it was agreed to express our cordial thanks to the Sabbath schools of St. Paul's and Lakefield, for their liberality in contributing Hymn Books and Testaments, and Books for the Library in destitute localities.

The following Ministers were appointed, by rotation, as delegates to the next General Assembly, viz.: Messrs. W. H. Jamieson, J. Carmichael, J. R. Craigie, D. A. Thompson, J. W. Mitchell, John Hay.

The Elders chosen were Messrs. W. E. Roxburgh, Norwood; John Clark, Campbellford; G. M. Roger, Peterborough; Robt. Graham, Lakefield; Charles Horsburg, Coldsprings; John Carnegie, Peterborough.

The next meeting of the Presbytery was appointed to be held in St. Paul's Church, Peterborough, on the 16th of April, at 9 o'clock a.m.

Messrs. Bell and Robt. Tulley were appointed to represent the Presbytery on the Synods Committee on Bills and Overtures.

Principal Grant, of Queen's College, was unanimously nominated as Moderator of the next General Assembly.

TORONTO TOPICS.

The Hess Bros.' Failure—Escape of a Convict From the Central Prison.

TORONTO, April 11.—There was a meeting of Hess Bros.' creditors yesterday. An offer of 50 cents on the dollar was made and accepted by a majority of those present. The statement presented showed total liabilities of $124,814, of which $66,666 is secured. The total assets are $115,354, leaving a nominal balance of $18,000 to meet the unsecured claims of $28,000. It is hardly likely the firm will re-build their lately destroyed premises in Toronto, the evidence going to show that their trouble was caused by over-spreading their works and a lack of capital.

William Butler, a colored convict from Chatham, cleverly escaped from the Central Prison yesterday morning. Some cars were being shunted in the yard, and one of these he entered unperceived and thus escaped, leaving the bulk of his prison clothes in the car. He has not been recaptured.

There may be a fight over the $200 reward offered for the recovery of the body of the late Seymour Porter. Sexsmith was the first man to see the body in the bay, and while he was away looking for some one to help him pull it out, another man came along and made the same discovery, putting in a claim for a share of the reward.

The funeral of Seymour Porter, who was found drowned in Toronto Bay, took place yesterday and was largely attended by the Masonic body and prominent citizens.

Kingston's Canal Petition.

KINGSTON, April 11.—The following petition numerously signed has been forwarded to the Acting Minister of Railways and Canals: "In view of the Welland Canal opening on April 15 and of the very large quantity of grain that is waiting for the opening of said canal and destined for Kingston, and also in view of the fact that the larger portion of the river fleet had to lay up in Montreal last fall on account of the break in the Cornwall Canal, they having been frozen in at Montreal before they could be discharged, we beg to urge upon the Government the great necessity of having the St. Lawrence canals opened at the same time as the Welland Canal and thus prevent the blockade that is otherwise sure to occur, causing great loss and detention to the forwarding interests and discredit to Kingston as a point of transhipment.

Some drink because they are hungry,

Some drink to strengthen them when young,
And some when they are old.

Some drink to keep them wide awake,

Some drink because they merry are,

Some drink when they do money gain,

Some drink when they are pleased,

Some drink when they are hard at work,
And some when they do play;
Some think it right to drink at night,
While others drink by day.

Some drink for sake of company,
While others drink on the sly;
And many drink but never think,
About the reason why.

Some say they drink for pleasure,
And some they drink for pain,
Some say 'tis good, some very bad,
But never once refrain.

All drink because they like it!

THAT MORTGAGED MILL.

The Sheriff in Hot Pursuit—The Mill Now on Its Way to Canada.

CHEBOYGAN, Mich., April 11.—The scene of the Moiles mill controversy has now been transferred from Detour to the open lake. Tuesday evening Sheriff McKenzie and his deputy from the Soo arrived here. So did the tug Dowling with the Moiles party on board, but the Soo sheriff did not ascertain that fact till yesterday morning, just after the Dowling had been reprovisioned and left for her consorts, two schooners, said to be fast in the ice near Drummond's Island. These schooners have the Moiles Bros.' saw mill machinery on board, which was loaded at Detour a few days ago and on which there was a mortgage of $45,000 held by Buffalo parties.

Sheriff McKenzie when he learned the Dowling was part of the Moiles outfit chartered the tug George W. Cayler and started to overhaul the Dowling. He is but a few miles in the rear. The officers will board the Dowling if she is overhauled in American waters and demand immediate possession. Of course if the Moiles party refuses that will undoubtedly end the chase for a while as the sheriff is without an adequate force and the Moilesses have a crew of 1000 men with them. The master of the tug on which the sheriff sailed this morning has been instructed by her owners here only to land the sheriff and his deputy on the Dowling, as she was chartered for that purpose, and to avoid altercation.

WEST VIRGINIA ON A DOG HUNT.

A Mad Animal Creates Havoc—The Colonels and Captains in Full Chase.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., April 10.—The people of Tyler County are much excited over the appearance of dozens of mad dogs. Friday a large dog owned by Capt. W. H. Henderson of Long Beach went mad and bit every animal within reach. The brute attempted to bite Henderson but only tore his clothing. That night it attacked the animals on Col. Dan Johnston's farm and sprang at and caught the Colonel by the sleeve. Johnson, who was armed with a poker, beat the dog off. The animal then started across the country along the railroad, biting dogs, horses, cows and every living thing within reach. A number of armed men pursued it on a hand car 9 miles, when they shot and killed it. The country is now believed to be full of bitten animals. A general hunt is in progress and every animal suspected of having been bitten will be killed.

HEARTLESS CRUELTY.

A Paralytic in the Chicago Home for Incurables Beaten by Attendants.

CHICAGO, April 10.—James Batten, a bedridden paralytic, also suffering from Bright's disease, was a patient at the Home for Incurables here. A few days ago his wife and daughter visited him and found his face bruised, his eyes blacked, and his tongue badly cut by his teeth. He said the injuries were inflicted by the attendants at the institution who struck him with their fists to prevent him from groaning when in pain. The wife and daughter complained to the Woman's Protective Association, which made an investigation. The results indicate that the management was guilty of heartless cruelty to the unfortunates in its care. Batten died yesterday. The coroner's jury found he died from heart clot, but expressed the belief that he was abused and recommended that the grand jury investigate the matter.

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles.

SYMPTOMS—Moisture, intense itching and stinging, most at night, worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia. Lyman, Sons & Co., Montreal, Wholesale Agents. dw

Ulcerated Stomach.

"For three years I was unable to work, suffering from ulcerated stomach. Medical aid having failed, I was told to try Burdock Blood Bitters, of which 7 bottles made a permanent cure. This was two years ago, and I feel that I have to thank B.B.B. for being alive and well to-day." Mrs. Rose Ann McCloskey, Marmora, Ont. 2w14d

A Frightened Mother.

"My little girl, 4 years old, frightened me one night by a croupy cough, but I gave her a dose of Hagyard's Yellow Oil, which relieved her at once, and she slept well all night. I have since used it in several cases of croup, frost bites, etc., and find it always reliable." Mrs. Eva Bradley, Virden, Man.

The Blood is the Life,

And on its purity largely depends the general health. No one is free from danger, and nine-tenths of humanity actually do suffer from one form or other of impure blood. No one remedy has such a wide range of curative power as has Burdock Blood Bitters—that best of all blood purifiers and tonics.

The Loss of the Hair

Is a great misfortune and the sight of a bald head should be a warning to you to take the best possible care of your hair. A little of Dr. Dorenwend's "Hair Magic" used occasionally will prevent all chances of its falling out or turning gray, and will remove all traces of dandruff. Every druggist has it in stock. Ask for it. dw

On searching him a couple of small round packages, just the size and shape of dynamite cartridges, were found in a pocket. The police were instantly on their guard, and with extreme caution unwrapped the paper and discovered—two bottles of pain cure. The drunk was allowed to go this morning.

The Church Service Outlined.

An Instructive, Eloquent and Interesting Address by Rev. Canon Dumoulin in St. John's Church.

If the Rev. Canon Dumoulin calls his address in St. John's Church on Wednesday evening an "Outline of the Church Service," it is difficult to conceive what he would make the finished picture like. His address was of the most striking excellence, whether regarded in the light of lucid exposition, instructive knowledge, or eloquence of delivery.

The speaker began by pointing out that the Israelites had a divinely appointed order of worship, and the Church of England had a settled order of worship, venerable in its antiquity, its essence and origin, with a distinct aim and teaching. A spiritual use of these services depended largely upon a full understanding of them. The order of church service was so framed as to lift man from the lowest to the highest degree of spiritual life. There were seven degrees or steps. The first of these was conviction of sin—the prayer book beginning with selections from the Word of God addressing the heart and conscience and awakening a sense of sin. The second step was Confession of sin, the avenue of escape from the upbraidings of conscience. The third step was the declaration of pardon to "all them that truly repent and unfeignedly believe." The fourth was the natural sequence of the other steps—access to God, and the service broke out in "Our Father," the worshippers taking the part of pardoned and accepted children. The next step was exultation, expressed through the psalms of praise, inspired language being used to sing the praises of God. The sixth step placed the worshipper in the position of a disciple—a learner at the feet of our God and King—as expressed by the Scripture lessons, the Epistles and Gospels, the whole Scriptures being read over in church during the course of every year. The highest and greatest step was the Communion office—where the worshipper was made one with Christ—and afforded the fullest access and communion with God the Saviour. These seven steps explain the meaning of the Church Service, and parents were urged to, themselves, teach their children the meaning of the service. The speaker, after insisting upon the importance of a regular and punctual attendance upon the services of the church and vigorously denouncing the sin of irreverence, closed an able and eloquent discourse. Owing to pressure upon our space we can to day give only a bare synopsis, reserving to ourselves the pleasure of presenting, for wholesome Sunday reading, a full report of the address on Saturday.

Ashburnham Brevities.

Miss Annie Smith who is taking a course in the Kindergarten school, Toronto, is home for the Easter Holidays.

The Yacht, Pearl, owned by Mr. H. Calcutt was launched yesterday and made her first trip down the river to-day.

The Ashburnham school board have by a unanimous resolution appointed the Easter holidays of Ashburnham public school from Tuesday, 16th April, to the following Tuesday. The term has been a long one and this extension of time has been given in appreciation of the great progress the school has made.

New crossings are being placed at the junction of Brown, Mark and Elizabeth streets, Councillor Marshall is taking a personal oversight of the street department so that retrenchment in the expenditure and this department may be looked for. At least it will not be Alderman Marshall's fault if there does not.

Personal.

Mr. Robert Hunter, of Lindsay, is visiting his sister, Mrs. W. H. Wrighton.

Rev. P. Clifton Parker, chairman of the Peterborough Association of Baptist Church, has been in Toronto for a few days attending the Home Mission Board meeting of the Baptist Church.

At the recent examinations of Trinity University for degrees, M.D., C.M., Messrs. T. J. Mober and L. W. Allingham, of Hastings, passed carrying off first class honors.

Miss E. Harper leaves Monday for Toronto, where she has accepted a position with Pierson, Macdonald & Co. Her shorthand classes are therefore cancelled.

Mr. Fred. Cameron is congratulated upon his success in the examination for land surveyors. He has been admitted to the practice of the profession for Ontario.

At the final examination in Trinity University for the degree of M. D., Mr. R. W. Rooney stood first in second class honors. Dr. Rooney is a brother of Mr. J. J. Rooney, of the Peterborough Business College.

HOW TO RUN A CHURCH.

Rev. Mr. Hunter Gives Church People Some Advice

Mr. Crossley foresees a Warming to the Unsaved—"Almost Persuaded to be a Christian"—Announcements of the Last Meetings—To-night's Special Thank Offering.

The church was again over crowded last night, the people evidently determining to make the most of the short time that remained of the evangelists' stay in Peterborough.

Rev. Mr. Pearson announced with regret that to-night would positively be the last of Messrs. Crossley and Hunter's meetings here, though he had hoped to make an arrangement to secure a little longer time. But the call to Woodstock was so urgent and there was such a providential opening there that they had decided to go as soon as possible. Mr. Pearson referred to the great success by God's blessing of the evangelists' labors in Peterborough, and said all the people were greatly indebted to them. For himself he felt under a great obligation to them both personally and for the help they had afforded him in church work. He reminded the people of the special thank offering to-night, which will be given to Messrs. Crossley and Hunter as a token of the gratitude of the people of Peterborough to the Almighty for the great work that has been done through the evangelists. Contribution envelopes, with or without names, may be put on the collection plate or handed to any of the clergymen, who will see that the gifts reach their destination.

TO-DAY'S MEETINGS.

Mr. Crossley sang "Come to Me," Mr. Dingle accompanying him on the organ, after which Mr. Hunter made the announcements for to-day. There was to be a prayer and praise meeting in the Baptist church from 10 to 11 o'clock this forenoon, and this afternoon from 2.30 to 4 o'clock in the George street church a meeting which will probably be the most interesting of the series, at which a large number of experiences will be given. The meeting is called, "When and How You are Converted."

To-night's meeting, the last, will begin at 7.30 o'clock. No boys or girls are to be admitted, and a request was made that all good old people remain at home and pray for them. The body of the church will be reserved for men and the gallery for the ladies. Mr. Hunter said they looked for great results at this closing meeting. To-night, he said, we say farewell to you all, not to meet till the judgment day.

HOW TO RUN A CHURCH.

Mr. Hunter read the ninth chapter of Luke, beginning at the 22nd verse, and commented in his usual effective style. Like Paul, he advised people to go to work as soon as they were converted, and not hang around and sponge on the Lord. Paul went to work and "confounded the Jews," so that they sought to kill him. So if some ministers to-day would do all their duty as preachers of the gospel they would say things that would hit old sinners pretty hard and then they would try to kill them, metaphorically speaking. They would get mad anyway and raise a row. But Paul was let down the wall in a basket, and so the Lord provides some means of escape for Christians whenever they get into difficulty. The disciples were afraid of Saul after this, and so people to-day are afraid of teachers of the gospel and constitute themselves judges. Mr. Hunter said he met such a man on the train coming up from Port Hope that day. But "the churches were edified"; and Mr. Hunter gave his hearers a number of points as to how to edify their churches. First, he said, be converted, then get into the church. Encourage the minister by attending the services. Some of you, he said, have come pretty near being seat-warmers, attending these services every night for six weeks and not being in a prayer meeting for six months. He urged his hearers not to have that sort of piety, and not to talk about the evangelists doing this and that but of Jesus and His love. Then he advised them to avoid criticism of their preachers and making odious comparisons; lend them a helping hand in church work, call on them socially, and sympathize with them. Pay your ministers' salaries, and don't be one of those mean contemptible creatures who shout out so loud in prayer meeting and never give $5 to the church. Speak encouragingly of your church and its members, avoid all contentions, and if you have any old difficulties have them settled. Know no party in the church, utter no complaint of your fellow-members, have broad charity, encourage the community by inviting persons to Jesus, and rent a pew and bring strangers to church. Do this, he said, and you will be a happy people, a prosperous church, and there will be a continuous revival.

Mr. Crossley then sang "The Handwriting on the Wall."

ALMOST PERSUADED.

Mr. Crossley's text was the answer Agrippa gave to Paul's positive exclamation and question in Acts, xxvi, 28:—"Almost thou persuadest me to be a Christain."

There was some doubt as to whether Agrippa was speaking sarcastically or in earnest, but, however that might be, there were persons in the congregation who were answering it in either of these ways, and to them Mr. Crossley addressed himself. He would speak first to those who were giving it a trifling answer or neglecting the question altogether. These, he said, were the hardest cases of all; he would go further and say that all but the very hardest cases had been converted at these meetings. The drunkard, the swearer, the one deep in sin, have been saved; yet the trifler has not, and how could that be unless it was owing to their hardness of heart. But there was hope for them all, Mr. Crossley said, for he himself had been saved at the last meeting of a special series; and he had hopes that many of these hardest cases would be brought to Christ in these last two nights. Then a second class were those who were altogether persuaded to be saved. He wanted them to be conscious Christians, and not "feel" but know that they were Christ's; to "Believe in the Lord Jesus Christ and thou wilt be saved." Then he wanted them to be consistent and uniform Christians, and impressed upon the congregation the sentiment of Isa., xxvi. 3. If they got this passage right into themselves they would have a perfect and uniform Christianity. A third class was those who are almost persuaded to be Christians, and say it seriously. He urged them to make up their minds to become Christians, to know that their sins are forgiven, to have spiritual delights instead of animal enjoyments, to have fellowship with God and rejoice in a hope of heaven. It was a wicked thing not to be a Christian, for it was rebellion against God. More, it was inhuman for anyone to reject the love of Jesus. Yet here they were, only "almost" persuaded. Again, nearly everyone was tempted to doubt, but they should not confound the temptation to doubt with doubting, and fear they had become infidels. There was more faith required to be an infidel than to be a Christian. Mr. Crossley said he did not believe there was anyone with intelligence who could candidly say they were infidels. Then, life was so short and uncertain, and yet there were so many only almost persuaded. Mr. Crossley dealt at length with this point, emphasizing such passages as, "this night shall thy soul be required of thee," and, "there is but a step between death and thee." With eternity so near them, they should see the awful significance of the words, "almost persuaded." Almost, but not entirely decided! Some of them had been moved by the spirit, but still they suppress its strivings. He urged them to make up their minds to avert the possibility of their missing heaven by deciding to not be almost but altogether persuaded.

A fervent prayer was offered up by Rev. Mr. Shorey, and Mr. Hunter brought the first meeting to a close by earnestly warning the unsaved of the terrible consequences of [illegible] all the question of their salvation, and urgently inviting them to Jesus.

NOTES.

Among those on the platform last night were Rev. Mr. Mitchell, of Port Hope, Rev. Mr. Ford, of London Conference; Rev. Mr. Salton, of Newtonville, and Mr. Wm. Johnson, of Belleville.

It is remarkable the number of amateur reporters, principally ladies, who attend the services every night and take notes of the sermons for their other perusal. No doubt the majority of people prefer to leave the work to the reporters of the daily papers.

It is a noticeable feature of the special requests for prayer that three out of four are for men, young and old. Comparatively few requests are sent in on behalf of ladies.

Rev. Mr. Pearson accompanied the evangelists to Port Hope yesterday.

Mr. Hunter last night said they had a letter from Winnipeg to the effect that Mr. John Mitchell, who formerly lived in Peterborough, and who had been converted at their meetings in Winnipeg a year or so ago, had died recently. Mr. Mitchell's death has been already chronicled.

Ennismore.

WEATHER NOTES.—Windy March, if the appellation can be given to the departed one which has once more come to a close. A finer month I am not aware of ever was seen in Canada. The month came in pleasant, and remained fine up to the 7th, when we had three days stormy and windy, but only little snow falling. And on the morning of the 11th the thermometer stood at two degrees above zero and at night twenty degrees, being the coldest of the month. The 23rd was the warmest, standing at sixty degrees in the shade at two p.m., leaving the mean temperature of the month at 28 20-31 degrees. Snow fell on nine days to the depth of three and one-half inches, being uncommonly light for March. No rain fell during the month, and only 15-100th of an inch fell in February—on the 16th. We have had none for six weeks. The like, I believe, is unknown in Canada. Our migrating birds are once more hopping from tree to fence and from fence to tree. The first caw, caw, of our black feathered friends was heard on the 11th, blue birds on the 20th, wild ducks on the 26th, robins on the 28th. Auroral lights on the 24th, and fog on two mornings. First ploughing was done on Patrick Brick's farm on the 21st, which, no doubt, was the first in this locality. The following are the different points from which the wind was blowing at sunrise during the month, respectively, namely: South, three days; south-east, five days; south-west, six days; north, two days; north-west, five days; west, two days; east, seven days; and north-east, one day.

News Nuggets.

—The members of the Gun Club are reminded of the practice shoot to-morrow afternoon.

—One end of a box car ran beyond the siding at McBain's warehouse this morning on to the street. It was tracked again after some trouble.

How Got to Business.

Now that the Crossley and Hunter evangelistic meetings are over, the housewives of the town will have leisure to address themselves to the pressing matter of house cleaning. They should now go on with setting their temporal houses in order. The semi-annual house cleaning will involve a great many changes and of course, when the new and clean curtains adorn the windows, and new paper covers the walls, that old furniture will look out of keeping. It must be either repaired and re-upholstered or replaced with new furniture. In either case, Belleghem is the man to consult in this important emergency. If new furniture is needed, he has an almost endless stock of every variety and style that fashion demands, admitting of full chance for selection and at prices which must command consideration. His own make of furniture is of the very best—only kiln-dried lumber is used and the best material, and put together by the aid of the most improved machinery, by the best mechanical skill available. In repairs of any kind the shop of D. Belleghem, for promptness and excellence of work, cannot be excelled. Upholstery in all its branches a specialty. Don't forget the place when you want either new furniture or old furniture made new—Belleghem's Furniture Warerooms, 188 and 190 Hunter street, Peterborough.

The Cause of the Scott Act Defeat.

There are various opinions as to the defeat of the Scott Act, some giving this reason, others that; but one of the principal points is this. There has been such a sensation caused, in fact over the whole county that all plans have been frustrated, instead of voters going to the polls to record their votes they rushed headlong to secure the tremendous bargains w. j. morrow has been offering in groceries, knowing well that they can buy goods cheaper from him than from any other house in the line.

The Talk of the Town.

The people are wondering why Elliott & Tierney are giving 18 lbs. bright sugar for $1, and selling teas and other goods so much cheaper than any house in Peterborough. Call at the Palace Grocery and examine the goods, which will convince you. The "Palace" is the place to get best values. Great stock-taking sale now going on.

"As Others See Us."

"Oh that some power the gift would gie us,
To see ourselves as others see us."
Thus sighed old Scotia's Bard in vain,
For what he could not then attain.
But had he lived in this fair town
He had no cause to sigh or frown,
For if he walked on Hunter street,
An eager throng he'd surely meet,
With faces bright as summer light,
All coming from one-fifty-eight.
Where photos always are in view,
Which are to life so very true,
That each one who has seen them there,
Does to his comrades all declare,
"SPROULE is the very man can gie us,
The power to see as others see us."

THE OCEAN MAIL SERVICE.

ENGLISH MAILS TO BE FORWARDED VIA NEW YORK.

The Postmaster-General Says the Arrangement is a Temporary One—Topics from the Capital.

MONTREAL, April 11.—This despatch was received by the postmaster here this afternoon:

OTTAWA, April 11.—From and including to-day, all mails to England to be forwarded via New York. WILLIAM WHITE,
Deputy Postmaster-General.

A Temporary Arrangement.

OTTAWA, April 11.—Speaking to a reporter to-night Hon. John Haggart, Postmaster-General, said the despatch of the European mail via New York was a merely temporary arrangement, the order issued applying only to the mail now being made out. The change arose out of the expiry to-morrow of the mail contract with the Allans. A satisfactory arrangement would no doubt be made for sending the mails for the future by the fast line of steamers which it was proposed to place on the Canadian route.

IN THE HOUSE.

Adjournment to Be Only Over Good Friday —The U.S. Cheese Frauds.

OTTAWA, April 11.—In the House this afternoon in answer to Mr. Vanasse Sir John Macdonald said the Government were aware that United States cheese exporters were in the habit of marking their inferior goods as Canadian cheese to the detriment of the character of our exports. Without a change in the law so as to make it an offence the Government could not put an end to the practice.

Sir John Macdonald moved that Government measures shall have precedence on every Monday during the remainder of the session.

Mr. Laurier protested that a good many important measures promoted by private members would not have an opportunity under this arrangement of being put through.

Sir John said the more important of such measures would be transferred to the Government order paper so as to facilitate their progress.

Hon. Mr. Laurier said it seemed now impossible to have prorogation before Easter, as had been proposed, and he asked how long the Government proposed to adjourn.

Sir John Macdonald said that with the consent of the House the adjournment would only be over Good Friday. There would be a sitting on the following day, Saturday, and on Easter Monday.

On motion to go into committee of supply Mr. Flynn offered an amendment condemning the route chosen for the Cape Breton Railway now under construction. Discussion on this amendment occupied the time of the House all the rest of the afternoon.

After recess the debate on Mr. Flynn's resolution was continued, and the resolution having been negatived without division, the House went into Committee of Supply. The Canadian Northwest Mounted Police and sundry appropriations for miscellaneous purposes were passed.

The House adjourned at 2.20 a.m.

Senator Wark's Resolution Defeated.

OTTAWA, April 11.—At 12.30 this morning the Senate concluded the debate on Senator Wark's resolution to the effect that it would be unjust to the United Kingdom to levy higher duties on goods imported from thence than on goods of the same character imported from any foreign country. Hon. Mr. Abbott's amendment was adopted instead by a vote of 36 to 11. The amendment is to the effect that it would not be in the interest of Canada to establish entire reciprocity of trade with any foreign nation upon any conditions that would restrict it with regard to others.

THE DOMINION FISHERIES.

The Total Yield Last Year Nearly $5,000,000 Less Than in 1887.

OTTAWA, April 11.—The annual report of the Fisheries Department for 1888 was presented to-day. This shows the total yield of the fisheries during the year to have been $17,500,000, the figures by provinces being:

Nova Scotia	$7,317,020
New Brunswick	2,941,262
British Columbia	1,262,195
Quebec	1,262,051
Ontario	1,239,269
Prince Edward Island	576,000
Manitoba and Northwest Territories	136,077

The total is nearly a million dollars less than that of last year, the decrease being in the Maritime Provinces, while Quebec, Ontario and Manitoba show increased yields.

The kinds of fish of which more than a million dollars worth were taken were:

Cod	$4,208,826
Herring	2,264,194
Salmon	1,267,662
Lobsters	1,438,263

Satisfaction is expressed at the continuance of the steady increase in the yield of the Ontario fisheries. The increase shown in 1888 was $308,019. This, it is stated, has been largely brought about by judicious protection allied to a strict enforcement of the fishery laws.

There are eleven hatcheries now maintained by the Government and 88,000,000 young fish were distributed from these during the year.

The expenditure of the department was:

General service	$ 95,545
Fish breeding	41,566
Fisheries protection service	77,169
Fishing bounty for 1887	163,723
Total	$377,457

THE PRESIDENT'S SON.

Russell B. Harrison Arrested in New York on a Charge of Libel.

NEW YORK, April 11.—Russell B. Harrison, son of the President, was arrested this afternoon in the office of Judge charged with libel. Mr. Harrison came on from Washington last night for the purpose of having the papers in the suit served on him. The warrant was issued by Judge Beach of the Supreme Court, who fixed bail at $5000, and it was promptly furnished. The libellous article referred to accused ex-Governor Crosby of having stolen jewels from a Washington lady and was published in a paper in which Mr. Harrison owned an interest.

The Barley Market.

BUFFALO, April 12.—Barley prices are very unsettled. Although sales are being made every day the prices if given would be of no assistance in solving the mystery of the value of barley. For instance sales were reported yesterday of 10,000 bushels No. 2 at 55c., 10,000 No. 2 extra at 62c., at 58½ and 5000 nearly No. 1 at 66c. This transaction according to other dealers was made some days ago when the market was weak and only closed yesterday. Still the Canadian dealer who sold this offered No. 1 at 70c., No. 2 at 65c., No. 2 extra at 62c., and No. 3 at 55c. to arrive. At Albany the market is practically closed. One car was received but there is virtually no trade. Chicago nominal, Milwaukee quiet at 55c. for No. 2.

Didn't Believe in Infant Damnation.

ROCHESTER, N.Y., April 12.—The Presbytery of Rochester has for two days been considering the case of three deacons who were ordained by the First Presbyterian Church of this city a few weeks ago although at the time they expressed disbelief in the doctrines of fore-ordination and infant damnation. After full deliberation and discussion the act of ordination was sustained by the Presbytery.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

NEWS OF THE DOMINION.

TIMELY TOPICS FROM CANADA'S CHIEF CITIES.

TORONTO, April 12.—The Executive yesterday unanimously rejected Rev. W. F. Wilson's claim for the costs of his appeal against the decision of the Police Magistrate in the famous "move on" case.

The police estimates for 1889 are $196,000, an increase of $17,000 over 1888.

George Campbell, a Crimean veteran, died at his residence, 101 Euclid-avenue, early yesterday morning, aged 86.

Early yesterday morning the residence of Mr. Edward Reid, Ontario-street, was entered by burglars and a quantity of silver carried off. The thieves cast a covetous eye on the goods and chattels of ex-Councillor Miles of Parkdale, but the plunder did not amount to a great deal.

In a runaway accident near the Humber Mr. James Matthews, soda water manufacturer, was thrown out of a buggy and fractured his leg.

Property holders residing near Knox College will hold a public meeting to discuss the chances of getting the college buildings removed. The agitation against the present site is popular.

W. J. Wilson, a well-known hotel-keeper at the corner of Adelaide and Widmer-streets, died very suddenly while attending to his bar yesterday morning.

David Christie pleaded not guilty to having robbed Samuel Woodland of between $45 and $50 and a check for $50. The victim gave his evidence to the effect that on the night of Jan. 14 last he was knocked down by a man on Tecumseth-street, near King, and relieved of the amount mentioned in the information. Christie will present his defence to-day.

A RAN AWAY FROM HOME.

A Toronto Lad Arrested in Hamilton—"Settled Out of Court."

HAMILTON, April 11.—About 1.45 this morning Constable English found Frank Fisher, a lad, sleeping in J. S. McMahon's barn, Emerald-street south, and arrested him on a charge of vagrancy. The lad admitted at the Police Court that his parents live in Toronto and that he ran away from home. His father is George E. Fisher, a bookkeeper, who lives at 76 Vanauley-street. He ran away because his father would not let him go to work, but wanted him to remain at school. The lad was remanded until Monday and his parents were notified.

The adjourned charge against Samuel Harris for obtaining a quantity of cigars from John B. Lovell by false pretense was to have come up at the Police Court this morning, but the parties did not turn up. Counsel for the private prosecution said he had no evidence to offer, as the prisoner had paid $120, the price of the cigars. The Magistrate said he didn't like to see debts collected in that way, and at the request of the Crown Attorney laid the case over until to-morrow.

There was another long discussion over the site for the Free Library at the meeting of the board last night, but no decision was reached. Mr. Witton reported verbally on behalf of the library committee that the members are engaged in preparing a list of about 14,000 books, which, it is expected, will be ready shortly.

Charles Watts, the well-known Toronto Secularist, lectured here last night on "The Jesuit Conspiracy." Mr. Watts brought against the Society of Jesus an indictment more scathing, sweeping and comprehensive in its character than any that has yet been made from the most ultra-Protestant pulpit.

P.C. Williams, formerly the fattest member of the Hamilton police force, is now on the police force in Dunedin, New Zealand.

Judge Muir held a special sitting of the criminal court this morning, at which George Steves was convicted of stealing three rifles from the Ancaster armory and sent to jail for three months. Henry Eydt was acquitted on the charge of larceny.

William Snapps, the old man who tried to commit suicide on Monday by cutting his throat, is gradually improving and will be around again before long.

Attica's Sleeper Again in a Trance.

LOCKPORT, N.Y., April 12.—The "Attica sleeper," on Bennington Hill, is again in one of her long trances. Mrs. Emma Althous went to sleep on March 27, and is now asleep. From March 23 to 27 she did not sleep at all. She has taken no nourishment since she went to sleep on the 27th. Her teeth are closed as tight as a vise, making it impossible to force the least particle of liquid or solids between them. Before falling into the present trance she predicted a long sleep, but she did not say how long. She is very weak. Physicians and relatives who have watched the previous trances, when the woman has slept for 35 days at a time, predict that she is fast reaching her end.

Suicide at Buffalo.

BUFFALO, April 12.—The mother of Chas. W. Knodel of Niagara-street went up to her son's room at 7 o'clock this morning and called for him to get up. He replied that he would in a few minutes. She went down stairs and a minute later heard the sharp report of a revolver. She ran back upstairs and on going into Charles' room was horrified to see blood coming out of a little hole in the young man's forehead. He had shot himself in the left temple and the ball came out of the right. Knodel died in half an hour. The cause of his rash act is not known.

Tortured and Robbed by Desperadoes.

BUTLER, Pa., April 9.—Lewis Patterson, a wealthy farmer living near Centreville, was robbed last night by three masked men. There was nobody in the house with him but his mother, aged 82. The men burst in the door. Patterson failed one with a poker. The others overpowered him, however, and dragging him barefooted to the barn threatened to hang him if he refused to tell where he kept his gold. They placed the rope around his neck, but as he persisted in saying he had no money they took him back to the house and burned his feet and face at the fire. They then searched the house, and after securing $42 and Patterson's gold watch departed, declaring that if he moved before half an hour he would be shot. There is no clue to the desperadoes.

The News in Belleville.

BELLEVILLE, April 11.—The body of A. S. Gilbert, a fisherman drowned in the gale of Jan. 9, was found last night on the bay shore at the cemetery.

Alex. Robertson of this city, agent for the ball-less oats concern, was charged before Wm. Anderson, J.P., at Rossmore with having by fraudulent means procured the signature of Harriet A. BALFOUR THE COMING MAN

ALL INDICATIONS POINT TO HIS SUCCESSION.

Rumored Wounding of the Czar in an Attempt on His Life—Earthquake in Epirus—General Cable News.

LONDON, April 11.—It is generally believed that last night's dinner to Hon. W. H. Smith, coming so closely on the announcement of Mr. Smith's intention to retire from the House and take the higher though less prominent seat that will be the reward of his active party service, was designed to mark the approaching step, and that Mr. Smith's resignation of the Tory leadership and acceptance of a peerage will very shortly follow. At present all indications point towards Mr. Balfour's succession to the leadership. Four-fifths of his party are in favor of the mantle of the illustrious news vendor falling upon the Irish Secretary. The coming session needs a strong, aggressive man at the head to lead the Tories, and Mr. Balfour's Irish record is cited as evidence (that he is the only man able to assume the leadership. The friends of Mr. Goschen, however, think that he is entitled to the honor, but the Balfourites hint at other honors for the Chancellor of the Exchequer.

The Sugar Convention Bill.

LONDON, April 11.—Baron Henry De Worms introduced the Sugar Convention Bill in the House of Commons this evening. In commenting on the injurious effects of bounties he warned the House that the system might be extended to other than raw materials, that America's enormous surplus might be devoted to bounties on manufacture and thus destroy the Lancashire industries. The second reading of the bill was fixed for May 2. Sir Lyon Playfair gave notice that he would move the rejection of the measure.

The Sage on Woman Suffrage.

LONDON, April 11.—Goldwin Smith writes to The Times on Woman Suffrage, saying the movement has made little headway in the United States in the last forty years, but admitting that the question would change position immediately if the parliamentary franchise was carried in England owing to the national habit of looking to England for political precedents. He adds that the chief obstacle to woman suffrage in America is the hostility of the party bosses.

The Hunt Tragedy.

LONDON, April 11.—The coroner's jury that inquired into the death of Goldsmith Hunt, the relative of Lady Scott, who killed his mistress and himself, has returned a verdict stating that Mr. Hunt was temporarily insane when he committed the deed. All save the technical evidence in the case was suppressed and not made public.

Violent Earthquakes in Epirus.

LONDON, April 11.—Violent earthquakes are reported to have occurred in Epirus. The extent of damage is unknown.

Bismarck Not Pleased With Bates.

LONDON, April 12.—The Berlin correspondent of The Daily News says that Germany has not protested officially against the appointment of Mr. Bates as one of the American commissioners to the Samoan conference, but that the Government would prefer to have someone else appointed in his place.

By Way of Bucharest.

BUCHAREST, April 11.—It is rumored here that an attempt was made upon the life of the Czar Sunday and that His Majesty was wounded by an exploding shell. The affair is said to have been hushed up by the Russian authorities.

Adjournment of the French Chamber.

PARIS, April 11.—The Chamber of Deputies has adjourned till May 14.

Drought in Egypt.

NEW YORK, April 11.—The Howard building, No. 778 Broadway, was badly damaged by fire this morning. The losses are as follows: Henry C. Squier, dealer in sporting goods, $50,000; W. Skidmore, shoe store, $5000; Vanderpool and McLanahan, owners of the building, $80,000.

Cheese Factory Burnt.

WINGHAM, Ont., April 11.—The new brick cheese factory at Bluevale was last night completely burned, nothing being saved. The loss is about $6000, insured $2000. The cause is supposed to be incendiarism and there are strong suspicions as to who are the guilty parties. There was no fire protection.

A Petrolia Loss.

PETROLIA, April 11.—Fire last night completely destroyed the derrick, engine house and machinery of the Baxter Wells, owned by J. L. Englehart & Co. Loss, $2000; insured.

A Blaze at Belleville.

BELLEVILLE, April 11.—The unfinished residence of C. F. Smith in Pine-street was burnt to the ground by an incendiary fire early this morning. Loss, $1000; insurance, $800.

A Peculiar Smoke.

MILWAUKEE, April 11.—A fire in Sanger & Rockwell's wood working establishment last night developed a dense and peculiar smoke to which two-thirds of the members of the fire department succumbed. Out of 150 men not over 30 would have been available had another fire occurred. Forty had to be sent home and five are in the hospital. All are expected to recover. Loss, $25,000.

A Hamilton Brute Sent for Trial.

HAMILTON, April 11.—The preliminary hearing of the charges against George Dawes was held before the Police Magistrate yesterday morning. The prisoner, a baker, about 23 years of age, and who came to this city from Belleville, was charged with having on March 4 last unlawfully assaulted an 8-year-old boy, John Halcrow, with the intention of committing an obnoxious and unnatural crime. Mr. A. D. Cameron defended him. He pleaded not guilty, and declined to elect as to whether he should be tried by the Magistrate or a jury. The evidence of Halcrow was very straight. He swore that Dawes attempted most horrible indecencies. The Magistrate decided to send the case for trial to a higher court. There were three other charges of a similar nature; the complainants being Peter Johnston, Thomas McMaster and John McHendrie, all boys under 12 years of age. They were investigated, and the prisoner was committed for trial.

Rheumatism and Neuralgia

These twin diseases cause untold suffering. Doctors admit that they are difficult to cure—no specific positive. Paine's Celery Compound has permanently cured the worst cases of rheumatism and neuralgia—so say those who have used it.

"Having been troubled with rheumatism for three years, I was almost unable to get around, and was very often confined to my bed for weeks at a time. I used only one bottle of Paine's Celery Compound, and was perfectly cured. I can now jump around, and feel as lively as a boy." FRANK CANELL, Dayton, Nevada.

After suffering with chronic rheumatism for several years, I was induced to try Paine's Celery Compound, and after using two bottles found myself greatly improved. In fact, after taking three bottles, have not felt any rheumatism. Can unhesitatingly recommend it. Yours very truly,

Mrs. P. COWAN, Cornwallis, P.Q.

Paine's Celery Compound

"I have been greatly afflicted with acute rheumatism, and found no relief until I used Paine's Celery Compound. After using six bottles of this medicine I am now cured of rheumatic troubles."

SAMUEL HUNTSMAN, Sr. Cornish, N. H.

Effects Lasting Cures.

Paine's Celery Compound has performed many other cures as marvelous as these—copies of letters sent to any address. Pleasant to take, does not disturb, but aids digestion, and entirely vegetable; a child can take it. What's the use of suffering longer with rheumatism or neuralgia?

THE ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION.

The organization of this important local Association is now complete for the season, 1889-90. A strong board of management and active committees have been appointed. It is fortunate for the welfare of the Association and the promotion of the interests of the wholesome sport its active and efficient existence involves, that Dr. Barnham has again accepted the presidency. He has occupied that position continuously since the inception of the Association, five years ago and to him belongs, in no small degree, the credit of its success. His influence, his energetic action and intelligent interest in its progress, apart from their own effect, have stimulated active co-operation on the part of the other officials and the membership, which is one chief cause of the flourishing past and present, and hopeful future of the Association.

The organization being completed, the membership roll is rapidly filling up, and it is urged that all those contemplating connection with the Association will come forward at once and call either upon the secretary, Mr. John Stirling, or the treasurer, Mr. Geo. A. Schofield, and subscribe their names. By so doing, promptly, they will both strengthen the hands of the management and make the Association more effective for its work. They will also share in the prosperous season which now opens before the Association. All the help possible is needed this season, because it is contemplated in the fall to establish a first class gymnasium in connection. And, if the support and assistance of those who should be interested is forthcoming, to make the season a success, financially and otherwise, there is no doubt of a gymnasium being established on a substantial and enduring basis. The Association, from its character, and from the wide and varied scope of its objects, is worthy of the hearty support of the public. Another and, in some respects, stronger claim on public sympathy and encouragement, is the superior moral element essential in it. It is entirely amateur, in the most rigid sense, and thus eliminates the objectionable immoral accompaniments to too many of the sports of the present day, which are having so pernicious and debasing an influence. The young will have sports of some kind, and the Association presents these in a form conducive to the production of all the physical benefits, unmixed with the possibility of practices which too often degrade both the sport and the participants. For these reasons, parents and all those interested in the promotion of health-giving sports, under the most wholesome auspices, will find in the Peterborough Amateur Athletic Association an organization deserving both substantial and moral encouragement.

The Grain of Salt.

A lady finding a beggar boy at her door gave him a meal of coffee, meat, and bread and butter, which he sat down in the area to eat. A moment afterward, however, he rapped beseechingly at the door again, and on its being opened remarked with his hand upon his heart, "If I had but a little salt I should be perfectly happy."

Human nature is always lacking something.

The great, ruddy farmer pines because he has not won fame or position. The famous man longs for the lusty health of the sturdy farmer.

The grain of salt is wanting.

How to secure and retain the savor of health in the midst of this rushing, nervous, over-worked generation is a problem worthy of our closest attention. It cannot be done with stimulants, which but spur on the over-worked nerves to fresh efforts, only to leave them more jaded and shattered. Nor with narcotics, which temporarily soothe, but to create an unnatural appetite.

It may be asked, what is the cause of this extreme nervousness, lack of appetite, lung trouble, deficient heart action, failing eyesight, apoplectical tendency, etc. We reply, poisoned blood, caused by diseased kidneys, and the troubles indicated are, after all, but symptoms of advanced Kidney Disease, which is but another name for Bright's Disease. Unless remedied there will be a complete breaking down of the great blood-purifying organs, the kidneys, and they will be exercised, piece-meal, through the urine.

Now, in the spring of the year, owing to the extra work which has been put upon the Kidneys and Liver, through a most diet during the winter months, these symptoms are more pronounced, and the danger to the patient correspondingly increased. It is therefore imperative that the poisoned blood be eradicated, and that the Kidneys be put in complete health, which can be speedily and effectually accomplished by the use of Warner's Safe Cure, a tried and proved specific in hundreds of thousands of cases.

An Inactive or Torpid Liver must be aroused and all bad bile removed. Burdock Pills are best for old or young. dw

UNITED STATES RAILWAYS.

[illegible] Miles Will be Completed [illegible] Miles of Road Since Jan. 1 and Miles Projected Since Jan.

Chicago, April 11.—The Railway Age presents tables showing that 939 new railroad lines with an aggregate mileage of 53,426 miles have been projected in this country since Jan. 1 last; that on these lines 14,515 miles are under construction or contract, 9917 are surveyed and 29,001 are incorporated or projected. The Age says:

"The fact that in the first three months of the year only new lines representing over 53,000 miles have been brought to public notice and that their construction is urged and to a large extent is probable, is impressive evidence of the enormous field for railway enterprises which the United States still affords. The mileage proposed in these three months is equivalent to almost one-third of the entire railway mileage of the country now in operation, and yet the projection and inauguration of other lines is still going on at an equally rapid rate, and the prospect is that the roads projected and in various stages of development during 1889 will exceed in aggregate mileage our entire present completed system. How many of these enterprises will fail entirely or will drag along through years, of course cannot be foretold. But the great fact remains for consideration that the map of our country shows apparent room for all these enterprises and for many more."

Central American Federationists.

Washington, April 11.—The five Central American Republics, Costa Rica, Guatemala, Nicaragua, Salvador and Honduras, in February agreed upon a treaty which provides that if any difficulty shall arise between any of them it shall be settled without war, by the arbitration of any one of the following nations: United States, Argentine Republic, Chili, Mexico, Switzerland or any of the great European powers; that none of the five Republics shall form alliances with outside nations without the consent of all, and that delegates from the five Republics shall meet annually to consider matters of mutual interest. It is the hope of the ablest men in these Republics that this will help to bring about a federal union of these States.

He Was a Walpole Man.

Port Huron, April 11.—The body of the man found dead in bed in the Lindsay House, Smith's Creek, about two weeks ago, has been identified by J. Prentiss, of Worth township, as that of his father, Solomon Prentiss of Walpole, Ont. He says his father left Sanilac county the day before his death with $600 in his pocket. When the body was found there were but $172 on it. Where the rest of the money is gone is a mystery. The mother is in Buffalo. The son knew his father had some trouble at home, but he did not know what it was.

Many of the recognized authorities in civil as well as military circles say, "The malarial disease is most dangerous in that the kidneys are most liable to break down." Such men as Daccata, Atkinson and Pepper, professors in our leading medical schools, and Soldation, Surgeon Gen. in the Russian army, Woodward, Surg. Gen. in our American army, speak of malaria as a direct complication of chronic Bright's disease. The kidneys must be kept free from disease and the poisonous germs of malaria; they must act normally in cleansing the blood, for 65 gallons of it passes through them every hour. People in malarial localities recover from both the cause and effect of malaria by using Warner's Safe Cure. Every person, in the spring or fall, who has either kidney disease or malaria, should use Warner's Safe Cure as a precautionary measure.

The Loss of the Hair

Is a great misfortune and the sight of a bald head should be a warning to you to take the best possible care of your hair. A little of Dr. Dorenwend's "Hair Magic" used occasionally will prevent all chances of its falling out or turning gray, and will remove all traces of dandruff. Every druggist has it in stock. The Safe Plan.

When suffering from a troublesome cold, a hacking cough, hoarseness, asthma, bronchitis, or other forms of throat or lung troubles, is to use Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam to loosen the phlegm and soothe and heal the inflamed mucous surfaces. It cures where others fail. 2w14d

Father had Quinsy.

"We find Burdock Blood Bitters excellent for weakness, and equally so for headache. Father also suffered severely from quinsy, which B.B.B., by its tonic and purifying properties, completely cured." 2w14d

The Blood is the Life.

And on its purity largely depends the general health. No one is free from danger, and nine-tenths of humanity actually do suffer from one form or other of impure blood. No one remedy has such a wide range of curative power as has Burdock Blood Bitters—that best of all blood purifiers and tonics.

A Cure for Lumbago.

That painful complaint can be quickly cured by the right remedy. Miss Mary Jane Could, of Stoney Creek, Ont., says: "I was troubled with lumbago, and could not get relief until I used Hagyard's Yellow Oil, one bottle of which cured me entirely." 2w14d

Dyspepsia, that great source of misery to so many people, can be effectually cured by the use of Dyer's Quinine and Iron Wine—it is carefully prepared, easily assimilated, and can be taken by the weakest invalids. 6d82

He Takes a Rational View of Stanley's Work—The Aristocrats Again.

LONDON, April 11.—It is impossible not to admire Stanley's pluck and endurance, but I venture to question the use of marches like his into the interior of Africa. The plan was that Emin wished to be relieved. He does not want to be relieved. He is only desirous to be left alone. What benefit is it then to the cause of civilization that a white man should hire a vast number of carriers and undertake an expedition in which half of them die of fatigue and some are hanged for wishing to desert in order to force his way through tribes by burning their villages and shooting them? The net result seems to be that it has been discovered that one lake is not so deep as it was 100 years ago, that another lake lies to the south of the first, that there is a very dense forest, mainly inhabited by dwarfs, on the road to these lakes, and that somewhere in the vicinity of this forest there is a high mountain hitherto unknown, the top of which is covered with snow. All this is, no doubt, interesting. But is it worth impressing carriers who die of fatigue or are hanged, and is it worth shooting dwarfs and destroying villages?

I should like to hear the carrier or the dwarf on the question.

Prince Alexander of Battenberg having furnished a satisfactory explanation to the Emperor of Austria on the subject of his marriage, which is a perfectly legal one, he has received permission to take up his residence at Gratz, and in the course of a few months will receive a high command in the Austrian army.

The Duchess of Cambridge was the last survivor of the George IV. generation of the royal family, and she was decidedly the most estimable and most talented of them. She will be much lamented by the Queen, who will feel that she has lost one of the few remaining persons who had been about her all her life who really cared for her, and upon whose affection and sympathy she could always rely.

The accouchement of Princess Beatrice will take place at Windsor, the event being anticipated in about three weeks.

A reliable correspondent at St. Petersburg informs me that the betrothal of the Carewitch to Princess Anastasia of Montenegro, the third daughter of Prince Nicholas, will be announced at Easter, and my friend adds that the marriage will be very popular in Russia.

The marriage of the Duke of Portland to Miss Dallas Yorke will take place in town the week after Ascot.

The Rose Fenwick is a collapsible or crush bonnet. It was invented by Miss Rose Fenwick, the daughter of an admiral, and is being now taken up by the Paris milliners. Play-goers who frequent the pit will have reason to bless the inventor if it proves to be the coming bonnet. It shuts up like a crush hat and when in its collapsed state looks like a fan or fan shaped reticule. It can be made to serve as such hooked on to a girdle. When open it is like any other bonnet of the Fanchon form, but prettier. One of its virtues is that it does not require a big hand box. Indeed, one might thrust it into a glove box. For matinee dances it would be ideal.

HENRY LABOUCHERE.

Glad to Take Loose Silver or Nothing.

PHILADELPHIA, April 12.—A prominent citizen of Salem said to-day: "The refusal of the City National Bank of Salem to accept certain terms of exchange offered by the Woodstown National Bank has involved these institutions in a war which has assumed a comical aspect. As the Salem bank receives on deposit daily a large number of the Woodstown Bank checks, a messenger is dispatched to the latter place twice a week, to receive the money for the same. In order to punish the Salem people Cashier Fitterath, of the Woodstown Bank imported from Philadelphia thousands of dollars in silver coin, counted out in bags, to meet these checks. Messenger Powell, whom the Salem Bank sent down last week, protested against being paid with silver. Yesterday, when Powell appeared with $4800 in checks Fitterath wheeled out the money in a wheelbarrow to the middle of the bank and dumped it loose on the floor, compelling Powell to count out the entire amount. When bags were asked for in which to carry the money to Salem, Cashier Fitterath politely responded that "banks were not in the habit of furnishing their patrons with purses." The war continues and is the topic of conversation of the citizens of the two counties."

A Village Wiped Out by Flames.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., April 12.—The village of Cassenburg, 10 miles northeast of this city was almost swept out of existence by fire yesterday. The fire started in John Thomas' Hotel. Men, women and children carried water or did what they could to remove property from the reach of the flames. Feather beds, blankets and carpets soaked with water were hung from the eaves and on the roofs of threatened houses and by heroic efforts the fire was finally subdued. Thomas' Hotel was entirely destroyed, loss $8000, the grocery store, owned by George Hartwell, was burned, loss $6000; general store of drugs, groceries, etc., owned by Dr. J. C. Bonbow was destroyed and his barn and dwelling also burned, loss $3000. Many other buildings including a grist mill and Joyce's Hotel were slightly damaged. Most of the destroyed property was partially insured.

Murdered at a Beer Party.

WEST BRANCH, Mich., April 12.—At an evening beer party at the residence of Stephen Weigers in Edwardo Township Frank Bahlman was struck on the head with a heavy stick of stovewood by Steve Karten. Bahlman died about four hours afterwards. Steve Karten and his brother Peter, who was also fighting with Bahlman, have been arrested, and Coroner Cochrane is holding an inquest. Great excitement prevails over the matter.

Killed in a Fight.

BUFFALO, April 12.—Daniel O'Connell, 30 years of age, boarding on Carroll-street, got into a fight Wednesday night at the corner of Seventh and Massachusetts streets. He was terribly bruised up and when the fight was over O'Connell was found lying on the sidewalk in an unconscious condition. He was taken to the Emergency Hospital, thence being removed yesterday morning to the Sisters' Hospital, where he died at 12.30 yesterday afternoon.

About Doctors' Bills.

Many a struggling family has all it can do to keep the wolf from the door, without being called upon to pay frequent and exorbitant bills for medical advice and attendance.

True, the doctor is often a necessary, though expensive visitant of the family circle; nevertheless pure and well tested remedies—like Warner's Safe Cure—kept on hand for use when required will be found a paying investment for every household in the land.

Sickness is one of the legacies of life, and yet every ill that flesh is heir to has an antidote in the laboratory of nature. Hon. H. H. Warner, of Rochester N. Y., President of the Chamber of Commerce of that city, was a few years ago stricken with kidney disease, which the physicians declared incurable. In this extremity, a friend recommended to him a vegetable preparation now known throughout the civilized world as Warner's Safe Cure. He tried it, and was quickly restored to perfect health. The incident led him to begin the manufacture of the wonderful preparation, and to make its merits known in all tongues and among all peoples.

He has now laboratories and warehouses in the United States not only, but in Canada, England, Germany, Austria, Australia, and Burmah. His preparations meet the requirements and effect the cure of a variety of diseases, and are all compounded from medicinal plants of the highest virtue.

Mr. Warner is a man of affairs, of wealth, culture and the highest standing in his own city and throughout the State. His character is the best guarantee of the purity and excellence of his renowned Remedies, which may be found in every first class drug store of Europe and America.

Explanation.

The EXAMINER'S correspondent at Lindsay in sending the report of the trouble of Rev. Mr. Dean, his church was incorrectly given as the Presbyterian. It appears that that is not the case. It is understood that at one time he was lay reader and curate to Rev. Mr. Logan, Fenelon Falls.

St. Paul's Church.

A thanksgiving service will be held in the school room of St. Paul's Presbyterian church this evening at 8 o'clock. The members and adherents and any desiring to unite with the church are cordially invited to be present. Steps will be taken to organise a Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor.

P. A. A. A.

Mr. H. A. Hammond, now in Sussex, England, in his interest in the prosperity of the P. A. A. A., gives an example that many local citizens might well imitate. This morning a letter was received from him kindly inquiring after the welfare of the Association and wishing it every success. As an earnest of his sympathy he enclosed the sum of $5, the full membership fee for this year.

Mr. Dumble has laid out two new streets in block N. The corporation will grade and gravel them, Mr. Dumble furnishing the gravel. Mr. Dawson is about erecting a fine brick house, two veneered houses are now being finished and a number of other new ones will go up this summer. The land is beautifully situated, and, being so near the heart of the town, is a very attractive location. The entire block will probably be taken up this summer, as the lots at their low price are in great demand. 2d86

Touching Teas.

Twenty-five years ago people paid $1 per pound for a good tea. The tea was not actually worth it, but the cost of carriage, handling and selling fixed the price. Now see the change 25 years has wrought. Hawley Bros. will sell you as good a tea as formerly cost $1 per pound for 40c., single pounds. Take 5 lbs. and you get it for 30c. per lb. Take 10 lbs. and pay 27½c. per lb. Hawley Bros., No. 370 George st., divide profits with customers and give satisfaction every time. Almost a Fire.

Last night about half past nine a fire occurred in the residence of Mr. Alfred Cooney, corner of Reid street and the communication road, which was fortunately extinguished before much damage had been done. The fire originated in a bedroom, it is supposed from a defective stovepipe, and just as Mrs. Cooney observed it and gave the alarm, Mr. Cooney was returning home. He and some neighbors organized a bucket brigade and speedily put out the fire. The contents of the bedroom were all destroyed and the building, owned by Mr. A. E. DIXON, was damaged to the extent of $75. Both losses were covered by insurance. The fire alarm was sounded and the brigade turned out but their services were not required.

Peterborough Board of Trade.

Organization Effected—Officers and Council Elected.

A meeting to organize a board of trade for Peterborough by the election of officers, called for Thursday evening, was only fairly well attended.

Mr. LECH was made chairman, and, on taking the chair, said he regretted to see so small an attendance; it was painful to him to recall the former board, with a membership of some seventy or eighty, which soon dwindled to nothing. He hoped that was not a forecast of the outcome of the present effort. A progressive town like Peterborough should have a board of trade, which it could do if there were unity of effort. He adverted to the fear of the Labour Unions that the formation of a board of trade was a menace to the privileges of the unions. He combatted this idea, and stated that the interests of employers and employed were so interwoven that a board of trade would tend to the promotion of both. He pointed out the folly of strikes and demonstrated that, as there was competition in trade, there would necessarily be competition in labour.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

The meeting then proceeded to the business of electing officers.

Mr. H. S. McDonald moved, seconded by Mr. Belleghem,—That Mr. W. Manson be president.

Mr. Manson declined the honour of the nomination, preferring that some gentleman more actively concerned in trade should be selected. On his decidedly declining the nomination,

On motion of Mr. Kelly, seconded by Mr. Fair, Mr. Geo. Hilliard was elected president.

On motion of Mr. Manson, seconded by Mr. Meldrum, Mr. Robt. Innes was elected vice-president.

On motion of Mr. Cahill, seconded by Mr. Fair, Mr. J. Hampden Burnham was elected secretary.

Mr. INNES, vice-president, in taking the chair, thanked the meeting for the honor of election to the position of vice-president, and hoped it would have no reason to regret the choice. He would be gratified if the meeting would elect a strong council.

The council was elected representing the several commercial interests as follows:—

Mr. Macf. Wilson,	Mr. D. Belleghem,
Mr. J. Pollie,	Mr. T. Kelly,
Mr. H. S. McDonald,	Mr. W. Paterson,
Mr. T. Cahill,	Mr. W. Lech,
Mr. W. E. Matthews,	Mr. W. H. Meldrum,
Mr. W. E. Manson,	Mr. T. G. Hazlitt.
Mr. Robt. Fair,	Mr. Wm. Sherwood,
Mr. F. H. Dobbin,	Mr. W. J. Minore.

On motion of Mr. Kelly, seconded by Mr. Meldrum, a meeting of the council to consider and adopt by-laws was appointed for Monday evening next.

Continuing the Revival.

Special Services to be Held this Week and Next.

The revival begun by Messrs. Crossley and Hunter is to be continued by the various ministers of the town who took an interest in them. At last night's meeting the following announcements of special services were made by the pastors of the respective churches:—

BAPTIST CHURCH—This evening at 7:45, thanksgiving service at those converted or those seeking to be, are specially invited. On Sunday there will be a prayer service at 10 o'clock.

MARK STREET METHODIST CHURCH, ASHBURNHAM—Service at eight to-night. Sunday, at 11 a.m., special reception service. Meetings every evening next week except Saturday.

ST. PAUL'S—Thanksgiving service in school room to-night, especially for those recently converted. A Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor is to be organized. Three meetings next week, Monday, Wednesday and Thursday nights. Rev. Mr. Mitchell, of Port Hope, will be present to-night.

GEORGE STREET CHURCH.—This evening in the lecture room, song and thanksgiving service, at a quarter to eight, for reception of new members. Rev. Mr. Dewey, of Lindsay, will be present, and will also assist in the services next week. Sunday—prayer meeting at 6 a.m.; at the regular services the pastor will speak with special reference to the day (Palm Sunday). Reception service Sunday morning and evening, also Easter Sunday morning. Next week the subject to be discussed will be the events of the last week of Jesus' life.

LATER.—Mr. Pearson received word, just as we were about going to press that Mr. Dewey through illness would be unable to be present at the meeting to-night. Rev. Mr. Pearson will, however, conduct the meeting and all are invited to attend.

CHARLOTTE STREET CHURCH.—At 9:30 on Sunday a fellowship meeting, and at close of regular service a reception service for new members. Monday and Tuesday evenings meetings will be held in the lecture room of the church, Monday evening specially for young people. Meetings may be held all the other evenings of the week as well.

In the Y. M. C. A. hall meetings will be held Saturday and Sunday night by Mr. Colvin; Sunday nights will be a gospel song service.

The Scott Act Vote.

The Majority Against the Act About 350—Returns not yet Complete.

This forenoon an official examination of the returns in the Scott Act vote took place before Mr. Chas. Stapleton, Returning Officer, Dr. Fife and Mr. Geo. Hilliard represented one party, and Messrs. Jas Stewart and E. A. Peck the other. It was found that returns from fifteen polling places, some of them in town, were not properly made out and could not, therefore, be officially accepted, though the figures given are doubtless correct. The total majority against the Act will not exceed 350, but the exact figures will not be known till Thursday next, to which date the final declaration has been postponed to allow the deputy-returning officers who made incomplete returns to furnish correct ones.

Personal.

The EXAMINER is pleased to be able to state that Mr. T. G. Hazlitt, who has been suffering from illness, is much improved in health and able to be about the house.

Mr. M. S. Dean, of Bridgenorth, has just sold two business lots in the city of Beatrice, Neb., for the sum of $12000, cash. The sale was effected through the Real Estate agency of W. D. Nicholls of that place.

The numerous friends of Mrs. John McKee, who has for some weeks been undergoing medical treatment in a private ward of the Toronto General Hospital, will be much pleased to learn that her condition is rapidly improving and that she will be able to return home in about ten days or a fortnight.

Mrs. Albert Lech, and Mrs. Innes, returned home last evening, having attended the annual meeting of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society, of the Presbyterian church. Miss Roper and Mrs. T. M. Fairbairn return this evening.

Mr. A. H. Gilbert, of Toronto, has accepted the position of Superintendent of Agencies for the Manufacturers' Life Insurance Company. The company is to be congratulated on securing the services of men of Mr. Gilbert's ability, and the policy of only employing the best men will tend to add to the popularity of the Manufacturers'.

A FINAL, FOND FAREWELL

Evangelists Crossley and Hunter Away to Woodstock.

The Last Meeting in Peterborough—The Revival to be Continued—Over 1,060 Persons Converted During the Past Six Weeks—A Plea for the Newspaper Reporters—The Ministers Speak of the Meetings—A Substantial Thank-Offering—The Final Good-Bye This Morning.

Messrs. Crossley and Hunter have bidden adieu to Peterborough, but though gone they are not forgotten. The memory of these earnest and godly men and their well directed efforts for the salvation of the sinful, will long remain fresh in the minds of the people of this town, hundreds of whom have cause for rejoicing that the evangelists came to Peterborough. They left on the seven o'clock train this morning for Woodstock, and were said farewell to at the station by a large number of Christian people whose hearts and best wishes will follow them in their new field of labor. The departing evangelists shook hands with all those on the platform, wishing each one God speed, and in return received warm words of encouragement and gratitude. As the train moved out of the the station the gathering sang "The Sweet Bye and Bye," and with the dying strains of this beautiful song in their ears, the evangelists left Peterborough—it may be for years, it may be for ever.

At the final meeting last night the audience was of surpassing dimensions, and the church held all that it possibly could. The men occupied the auditorium and the ladies the gallery.

After opening prayer by Rev. Mr. Parker, the choir sang the "Sweet Rest at Home" to the pathetic air of "Swanee River." Rev Mr. Shorey followed with prayer, and Mr. Crossley sang by request "Calvary." The special thank offering was then taken up, and the audience manifested its appreciation of Messrs. Crossley and Hunter's services by donating the handsome sum of $220. This amount goes directly to the evangelists.

CARRYING ON THE WORK.

The clergymen next made the announcements of special services in continuation of these revival meetings, which are published elsewhere. Mr. Hunter urged the people to attend the services in their own churches. The Roman Catholic had their services, the Episcopalians were holding special revival meetings, and the Salvation Army too, all were doing good as well as the Presbyterian, Baptist and Methodist churches. With all these forces at work Peterborough ought to be a good town.

Mr. Hunter explained that he and Mr. Crossley had not been able to do much visiting, in fact they never visited except special places like the Barnardo Home, Protestant Home and gaol; so that the people who had so kindly invited them to their houses would one and all have to excuse them.

JACOB'S LADDER.

The preliminaries thus over, Mr. Hunter delivered a short address on Jacob's Dream, as outlined in the 28th chapter of Genesis, beginning at the 10th verse. There was but one passage from earth to heaven, the ladder of Jacob's dream, which was Christ. We could not make ladders for ourselves, though some were trying to reach heaven by the ladder of morality, some by church formality. But all these ladders were too short; none but the ladder of Christ was able to reach heaven. Then look at this ladder's strength; Ingersoll, Tom Payne and others have been hacking at its foundation for hundreds of years, but it stands the more firmly. This was a very broad ladder on which all Christian denominations could go up together. If anyone did not know the way to this ladder their ministers would direct them. It must be ascended from the bottom rung first, and while on the way up Mr. Hunter urged the people not to quarrel or fall asleep, but to grasp it firmly with both hands. Some are trying to go up the ladder with one hand, the other clutching a money-bag; others are carrying a whiskey jug under their arm. But he would say to them that if they preferred these things to heaven, the one hand would soon tire out and they would fall. Mr. Hunter spoke confidently of the near approach of total prohibition for the country, and said he believed the year 1900 would see the accursed liquor traffic driven from the land. Then he wanted those ascending this ladder not to come down again in the hope of bringing others along—like the lady who descended to the card table in order to reform her husband, but who fell from the ladder herself and her husband was ruined forever. A Christian can't say there is no harm in the dance, the theatre and card playing. No, he said, don't look down but upward and help others on their course up the ladder to heaven. Mr. Hunter stated that the secretary had the names of 1,028 persons who at these meetings have decided to begin to climb this ladder. Take a firm grip of the ladder, be said, that you may scale it and step off into the better land.

PRAYING FOR A CHURCH.

Mr. Crossley here sang "The Better Land," after which the requests for prayer were read, among them one that the ministers of a church in town might be baptised with the holy spirit.

Mr. Hunter then called upon the ministers present to say a few words. He said that they had done a great work in the town, sowing the good seed, and the harvest being ripe they required some extra harvest hands, so he and Mr. Crossley had come along to help gather in the sheaves. He said the ministers of the town had stood by them nobly, and but for their support and sympathy these meetings must have been a failure. He then asked the Presbyterian minister to say a few words, calling upon Rev. Mr. Parker.

THE PRESBYTERIAN.

Mr. Parker at first shook his head and signalled that it was a mistake; but, seeing that it was intended as a joke, got up and, amidst laughter, said that though he was not a Presbyterian he was next thing to it, as he had a Presbyterian wife, and he knew many good features in the Presbyterian Church. Referring to the meetings, he said he had enjoyed them very much, and no one had cause for more thankfulness than himself, for he had been greatly helped in his church work. At these meetings three Roman Catholics belonging to families in his church had been converted to God, and for that alone there was good cause for rejoicing. But a grand work had been done, and he himself had been drawn nearer to God, to his brethren of the cloth and to the people who were living a Christian life. These revival services were not over, but only just begun, and he hoped another 1000 names would be added to the roll of converts before they ended. He spoke particularly to young men, in whom he took a deep interest, urging them not to aimlessly fritter away their lives and have in their old age to look back upon a record of misdeeds, neglected opportunities and shirked responsibilities; but to seek God at once and enter upon a new life.

THE ROMAN CATHOLIC.

Mr. Hunter said he was glad to hear Mr. Parker's reference to the Roman Catholics; and though the priest had not been heard very often at these meetings, they would all be glad to hear him now. He called upon Rev. Mr. Wilson.

As soon as the murmur of amusement had subsided, Mr. Wilson began a brief address, reviewing the work of the past six weeks. He said that he had been greatly impressed, and filled not by brothers Crossley and Hunter, but filled with Christ. Mr. Crossley's beautiful descriptions of the way and plan of salvation had touched him, and he realized from the first that God was in this movement. He earnestly warned the unsaved of their terrible position and urged them to no longer delay their coming to Christ.

THE METHODIST.

Mr. Hunter introduced Rev. Mr. Torrance as a Methodist, saying that he liked to meet Methodists who shout, and no doubt all the people would be pleased to hear one. This created a subdued sort of merriment, of course, and Mr. Torrance, as soon as order was restored, said he had rather expected to be introduced as an Episcopalian, for he had many friends in that church and he knew it did a good work. He felt thankful to the Methodist church in connection with these meetings, and rejoiced in the union work which had brought all the ministers closer together. He esteemed it a great privilege to be engaged in this work, because he believed the spirit of God was in it, for nothing else could have attracted such immense crowds for six weeks and caused such a remarkable religious revival. Mr. Crossley's singing and Mr. Hunter's sparkling sayings could not have done it; nothing but the Holy Spirit could accomplish these wonders. Some people outside of the work, Mr. Torrance said, looked with suspicion on revival meetings, and if anything is done or said to offend them they are down on the services at once. He claimed that this was most unfair, and that only those in the work were competent to form an opinion or criticise on the subject; just as it would be unfair to condemn Shakespeare's works because of a few objectionable lines. Looking at the great number that had been converted, he considered it an honor and privilege to labor with men who so evidently had the Holy Spirit with them.

A BISHOP SPEAKS.

Mr. Hunter was sorry they had not had any Episcopalian clergymen at these meetings, but he supposed their own revival services had kept them busy. He was, however, pleased to see their people at these meetings, and called upon the Bishop to address the congregation.

Rev. Mr. Pearson being singled out, rose and said he couldn't imagine that he looked at all like an ecclesiastic of that kind; nevertheless he had a great respect for the Episcopalian church, of which he believed the Methodist church was the offspring. He referred to the great work that had been accomplished in the past six weeks, and spoke in complimentary terms of the evangelists, who by God's blessing had been enabled to lead so many souls to Christ—of Mr. Crossley's plain and scriptural way of putting the truth and Mr. Hunter's tact. He rejoiced in the marvellous success of these union services and thanked God for what had been done for his own church in particular. He loved his people and had never lived among a more devoted flock nor had he ever been treated more kindly. He hoped for the outpouring of God's spirit on the congregation. Mr. Pearson pointed out the large number of poor people who had been converted at the meetings and said his ambition was to bring the gospel to the poor and let them feel that they are at least welcome in the churches of our town.

THE BAPTIST.

Mr. Hunter introduced the last speaker, Rev. Mr. Shorey, as the Baptist minister.

Mr. Shorey said he had never been able to make much of an acquaintance with his Baptist brethren before he came to Peterborough, but if they were all like the Baptists of this town his was the loss in not knowing them before. He said he occupied a somewhat different position from the other ministers, for he had known Messrs. Crossley and Hunter previously, and last year in Toronto had extracted a faithful promise from them that they would visit Peterborough this year; so he could flatter himself that he had had a little to do with bringing them here. Mr. Shorey said he was no enthusiast, but he would say that if ten times worse things were said of the evangelists than have been spoken, in view of the wonderful results of their labors all little carpings should be set at rest. One thing he had observed in connection with these meetings, and that was the number of answers to prayer. He had himself singled out many of his congregation as subjects for earnest prayer, and he was thankful to say that many of them had been led to Christ. And of those converted at these services, 130 were names of persons in his own church. He praised God for all that had been done, and said he could best discharge his obligation to the Lord by being the more earnest and zealous in church work.

THE RESULTS NOT EPHEMERAL.

Mr. Hunter, referring to the aspersions cast upon revivals and their alleged instability, said that Rev. Mr. Mitchell, who was on the platform, could tell of the enduring results in Port Hope, where of the 66 members who joined his church a year ago, after the revival services there, only one was missing. So, Mr. Hunter said, if we ever return to Peterborough we expect to see hundreds of people rise up and testify that they were saved at these services. He said it was their custom always to ask the people of places they were leaving to promise to pray for them, and so he asked those of the audience who would think of them and pray for their success in Woodstock, and then in Exeter, Hamilton, Brantford, Kingston and Montreal, where they were going, to rise up. The audience rose en masse, and Rev. Mr. Mitchell offered up fervent prayer for the continuance of God's blessing on their labors.

MR. CROSSLEY'S LAST WORDS.

Mr. Crossley on rising said they never expected to hold meetings again in Peterborough. Life is short and the world large; new places were pressing them, and they were receiving invitations enough to keep them five years. But they might occasionally stop a day or so in Peterborough. As the people here had promised to remember them, so, Mr. Crossley said, he and Mr. Hunter would always keep the Peterborough folks in their hearts. He had been delighted with these services, and particularly with the choir, whose members had kindly united for the grand work. He also complimented Messrs. Dingle and Parker for their faithful performances at the organ.

SOME SOUND ADVICE.

Mr. Crossley said he would preach no sermon, but merely stir up their minds a little, hoping it might produce fire in their hearts and purpose in their lives. He pointed out the passage, II Peter, iii, 1:—"I stir up your minds by way of remembrance." He wished to speak first to those who were seeking to be converted, and held out hope for them, for he had himself been brought to Christ at the last service of a camp-meeting. To the careless he would say, if these meetings, which had been so powerful for good, had not aroused them, what would? He urged them to accept this last opportunity and become children of God. On the halting ones he urged consistency—either be a Christian or an out-and-out infidel; either deny God or accept Him at once. The older Christians he advised to retain the spirit they now have; to pray for and sympathize with the new converts; encourage them and if any make a slip, pick them up and start them on the right road again. To new converts he said, be happy Christians; don't put on a long face, but let your light shine among men. Be persevering Christians and don't retreat; be working Christians. He referred to the "Idlers and Strangers" of the George street church, a name which he disliked, but he could say they were better than their name. He lauded their object in trying to have a tower placed on the church, and asked the people to aid them. Then he wanted the converts to be Christians at home; to be church Christians and not ecclesiastical "tramps" by deciding to live outside the church. Then let each church think itself better than the others, and he wanted the four Protestant churches in this town to vie with each other as to which shall do the most for Christ. He wanted the converts to join the church to which they could best apply these three rules, where they could be most at home, where they could receive the most good, and where they could do the most good. Then be covenant Christians, he said, and consecrate yourselves to God for time and eternity. One should shudder at the thought of backsliding, a sin that was actually spiritual adultery. In conclusion he spoke to the newly converted and the older Christians alike, urging them to continue on their way to heaven, saying:—

"Here's my heart and here's my hand,
To meet you in the heavenly land."

The choir then sang that beautiful melody, "Oh, I am Listening."

MR. HUNTER'S THANKS.

Mr. Hunter said the time was drawing to a close, and they would like to see all who were desirous of a change of heart down in the enquiry room. He and Mr. Crossley felt their hearts touched by the work here, and they had themselves been blessed by it. He was himself a millionaire twice told, and his riches were enshrined in the hearts of those who had been dear ones once brought to the feet of Jesus in these services. He was delighted with the stand taken by the newspapers and thanked them for their courtesies. He also put in a plea for the conversion of the reporters. He also thanked the ushers for their attendance at the services, and Mrs. Wilson, their kind landlady, the ladies for their flowers and all others for the many little tokens of kindness received at their hands. For himself, he would just say he was a peculiar get up of a man and had peculiar ways; but all he said was spoken kindly and he did not wilfully offend anyone.

ADVICE FOR CHRISTIANS.

He gave church people some advice, urging them to greater work for the Master and to look after the new converts. Now that they were through and no one could say honestly that they had been working here for money, Mr. Hunter said he felt he could urge upon new converts a systematic giving to the Lord. He and Mr. Crossley each gave $20 of every $160 they got to God's cause, and though they did not preach 20 per cent., yet he would say that any man who gave less than one-tenth to the church was robbing God. Further, he wanted all Christian parents to pray and have blessing at the table; erect a family altar, read the Bible and kneel down and pray.

THE LAST HAND SHAKE.

Then, turning to the ministers on the platform, he shook them by the hand individually, saying to each a few words expressive of his love for them and wishing them every blessing in the future. He said that in shaking hands with the ministers he felt he was saying farewell to the people also, and wanted them to consider it as such, for neither he nor Mr. Crossley could say good-bye to them all, personally. His last words were some lines of poetry, beginning, "Farewell, faithful friends, we must now bid adieu," etc. The last stanza was:

Farewell, every hearer, we now turn away,
No more perhaps to meet till the great judgment day;
Though absent in body we are with you in prayer,
And will meet you in heaven—there is no parting there.

He finally asked all who, as Mr. Crossley and himself clasped hands, saved and unsaved, would say "by the grace of God I'll try to meet you in heaven," to rise up. The entire audience arose, and after invoking God's blessing Mr. Hunter dismissed the audience, as the choir sang "Shall we Gather at the River." Quite a number went below into the enquiry room as seekers after Christ.

NOTES.

Mr. Wm. Johnston, of Belleville, one of the most earnest workers, attended the farewell meeting.

If there are not a lot of debts squared up as a result of these meetings it will not be the fault of the evangelists, who have talked pretty plainly on this question. Last night Mr. Hunter said that the first thing a man does when soundly converted is to pay up his old debts.

Mr. Crossley was guilty of a pun last night. Speaking of the harmony that exists in the quartette of churches, Anglican, Presbyterian, Baptist and Methodist, the alto, soprano, tenor and bass, he mentioned the liquid notes of the Baptist contralto as a prominent factor in the harmony. Many in the audience saw the point and indulged in a smile.

The series of services has, apart from spiritual profit derived, been a source of benefit to the choirs of all the churches which co-operated in the services. The choirmasters of the several choirs say that the esprit de corps has been revived, and there is now found no difficulty in getting a choir together and securing harmony of personal and musical relationship. The members of the choirs have become acquainted and an altogether better spirit has been developed.

Altogether there have been about 1,060 converts as the result of the evangelistic meetings.

Condolence.

At a meeting of Court Peterborough, Canadian Order of Foresters, after the return from the funeral of the late Bro. James Duncan, which the brethren attended in a body, a resolution of condolence with the widow and family of deceased, moved by Bro. Nugent, seconded by Bro. John Alexander, was unanimously adopted.
